MEDICAL WORK.—Johanniter Hospital.—The medical Professors of the Syrian Protestant College have been for thirty-six years the sole medical attendants of this institution. The hospital is situated on the bluff overlooking the Bay of St. George, in a terraced park of about four acres. The main building is a stately edifice with a central block, two pavilion wings and a rear pavilion connected by a covered glazed corridor. The central block contains the administration department, the operating room, the pathological laboratory, the kitchen and various apartments, and on its best ventilated faces a number of wards, most of them looking out on the sea and Mt. Lebanon. The lower story of the rear pavilion is the chapel erected by American friends of the noble Johanniter Order and of the Deaconesses of Kaiserswerth. The upper story is the surgical ward for men, and is a model of its kind, having windows on all four sides and the most perfect system of lighting and ventilation. Another building furnishes accommodations for a large polyclinic, another is isolated for contagious diseases, and still others for laundry, dead-house, gate-house, etc.

The institution is owned and supported by the Johanniter Order, composed of the flower of the Protestant nobility of Germany, with the son of the Emperor at its head. The nursing and administrative staff is furnished by the Deaconesses of Kaiserswerth. The edifying spectacle of the co-operation of two such institutions as the Johanniter Hospital and the Syrian Protestant College is a striking testimony to Œcumenical Christianity, resting upon the unity of the spirit and the bond of peace.

BEIRUT STATION.

Miss Tolles returned from her furlough in the United States early in September.

Sickness has entered the home of three of the Mission families, but God has graciously healed and spared valuable lives. The senior member of our Station and Mission, Dr.

H. H. Jessup, was confined to his bed for some twenty days. He is now slowly improving, but was not able to attend the annual meeting. He has welcomed to Syria every one of the present Mission circle, with the exception of Mrs. Van Dyck and Mrs. Bird, and his memory and his heart hold them and all their children and children's children within the circle of his fatherly affection and prayer.

EVANGELISTIC.—Beirut Church.—This marks the second year of the Beirut Church on its nominally independent and self-supporting basis. When the two congregations came together in 1906 it was on a rather confused agreement; several important matters were left unsettled, and the relations of the church to the Mission and the Presbytery were not clearly defined. There is now a church financially independent to the extent of the pastor's salary and some congregational expenses, but out of line with all other churches of the Mission, even though it is the mother church in the central station, occupying a manse and worshiping in a building both of which belong unconditionally to the Presbyterian Board. The members of Beirut Station have adopted the kindest attitude possible, that of ignoring the underlying causes of disagreement as well as the property questions, and of regarding the Beirut Church as still sustaining right relations with the Mission and the Lebanon Presbytery. The pastor, Rev. Assad A. er-Rasi, continues his services. The congregations are larger than ever and the church is not infrequently crowded to its full capacity. The contributions of the people, assisted by the English and American boarding schools and the Sunday-school, amount to over 12,000 piasters, covering the pastor's salary and small congregational expenses. The church has sustained a serious loss in the deaths of Mrs. Abdullah Saigh, one of its most useful women, and Rev. John Wortabet, M.D., one of the fourteen charter members who organized the church and the Protestant community in 1847, and whose death, November 21, 1908, closes a long and unusual life.

The Sunday-school.—The Sunday-school under the superintendency of the native pastor has continued to flourish. Of the seventeen classes three are taught by American, four by English ladies and ten by Syrian teachers. The attendance averages 150 and their contributions amounted to 1,050 piasters, making the sum in the treasury 2,700 piasters. At the suggestion of the Session the school donated 500 to the church pulpit, 100 to the Helping Hand Society, 100 to a class of poor women and 300 to the American Bible Society.

The annual meeting in June of the affiliated Sunday-schools of the English and American Missions, when 600 to 700 children assemble for songs, Bible exercises and distribution of prizes, is one of the brightest experiences of the year.

Christian Endeavor.—By means of entertainments the Christian Endeavor Society, which began the year with a balance in hand of 2,350 piasters, added another 2,400 to this, and after spending nearly half closes with a balance of nearly 2,400 piasters. Some difference of opinion as to how this should be spent grew into rivalry in June, with the result that meetings were discontinued. After the summer vacation was over the society elected new officers and starts its new year with a membership of twenty active and three associate members.

The Junior Christian Endeavor has been under the care of Mrs. Hoskins and Mrs. March. It has an average attendance of twenty.

Mrs. Hoskins has held regular meetings with the girls of the Church of Scotland Jewish School, and also gathered her vacation Sunday-school in Suk-ul-Gharb during the summer months. The highest number of pupils attending the latter was 150 and the lowest 75.

Helping Hand Society.—The Helping Hand Society suffered its greatest loss in the death of Mrs. H. H. Jessup, who was its organizer and President from the first meeting in 1897. Miss Jessup is the new President. Meetings were held with eighteen active and six honorary members, and 2,309 piasters were collected and expended and 123 garments made and given away to the poor.

Christian Temperance Reading Rooms.—At the death of Mrs. H. H. Jessup, for years president of the C. T. R. R. Committee, Prof. W. H. Hall was elected to that office, and the year's work continued along the original lines. Between January and July a course of six lectures was delivered, to which select audiences were admitted at a nominal fee. Since July, when the proclamation of the Constitution took place, half a dozen other reading rooms have come into existence and newspapers have multiplied with every change of the moon.

Dr. H. H. Jessup, having spent several years collating and selecting materials from the large mass at his command, reports that his book on the history of the Syria Mission and personal memories of his long life in Syria is nearly completed.

American School for Girls.—Miss Horne reports fifty boarders with eighty day-pupils.

There are many evidences of spiritual life and growth in the class prayer meetings, the King's Daughters and the Home and Foreign Missionary Societies. The Home Missionary Society earned 623 piasters by working banners and pennants for boys of the Syrian Protestant College. The Foreign Missionary Society raised 700 piasters ($25.00). Six of the girls entered the church on confession of their faith in Christ. Letters from absent graduates telling of their efforts in Christian work link the work in the school with the larger work in the world.

The death of Madame Josef Churi, a Frenchwoman, who had served the school with unique faithfulness and womanly dignity for more than forty years as a teacher of Piano and French, was not only a loss to the school, but also the passing away of a friend to every interest of the work during her long connection with it.

The following extract from the school report is of special interest:

Shortly before the close of the school year Dr Hoskins spoke to the girls about their responsibility to give the Gospel to those who have it not. Later he sent us the following pledge: "We whose names are written underneath will take to our homes a copy of the Arabic Bible, and make an earnest effort to teach some one to read during our summer vacation. And if we are not able to accomplish that we will at least read the Bible to those who cannot read, to those who are sick and to those who are blind." This pledge was signed on the last Sunday before commencement by thirty of the girls.

After school opened we held an experience meeting, at which it was found that only three girls had failed to make an effort to keep the pledge.

MAAMALTAİN.—Evangelical.—Services were held throughout the year. Owing to a reconciliation of the people with the Patriarch the number of adults has lessened. Last year the average was forty, and this year about the same number including the children. A service was held every Sunday during the summer in the sanatorium. The number of adults varied from twenty to fifty.

Educational.—There were thirty-three pupils in our school, eight coming daily by train from Juneh. We do not expect to exceed this number for lack of accommodations.

Medical.—A clinic was held regularly in Shebaniyeh and was largely attended by Druses. This location is a central one for work among the Druse villages.

The sanatorium for patients suffering from tuberculosis was opened at Shebaniyeh on June 16. Jews, Moslems, Greek Orthodox, Greek Catholics and one Protestant applied for admission. This mountain sanatorium was closed in the Autumn and preparations made for building upon the site of the Winter quarters on the Juneh Bay. The foundation and cornerstone of the Administration Building are ready, the cistern is being built and three pavilions will still be required for nurses and patients to sleep in.

THE PRESS.—Mr. Freyer reports a second best record year for the Press work, more pages printed, more volumes bound, more books sold and shipped and the Bible still far away in the lead.

The pages printed, 44,589,571, exceed last year by over 20,000,000 of pages and push the average for the last ten years higher than ever. We are reminded that when the American Board celebrates its centennial in 1910 the Beirut Press will have reached its billion mark of pages, the record standing at this time, in 1908, 923,345,755.

The second volume of the Old Testament Commentary on Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy, edited by Rev. H. H. Jessup, is completed and on sale. The Mission gratefully acknowledges the help given by the American Tract Society in this item, and hopes that further help may be forthcoming in producing other volumes of Old Testament series. Mr. March has the volume on Isaiah ready for the final revision and correction.

The Employees' Deposit Fund has made its first decennial sharing of savings and seventeen employees of the Press received 64,647 piasters ($2,308.08) and have begun again to save.

One of the most important needs of the Press, however, is a Publication Fund to be used in the production of new books and tracts and periodicals. For many years the Board allowed an annual grant of $1,000, and during the same period the Religious Tract Society of London was granting $700 and the American Tract Society a smaller sum. This grant from the Board ceased in 1885 and the Religious Tract Society gradually reduced its help until eight years ago when it ceased altogether, and the same was true of the American Tract Society. The American Tract Society has recently begun to help again, the Religious Tract Society allows all proceeds from sales to be applied to binding their unbound stock. The changed circumstances in Turkey have accentuated the need, and it is hoped the Churches, through the Board, can give at least a portion of what is needed in order to do anything worthy of the immediate present and the more distant future.

THE NESHRA.—Dr. Hoskins writes:

The Neshra has rounded out forty years under the old régime and welcomes this year of wonders with as much joy as the most ardent patriot in the empire. The Censor exercised his malign control over us from January till the 23d of July. His ruling passion remained strong to the bitter end, for on that very day, the last of his power, he came to the Press and collected his last backshish. The very next day, the 24th of July, came the news of the Constitution, and he was left without a function and shorn of every shred of his former malignant power, we trust forever.

One of our first delightful privileges was to look up the pictures and articles that he had rejected with his merciless blue pencil, and for several weeks we hailed as old friends back from exile "The Burning of the Books," "Mission Work in India," the picture of "Eliot Preaching to the Indians," rejected because Eliot's head-dress resembled a turban, and Mr. Roosevelt "Addressing the Great Audience from the Steps of the Capitol" at Washington on his inauguration day, rejected because the change of Presidents in the great Republic might suggest to otherwise innocent minds of the Ottoman Empire the necessity or possibility of a change of rulers here. A certain fanatical Moslem journal in this city in a series of articles on the Moslem world had claimed 365,000,000 of the earth's population for that faith. Our most reliable figures give them only 236,000,000 and we were glad to relieve our minds at once of that extra 129,000,000. Already we have detected expressions of fear lest we should take up an active controversial attitude after many years of repression. But we prize only the privilege of telling the truth as we see it without attacking anyone, and of setting forth clearly our faith in the person of Christ without having creed mutilated by the Censor in the interest of Moham-medanism.

LEBANON STATION.

The changes in the personnel of the Station have been occasioned by the removal of Rev. and Mrs. Doolittle to Sidon, the coming of Rev. and Mrs. Erdman from Tripoli, the departure of Rev. William Jessup, D.D., and his family on their furlough, the marriage of Miss Elizabeth Curtis, who had spent several years in the families of Mr. William Jessup and Mr. Doolittle as teacher, to Dr. David Torrance, of the United Free Church Mission in Tiberias, and Dr. Carslaw's sudden illness, an attack of paralysis incapacitating him for work for several months.

EVANGELISTIC.—The report says:

During the year passed Lebanon Station has cared for thirty-three out-stations with forty preaching places where the sacraments have been administered, and it has conducted forty day-schools besides the two boys' boarding schools in Suk-ul-Ghurb and Shweir. The four ordained Syrians have been a great help in their different districts. We are glad to report the ordination, in accordance with the action of Presbytery, of a fifth, M. Amin Fehd of Abeih, the faithful assistant of Mr. Bird up to the time of his death.

The nine churches of Lebanon Presbytery raised during the year 27,173 piasters and expended 27,600 in self-support, the small excess of expenditure coming out of a considerable balance in hand from last year. Nearly one-half this sum, or 12,200 piasters, went toward the preachers' salaries and the remainder to general expenses, repairs, and benevolence. The nine churches reported 552 members present and 173 absent in foreign lands and a gratifying number of additions on confession of faith, all but one of the churches reporting some new members. Those added during the year numbered fifty-five, just 10 per cent. of the membership present on the field. The average annual addition for the five years previous to this was forty-two, the year 1906 showing a total of fifty-six, one more than this year.

In the Zahleh Church the New Year's sunrise prayer meeting was attended by over forty, and the Week of Prayer meetings brought out considerable interest. On Sunday, January 12, nine were received into the church. On the first Sabbath of the new year the Sunday-school of about 190 took up its record collection, 548 coppers (about $1.25). With the Sunday-school collections of the previous year and some outside help a good-sized bell was purchased and erected in the boys' school property, where it now rings out its daily call to over 100 boys. This day-school was somewhat reduced in size last year through the determined efforts of the Greek Catholic Bishop to break it up entirely. He had bought back money with him from a visit to Brazil and the United States and opened a day-school not far from ours with a number of lay teachers and considerable advertisement. We have no fault to find with the opening of another school—there is room enough—but the methods used to take boys out of our school were not exactly of the loftiest. For example, the butcher who supplied the Bishop with his meats was given to understand that the money due him would not be forthcoming unless he took his boy out of the Protestant school immediately. A curious thing about this whole affair is that the Bishop, who is of the Mughabghab family, is a near relative of the head teacher in the British Syrian girls' school here and also of the assistant teacher in our boys' school, the very school he was trying to break up. But his zeal was short-lived, for the new year has opened with a crowded school for us, and to the priests who were sent to drum up pupils some of the parents whose boys were in our school replied: "Why do you try to compel us to send our children to you; don't you know that these are days of freedom now?"—one of the results of the bloodless revolution of last July.

Meetings for women were held weekly during the Winter at different houses, taking the form of Bible readings. These occupied most of an afternoon and all were free to take part. Some twenty-five different women were present during the Winter with an average attendance of from eight to ten, and much interest was shown. The Sewing Society was held as usual with an attendance of from twenty to thirty, and some thirty garments were distributed to the poor. A weekly Sunday-school teachers' meeting was also held.

A Reading Room was opened early in the Summer in one of the shops in the market. A small library was installed and the Neshra and other papers supplied the news of the day. An awning of leaves in front of the place shaded a long table with side benches and chairs and made an airy, attractive place on hot days. A jar of fresh water was always at hand. Often there was a daily attendance of thirty or more readers and visitors, giving M. Rashid Kenaan, the one in charge, opportunity for coming into touch with varied personalities. Thus some young men at least were drawn away from the temptations of the shops.

In the Suk-ul-Ghurb Church there has been a deepening of earnestness in the individual study of the Scriptures and in a desire for the working of the Spirit in the hearts of the members, and as a consequence a greater unity and harmony in the church. The preacher in Schweifat reports that a Danish worker who came there in the Summer has been holding meetings, and some fifteen persons have been speaking with expressions that no one could understand, and hundreds have attended, most of them out of curiosity. Most of the people attribute the manifestation to a kind of hypnotism, but those interested claim it is the descent of the Holy Spirit and the speaking with tongues. Most of the fifteen are youth, and some of them continued talking while in an unconscious state nearly three hours. The occurrence has made a great stir in Schweifat and has awakened the attention of many. The preacher hopes it may result in a blessing in arousing the people, whatever may be the secret of it.

The Reading Room and Book Store in Zahleh has been well patronized during the year. Its location in the very centre of the chief market makes it accessible, and many are grateful for its advantages. Black-gowned priests have been among its visitors at times. One of its indirect influences is illustrated by the following. During the summer a young man, originally of Biskinta, but for years in business in Egypt, was spending his vacation in Zahleh, and became a regular attendant of the reading room, and through it became interested in coming to our church services. Before he left he was very eager to have us open a similar reading room in his native town, Biskinta, and he offered us a house there rent free, but for various reasons we were unfortunately unable to accept of his offer.

The preacher in Deir-el-Komr reports that a number of Maronites are attending the services and showing much interest. He attributes it partly to the fact that he and a prominent Protestant have joined a general benevolent society, established to help the needy, and the members have come to place great confidence in them and their judgment. We rejoice to hear of incidents in various places that show the reputation for honesty and straightforwardness and reliability that the Protestants as a body have gained. The people of the Deir have on several occasions chosen our preacher to represent them, either alone or with others, as this summer in the visit of a deputation to the Governor of Lebanon.

One of our experienced teachers makes a statement which has wide application to-day in Syria. He says: "Many here acknowledge the truth of the Evangelical faith, but for worldly reasons refrain from showing themselves." How like St. John's statement: "Even of the rulers many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess it, lest they should be put out of the synagogue; for they loved the glory that is of men more than the glory that is of God." John 12 : 42, 43. It is one of the results of Evangelical preaching and teaching that do not appear in any statistics, but surely it all enters into the preparing of the way for the coming of His kingdom.

At Baalbec, Kherbeh and Aitenith the work has been carried on successfully. At the latter place there has been a renewing of the work and several men have united with the church, one of them an interesting character. He, a bigoted Maronite, had spent some years in one of our Southern States and there had become somewhat enlightened and had tasted free institutions. On his return he welcomed visits from the preacher from Sughbin and allowed him to hold services in his house. He was a fearless outspoken, and decided kind of a man, and soon determined to come out openly, and in him was something of the spirit of the early Reformers. In his house were many pictures of the saints such as they worship. One day, quite on his own motion, he tore them from the walls and broke them in pieces, frames and all, and made a fire of the fragments in front of his house. It of course made a great stir in the village, and were it not for the fact that he was of an influential family it would have fared ill with him from some of the people.

During the year some extensive and important repairs have been made in several places. A side wall of the Meshghureh Church was torn down and substantially rebuilt. In Sughbin the low, always damp floor of the residence part of the church was renewed and raised, and later the floor of the church also, the preacher helping much in the work with his own hands. In Deir-el-Komr one wall and an arch had to be renewed, and stone pavement floors were put in, giving a new setting of sightliness and cleanliness to the schools.

In the two comparatively young and encouraging out-stations of Khinshareh and Muruji new building has been undertaken, the people taking a gratifying initiative and we helping. Out of the gift of Miss Gould through Mr. Jessup a year ago, it was decided last Spring to help Khinshareh with 15,000 piasters, the people having pledged nearly one-half as much (part in the gift of a fine site in a mulberry grove, and part in so many days of labor, the brethren there being mostly experienced builders and one of them an experienced contractor). The 15,000 piasters is to be handed over on the completion of the building and the presentation to us of the deed in the name of the Board, the latter arrangement being according to their own desire. Late in the Summer ground was broken and the foundations laid, and at the time of a recent visit the walls were nearly completed. We are glad to record here the helpfulness of Mr. and Mrs. March and their family in the work in Khinshareh, where they have spent the last two summers, especially the work among the women.

In Muruj, a Maronite village, the brethren, few but earnest, with the help especially of one prominent and enlightened Maronite, had gone ahead and taken the first steps in the purchase of a building for the school and services, calling on us for help in certain needed changes and repairs only. The school was actually in the building for a time, but finding it impossible to get a clear title, at our advice they dropped it. All Summer they have tried, against much opposition and difficulty, to get hold of some other suitable place, but in vain. Finally this very friendly Maronite has consented to sell a piece of his mulberry orchard in the very centre of the village at a real sacrifice financially, and work in the quarry has begun in preparation for the building. Inasmuch as they have now to build, they need greater assistance from this special fund in our hands, but they themselves are ready to do even more than in the first attempted purchase. Some will give money, others who are builders will give of their labor. It is all most encouraging.

With all gratitude for the blessings of the year and the tokens of growth in the work we look forward, earnestly desiring the greater blessings that lie before.

EDUCATIONAL.—The forty day-schools in some thirty-two different towns and villages in the Lebanon and the B'kaa showed good progress for the year. The pupils have paid in about 33,500 piasters in fees, with an attendance of 1,790 boys and girls.

TRIPOLI STATION.

The Station was reinforced during the year by the arrival of Dr. Ara Elsie Harris who came to join her father in his medical work. On March 13, little Miss Barbara Catherine Nicol started her long apprenticeship in the foreign missionary service. Dr. and Mrs. Nelson left in April for their furlough in the United States and Mr. Ernest March, who has taught English during the past year, also went to the United States. The year has passed with scarcely any sickness among the members of the Station, a year in which every member was enabled to work without interruption of any kind. We quote from the report as sent from the field:

EVANGELISTIC.—Tripoli Church.—For several years past this church has had no pastor, and its pulpit has been supplied by the various teachers and the missionaries. But there has been great need for a man set apart for pastoral work, with free time for visitation and work in the homes of the people. So the Presbytery assigned to this post Rev. Habib Subhiyeh, of Aleppo, who has entered into it with much zeal, and we hope for large results from his ministry.

The Committee on Bible Distribution reported contributions from every church except one, a total of almost 1,000 piasters. The Committee purchased Bibles from the Tripoli store at half price, and in almost every case sold these Bibles for sufficient to pay for their cost, leaving the contributions from the churches almost untouched. So it was decided to devote a part of this income to securing the services of a colporteur for a part of the year, and this colporteur has already entered upon his duties in connection with the Home Mission Committee. Among the purchasers at Hamath was the Moslem Judge of the Turkish Court.

EDUCATIONAL.—Tripoli Girls' School.—The Tripoli Girls' School opened the year with the largest attendance in its history, sixty-eight boarders. In preparation for their coming the school was thoroughly renovated and the entire exterior repainted. At the beginning of the year the school seemed especially well prepared for thorough work, both spiritually and educationally, as the entire graduating class of the preceding year, four girls in thorough sympathy with the spiritual aims of the school, were engaged as teachers. Two of the four were incapacitated early in the year, however, one by sickness and the other by trouble at home, so a rearrangement of the work was made necessary. The teacher who was deterred from work by home trouble had an opportunity to show her loyalty to the better ideals she had learned in the school, and this opportunity she used to make a good witness, a loyal Christian. She was herself a Greek, the daughter of a bigoted Greek. One of her own class, and her dearest friend, was from the same village. During the summer succeeding their graduation, the father asked for her friend in marriage. The friend refused. The father then laid her refusal at the door of his daughter, and finally threatened her with disinheritance if the friend did not yield. At the same time he betrothed his daughter to a young doctor, but was further enraged by his daughter's refusing to consent. So in a rage he cut her off and told her to go where she pleased. She came back to school and took up her duties as though nothing had happened. But early in the year the father became dangerously ill, and friends prevailed upon the daughter to go home. Although the school lost her temporarily, before going she made a public profession of her faith in Christ and received the communion; and we are also glad to record that a reconciliation was effected between her and her now softened father, without any sacrifice of principle on her part.

The Christian Endeavor Society, which is well understood among the girls to be the door to public profession of faith, did its usual work, among other things sending letters to all former members and praying definitely for them. This society raised during the year 1,500 piasters, part of which was sent to help the new building in Hums, and part to put a roof on a new room in Amar, where a girls' school has been started with one of the former members as teacher. On the whole the work of the year was considered very satisfactory. In addition to the boarders 98 girls from the city were in attendance, making a school of over 160.

Women's Work.—Misses LaGrange and Hunting carried on the usual forms of evangelistic work, the latter working in connection with the Evangelistic Committee of the Christian Endeavor Society. About seventy calls were made by Miss Hunting and members of the society, and the way was opened to read and explain the Gospel to Moslems, Greeks and Maronites. They also made trips during the Christmas and Easter vacations to Akar and Batrun.

Mrs. Nelson conducted a woman's meeting in Tripoli up to the time of her departure, and since then the work has been carried on by Syrian ladies, assisted by the teachers of the girls' school. In the Mina a woman's meeting has been kept up all year under the direction of Mrs. Harris.

Tripoli Boys' School.—The boys' boarding school began its fourth year with every available place occupied, despite the fact that a nearby house was rented to accommodate teachers who were crowded out of the main building. Eighty-three boarders were accepted, which with 65 day-pupils made a school of 148. In March a class of ten candidates for the school diploma appeared before the public in Tallcott Hall and seven were given the diploma. Of these seven, three have entered the college, two are teaching in the school, one is teaching in the new school in Enfeh, opened under Syrian auspices, and one is contemplating America. The spiritual life of the school showed no such awakening as we always long for, but many made marked advance in the understanding of the Christian life. The Y. M. C. A. held its meetings throughout the year, and the school conducted a special Sunday evening service for the boys, in addition to the regular church and Sunday-school services. Financially, the school weathered the hard conditions imposed by a dear market, and not only finished the year without deficit, but was able to put by a small balance for the building fund.

Hums Boarding School.—While a strictly independent venture, the Hums school is so vitally related to our work, and so directly the outgrowth of it, that its work deserves a place in this report. The school began its second year most auspiciously with an enrollment of 74 boarders, 36 half-boarders, and 59 day pupils, a total of 169 in the high school department. To provide for this large increase over the preceding year a nearby house was rented, where some of the pupils slept under the care of a teacher.

The erection of a new building on the land purchased during the preceding year progressed rapidly during the past summer. The customary difficulty was encountered in getting a permit to build, and even now the building is being erected as a residence, but the political changes in the empire have changed the situation. We shall not soon forget the new light in the flashing eye of the Principal, Mr. Hanna Khubbaz, and the exultant joy of his voice, when he returned one night to his home, several days after the proclamation of the Constitution. He said, "I have been sitting all day in the gate of our property, keeping out the Government. One of the officers came to stop our building to-day, and instead of my going as usual to the Government House to complain, I went straight to the Committee on Union and Progress. And the Chairman called the offending officer and said, 'Do you think we are still in the dark days which were? No, this is a new day and the time for such work is past; and if you're not careful, and if you refuse to let this man alone with his school, you'll lose your place.' " And the work went on unmolestled.

Amar Girls' School.—The Amar Church decided to open a girls' school. A place was needed and they were ready to build a room, if the Station agreed to put on the roof and furnish doors and windows. The Girls' Society in the Tripoli Girls' School started a fund which was added to by members of the Station, and the new girls' school is soon to be opened.

The Hospital and Dispensary.—Twenty-five years ago Dr. Ira Harris arrived from America to take up the medical work of Tripoli Station. The tangible results of his work are evidenced in the equipment at Tripoli, the hospital and dispensary, built in part by the income from his work. But the largest results cannot be exhibited, either in stone or in figures—they are written on the hearts of those whom he has served. His constant attendance in the homes, his watchfulness in sickness, his loving interest and patient skill, have endeared him in the hearts of the whole Station. The increased price of foodstuffs this year compelled the people to an insufficient and cheap diet, resulting in the clinics being crowded with sick, especially children, their diseases arising chiefly from impoverished blood. The year has been one of steady work for a class which, were it not for the free clinic, would suffer on without treatment.

The preaching services have been held as usual in the hospital chapel on Sundays and Thursdays, in addition to daily services before clinics, which all are expected to attend. The Bible woman gives all her mornings to reading and teaching, reaching not only the sick but the friends who come from the villages to care for their sick ones. It has been very encouraging to note the increased interest among the Moslems, who have shown especial interest in the Gospel of John, and some have expressed with much emotion their great desire to follow its teachings, if there were only freedom to do so.

MEDICAL STATISTICS, 1907-08.—Surgical operations, 385; in-patients, Tripoli Hospital, 9 months, 111; whole number of new cases (77 per cent. Moslem), 5,498; number of treatments, 14,322.

Jebail Settlement.—We are glad to make mention here of the independent work carried on in Jebail, under the leadership of Miss Holmes. There were in the boarding department of her school twenty-five pupils, nine of whom were small boys. In addition there was a day-school of thirty-five pupils at the beginning, but this number diminished because of clerical strictures upon the parents. A native preacher worked constantly among both Moslems and Christians. Two made a profession of faith, and no communion service has yet been held at Jebail without at least one profession of faith.

The work has been remarkably free from persecution this past year. Isolated cases have come to our notice, but they have been mostly of a personal character. Liberty has not yet penetrated into the out-of-the-way villages of the Husn, and especially in Bir Sheen the people do not cease their hostility, but continue to harass the preacher with minor persecution throughout the year. A man who was converted this past year immediately became the mark for the priests' anger, and the villagers were led to heap all sorts of insults upon him. There is a league against him, whereby all his creditors agree to press him to immediate payment, while his debtors have pledged themselves to refuse to pay. Happily the days of the priestly influence in the Government there are, we hope, well-nigh over, and we hope that our new brother will secure his rights. In the meantime he is seemingly indifferent to money loss, and says brightly that if he lose all things he will not deny his Lord.

New Work.—Three new points were occupied last year, or rather two of them were old points reoccupied. They are at Batrun, a little city of growing importance fifteen miles south of Tripoli.

EDUCATIONAL.—Bir Sheen School.—At Bir Sheen was the first real school the village had seen. We started out with a large enrollment, but the priests became frightened and opened a very respectable school of their own, to which they compelled all the children to repair immediately. This most of the children did, leaving our school with only a few of the bolder spirits. But we feel that once more our work has made its contribution to the welfare of these poor people, in that their professed leaders and teachers have been forced to give them something better than husks and meaningless mumblings.

Sheikhan.—All these places are centres of religious teaching, as well as of ordinary school education, and they form the basis for evangelistic work whenever we are free to take it up. A house full of listeners can be had by a missionary at any time, and we are hoping for sufficient free time to take up this schoolhouse work in a systematic way.

The report on self-support is full of encouragement and is as follows:

In the matter of self-support excellent progress was made, the entire native expenditures for all causes—congregational expenses, education, repairs, home and foreign missions—amounting to 587,000 piasters as against 464,000 piasters in 1907. We feel, however, that the time has almost come to cease to reckon these large sums paid for education and boarding schools and college in the nature of strict self-support. It certainly shows tremendous changes from the conditions of a very few years back, when people could hardly be forced to send their children to school; books, tuition, and sometimes board being provided free of charge. Yet it shows little more than the wonderful zeal for education which has seized upon the country. We find larger satisfaction in the progress made year by year in the churches toward a real support of their own worship and their village schools, and a real attempt to make contributions from their poverty to home and foreign missions. We are most happy to report this year that the contributions for causes other than education amount to 129,497 piasters, 22,000 of which was given by the churches for missionary work. We believe that this spells a real life in the churches, the spirit of unselfish service, which is life.

The Work of the Spirit in Hakoar.—Fifteen miles north of Tripoli there is a large village in the hills called Hakoar. We have never had any work there, but there is a flourishing church in the village of Minyara, across the river. From time to time different workers have crossed the river and sown some seed, but with no apparent result. But all this time God was preparing his own messenger to Hakoar, and he a blind man. This man has always been thoughtful and inclined to test truth, and a number of years ago was convinced by his own reasonings that the people of the Gospel were right. Pressure was immediately brought to bear upon him by priests and relatives, and he was temporarily persuaded that he was wrong. He then formed the opinion that the Catholic faith represented one extreme, the Protestant another, the Greek Orthodox the golden mean, the only true faith. So he remained until last year, an apologist for his Church, an obstacle to the progress of the Gospel in his village. Suddenly we heard that Abu Naameh, the blind man of Hakoar, had turned Evangelical. Immediately all the powers of the priests were brought to bear upon him—argument, persuasion, insult, threats—all unavailing. The village priest wisely refused to undertake the argument with him, saying that Abu Naameh was too clever. So the Bishop was called upon to make an effort. He summoned the culprit, and asked him in a patronizing way what his trouble was. Perhaps he was angry at someone, perhaps a priest had wronged him, perhaps the church had failed to take pity on him in his blindness. All this would be remedied. The Bishop himself would see to it. To all this Abu Naameh replied that his troubles were not of this kind—he had found a new and precious faith in Christ as Saviour and Redeemer. The Bishop was confident that he could cure him of all his vagaries, and with great confidence brought him a tract, an apologetic of the Greek Church. The blind man asked the Bishop the name of the tract, and then proceeded to tell the Bishop what was in each chapter, explaining that he had read all that, and was not convinced. So he left the Bishop, still holding fast his faith. His companion reviled him, saying that he used to honor him, but now he had fallen low in his eyes. This reviler was the first to become a convert under Abu Naameh's teaching. These two became ambassadors at once, and soon had a group of followers, seven of whom have already entered the church. The group has grown until there are twenty-five or thirty meeting, with new faces visible each time. The villagers have tried persecution, threatening to cut off these families without a burial place, and taunting them with a vision of their dead lying in the road, refused a grave, the food of the dogs of the street. Stones and obstacles were thrown in the blind preacher's path, the persecutors in their zeal forgetting the words in the chapter on curses, Deuteronomy 27 : 19: "Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way, and all the people say, Amen."

Our attitude to this work has been simply to rejoice, but not to spoil the work of the Spirit with proffered assistance. Zealous brethren in Minyara urged us to rent a room for these new believers to worship in. We refused, and God provided means for them. They asked us for a cemetery; we refused, and God put it into the heart of a zealous Syrian to provide it. We have been urged to pay the blind brother a salary; we have heard the Spirit saying, "Hands off; this work is mine." This, friends, is our hope for the future—that the Spirit is the beginner, the energizer, the provider. And we are expecting to see more and more these lights flaming out in the midst of the darkness, kindled not by you nor by us, but by the Spirit of the Living God. "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord."

SIDON STATION.

In recording the work of the Sidon Station mention should be made of the resignation of Mrs. William K. Eddy; she left Sidon for America on the 2d of April, thus closing a continuous residence in that city (barring furloughs) of twenty-seven years. It is the earnest prayer of all the members of the Station that she and some of her children may return and come into the inheritance of good works and noble service made ready to their hand by their zealous father, whose death two years ago is still poignantly fresh in memory.

Miss Charlotte H. Brown, now on furlough, will return in Spring.

Dr. Samuel Jessup, loaned to the Institute for four years, resumed Station work in touring all over the field with a vigor that proved him to be seventy-four years young.

During nearly four months of Summer, Dr. and Mrs. Ford were absent in Europe on the advice of the physician.

Sidon was favored with a visit from Rev. Marcellus Bowen, D.D., Levant Agent of the American Bible Society, and Mrs. Bowen, and Consul-General and Mrs. Ravndal paid a flying visit to Sidon in the first automobile ever to enter this ancient Phœnician city.

In its relation to the proclamation of the new Constitution in Turkey with its promise of liberty the year 1907-08 was as the darkest hour of the night, just before the dawn.

On March 19 our school at Bussah was closed and sealed by Government officials. The case was taken up by the Consul-General, and it was made a test case to urge on the lagging steps of Turkish inquiry into the status of American educational institutions. Finally strict orders were received for its formal reopening, which orders, preserved at Bussah, are a guarantee against future official meddling. The boys' school at Rasheya-el-Wady was also closed, but subsequently reopened.

During the month of May came stringent orders to the Beirut Director of Education, a Moslem, to visit in person all the alleged schools under American control and report their number to Constantinople, this being one step in the tedious process of comparing and modifying the Embassy list of schools. This official has always been a friend to American interests. His visit to Judeideh was a delight to the missionary sent to note his course of action. He freely consulted him and suggested lines of action that promised good results.

On June 21, in Jezzín, the Protestant teacher was arrested and imprisoned by the local Governor on a charge that displayed bitter Maronite bigotry. Although our teacher was not well, he was kept for a long time in the common prison. His case was taken up vigorously by Dr. Jessup and the Consul-General. Every step in the prosecution had been legally false, and the Lebanon Governor-General, convinced of this by clear proof, was compelled to order that justice be done.

EVANGELISTIC.—The report of evangelistic work for the year has many lights and shadows. The lights are increased contributions, larger Sunday-school attendance, special activity of some of the workers, opportunities for evangelistic services, harmonious gathering of Presbyters at the annual meeting. The dark lines of the picture are dissensions among church members, continued weakening of church organizations by emigration and the almost universal tendency of the emigrants to forget their home church, and—darkest shadow of all—a smaller number of additions to church membership than for many years, only twenty-six. This lamentable showing emphasizes the value of the suggestion of the Rev. W. K. Eddy, made fifteen years ago, that a committee should visit the churches and work directly and individually with preachers, teachers, elders and people.

During the past year such meetings were attempted in the Sidon field, though by one missionary at a time. The Week of Prayer was thus spent in Deir Mimas and the commodious church building was taxed to its utmost. Night after night the people listened attentively to plain talk about true and false Christianity, daily duties and remissness in the same, and the one only Saviour. Another series of meetings in Alma and Tyre proved that people are glad to attend evangelistic services. At Bussah two days of preaching and house-to-house visiting resulted in touching the hearts of some estranged by local quarrels and a general reconciliation ensued—the regular Oriental scene of falling upon one another's necks and kissing away former grievances.

New Year's Day in Sidon brought to the missionaries assembled at Dr. Ford's house 160 callers—Christians of all creeds, Moslems, Metawily and Jews.

The monthly social meetings of church members, held in various houses, have strengthened "the tie that binds." Weekly afternoon meetings for women were held at the house of the Syrian pastor. The men have a flourishing society that aids the preaching in this vicinity and raises considerable sums for evangelistic effort. The salary of the man in charge of the reading room is thus paid.

Judeideh Church and the entire region about Mount Hermon suffered a severe loss in the death of the leading church elder, Yakub Effendi Jebara, on the night of February 24. For many years he had been the staunch upholder and defender of the Protestant faith, and his sterling integrity and keen ability won him a place not second to any in all that region. His interest in the church and the sect was unfailing. Almost his last effort was to heal a breach in a neighboring church. His true Christian character was revealed in his last spoken words: "O Jesus, into thy hand I commend my spirit."

"Good Fruit."—Among Syrian church members it is a pleasure to mention one, a man in Deir Mimas, just returned from Brazil, who is devoting much time and money to school and church work in his town. He is the cause of the self-supporting school there, and he of his own accord has been conducting the church services. In another place a newly graduated teacher united with the church, and then set about to interest his brother in Bible reading. It involved almost teaching him to read; but his labor bore good fruit, a constant reader has been added to the ranks. In Judeideh a Sidon Seminary graduate and a church member was married to a Greek Catholic. Soon after the wedding she brought her husband to the Protestant Church, and they have been frequent attendants ever since.

The Presbytery meeting, held in August at Alma, showed that advance has been made along lines best calculated to bring permanence and solidity into the work of the Syrian laborers. It was not easy for these underpaid preachers to hear again of the Station's inability to raise salaries. Yet they accepted the verdict and determined to make greater efforts toward self-support.

Reports to Presbytery showed that the Hasbeya Church heads the list in the amount of contributions to church work and expenses, Sidon next, and Ibl third. In all $1,600 were thus expended.

EDUCATIONAL.—The number of day-schools in operation in Sidon field was seven more than the previous year, with 220 more pupils, and an advance in payments of 5,300 piasters. The people of Dibbeyeh paid half the teacher's salary, and in Berta fifty Turkish dollars. In Muallekeh, half-way to Beirut, the people, ardent Maronites, paid 3,000 piasters for the privilege of placing their children in a Protestant school. The boys' schools at Judeideh, Ibl, Hasbeya and Kheyam, and the girls' school at Deir Mimas were supported by Syrian funds entirely.

The amount expended by Syrians within Sidon field in education in college, boarding and day-schools was $7,645, considerably larger than last year. The people of Judeideh alone paid $1,500, easily leading all other places in the field, with Sidon second and Tyre third. Almost every out-station in the field, beside many places never opened to Mission work, sent some representative, boy or girl, to the higher institutions of learning in Sidon or Beirut. Many petitions to open schools in new places have been received, but financial stringency has precluded any response. Our school children know Scripture verses and Bible incidents as few Sunday-school scholars in America know them. Bible stories they learn to give in their own simple language, and thus become little preachers in their homes and wheresoever they have occasion to review their Bible knowledge. At Mughdusheh, near Sidon, the seat of a very sacred shrine to the Virgin, where fifteen years ago a missionary and a helper were stoned out of the place, last summer's examination of the large school revealed an astonishing acquaintance with these Bible incidents. The basal work in the schedule of studies for village schools is along Biblical lines.

Sidon Seminary.—The most important item connected with education in Sidon City for the past year is the completion of the seminary compound. During its thirty-three years on the present site it has grown on west and north, as well as skyward, until there remained only the house and property to the east, whose owners had the right of way past the seminary door, their windows overlooking the seminary windows. Last fall this property was thrown upon the market, and there was fear that it might come into the possession of a wealthy but immoral Moslem family. A grave crisis confronted the Station. Letters winged by prayer were sent to the homeland, and a magnificent response was made. A calamity was averted and changed into an untold blessing.

The seminary compound was completed on all sides; the school can now expand; the upper part of the new building has been adapted for a missionary residence. Sidon Seminary is to be congratulated upon its entrance on a new era of prosperity, made possible by its many generous friends, and the manifest blessing of God.

From Miss Law's report of Sidon Seminary the following has been culled:

All through the year a steady desire and earnest purpose was shown by many of the girls to serve the Master in their daily lives. One of the girls at first did not control her tongue and so received low deportment marks. Realizing her trouble she made an effort, and at the end of the year was No. 1 in the school. At a class prayer meeting she said that one night a little lizard had come near her bed, but she had covered herself up and let it alone. Afterward she thought that perhaps she ought to have killed it, as it might grow large, return and hurt her. This lesson she wisely applied to her small sins.

The missionary society raised over $45 during the year, and supported in the school a girl from the Hauran. This thirteen-year-old girl loved her Bible class best of all her studies. Her English writing at the end of five months was really remarkable for one who had started at her letters.

The number of pupils in attendance was: Boarders, 56, day-pupils, 75; total, 131. Of these 15 were Protestant church members, 38 non-church members, 78 belonging to Oriental Christian sects, 1 Druze and 1 Moslem. $1,212 were raised in fees.

The chief burden has been the teaching corps. Only first-class Christian men should be employed. This seems to be forbidden by the financial exigencies of our boarding schools. The Institute suffered in this respect, and at the close of the year vigorous measures were taken to remedy this serious defect. It is worth recording that the first teacher, after having about decided to leave, possibly for America, yielded to the higher considerations that were pressed upon him and decided to stay, upon the unique condition that his salary should not be increased.

The Syrian overseer of the large farm has accepted a commission basis instead of a fixed salary, which plan gives better promise of combining productiveness with economy.

The work on Ramapo Hall, whose foundations were completed a year ago, was this year confined to three months. The masonry is more than half done, and a good portion of the woodwork. A four-story building is planned, 117 feet long and 69 feet wide.

The number of pupils last year is the largest in the history of the school—127 boarders at Sidon and 30 at Dar-es-Salaam, with 19 orphans, making 176 full boarders, beside half boarders, lodgers and day-pupils, making a general total of 308.

The class graduating from the course preparatory to college was the largest and best in the history of the school. Of its nineteen members, seven became teachers and five returned to take the Normal course. Of these five, one is the product of work in the once bigoted village of Mughdusheh. Another is the son of an intelligent, upright and religiously enlightened Persian Babite. The father avows himself a Christian at heart, and the son is an open and earnest Christian church member. A third comes from a family notable in the annals of the Syria Mission, being the grandson of the late Daabis Abbud, of Kheyam, who with his two brothers was long a prominent Mission helper. Of his six tall sons, two are ordained pastors, two unordained preachers, and two lay workers in Palestine.

The receipts from pupils were $5,418.

Apart from the regular religious exercises of the school and church there were three meetings continued through the year. One was the inquiry meeting held just after the Sunday morning preaching service. This meeting, conducted by the Superintendent, includes the church members, so as to enlist and train them in evangelism. Another was the Morning Star Society, the Christian Endeavor Society of the school, conducted and attended by pupils only. The third was a new society, notable because wholly indigenous and spontaneous, and indicating a healthy life in the school. It is called the Society of Loving Service. Its rules are three: Truthfulness in word and deed; respect for the school regulations and inculcation of same upon fellow-students; readiness to serve the weak in any way. The half-hour meeting is closed with brief sentence prayers. Membership is carefully guarded.

The missionary society is exceedingly popular. The boys could not be hired to stay away from its meetings. Nearly $80 were raised for benevolent work.

MISSION TO THE CHINESE, JAPANESE AND KOREANS IN THE UNITED STATES.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL.: Mission began 1852. Missionaries—Rev. I. M. Condit, D.D., and Mrs. Condit, Rev. J. H. Laughlin and Mrs. Laughlin.

JAPANESE, CAL.: Missionaries—E. A. Sturge, M.D., and Mrs. Sturge.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.: Missionaries—Supplied by Rev. J. H. Stewart and Mrs. Stewart.

WOMEN'S OCCIDENTAL BOARD, SAN FRANCISCO: Miss D. M. Cameron, Superintendent.

NEW YORK CITY: Rev. Huie Kin, Superintendent.

The work among the Chinese, Japanese and Koreans on the Pacific Slope has made commendable progress during the year in spite of more than the usual opposition. The social and political agitator has done his best to stir up race prejudice. In some quarters fierce mutterings have been heard against the Asiatic emigrants. On the other hand Christian men and women have spoken in no uncertain tones regarding the duty of the Church to give the Gospel to these aliens, who in the Providence of God have come to our shores. The most bitter opposition has been shown against the Japanese. It is of interest to note that during the year, while the Board of Foreign Missions expended for its work among the Japanese the sum of $6,155, the Japanese contributed the sum of no less than $6,425. Sixty persons were added on confession of faith and twenty-nine by letter to the nine Japanese churches under the charge of the Board in California. A new Japanese church was organized and two Mission Homes cleared of indebtedness.

There has been also some opposition to the Koreans, albeit they are still a feeble folk. Yet these few Koreans contributed during the year not less than $438 for church purposes, and provided plans for carrying the Gospel to a thousand of their fellow-Koreans who had been induced to emigrate to Mexico.

No better evidence could be given of the unreasonableness of the opposition to these races than the reports herewith submitted.

SAN FRANCISCO CHINESE MISSION.

The Rev. J. H. Laughlin reports for the Chinese Mission as follows:

The new building after a year's trial has proved to be all that was hoped for. It is substantial, roomy and perfectly adapted to the needs of Christian work. The new pastor who came from China last June has won the confidence of all the Chinese, and is an instructive and inspiring preacher. He has been a Christian for nearly twenty years, an evangelist for nine years and an ordained minister three years. The only member of his family with him is a little boy, his wife and other children remaining in China with his father. At the Sabbath morning service there is an average attendance of 120, in the evening 60, in the Sunday-school 47, and this in view of the fact that many of the families still reside at Oakland. The bulk of the pupils come from non-Christian families.

The educational work consists of two day-schools with an enrollment of eighty, a kindergarten taught by one of the Chinese women, and an evening school for boys and men, having an average attendance of forty-seven. Nearly 500 different names are on our roll, which indicates the fluctuating character of the population and the hope of the good accomplished from the sowing of seed in so many garden plots.

The King's Daughters have supported two Bible women in South China and assisted in the church work.

The members of the church have lived in most blessed harmony and have been liberal in their contributions. They supported their own Y. M. C. A. work, contributed to Mission work in China and have shared in supporting Christian enterprises in this land. The total amount subscribed for church expenses was $240. Sixty dollars was contributed in addition for various entertainments. For the first time in the history of the church regular offerings were taken up every Sunday; the offering on the first Sunday in the month went to the Board of Foreign Missions, the third Sunday to one of the other Boards, so that in the course of the year all of the Boards of the church have received some gift from our Chinese Christians.

There has been a paucity of conversions. Only six were added on confession.

Let all friends of the Chinese pray that the new year may bring a new accession of evangelizing, spiritual power.

OAKLAND AND ALAMEDA MISSION.

This is under the charge of the Rev. Ira M. Condit, D.D. Dr. Condit, though for so many years connected with the Mission, is still able to do valiant service. He reports:

While the rebuilding of San Francisco's Chinatown has taken many business men back to that city, still a goodly number of families remain in Oakland. During the year four young men in Oakland and five in Alameda have made a public confession of Christ. In both Oakland and Alameda, besides the regular services of the week, a Missionary Society meets every month, in which the members contribute liberally to the support of the church work in China. The total contributions for all purposes made by the Oakland Church was $672; number of communicants, 55. In the Alameda Church the total contributions were $192; number of communicants, 19.

It is encouraging to note the growth in the grace of giving of our fellow-Chinese Christians.

SAN FRANCISCO KOREAN MISSION.

The Korean evangelist, W. C. Pang, continues to look after the interests of his fellow-countrymen in Southern California. The Koreans in the northern part of the State are cared for by the Mission of the Southern Methodist Church. Mr. Pang reports seven groups at Los Angeles, Riverside, Redlands, Upland, Claremont, Rialto and Hanford. There are 151 Christians, with 60 more scattered in various places, a total of 211. Sixteen were baptized during the year. Fourteen Koreans occupied the position of religious leaders. Twenty-seven catechumens or inquirers are reported. The total offerings from these Korean Christians amounted to $438. Mr. Pang reports an interesting story of 1070 Koreans now living in Mexico. In 1905 they were induced to migrate from Korea to Mexico by certain agents of emigration, who made a contract with them for five years at the rate of 30 cents (American money) a day, a certain proportion being paid in advance. Compared with Korean wages that sum looked large, but the laborers soon found it small enough in a land of higher cost of living. They suffered hardship and in their distress called upon God, though very ignorant of Him and His salvation. Mr. Pang, hearing of them, sent a fellow-Christian with suitable literature and his labors were soon rewarded by the announcement of thirty converts. He continued his work among them and now reports 200 asking for baptism, but no pastor within reach to administer the sacred rite to them. Mr. Pang plans to visit them the coming year.

LOS ANGELES CHINESE MISSION.

This work is under the charge of the Rev. J. H. Stewart. He reports:

The new location in the heart of Chinatown, referred to in our last Report, has been secured. By this change we are brought into close relation with the unsaved in the Chinese community, and we are able also to bring all the work, Church, Sunday-school, Mission Bands, together into one place. This has made possible the reopening of the night school. Church services are held and there is a Sunday-school and a Mission Band. The enrollment of the night school is thirty-two. There have been added to the Church three on confession of faith. The Church in its gifts has reached the Omaha standard.

CHINESE MISSION, PORTLAND.

Mrs. W. S. Holt writes:

There have been six adult baptisms and three infant baptisms this past year. The night school has had an enrollment of 150.

We have made a new departure this winter for the women and children. Formerly we had the one service on Sunday for men, women and children, but now we are trying the plan of holding a separate service for the women and children, holding it at half past one. The evening service was so late it made it a real hardship for the children to come. This new plan we think is much better, and we reach a larger number.

Some of our Christian young men have gone back to China, and we get frequent word of their fidelity to their profession

CHINESE IN NEW YORK.

The work in New York is under the pastoral care of the Rev. Huie Kin. A Committee appointed by the New York Presbytery through the help of many kind friends were able during the past year to secure a building admirably adapted to the work of the Mission. The new home is located at 223 and 225 East Thirty-first Street.

The first floor of the new building contains the auditorium, reception rooms and missionary study. On the second floor are the library, reading room, ladies' reception room and Chinese Y. M. C. A. meeting room. The dormitory and shower baths are on the third floor. The fourth floor is the residence of the missionary's family. In the basement are the bowling alley, kitchen and dining-room, in which every Sunday at 5 o'clock the scholars and teachers dine between afternoon and evening services. The new house is thoroughly adapted for institutional work. Six services are held every Sunday, commencing with a prayer meeting at 2 o'clock, followed by Sunday-school at 2.30. Next comes a preaching service, the dinner spoken of above, the prayer and devotional service of the Chinese Y. M. C. A., and evening Bible class and song service. Last year the average attendance of the Sabbath-school was forty-nine. Since removing to the new Home in June the attendance has increased to ninety-five, and the preaching services and the young men's meetings Sabbath evening and Monday evening school have more than doubled their attendance. Six young men are ready to receive baptism and six others, already baptized, are waiting for the formation of a Chinese Church, at which time they will bring their letters. The new building has offered a Christian and congenial home to many Chinese who have visited New York. The contributions for various purposes amounted to $1,625.99.

JAPANESE WORK ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

The work is under the charge of Dr. E. A. Sturge and Mrs. Sturge. Dr. Sturge reports the number of Japanese in California as 48,000, and number of Christians connected with the various Missions 400; eighty-nine have been received during the year—sixty on confession of faith, twenty-nine by letter.

Amount of contributions, $6,425. Dr. Sturge reports as follows regarding the Japanese work:

THE HAIGHT STREET MISSION, SAN FRANCISCO.

During the twenty-three years of its history it has received into its membership 490 persons, nearly all young men. There are 175 members of this church in good and regular standing still living in California. There is an influential Y. M. C. A. of 140 members. Rooming, boarding, employment, educational, religious and other features characterize this Y. M. C. A.

THE NEW SAN FRANCISCO MISSION.

The 1st of September a new Mission with school and preaching hall was opened in the heart of the Japanese quarter. It is too soon to expect fruit from this new plant, but there are some inquirers and the outlook is hopeful. The rent of the building, together with the cost of furnishing and all incidental expenses, have been cheerfully met by the Japanese Christians.

LOS ANGELES JAPANESE MISSION.

Established 1902. Church organized 1905, now has 107 names on its roll; twenty-four added during the past year. A school under the supervision of Mrs. Stever has been one of the attractions of the work. The pastor, Rev. J. K. Inazawa, has made frequent visits to the surrounding country, to bring to his countrymen the message of salvation. The great need is a suitable building to be used as a church and home. The Japanese have subscribed for this purpose $2,500, of which a little more than $1,000 have been paid in.

THE HANFORD JAPANESE MISSION.

In May a little church of nineteen members was organized. It now has twenty-nine. The Rev. S. Miura, the pastor, has preached once each month at Fowler, Visalia and Armona. As a result six were baptized at Fowler and three at Visalia. Nineteen in all made a public profession of their faith in Christ. The Mission Home was enlarged by the addition of seven rooms. The contributions from these Christians amounted to $1,000.

VISALIA JAPANESE MISSION.

In the Spring a Mission school was opened at this place. The Japanese pay the rent and all other expenses except the salary of the teacher. Until recently there was not a Christian Japanese in the town, but as the first fruits of this work three young men have confessed Christ.

WATSONVILLE JAPANESE MISSION.

This Mission has thirty-six Christian members and several inquirers who will soon be organized into a church. During the year these Christians have paid off an indebtedness of $300 on their Mission Home.

SALINAS JAPANESE MISSION.

This is one of the country Missions established ten years ago. The Japanese in this section are constantly changing and the gains in membership have about equaled the losses. The neat Mission house purchased by the Japanese is visited every day by many Orientals, who come seeking advice on all manner of subjects.

WINTERSBURG JAPANESE MISSION.

This is the smallest and weakest of our California Missions. It has no home and has received no support from the Board. About $15 per month has been contributed by the people of Westminster Church to assist this work; the rest of the money is raised by the Japanese themselves. The Rev. H. Watanabe has been obliged at times to work in the fields in order to keep soul and body together.

OCCIDENTAL BOARD.

The first year spent in the new Mission Home has been one of the best in the history of the Home. For many years it has been said, even by those most closely connected with the rescue department, that the Chinese work among the women and children would in time feel so directly the effect of the exclusion laws of our land that there would be no need of rescue work. There is as yet no evidence of any decline in this branch of the work of the Occidental Board. From the time of the entrance into the new Home, 920 Sacramento Street, to the close of the year, there has been no cessation of calls for help in rescuing girls and helpless slave children. The appeals have come from Vancouver, in British Columbia, on the north to San Diego on the south, and in each case an alert little soul has been brought out of the darkness of heathenism into the light of the Christian influence of the Mission Home. No less than nine rescues were made between the August and September meetings of the Occidental Board. When the little waifs have been received into the Home there follows a long legal battle in the courts. This often continues for a period of weeks and even months. In each case during the year, which has been a trying one, the Mission has come off victorious, albeit there have been many anxious hours for the women in charge of the Home and for the faithful and efficient superintendent.

The Mission has sheltered, besides the rescued girls and children, thirteen other unfortunates known as United States prisoners; so named because they have been brought to the Home for shelter by Custom House officers rather than to the detention sheds, or placed in the county jail like common felons, for no greater crime than that they have been dumped into this Christian land with promises of a happy home, which in many instances means a den of iniquity. They are held as prisoners under Christian training, subject to orders from the Federal Government, during the legal process that lands them in the United States or deports them to China or Japan. In the spacious quarters of the new Home a place is provided where such prisoners can be safely kept without fear of their escape or that other members of the Home will be contaminated by them during their temporary stay. Most grateful letters reach the home from these friendless sojourners after they leave. Some whose entrance papers have not proved satisfactory have been deported to their native land. These have been assisted to the very last by the Mission. Letters are sent to friends in China to care for them when they arrive. One returned missionary tells of a whole village that was brought to Christ through the work of a Chinese woman who was deported after having been a Federal prisoner in this Presbyterian Mission Home. There are now two girls in the Home who are being trained as teachers and expect to return as missionaries next year to China.

One will go as a kindergarten teacher to Shanghai or Hongkong; the other will go as a Bible reader. The organist and entire choir in the Chinese Presbyterian Church in San Francisco are all from the Home. There is a flourishing Bible class and Y. P. S. C. E. in the Home. When the girls marry and go out from the Home no month goes by that they fail to send a Scripture text and 25 cents in money to their Society. This shut-in band last year raised $55 from the offerings of its members.

The Chinese woman and the Chinese home are not neglected. Mrs. Gow Wing, one of the earliest converts of the Mission, made during the year 633 visits in Chinese homes. She teaches and reads the Bible. She attends to the sick and shows Chinese women by precept and example what it means to lead a Christian life.

The educational work of the Occidental Board has made rapid strides during the year. There are six schools under care of the Board—one in Oakland, the Condit School, and five in San Francisco. Two are located in the Mission Home and three in the Chinese Presbyterian Church. One of these is a Kindergarten taught by one of the girls from the Mission Home; this teacher expects to go to China next year as a missionary to her people. The total number in the Home is 54. Number of Chinese received during the year, 26; of Japanese, 10; United States prisoners, 13; Home School, 27; public school, 8; high school, 1. Three scholars have been placed at service; two placed in homes; six assisted to China, and three united with the Church during the year.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER

OF THE

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

The record of the year ending April 30, 1909, shows that $1,483,729.68 has been spent in the work of the Board, and that $1,487,160.77 has been received for that work, leaving a surplus on the year's account of $3,431.09. For this we have cause to be profoundly thankful. If the Board had been accused of being oversanguine when at the first of the year it made an original appropriation of $1,210,000.00, some $60,000.00 more than for the year 1907 at the beginning, and this in the face of an accumulated deficit of $170,000.00, the only reply could have been that the work was demanding additions, and that faith in the ability of the Church to meet the obligation was strong. This faith has been rewarded, and the Church has not only taken care of the largest foreign missionary obligations in the history of the Board, but has reduced the deficit by $41,623.78. If we add to the total of appropriations the amount of disbursements on some special items, such as interest payments on special gift agreements, interest on special endowment funds, etc., and to the total of receipts the credits from invested securities and net income from the operation of the buildings at 156 Fifth Avenue and No. 5 West 20th Street, New York, we have total disbursements of $1,503,232.60 and total receipts of $1,526,859.37, leaving a surplus of $23,626.77. By applying this surplus the deficit is reduced to $105,481.00. It is interesting to note that beginning with 1904 the Board reported small deficits for three years in each annual account; then came 1907 with a surplus, but with the former deficit remaining; 1908 added to the deficit, but 1909 has reduced it by nearly $70,000.00. This has only been made possible by splendid work on the part of the Committees in the Eastern Synods, supported by pastors and laymen alike, who have been fired by a zeal to remove this obstacle to progress in the foreign missionary enterprise of the Church. Nor should the efforts of those workers in the middle and far West be overlooked, comprising not only churches and societies, but givers who come under the head of miscellaneous donors. The Women's Boards, always staunch and efficient "arms of the service," have been indefatigable in their efforts and have produced results that are beyond all praise.

The churches' gifts have increased for the year $25,361.71, with a total of $612,285.49; the Women's Boards have increased $45,486.03, with a total of $384,259.26; Sunday Schools have increased $7,975.81, with a total of $72,377.02; miscellaneous gifts have increased $39,504.20, with a total of $252,095.06, and legacies have increased $54,889.57, with a total of $124,466.34. The Young People's Societies have contributed a total of $41,677.60, almost the exact amount contributed for 1908. Too much appreciation and gratitude could not be expressed, by those charged with the responsibility at headquarters, to devoted workers and friends throughout the country, for their often arduous and untiring efforts in behalf of the work. Pastors and church members, leaders of mission classes and Sunday School workers have not only made personal sacrifices, but have led others into effective support; and on the business side, in helping take care of the bequests and the property interests of the Board, lawyers have given their fees and have performed valuable services without remuneration; pastors have given aid freely in furnishing information regarding wills in which the Board was interested, and thousands of dollars have been thus saved for the work in the field as a direct result.

The keen and intelligent interest in Foreign Missions on the part of laymen throughout the Church has been especially apparent in the correspondence coming to the Treasurer's office, the sure sign of an era of effective support for the great work of carrying the Gospel to the nations of the earth. The Special Gift Agreements entered into by the Board with annuitants during the year have amounted to $10,651.42, thus insuring by so much the work of the Board in the future. A new leaflet describing these agreements has been issued during the year and may be had on application-

NEW YORK, May 11, 1909.

WM. E. STIGER, ESQ., Chairman Finance Committee,
Board of Foreign Missions, New York.

SIR :—

We have examined the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of your Board for the year ending April 30, 1909.

The cash and securities have been verified, either by actual count or evidence of deposit, and found in accord with the book records.

We have verified the total receipts for the year, as shown by the Counterfoil Receipt books, and have ascertained that all of the moneys shown therein have been properly accounted for.

The statements of disbursements by Field Treasurers for the fiscal year just closed have not been received in New York at this date, consequently the deficit shown by the Balance Sheet is subject to change, according as the expenditures have been more or less than the appropriations for the past year.

We have verified the Balance Sheet herewith with the books and accounts, and, subject to the statement concerning the Field Treasurers' Reports for the fiscal year, the Balance Sheet, in our opinion, presents the correct financial condition of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,
PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,

NINETIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

With gratitude to God for His manifest blessing upon the work of another year, the Board of Education takes pleasure in presenting to the General Assembly of 1909 its Ninetieth Annual Report.

While the year has not been marked by an increase either in contributions from churches or number of candidates placed under its care, we record with satisfaction a substantial advance along certain well-defined lines, viz., closer touch with our constituency, and a resulting increase in the number of contributing churches; more effective measures inaugurated for reaching and stimulating the sources of supply for the ministry; a nearer approach to the student body, including more intimate contact with candidates under our care; development of the religious interests of Presbyterian students in State educational institutions; and, finally, a better understanding of the need and a clearer definition of a policy for the training of workers, both lay and ministerial, among our people of foreign speech.

Charged, as it has been from the beginning, with the work of securing to the Church an effective ministry of the Word, the Board has not found its task a trifling one. Factors entirely beyond its province and control enter into the equation. The spiritual condition of the Church, the reactions of the age upon religious life in general, the educational, social and economic changes abroad in society—all these affect the efforts put forth to develop spiritual leadership. Many of these features of our times are unfavorable to the production of the ministerial ideal. In many quarters the preacher's vocation is challenged as a vital and adequate career for strong men. Your Board would respectfully submit that there is peculiar and pressing need at this time for the Church's warm support of the cause presented by this Board. It is not a time to curtail but to expand its powers. Attacks upon the efficiency and validity of the Gospel ministry must be met by unwavering declarations of the permanent function of preaching, and strong proof that ministers are to-day magnifying their calling. Nothing bears more vitally upon the Church's ability to raise up an efficient ministry than the creation of a favorable atmosphere for the ministerial ideal in the home, the church and the school. This is the Board's fundamental work. And it has received from many quarters the past year cheering assurances that its efforts have not been without fruit, and that it has fairly succeeded in making less acute a really critical situation.

The Board enters upon another year of service, soliciting the closest scrutiny of its methods and purpose, believing that as the Church of Christ has not yet put on her full strength in the work of world redemption, so this "right arm of the Church" is yet to see its period of largest usefulness. As a highly specialized form of service, not to be confused or confounded with other administrative operations, it conceives of its work as lying at the very foundation of all Church activities; for underneath all religious problems lies that of securing a Gospel ministry adequate in character and numbers. When the Church is able to secure continuously enough of the right kind of men for the ministry, the problems of missions, evangelism, civic righteousness, social betterment, racial adjustment, in short, all problems of Christian civilization are fairly on their way to solution.

SUPPLY OF CANDIDATES.

Under the Board.—Eight hundred candidates have come under the Board's care during the past year. Of these, 82 are in academic courses, in 38 institutions; 353 in collegiate courses, in 78 institutions; and 365 in theological courses, in 15 institutions; 581 are "renewals," an increase of 25 over last year, while 219 are "new men," a decrease of 34 from last year. Although extremely anxious, in view of present conditions, to assist every candidate applying, the Board has not felt warranted in lowering its standards or suspending its rules, confident that the Church will uphold it in its time-honored policy of considering quality as important a characteristic of the Presbyterian ministry as the number of men. It might have shown an increase by accepting 37 applications which were regretfully declined after rigid investigation.

In Seminaries.—Reports from seminaries are that in 1895 there were 999 candidates, the number declining to 641 in 1902. There has been no appreciable increase since that time, there being 648 candidates in our seminaries in 1907-08 and 760 in 1908-09.

In Presbyteries.—For some reason returns from the Presbyteries indicate a more favorable situation than the returns from theological seminaries. The number of candidates at the lowest point of the ebb tide in 1903 was 779, which has increased steadily to 1105 in 1908.

A more accurate method of judging present conditions is to ascertain the relative proportion of candidates to membership of the Church. One candidate to 800 church members is the normal average since 1825. By referring to the chart* it will be seen that the supply had fluctuated from one candidate to 624 members (abnormal) to one candidate to 1,432 (sub-normal) in 1903, the lowest average in the history of the Church. According to the records of the past year there is one candidate to 1,176 members, which is but two-thirds of the normal supply. Our Church, while slowly returning toward a normal condition in candidate supply, will not reach it much before 1920, at the present rate, and is lower than in 1840, when the separation of the Old and the New Schools cut down the supply to smaller proportions than have obtained until the present low ratio.

General Conditions.—According to the latest Government statistics (United States Bureau of Education, 1907) the recent decline in general has not only been checked but apparently wiped out. In 1885, 8,050 students in theological institutions were reported. The number had declined in 1905 to 7,411, but increased in 1907 to 9,178. Allowance must be made for 534 women students and the inclusion in the report of a number of Biblical departments in colleges which should not be rated as theological seminaries. The fact remains, however, that between 1905 and 1907 there was an increase of 26 per cent. in attendance upon the principal Protestant evangelical seminaries. But the Presbyterian seminaries during that time gained only five men.

Within the last thirty-seven years the medical students of the country have increased from 166 to 291 per million of the population; law students, from 42 to 180; dentistry, from 6 to 80; while theological students increased from 84 to 90, showing that preparation for the preaching of the Gospel has in no wise kept pace with the training of men for the other professions.

Foreign-speaking Candidates.—The General Assembly, recognizing the obligation resting upon our Church to preach the Gospel in tongues of all people, laid upon the Board the task of surveying conditions among immigrants in this country and the shaping of a policy by which our responsibility in their behalf can be discharged. In obedience thereto this Board has prepared a supplemental report upon this question, embodying certain recommendations. There are at present under the care of the Board 133 foreign-speaking candidates (a gain of 16 over last year), 18 of whom are Italians, 15 Bohemians, 18 Spanish, 1 Swiss, 4 Ruthenians, 15 Hungarians, 50 Germans, 3 Japanese, 4 Hebrews, 1 Slovak, 2 Mexicans, 2 Russo-Germans, 1 Chinese. We have also 72 colored candidates.

* See frontispiece.

METHODS OF APPROACH.

Scholarship Aid.—The past year a maximum scholarship of one hundred dollars was granted to collegiate and seminary students and ninety dollars to academic students. Care has been taken that in each instance an aggregate sum of not more than two hundred dollars should be paid to a candidate jointly by the Board and the institution. In cases where a seminary has granted more than one hundred dollars the Board has cut down its appropriation, but these cases have been rare.

The legitimacy of scholarship aid is based upon several important considerations:

(1) The fact that the majority of candidates for the ministry come from families which, though rich in faith and Christian virtues, are limited in their ability to provide for the training of their children. The majority of ministerial candidates come from the humbler homes of the Church. Families whose customs are simple, frugal and unaffected, generally produce the best type of minister. Out of 348 Presbyterian candidates from whom these facts were secured, 172 were the sons of farmers, 44 of ministers, 29 of merchants, 20 of laborers, 10 of carpenters, 10 of manufacturers, 8 of lawyers, 8 of physicians, 7 of traveling salesmen, 5 of professors, 4 of railroad men, 4 of real estate men, 4 of accountants, 3 of newspaper men, 3 of druggists, 3 of millmen, while the remaining 14 were sons of men engaged in 11 different occupations. This record indicates clearly the inability of the average parent of a candidate to provide for a long course of special training.

(2) The grant is conditioned upon the candidate's qualifications as determined by Presbytery as to piety, sincerity, ability to teach and preach, and by the Board in the matter of academic preparation, continuous and high grade work in college and seminary, high moral conduct, and conscientious use of scholarship funds.

(3) Pecuniary aid is given, not loaned, in obedience to the theory that the Church owes to her sons an education which fits them alone for her service and unfits them for any other. As they separate themselves unto the high calling, putting behind them the hope and the means of securing a material fortune, it is as much the duty of the Church to provide for them during their years of training as in the subsequent period of their direct return to the Church in service. It is therefore, in no sense a charity, but in the largest degree an investment. No corporation is warranted in expecting large returns from its capital if it ventures nothing in the development of its properties. The Church is receiving ample yearly returns from this sacred form of investment. The Board, therefore, performs a threefold service to the church, (1) by assisting into the ministry many young men otherwise lost to her service; (2) by safeguarding the Church against the intrusion of unworthy applicants, and (3) by purchasing annually hundreds of years of service for the Church. This service thus secured, by which young men are not compelled to interrupt their education by returning to employment, is worth many times its cost.

Students failing to attain a high level of scholarship and moral worth are dealt with firmly yet sympathetically. If, after due admonishing, they do not meet the requirements, their aid is withheld. Complete records of each candidate's class standing, punctuality, economy and Christian conduct must be received before the November and March payments. The Board is pleased to report that 485 of our candidates were marked "high" or "medium plus" in scholarship, aid having been withheld in a number of instances with beneficial results. Eight have married during the year and three have been ordained, which necessitated their elimination from the roll. One has been dropped for unbecoming conduct and one for poor scholarship.

Exceptional Cases.—The Board has used the discretion allowed it by the last Assembly, in favor of exceptional cases among students in the former Cumberland territory, with much caution. Its promise that the number of such cases would be reduced to a minimum has been fulfilled. The Board is happy to report that the Presbyteries occupying the former Cumberland territory have cordially co-operated in the effort to secure high standards in ministerial education, and that there is no further need of special dispensation in favor of their candidates. But among the ranks of the former Cumberland Church ministry are a few comparatively young men who were ordained without a seminary course prior to the Union. It is recommended that in all such cases, where such men are able to take a seminary course, and are duly recommended for such a course by their respective Presbyteries, the Board be authorized to accept them for aid regardless of collegiate preparation, and that they be given all proper encouragement and assistance, the Board reserving to itself the right to reject such as may not, in its estimation, be able to profit by such a course.

Prize Scholarships.—The Secretary's Scholarship has been held for three years by Mr. George M. Day, a graduate of San Francisco Theological Seminary. He has been taking post-graduate work at Halle, Germany, and elsewhere, and has carried on his studies to the satisfaction of the Board. His incumbency of the Scholarship terminates this year, and it is the purpose of the Board to offer it for competition to the students of the German Theological School of the Northwest.

The Newberry Scholarship, offered to the students of McCormick Seminary, was awarded to Mr. E. C. Hamilton, who graduates this year from McCormick Seminary, and intends to pursue his post-graduate course under the terms of this scholarship.

The present holder of the Mutchmore Scholarship is Mr. John Y. Crothers, a graduate of Omaha Theological Seminary. It will not be awarded during the coming year, in order to make a larger scholarship available in 1910.

The Board, experiencing certain difficulties in administering these Special Scholarships under its regular rules, would call the attention of the General Assembly to the following action:

“WHEREAS, It appears that Mr. George M. Day, the holder of the Secretary's Scholarship for the three years ending with 1909, was, in the spring of 1908, ordained by the Presbytery of Benicia, and

“WHEREAS, A question has been raised as to the powers of this Board to continue to Mr. Day the income from this scholarship after the date of his ordination, and,

“WHEREAS, It appears that both Mr. Day and the Presbytery of Benicia were wholly unaware that any such question would arise, on account of the fact of such ordination, and,

“WHEREAS, We understand that Mr. Day, expecting to labor in Japan, and desiring to be ordained by his home Presbytery, both on account of his father's being a member of that Presbytery and because it would be impracticable for him to receive ordination in our Church after reaching Japan, was ordained on the eve of leaving home for a year's study in Germany, under the direction of this Board, intending to proceed directly from Germany, where he now is, to Japan, and

“WHEREAS, Mr. Day had won this scholarship in a competitive examination, and this in a way removing this case from the list of ordinary beneficiaries of the Board, therefore,

“Resolved, That this Board, waiving the question of irregularity in this instance and disclaiming any precedent in its action, continue to Mr. Day the benefits of this scholarship until the expiration of the term for which he holds it, subject to the approval of the General Assembly of 1909, and,

Resolved, That in view of all the special features of this case, as indicated above, this Board does unanimously request the General Assembly of 1909 to approve this action." (Extract from Minutes, October 26, 1908.)

Resolved, 1. That the Board be permitted to extend to the holders of the Mutchmore and the Secretary's Scholarships the right now accorded to the holder of the Newberry Scholarship, to spend a year of graduate study in foreign universities at the discretion of the Board.

2. That authority be given the Board to permit, at its discretion, marriage or ordination, or both, to the holders of its special scholarships after graduation from the theological seminary.

VISITATION OF THE FIELD.

The cause has been presented by the Secretaries in thirty churches, emphasis being laid upon the responsibility of pastors, parents, Sunday-school officers and teachers for the placing of ideals of sacrifice and service before young people, rather than upon the need of the Board for funds. This method has received the hearty endorsement of ministers and people generally. Sixteen Synods and ten Presbyteries have been reached by the Secretaries during the past year, besides thirteen other gatherings addressed, including ministerial conferences, Brotherhoods and Sunday-schools.

The following seminaries have been visited: Allegheny, Austin, Hartford, Lebanon and Louisville.

Addresses to students and personal conferences have been given at the following colleges: Cumberland University and Bethel College, Tenn.; Hanover and Wabash, Ind.; Lincoln, James Milliken, Blackburn, Lake Forest and Illinois, in Illinois; Lafayette, Washington and Jefferson, Grove City, Western University, in Pennsylvania; Trinity, in Texas; Park, Missouri Valley, Westminster and Lindenwood, in Missouri; Indianola and Robert Kendall, in Oklahoma; Arkansas Cumberland, in Arkansas; Highland, in Kansas; Hastings, in Nebraska; Parsons, Lenox and Buena Vista, in Iowa; Macalester, in Minnesota; Carroll, in Wisconsin; Wooster, in Ohio.

Also the following academies: Lawrenceville, Blainstown and Bridgeton N. J.; Union, Ill.; Auburn and Bowling Green, Ky.;

Manton Collegiate, Texas; Castle Heights, Tenn.; Stillman Institute, Ala.

The following State institutions have been visited: The Universities of Indiana (Bloomington, Ind.), Purdue (Lafayette, Ind.), Illinois, Arkansas, Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Iowa, Mississippi, Alabama, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania (State College), Ohio (Columbus) and Nebraska; also Tulane University, New Orleans, La., and the Mechanical and Agricultural College at Starkville, Miss.

Close study of the moral and religious atmosphere of the colleges and universities leads to the conclusion that broad generalities are notoriously misleading. It is not always possible to forecast the tone of an institution from its affiliations. In a few Christian colleges the religious atmosphere might be less formal, while in some institutions which have to struggle for what religion they have, the spirit of the college reflects a healthy religious tone. It is, however, discouraging to pass from one State institution to another and find so little interest in the ministerial vocation. This is partly due to the fact that young people intending to become ministers and missionaries do not choose State institutions, but preferably attend a professedly Christian college. From such colleges we secure the large share of the best material for the ministry. The general appearance and spirit of the candidates gives the impression of their superiority to the average run of students. At the parlor conferences almost every ministerial student was in attendance and a feeling of deep earnestness was conspicuous. A list of our candidates agreeing to act as special agents for the Board in arousing interest among their friends in the ministerial calling has been secured. This personal touch of students upon the situation, it is hoped, will produce marked effects upon the supply ere long.

THE PRINTED PAGE.

The Board has enlarged its facilities for distributing appropriate leaflets, reprints, pamphlets and books to pastors, parents, professors and students. With the conviction that the sources of supply must be sought and influences brought to bear upon the home and the Sunday-school for the creation of a deeper concern, the Board has embraced every opportunity of putting into proper hands the following publications:

“The Ministry: a Challenge and Appeal to Christian Young Men” —Marquess.

“Shall I Enter the Ministry?”—Burtt.

“Every Man’s Life a Plan of God”—Bushnell.

“Prayer for Men for the Ministry”—Marquess.

“The Ideal Minister”—Charles Cuthbert Hall.

“The Present Supply of Trained Men”—Cochran.

“The Ministry of Reconciliation”—Taylor.

Extra pages of the Assembly Herald have been purchased, and reprints of the best articles secured for distribution. The February number of the Westminster Teacher was, through the generous cooperation of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work, given up to our cause, and the suggestion made through it and the religious newspapers that February 14, the Sabbath following the Day of Prayer for Colleges, should be used in the Sunday-schools for public appeals by pastors, Sabbath-school officers and teachers, that the minds of the young might be led in the direction of the highest vocational ideals. If ministers and churches could be aroused to their neglect in failing to cultivate the soil for the growth of the ministerial and missionary motives in the hearts of the young, this Board’s task would be far easier than it is. We desire, the coming year, to attack the root causes of the decline as far as possible. “Presenting the cause” must mean the appeal for life, more than the appeal for money. Our aim shall be to reach all workers in churches, and especially Sunday-schools, and to urge pastors, parents and teachers to seek out chosen material to a larger extent than ever before.

The valuable set of nine pamphlets issued the past year by the International Committee of the Young Men’s Christian Association was sent out to the Board’s correspondents in every institution where we have candidates. Names of men who might be led to consider the call to the ministry are being constantly forwarded by our special agents in the schools. These are personally addressed through letters and are furnished with literature. The recently issued book of Mr. John R. Mott, “The Future Leadership of the Church,” will, through arrangement with its publishers, be within the reach of every minister of our Church within a short time.

Generous friends have made it possible for the Board to announce valuable prize offers of books to ministers who will prepare and deliver addresses or sermons dealing with the needs and opportunities of the sacred calling. It is hoped that in this way thousands of public appeals will be made to churches and student gatherings, and the Board be put in possession of the freshest and most inspiring material for publication from time to time.

THE DAY OF PRAYER.

The change of the Day of Prayer to the Thursday preceding the second Sunday in February proved to be in every way satisfactory, the colleges, almost without exception, adopting it and profiting by it. The Board sent out a questionnaire to the colleges concerning the value of the day, and found that it was generally observed with the most beneficial results. In a number of instances revivals were experienced in connection with the day's observance. It is recommended that the change be adhered to, and that the Thursday immediately preceding the second Sunday of February, 1910, be observed as a Day of Prayer for Colleges and Universities.

PRESBYTERIAN STUDENTS IN STATE UNIVERSITIES.

In accordance with the direction of the Assembly relative to continuing the Board's work in the matter of the supply of the religious needs of Presbyterian students in State Universities, the Board would report that the pre-Assembly Conference at Kansas City was attended by about seventy-five representatives of the work, including our own student pastors, the Revs. J. Leslie French, of Ann Arbor; M. G. Allison, of Madison; James M. Duer, of Champaign, and Francis A. Wilber, of Lawrence. Among the speakers were President Henry C. Culbertson, of Emporia College, and Chancellor Frank Strong, of the University of Kansas.

The Assembly also recommended that "gifts and endowments . . . be encouraged." The Board would report that three Synods are now agitating the question of buildings for the housing of this special work. Westminster House, at Kansas, to be erected as a gift by a friend of the work, is to have a thirty-thousand-dollar endowment, most of which has been raised during the year. Kansas contributing almost the entire amount. The Corresponding Secretary spent three weeks in Kansas, co-operating with the Rev. Dr. Robert E. L. Jarvis, of Winfield, Special Representative of the Trustees of Westminster House in the raising of the endowment fund. Some money was also contributed by friends in the East.

The Synod of Pennsylvania has recommended the raising of at least fifty thousand dollars for the erection of a new house of worship at State College, Pa., where three hundred and fifty Presbyterian students are studying in this important institution.

The Committee on Education of the Synod of Illinois is also planning for the creation of a sixty-thousand-dollar endowment for the work at the University of Illinois. A woman's hall of residence, which is greatly needed, is projected. The Rev. James M. Duer resigned as student pastor on April 1; and has been succeeded by the Rev. Martin E. Anderson, a graduate of the Class of 1909 of McCormick Seminary. He takes up the work with much enthusiasm and large prospects of success.

In all instances where endowments are being created, the Board, acting in conjunction with Synodical Committees, feels that the utmost care should be exercised so as to safeguard and insure the perpetuity of all such endowments to the Presbyterian Church in connection with this work.

Being admittedly the only administrative agency of the Presbyterian Church to whom has been committed this task, and to whom it properly belongs, the Board requests the Assembly to define more fully and clearly its responsibilities in the matter of the raising of endowments for work at State educational institutions.

Fifteen State universities have been visited by the Secretaries during the past year. The sympathetic attitude of the presidents of the institutions has been a feature of these visits. As an instance of this we would report the invitation extended to the Corresponding Secretary to deliver the baccalaureate address at the University of Iowa at the commencement of the graduating class of 1908. At one of these institutions it was learned that a wealthy citizen had ordered his daughter home, because he had sent her to the university to secure an education and not to be led off into missionary work among the heathen. Dr. Darby was urged not to be afraid of making his address too religious. "They are used to it here," was the official explanation. At chapel exercises prayer was requested by the President in behalf of a student who was very ill.

On his arrival at another State university the Board's representative learned that a lecture was about to be given in the chapel. The first words that greeted his ears were "justification by faith." Professor Hugh Black was speaking to the students, the President being responsible for the series of religious addresses delivered by him.

Applications were received during the year from the Committees of six Synods in behalf of the Universities of Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Kansas, Iowa and State College, Pennsylvania. The two last named are on the Board for the first time this year.

The Presbyterians at the University of Ohio (Columbus) and the University of Nebraska (Lincoln) are taking steps to develop the work, and are hoping to have student pastors on the field by the opening of the next scholastic year.

It is clear that this work cannot be placed upon a firm foundation until endowments are secured. Until this is done few men of the highest calibre will feel justified in leaving settled pastorates to enter this untried field. Efforts to put the work upon a sound financial basis are unfavorably affected by the prejudice attending a new departure in a field traditionally considered to be outside the Church's work. But the Church is awaking to the realization that Presbyterian young people by the thousand attend State universities, and that there is no reason to believe that this educational current can be changed. It is believed by farsighted Church leaders that this university work will be in time one of the greatest tasks in which the Church can engage. A President of a Presbyterian College said recently, "This is the greatest Home Mission work before the Church." Has not the day dreamed of and prayed for by Christian friends of secular education come to its dawning? The query of Dr. Kelsey, of the Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor, "Shall the churches heed the call of the university?" is being answered month by month in less uncertain tones. The question now before the churches is seen to be not "What can be done to stem the tide?" but "What can be done to make and keep vital the religious atmosphere of the young men and women at the universities?"

No hard and fast methods can be employed. Generally speaking, however, there are five:

(1) Activity through the local church. Perhaps the best work done by student pastors without institutional help is that of the University of Wisconsin, where is emphasized the necessity of centering the work in the local church. The success of the movement is regarded as dependent upon the church's ability to hold the young people, rather than as an educational or social effort loosely related to the local church.

(2) Lectureships. Several denominations have endowed lecture foundations, where regular or special lecturers give courses in the Bible, Christian Ethics, Church History and allied subjects.

(3) Guild Halls. Tappan Hall at Ann Arbor, owned by the Presbyterians, a plant worth forty thousand dollars, with an eleven-thousand-dollar endowment, is a typical illustration. The student pastor here conducts classes in Bible and Church History, gathers groups in his own home, encourages interest in the local Christian Endeavor Society, and does regular pastoral work. He is a member of the Faculty of the University, in the Chair of Semitics.

Westminster House, at Lawrence, will soon be the latest illustration of Presbyterian interest at the State university. It will soon enjoy the facilities of a beautiful and commodious edifice.

(4) The affiliated college. Only one instance of the movement of a church college toward the university is found in this country, but several successful efforts of this kind are in operation in Canada. Wesley College, of the Methodist Church, has moved to the University of North Dakota, at Grand Forks, each institution giving credit for courses taken in the other.

Following the Assembly's recommendation, the Board has co-operated with other Churches in this work through conferences. The Religious Education Association met in Chicago, in March, in conjunction with the Interdenominational Conference of Church and Guild Workers in State Universities, the Corresponding Secretary reading a paper on "The Religious Denominations and the State Universities," which can be secured at the Board rooms.

The conviction is forced upon the Board that efforts from without can result only in a partial work, and that the university needs to be vitally Christianized from within. It is absolutely necessary that the Church should interest herself in the personnel of the faculties of State universities. Vice-Provost Smith of the University of Pennsylvania said: "What this school needs most of all is not the study of 'isms' and some new way to get to heaven but an old-fashioned revival," and that revival will come only when the faculty, from the President down to the last instructor, are living witnesses for Christ.

CONTRIBUTIONS.

Receipts from the churches this year, notwithstanding special efforts, show a decrease of $1,138, whereas there was an increase of 20 per cent. last year. This cannot be charged to a decrease of interest in the Board's work, but only to the recent financial depression throughout the country. The Board has received, however, about $8,000 from undesignated legacies over the amount of the previous year, but this increase has not been commensurate with the enlarged work of the Board. To meet this $2,282 have been taken from our already depleted emergency fund. It is earnestly hoped that a special effort will be made by the larger churches to return to their normal offerings, the decrease having been occasioned by the falling off of contributions from the stronger churches.

The Rev. Dr. Darby, Assistant Secretary, has been able to increase to a very considerable extent the number of contributing churches in the former Cumberland territory. An unusual number of weak churches have contributed small amounts during the past year, indicating the success of the efforts of the Assistant Secretary among that constituency with which he is especially familiar.

The Board cannot feel that its work is upon a sound financial basis until the churches shall contribute the entire amount needed for scholarships. In so doing the churches may feel that they are not contributing one cent to the administrative expenses of the Board, which are being taken care of by invested funds. It is hoped that the self-supporting Synods will recognize the desirability of making their offerings to the Board commensurate with the Board's grants to their candidates. Self-support in Home Missions would seem to imply self-support in the training of future Home missionaries. The Board would recommend that such Synods be requested to consider favorably this suggestion.

OVERTURES 79 AND 80.

The Presbytery of Utica overtured the Assembly of 1908 concerning the Board's conduct of examinations in the English Bible in connection with the granting of scholarships to candidates. After conference with the author of Overtures 79 and 80, and a thorough investigation of conditions, the Board suggests that the Assembly consider the measures proposed as inexpedient for the present. At the same time the Board expresses its belief that a larger knowledge of the English Bible should be had by all candidates applying for scholarships. It would suggest, therefore, that Presbyteries be properly instructed in the matter of examining their candidates thoroughly in the essentials of Bible truth.

GUARANTY INSURANCE.

The last General Assembly submitted to the Boards the question whether it would be advisable that the Treasurers "of all trust funds of Boards should carry guaranty insurance on all cash balances held in bank."

The Board, on April 28, 1909, adopted a resolution declaring "That this Board having considered, in all its aspects, the question of insuring its Bank Balances, is of the opinion that such insurance is not necessary or expedient."

COLORED CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIANS.

The educational interests of the Colored Cumberland Presbyterians have been looked after in some measure by the Assistant Secretary of the Board, in co-operation with the Freedmen's Board and in his capacity as Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Society of the C. P. Church, whose Board of Management is located at Nashville, Tenn. These educational interests stand for the future growth and usefulness of a separate and independent denomination of Colored Presbyterians, and the work is worthy of the heartiest sympathy and most helpful co-operation of all Presbyterians who are interested in the evangelization and general uplift of the negro race. Particular attention has been given to the schools at Bowling Green, Ky.; Huntsville, Ala., and Newbern, Tenn. At Bowling Green there is a Bible Department, at the head of which is Rev. C. P. McLurkin, a graduate of Lincoln University, who is sustained entirely by an appropriation made by the Freedmen's Board. In this department there are nine young men preparing for the ministry, all of whom have received special assistance during the year. It is not the aim of this institution to do more than preparatory work, and the hope is that from year to year young men will be sent forward to the colleges and theological seminaries of our own or some kindred denomination.

MEMBERS.

The Board has suffered the loss by death of one of its members the past year, T. M. Rogers, Esq., who served faithfully for twelve years. The Board has placed on record its appreciation of his faithful service, and has elected Dr. George W. Warren, of Swarthmore, Pa., to fill out his unexpired term. The General Assembly is respectfully requested to confirm this election.

The re-election of the following named members, whose period of service has expired, is also recommended: Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D., Rev. John Calhoun, William H. Oxtoby, D.D., George W. Bailey, M.D., Samuel D. Oliphant, Esq., Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D.

TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE CUMBER-LAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

On behalf of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church (this being its corporate name), the undersigned respectfully report to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church U. S. A. that the Board of Directors of said Society have held one formal meeting during the year for the purpose of electing officers and filling vacancies. As instructed by the General Assembly and according to arrangement with the Board of Missions for Freedmen, this Board, through its Corresponding Secretary, has given special attention during the year to the educational interests of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored. It will be remembered that this is a separate and independent organization of Colored Presbyterians, numbering probably twenty-five thousand, with five Synods and eighteen Presbyteries. The Church has three schools located at Bowling Green, Kentucky, Huntsville, Alabama, and Newbern, Tennessee. The first named is the principal school of the three, and connected with it is a Bible Department where the young men are receiving some degree of training for the ministry. The work of this denomination of colored people appears to be moving forward with reasonably good success, and they are hopeful of being able to fill a worthy mission in behalf of their race. They deserve the cordial sympathy and assistance of all white Presbyterians. Aside from this work and from the simple duty of acting as a "holding corporation," no business has come before the Board during the year.

The Recording Secretary of the Board, Hon. M. A. Montgomery of Nashville, died during the year, much regretted by all of his associates. Rev. Dr. W. T. Rodgers of Nashville, was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Brother Montgomery. Rev. Dr. R. M. Tinnon has removed to Kansas, and the vacancy occasioned by his resignation was filled by the election of Rev. G. W. Shelton. The terms of the following members expire at this date: Dr. Edgar A. Elmore, Rev. J. R. Henry and Dr. W. P. Bone.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. DARBY,

Corresponding Secretary.

W. H. HALBERT,

President.

The third recommendation of the Standing Committee of the Board of Education of the Assembly of 1908, as passed by that body, is as follows:

"That in view of the importance of the work among our foreign-speaking or exceptional populations, the matter of training ministerial and lay workers for these peoples be referred to the Board, with instructions to survey the whole field, and to outline, if possible, some policy and report to the next General Assembly."

In accordance therewith the Board of Education, through a Special Committee consisting of the Rev. William H. Oxtoby, D.D., George W. Bailey, M.D., and S. Spencer Chapman, Esq., called a conference of certain leading representatives of work among foreign-speaking peoples, which was held in the Board rooms, Philadelphia, December 1, 1908, the following being among those present: B. P. Fullerton, D.D., St. Louis; William H. Roberts, D.D., William P. Fulton, D.D., Philadelphia; Rev. Charles Stelzle, James Beveridge Lee, D.D., W. W.

White, New York; William McKibben, D.D., Cincinnati; Prof. E. A. Steiner, Grinnell College, Iowa; Samuel McLanahan, D.D., Lawrenceville, N. J.; Rev. Ferdinand Von Krug, Kingston, Pa.; Rev. S. H. Lee, Springfield, Mass.

In addition to the valuable information gained through this conference, extensive correspondence was entered into, and numerous interviews held, with Home Mission and City Extension Boards, and Committees of several denominations. The best authorities have been consulted for statistics, and a sincere effort made to prepare a report, of more than ordinary importance, to the Assembly. But the field is so vast, and the forces so scattered and inadequate, that the Board regards its report as a mere tentative approach to a subject of gravest importance to every American patriot and every lover of the work of Christ.

The peaceful invasion of a country by aliens to the number of 25,000,000 in eighty-nine years, one-half of whom have arrived since the year 1880, is an occurrence without historic parallel. Its significance as yet fails of adequate appreciation. Prof. Steiner calls it "the greatest phenomenon of history" and says that "future generations, wondering at the process, will say a new and gigantic race was being born between the Atlantic and the Pacific; a race born to build or destroy, to cry to the world 'ground arms,' or to cast it into the hell of war; a race in which are welded all kindreds of the people of the earth, or a race which will destroy itself by mutual hate."

The effects of this invasion upon American ideals is a matter of deepest concern on the part of earnest students of the progress of civilization. America has become the melting-pot of the world. Whether she be able to fuse the diverse elements of these many races, will depend upon the vitality of her religious life. Only a minority of our alien population is Americanized. They cannot be Americanized except they be Christianized. The final problem of the immigrant is, after all, the religious problem. To be of one speech is inevitable; to be of one blood desirable; but to be of one faith is indispensable to the permanence of our free institutions, and the establishing of the Kingdom of God on earth. Education, social reform, economic adjustment are great but partial factors in the process of assimilation. Any measures that overlook the bridging of the chasm between man's temporal and spiritual needs will be found wanting.

The Churches of Christ in America have scarcely begun to recognize the magnitude of the task before them. Its unparalleled complexity they appreciate still less. And only in a faint-hearted and desultory way have they addressed themselves to the task at all. But they must now face it with serious determination. Their loyalty, devotion, and zeal are challenged. Their accomplishment of it will mean not only the triumph of Christianity at home, but the gaining of a position of vantage for the evangelization of the world. "Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already to harvest," is a divine command as thrilling and timely for our immigration problem as for any former epoch in the history of missions.

THE FIELD.

The difficulty of securing accurate statistics is notorious and baffling. Not until very recent years has there been any strict classification of immigrants by the Government, the term "immigrant" not being clearly defined until January 1, 1906.* The net addition to our population through emigration has not been more than two-thirds of the reported immigration.

It is safe to say, however, that more immigrants have landed upon our shores since 1850 than our own population numbered in the year 1820, in round numbers, 25,000,000 people. Since 1880, over 16,500,000 have landed, the height of the present tidal wave of immigration being in 1907, when we received 1,285,349. The actual net increase in immigration between 1898 and 1905 has been about 3,750,000. In 1900, the population of the country was 76,303,387. Of this number 10,460,085 were foreign-born, 13.7%. And in this same year the number born of foreign parents was 15,687,322 or 20.6%. During this time the population born of native parents increased 18.9%; but the population born of foreign parents increased 36.9%. A careful analysis of the census figures will bear out the statement of the Census report, that the "native white element of foreign parentage has increased during the past ten years relatively twice as fast as the native whites of native parentage." That is, the foreign stocks in America are much more prolific than the native stock. This populating power of the foreign stock is worthy of careful consideration.

According to careful estimates, based on the average yearly immigration for the past three years, there are to-day (May, 1909) 9,261,588 of foreign-born people in the United States, and 27,234,579 of foreign parentage. Counting both foreign-born and of foreign parentage, there are in this country approximately 12,000,000 Germans, 3,000,000 Scandinavians, 2,000,000 Italians, 300,000 Hungarians, and among the Slavic group 1,000,000 Poles, 500,000 Bohemians, 500,000 Russian Jews, 400,000 Slovaks, 300,000 Ruthenians, 200,000 Lithuanians, 200,000 Croatians and Slovenians. Besides these, we have thousands of Spanish, Portuguese, Bulgarians, Servians, Dalmatians, Bosnians and Montenegrins, besides natives of the Levant, such as Turks, Syrians, Armenians and Greeks. Chinese, Japanese, and Mexicans bring up the rear of the long procession of home-seekers and fortune-seekers from foreign climes.

* The Bureau of Immigration defines immigrants as "arriving aliens whose last permanent residence was in countries other than the United States, British North America or Mexico, and who intend to reside in the United States."

The first fact to be recognized is that this is a problem, if not THE problem of the city. If the foreigner distributed himself evenly over our country, assimilation would be greatly simplified, but he insists upon crowding into the cities. The marvelous growth of the city, within the past thirty years, is, to a large extent, the result of immigration. In 1870 only fourteen cities had a population of 100,000 people; but in 1900 such cities numbered thirty-eight. In 1880 we had but one city having 1,000,000 population; in 1900 there were three. The foreign-born population in the country was 13.5% in 1900, but the population of the cities was 26% foreign-born. In Boston, 72% of the population are either foreign-born or of foreign parentage; Fall River, Mass., 86%; New York City, 74%; Chicago, 77%; Philadelphia, 54%; Duluth, Minn., 79%; San Francisco, 75%. Immigrants tend to reverse their old country habits of rural life, exchanging agricultural for industrial conditions. The proportion of foreign-born immigrants classed according to country, and found in 160 of our principal cities, is as follows: Italians, 62%; Germans, 50%; Polish, 62%; Russians, 75% (Census of 1900).

One out of every four persons on Manhattan Island is a Jew. Ninety per cent. of the students of the College of the City of New York are of the same race.

Another fact to be taken into consideration is the decrease of immigration from Great Britain and the Protestant countries of northern Europe, and the increase of immigration from southern and southeastern Europe, where religion, language, laws, customs, and temperament are at the farthest remove from American faith and conduct. Southeastern Europe sends three times as many inhabitants as northwestern Europe to the foreign quarter of Baltimore, nineteen times as many to the heart of New York, twenty times as many to Chicago, and seventy-one times as many to Philadelphia. The illiteracy of immigrants from northwestern Europe in the so-called slums of great cities is 25.5%; from southeastern Europe is 54.5%, according to the author of "Immigration and its Effect upon the United States."

Dr. Josiah Strong, in his "Challenge of the City," is responsible for the following statements: "The proportion of our foreign-born population (12.9%) is nearly three times as large as among the native whites (4.6%)."

"The tendency to pauperism is nearly three times as strong in the foreign element as in the native."

"Immigrants are 50% more lawless than the native whites born of native parents; native-born sons of immigrants are twice as lawless as their fathers, and three times as lawless as the whites of native stock. Among juvenile offenders the disproportion is still stronger."

The immigration problem is most acute in the North Atlantic States, i.e., New England, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, and the North Central States, i.e., Ohio to Dakota and Kansas, including Missouri. Of the 10,356,000 foreign-born in the United States in 1900, 45.9% are found in the North Atlantic Division, 40.1% in the North Central Division and 8.1% in the Western Division. The North Atlantic Division contains over 59% of all the Bohemians, Hungarians, Italians, Slavs and Russians found in the United States. New York is the most foreign State in the Union; Pennsylvania stands second, Illinois third, Massachusetts fourth. The five New England cities of Fall River (86.1%), Holyoke (85.4%), Lawrence (83.1%), Lowell (77.9%), and Woonsocket (83.5%) have a higher percentage of foreign population than New York (74%), Chicago (77.4%), or San Francisco (75.2%).

Local congestion of population is rapidly increasing among certain nationalities. In the North Atlantic Division this increase between 1890 and 1900 among the Hungarians was 73%; Italians, 77%; Polish, 59%, and Russians, 77%. Our North Atlantic States receive approximately three-fourths of all the increase of population among the immigrants of southern and southwestern Europe. Nineteen per cent. of Poles are in Pennsylvania, and 18% in New York; 37% of Italians are in New York, and 13% in Pennsylvania; 39% of Russians are in New York, and 12% in Pennsylvania.

To sum up:

(1) The field presents entirely novel aspects, the New Immigrant being a distinct product of recent years, owing to the shifting of immigration from northern to southern Europe as the result of industrial conditions.

(2) Immigration is a problem of our great cities, notably those of the Atlantic seaboard; the local congestion of foreigners in our great cities increasing much faster than the native population.

(3) Poverty, illiteracy and crime are greater among the foreign than the native stock, presenting a singularly sinister aspect to the entire situation.

POINTS OF CONTACT.

It is absolutely necessary for the Protestant Churches of America to arrive at a common understanding as to the several nationalities for whose evangelization they are peculiarly responsible. Certain denominations are particularly well qualified to appeal to certain nationalities, and also to those coming from sections of Europe where these denominations are at work. Little is being done to-day looking toward comity in this work. The Rev. Ferdinand Von Krug, of the Lackawanna Presbytery, says: "One great trouble is, that in the smaller towns all the denominations want to work in the same spot. Some sort of an understanding should be reached to prevent overlapping. We Presbyterians should not think that we can do all the work, and we ought not to interfere with other denominations if they are doing the work."

WE RECOMMEND THAT THE ASSEMBLY CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE FEDERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHURCHES OF CHRIST IN AMERICA TO THE GREAT DESIRABILITY OF ORGANIZING AN INTERDENOMINATIONAL BUREAU OF IMMIGRATION, FOR THE PURPOSE OF UNIFYING THE WORK IN THIS COUNTRY AND ENTERING INTO HELPFUL RELATIONS WITH EUROPEAN CENTRES OF IMMIGRATION.

A special study should be made of the Protestant centres of Europe, and vital communication established between the leading Protestant forces of the Continent and America. Official deputations from our churches should visit Germany, Bohemia, Poland, Hungary, and selected portions of Russia, the Balkan provinces and Italy, where the evangelical movement is flourishing. This is one of the best methods of discovering where the most approachable immigrants are located in this land, and also those influences by which they can be reached. The Mission School at Kattowitz in Protestant Poland, Pastor Martin Urban, President, is a typical point of contact. Others are found in the Slavic districts of Hungary, and in Bohemia, where the Congregational Church has successful missions. The Reformed Church of Hungary is sending us thousands of Calvinistic adherents yearly, as is also the Waldensian Church of Italy. The German population of Poland, and the Protestant revival centres of Bohemia, are rich in material for this investigation. The State Young Men's Christian Association of Pennsylvania, under the guidance of Prof. Steiner, sent over six college students last summer, for the purpose of studying the problem on the home field, thus indicating a valuable method of approach.

The reacting effect of immigration is a feature of great importance, for the return of thousands to their native land, after imbibing the American spirit and the Christian faith, produces far-reaching effects. Every returning immigrant is a missionary to his native land. Robert Watchorn, the best Commissioner of Immigration the United States ever had, has said: "It is from this land, and from her institutions, that there will go out a great light that will ultimately brighten the whole earth, not only industrially and commercially, but spiritually. The United States is the world's exemplar, and by it the world must ultimately be led to a higher plane of existence."

Although 80% of our immigration is made up of Roman Catholics, Greek Catholics, Greek Orthodox, and Jews, our mission is not alone to the remaining 20% of Protestants, for in this atmosphere of liberty the immigrant is peculiarly open to the pure Gospel, the men freeing themselves more readily from priestcraft than the women. "I believe," says Prof. Steiner, "that despite the crude state in which the present immigrant comes, he is ready for the best the Church can give to him." "I have found Jews everywhere who were Christian in spirit. The Jew is suspicious of missions and missionaries, but he responds quickly to the notes of true religion, whenever they strike his heart."

THE WORK OF THE PROTESTANT DENOMINATIONS.

Methodist Episcopal Church.—The German Methodists have ten Conferences, 900 churches, 757 ministers and 71,000 members and probationers. Italian Methodist church members number 2,400; Japanese, 2,600; Spanish, 8,100; Bohemians and Hungarians, 650. There are also several hundred communicants among the Chinese, Portuguese and Finnish. Work is being pushed by the Methodists in the coke regions of western Pennsylvania, where the majority of the Slavic races found in Pennsylvania are located.

The Swedish Methodists have 195 ministers, 19,000 members and probationers, and 229 churches. The Swedish Methodist City Mission in Chicago is doing an important work.

The work of the Methodists for immigrants landing at New York is worthy of highest praise. A missionary is stationed at Ellis Island in practical ministry for the sick, children, and strangers. Swedes and Norwegians have Methodist churches in New York City. There are also five Italian Methodist missions and churches from the Battery to the Bronx, besides one Chinese, one Japanese, and one Hebrew mission in New York City.

Baptist Church.—The Swedish Baptists in this country number about 25,000, with 118 missionary pastors. Their churches are found in twenty-nine States, nearly one-half of them being found in Minnesota and Illinois. The Danish and Norwegian Baptists number about 6,000. Among the Italians, the Baptists have seventeen missionary pastors occupying thirty stations in six States. In Philadelphia, there is a Baptist Settlement House in the Italian quarter. Successful work is being done in New Haven, Conn., Providence, R. I., and Brooklyn. The First Italian Baptist Church of New York City is one of the most important organizations of its kind in the country.

Among the Germans, the Baptists have 366 churches, with 26,000 church members. A Bohemian mission was organized in Chicago, in 1887, and is now a strong church. Work is also being conducted among the Poles and Bohemians in Detroit, the Hungarians in Cleveland, and the Slavs in Scranton and Pittsburg. There are also Polish Baptist missions in Buffalo, Hartford, Conn., and Chicopee, Mass. The largest Polish Baptist church in the United States is in Wisconsin. The first Slovak Baptist church in America is at Creighton, Pa. At Gladstone, Mich., the Finnish Baptists are strong. Churches among these people are springing up in Michigan, Minnesota, and States farther west.

The Congregational Church.—The Congregational Year Book for 1908 reports the following churches for people of foreign speech: Bohemian, 3; Chinese, 8; Danish, 4; Finnish, 5; French, 110; German, 120; Italian, 7; Japanese, 19; Portuguese, 7; Slavonic, 8; Swedish, 78; Scandinavian, 115; Welsh, 50. They conduct Slavic missions in Cleveland, St. Louis, and a few points in Iowa, Nebraska and elsewhere; also Slovak missions in and around Pittsburg, and Polish missions in Toledo, O., Bay City, Mich., and in New England. There are Congregational Polish churches also in Detroit and Cleveland. The Congregational Home Missionary Society had, in 1905, 236 missionaries speaking thirteen different dialects.

The Presbyterian Church.—Comprehensive information is particularly difficult to secure, owing to the prosecution of work for foreigners by the Presbyteries, whose reports are not printed, scanty information only being found in Synodical and Assembly reports. The most important work is being done in the Synods of New York, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania.

In New York City there are, under the care of New York Presbytery, thirteen churches among foreign-speaking people—four Italian, three German, three Hungarian, one Ruthenian, one French and one Bohemian. Work is also being conducted for Chinese at six different points.

An interesting work among the Ruthenians has been begun in New York City. There are about 300,000 of these people in this country, and they are engaged at this time in breaking away from the Roman Catholic Church. The Constitution of the Free Ruthenian Church of America has incorporated the Westminster Confession of Faith, and it may now be said that to the Presbyterians, essentially, has been committed the work of caring for these interesting and approachable people.

The Immigration Department of the Home Mission Board has engaged, during the past year, in an exhaustive study of conditions among immigrants settling in New York City. It proposes to inquire into conditions of social and religious life in the lands from which immigration proceeds, and proposes to be a bureau of publicity concerning foreigners, and religious work in their behalf. During the year 1908, the Board of Home Missions expended nearly $30,000 on this department, including $9,800 spent under the supervision of the Woman's Board, which proposes, beginning with April, 1909, to appropriate 5% of all its receipts from women's auxiliary societies for work among foreign-speaking people, this amount to be annually increased, according to the demands of the work.

Outside of New York City, it is impossible to secure full and accurate information. The Home Mission Board, in 1907-08, made forty grants to work among foreigners in the Synods of New York, Kansas, Minnesota, North Dakota, Texas, Baltimore, Ohio, Missouri, South Dakota, Oregon, and California. Work of special importance is being conducted among the Hungarians at Peekskill, Yonkers, Thompson's Cove, Philadelphia and Columbus; among the Italians in Detroit and Calumet, Mich., Chicago, Philadelphia, Germantown, Chester, and McKeesport. In Philadelphia, the First Italian Church has a membership of 423 and a fine new church, with a new mission in West Philadelphia, about to build a commodious chapel. Lehigh Presbytery, Pa., has two Italian churches at Hazleton and Rosetto, besides three missions. Work is being conducted among the Magyars in the Presbyteries of Buffalo, N. Y., Lehigh, Kittanning and Redstone, Pa., and Newton, N. J. There are two Slavic churches in Pittsburg, one in Chicago, and one in Braddock.

The strongest work being done outside of New York City is in Pittsburgh Presbytery. Within its bounds there are employed the following ordained men: four Bohemians, one Ruthenian, two French, one Italian and twelve specially trained graduates. The work is being conducted at the following points: among the French at Charleroi and Tarentum; the Italians at East Liberty and Boundary Street Mission, Pittsburgh, and at Clairton; among the Magyars at Coraopolis, the Ruthenians in Pittsburgh (South Side); among the Slavs at McKee's Rocks, West Park, Coraopolis, Leetsdale, Ambridge, Troy Hill and Homestead, and Missions are being conducted at twelve other points.

Lackawanna Presbytery employs four ordained missionaries and fourteen speakers, holding services in five chapels, the Presbytery spending about $16,000 a year upon the work. The great Home Mission problem of Pennsylvania is the evangelization of her foreigners, over 200,000 coming from Europe every year.

Successful work is being prosecuted among the Ruthenians in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, as well as New York. Several hundred Ruthenians of Newark have renounced Catholicism and have asked to be received into communion with the Presbyterian Church. The Presbyterian Church of Canada has established a number of churches and has a Ruthenian training class at Manitoba College.

There are about 150 German Presbyterian churches and missions in the United States, with 14,674 members and 16,699 Sunday-school members. Two German Theological Seminaries are being conducted at Bloomfield, N. J., and Dubuque, Iowa. With the exception of the Baptists and Methodists, the Presbyterians have done better Protestant work among the Germans than any other denomination. There appears to be a great opportunity for development at the present time. They publish a weekly Presbyterian paper and their own Sunday-school lessons. It was supposed that as the Germans were assimilated into the life of our country religious work in the German language would cease. The years have passed, during which this prophecy has not been fulfilled. The work, instead of diminishing, has constantly grown. There are now three flourishing German Presbyteries in Iowa. And yet, except in isolated communities, the German churches are as thoroughly American as any others. In New Jersey there are twenty German Presbyterian churches.

Colporteurs are at work in New Jersey, among the Italians and Hungarians, under the care of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work. Encouraging reports also come from the Board's Bohemian missionary in Texas. Three foreign papers are published by the Board, including a weekly for Bohemians.

Work for Bohemians is being conducted in Columbus, Ohio; Omaha, Neb.; Austin and Houston, Texas; portions of North and South Dakota, and in many sections of Iowa, where a Bohemian missionary has lately been commissioned, and has already opened up four preaching stations. In the Presbytery of Chicago, there are two Bohemian churches.

There are missions also for the Armenians at West Hoboken and Paterson, and for the Syrians at Brooklyn, Summit, West Hoboken, Wheeling, W. Va., and Chicago. The Presbyterians of the latter city have organized Persian, Jewish, and Scandinavian missions, having a church membership of 630. A Bohemian missionary is stationed at Madison and Granite City, Ill. Hungarian missions have been opened at St. Louis and East St. Louis. The First Hungarian Church of Philadelphia has just been organized with 132 members.

The foregoing partial account of Presbyterian work for foreigners emphasizes the remark of one of our own workers: "One trouble is, we are working in the dark. We do not really know the people among us. We say, 'Those awful foreigners,' making little effort to know from which part of Europe or the East they come. We can never work the field to the best advantage until we have more light. We need big-hearted experts who will take up this problem in a great and sympathetic way."

Other denominations, notably the Episcopalians, are doing excellent work among foreigners, but information is inaccessible, owing to the individual character of the enterprises. It is to be hoped that a central bureau of publicity and co-operation in service will soon be established by the allied Protestant Churches.

METHODS OF SECURING WORKERS.

1. The Importation of Religious Workers.—Under stress of need for men, the experiment has been tried of bringing ministers over from Europe, and placing them at work among the people of their own nationality in this country. The result has not been satisfactory. They have not come to this country because of any particular sympathy for American thought and life. Their social customs are often at variance with ours, especially in the matter of the use of alcoholic beverages. A very large percentage of imported ministers have turned out to be failures, or worse. The ministers in demand in their own land are the only ones fit for importation, and they cannot be secured in sufficient numbers. One of our experienced workers when abroad asked the faculty of the Budapest Calvin Institute whether they could not recommend a man for work in America. Their answer was, "Yes, you can have such and such a man, because he is no good here." If, under pressure of need for more American-born workers than our schools can turn out, we can import selected young men, and place them in training schools for several years, so that they may become thoroughly Americanized, without losing their own tongue and their affection for their own people, the importation project is feasible to a limited extent.

2. Training of American Workers.—The conviction is being forced upon those experienced in this work, that Americans must be trained to supervise and lead in the task of Christianizing and Americanizing the foreigner. The following considerations point to this conclusion:

First, immigration has barely begun. Europe will be sending millions more before economic and political conditions are so adjusted as to make America no longer a desirable haven. It will be impossible to train enough foreigners of the right kind, with a continued and increasing inflow.

Second, the foreigner will follow the leadership of a native American who knows his language, and sympathizes with his aspirations, far more readily than he will one of his own countrymen. The Roman Catholic Church is doing away with its foreign priests as rapidly as possible. The monasteries of Europe are full of American priests training for work among foreign-speaking Catholics in this country.

Third, the American is the natural leader in solving American problems. He understands the needs of the foreigners and can be trained to understand the foreigner's viewpoint. The great work of Dr. Schauffler is a case in point. The churches should have in training hundreds of our brightest and most consecrated youth, as carefully educated for this task as for work in foreign lands. Great opportunities, both here and abroad, are presented for the study of language, customs, racial characteristics and religion. Training courses are greatly needed whereby such American youth could find an outlet for their service as foreign missionaries upon the home field.

The author of "The Trail of the Immigrant" said at our Conference: "Get to work and do that work which to my mind is fundamental—train men for leadership in this country and train Americans."

Mr. Stelzle said: "For many years the Foreign Mission interests have been doing this work among our college men and women, and thousands upon thousands of them have given themselves to the work of Foreign Missions. For various reasons many volunteers have not been able to go. It seems to me that right here, in our own country, these volunteers would find a field for the use of every talent which they possess, the exercise of which would result in great good among foreign-speaking people. The foreigners here need their ministry, and even though they purpose going to the foreign field eventually, they might meantime be at work among foreign-speaking people in the United States. But, aside from this, why could we not make this so big a thing, and present it to our young people in our colleges, seminaries and churches in such a way, that it will appeal to them as a great opportunity? Our Boards should map out a policy which would meet the need for this kind of work. If our Boards were to take up such a movement for trained workers, they would supply a very urgent demand."

3. Training of Foreign-speaking Ministers.—(A) In Seminaries.—Experience has demonstrated the folly of ordaining foreigners, under the pressure of need for workers, before they are fit for their task. Trained leadership is indispensable to the life and growth of the Church, and such training implies, first, the right kind of material to work upon, and, second, time to work that material into proper shape. Churches are prone to use poor material, if they cannot secure the proper kind. A pious Italian fruit peddler was ordained without preparation some years ago, but ecclesiastical garments did not make up for his lamentable deficiencies, and for years he has been a burden upon his Presbytery.

The crying need for an educated ministry among foreign peoples has constrained a number of the denominations to provide special departments in theological seminaries, as follows:

Methodists:

Garrett Biblical Institute—Norwegian-Danish Department.

Congregational:

Oberlin Theological Seminary—Slavic Department.

Schauffler Training School, Cleveland, Ohio.

Finnish Theological School, Cambridge, Mass.

Chicago Theological Seminary—Danish, Norwegian and Swedish Departments.

Redfield College, Redfield, S. D.—Russian-German Department.

Presbyterian:

German Theological School of Newark—German, Italian and Hungarian Departments, embracing academic, collegiate, and theological courses—58 students.

German Theological Seminary, Dubuque, Iowa—German and Bohemian Departments, embracing academic, collegiate and theological courses—German students, 75; Bohemians, 20.

Western Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa.—Bohemian, Hungarian, and Italian Departments—8 students.

Interdenominational Schools:

Bible Teachers' Training School, New York City, N. Y., Dr. W. W.

White President, Italian Workers Department—21 students.
Springfield, Mass., Christian Workers' Training School.

The work done in these institutions is characterized by energy, open-mindedness, and a spirit of sacrifice. Many noble men and women have consecrated themselves to this task. Work is handicapped, first of all, by limited funds; second, by lack of ability to secure first-class teachers in foreign tongues; third, by inability to find the right kind of material for training. Many European failures drift into these schools, and drift out again into the work, to vex the churches. And, lastly, the field is so broad, and the needs are so great, there seems to be little time for deep and exhaustive investigation. The unsatisfactoriness of the situation is due largely to its experimental character. There is a difference of opinion as to the chief qualifications for workers. Some institutions lay stress upon a literary education, others upon the practical and administrative side, and still others upon Biblical study. There is also a failure to define closely between preparation for ministers and preparation for lay workers. The tendency on the part of church judicatories to license and ordain men seeking short cuts to the ministry is particularly aggravated in the case of foreigners.

With some this is a matter of little concern. Hard and fast theories of ministerial education have no doubt retarded the Christianizing of the foreigner. The Methodist and Baptist Churches, which have been more elastic in their educational ideals for the ministry, and have adapted themselves to conditions upon the field, have outgrown by millions the churches holding more closely to theological and literary demands in ministerial training.

But out of divergent theories may be discerned several general principles emerging:

(1) An education for the ordained ministry to foreign-speaking peoples on a par with that given to native Americans is the ideal.

(2) The theoretically ideal course must not be allowed to interfere with a more practical adaptation to the pressing and immediate needs for workers.

(3) A sharp distinction should be drawn between the training of candidates for the ministry and the training of lay workers, such distinction to be observed both in educational institutions and church courts. Half educated men should not be admitted to ordination, but urged to remain lay workers until better qualified.

(4) A formal literary and ecclesiastical education must not be allowed to do duty for spirit and life in the presentation of the Gospel message. The following qualifications, therefore, are indispensable: (1) training in the Word of God; (2) power in prayer, and the spirit of evangelism; (3) ability and energy in practical Christian service.

To sum up, we believe it to be essential (1) that the ministry should have the best possible educational qualifications; (2) that it is not always possible to secure these, and therefore adaptation and discrimination are necessary, but (3) while it is not wise to ordain men not educationally qualified, yet men filled with the spirit should be employed either as visitors, Bible readers, colporteurs and lay evangelists.

It is the conviction of your Committee that the place for securing full educational qualifications for the ministry is the theological seminary, and where such qualifications are unnecessary or impossible, Bible Training Schools for lay workers should be maintained and encouraged.

THE RELATION OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE TASK.

Western Seminary at Allegheny has recently taken steps looking toward the permanent organization of a training school for foreign students. Two courses are given, of two years each, one to prepare men for general mission work, the other preparatory to the regular seminary curriculum for candidates for ordination.

In seeking a point of contact with the work, the Board has of necessity been governed by the action of the General Assembly in past years. Its attention has been directed to the report of the Standing Committee on Education of the Assembly of 1904, in which it expressed its "sense of the extreme importance of seeking out and training an efficient ministry for foreign-speaking peoples." It further recognized "the success which has attended the methods pursued in educating men for work among the Germans, this success suggesting the method by which a similar work may be done for candidates of other foreign races." And it requested the Directors of the German Theological School of the Northwest and the German Theological School of Newark to "take into consideration the possibility and propriety of so enlarging the scope of their work as to accept additional foreign-speaking candidates other than Germans." In pursuance of this request the seminaries named proceeded to erect and offer courses in accordance with the demand; Dubuque adding a Bohemian department, and Bloomfield departments for Hungarians and Italians. Your Committee has carefully investigated the work done at both institutions, and herewith commends and endorses it. But we are convinced, by a careful study of the curricula, that there is need of a common understanding between seminaries as to what constitutes a standard theological education. We call the attention of the Assembly to the important fact, that the theological seminaries are the only educational institutions in the country whose representatives seldom, if ever, come together in conference, and whose courses are unrelated to each other through any system of mutual arrangement. AND WE RECOMMEND THE ARRANGING OF SUCH CONFERENCES BETWEEN ALL OUR SEMINARIES, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

In the academic department, the course at Bloomfield is stronger in Latin, Greek and Mathematics, there being five Latin teachers in Bloomfield and one at Dubuque, four Greek teachers at Bloomfield and one at Dubuque. In Mathematics, Bloomfield gives in the academy what Dubuque gives in the college. On the other hand, Dubuque is stronger in Science, viz., Physiology, Physics, Geology and Botany. There is no science course at Bloomfield in the academic years. Bloomfield is stronger in Ancient, Oriental, Greek, Roman, Mediæval, and Modern History, while Dubuque is stronger in American History and the social problems of our times.

In the collegiate department, the literary courses are stronger at Bloomfield than Dubuque, while science is stronger at Dubuque than at Bloomfield. The seminary courses are similar, except that Bloomfield offers a course in ethics, while Dubuque offers courses in missions and the English Bible. To sum up, Bloomfield gives the more thorough literary training, emphasizing scholarship, while Dubuque has the more practical and modern course, emphasizing results upon the field.

For several years, under special authority given to it by the Assembly, the Board has assisted these institutions by a grant of extra scholarships to students requiring special instruction in their mother tongue. The extra amount did not go to the student, but was used by the institution to pay for extra instruction. In view of the special relations sustained by this Board to both Bloomfield and Dubuque Seminaries, and also in view of the fact that both seminaries have, during the past year, officially requested the Board to enter into special relations with them, a definite policy must now be formulated by which their work can be stimulated through a regular administrative agency of the Church. The following policy is therefore submitted to the consideration of the Assembly:

GENERAL POLICY RECOMMENDED.

I. Training of Ministerial Candidates.—WHEREAS, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1904 REQUESTED "THE DIRECTORS OF THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTHWEST, AND THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, TO TAKE INTO CONSIDERATION THE POSSIBILITY AND PROPRIETY OF SO ENLARGING THE SCOPE OF THEIR WORK AS TO ACCEPT ADDITIONAL (FOREIGN) CANDIDATES OTHER THAN GERMANS"; AND

WHEREAS, IN OBEDIENCE TO THIS REQUEST, THESE SEMINARIES HAVE ERECTED AND MAINTAINED SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS FOR THE TRAINING OF ITALIANS, BOHEMIANS AND HUNGARIANS IN THEIR NATIVE TONGUES, AND DESERVE THE THANKS OF THE CHURCH FOR THEIR PROSECUTION OF THIS WORK AS FAR AS FINANCIAL SUPPORT WOULD PERMIT; AND

WHEREAS, THIS WORK IN THESE INSTITUTIONS HAS BEEN CAREFULLY INVESTIGATED BY THE BOARD, AND FOUND TO BE WORTHY OF ENDORSEMENT,

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION BE ADOPTED:

Resolved, 1. THAT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY RECOGNIZES THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTHWEST, AND THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, AS ESPECIALLY FITTED FOR THE WORK OF TRAINING MINISTERIAL CANDIDATES FOR PEOPLE OF FOREIGN SPEECH.

It is further recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, 2. THAT THE BOARD OF EDUCATION BE AND HEREBY IS DIRECTED AND AUTHORIZED, IN THE NAME OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY, TO ENTER INTO APPROPRIATE SPECIAL RELATIONS WITH THE ABOVE-NAMED INSTITUTIONS, AS HEREINAFTER INDICATED:

(A) IN THE GRANTING OF SPECIAL SCHOLARSHIPS FOR FOREIGN-SPEAKING NON-GERMAN STUDENTS, IN SO FAR AS THE BOARD MAY DEEM IT EXPEDIENT.

(B) IN THE TRAINING OF SUCH STUDENTS, THE SAID SEMINARIES ARE DIRECTED TO CONFER WITH THE BOARD OF EDUCATION CONCERNING COURSES OF STUDY, AND ALL OTHER MATTERS RELATED TO THIS SPECIAL WORK; NOTHING, HOWEVER, IN THIS RECOMMENDATION TO BE CONSTRUED AS AFFECTING THE PRESENT RELATIONS OF THESE SEMINARIES WITH THEIR JUDICATORIES.

(C) IN THE MATTER OF CONTRIBUTIONS, THE BOARD IS REQUESTED TO TENDER ITS SERVICES AS THE RECEIVER AND FORWARDER OF CONTRIBUTIONS DESIGNATED FOR THESE INSTITUTIONS; CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED DIRECT BY THE SEMINARIES TO BE REPORTED TO THE BOARD, AND RECORD OF THE SAME INCORPORATED IN THE BOARD'S ANNUAL REPORT TO THE ASSEMBLY.

(D) IN VIEW OF THE REQUEST OF THE GERMAN PRESBYTERIAN THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY OF THE NORTHWEST, AND THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK, FOR A CLOSER UNION BETWEEN THEM AND THE BOARD OF EDUCATION, IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT THE BOARD ACT IN AN ADVISORY CAPACITY AS FAR AS MAY BE MUTUALLY ADVANTAGEOUS.

II. The Training of Lay Workers.—So important and necessary a task as this requires larger consideration than the limits of this report will permit. It regards this work as one of great and growing importance. Successful denominational and interdenominational schools for lay workers are in existence in New York City; Springfield, Mass.; Cleveland, Ohio; Chicago, Ill., and Minneapolis, Minn. The Presbytery of Pittsburg has recently established such a school and removed it from Pittsburg to Coraopolis. Lane, Bloomfield and Princeton Seminaries now offer courses to lay workers. An Inter-Presbyterian School for Christian Workers has lately been founded by five Presbyterian bodies in Philadelphia, and is now in operation, offering courses in deaconess and Sabbath-school work. The Presbyterian Deaconess Home in Baltimore provides a thorough course of three years for the training of deaconesses.

The Board of Education does not feel warranted in expending any of its funds in behalf of the training of Christian lay workers, unless specially authorized by the Assembly. There is nothing in its charter and Constitution which would prevent its acceptance of the task, but as its primal work has up to this time been the raising up of an effective Gospel ministry, it enters into new fields of Christian education only under special direction of the Assembly. It feels that if the effort to secure an effective ministry among our foreign peoples were committed to it, according to the above policy, it would have a large and important work before it. But it is ready to face any other tasks, within its chartered powers, to which in its wisdom the Assembly might direct it.

It is therefore recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, 1. THAT THE ESTABLISHING OF WISELY LOCATED AND WELL-EQUIPPED SCHOOLS, FOR THE TRAINING OF LAY WORKERS, WHICH ARE IN ORGANIC CONNECTION WITH THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A., BE ENCOURAGED AND SUPPORTED, AND THEIR NEEDS COMMENDED TO THE LIBERALITY OF CHURCHES AND INDIVIDUALS; AND THAT THE ERECTION OF SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS FOR LAY WORKERS AMONG FOREIGN-SPEAKING PEOPLES AT THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF THE NORTHWEST AND THE GERMAN THEOLOGICAL SCHOOL OF NEWARK BE AND HEREBY IS AUTHORIZED.

It is further recommended that the following resolution be adopted:

Resolved, 2. THAT THE BOARD OF EDUCATION BE DIRECTED TO TENDER ITS SERVICES TO CHURCHES AND INDIVIDUALS IN THE RECEIVING AND FORWARDING OF DESIGNATED OFFERINGS FOR SUCH INSTITUTIONS OR DEPARTMENTS OF INSTITUTIONS FOR THE TRAINING OF LAY WORKERS, AND THAT SAID INSTITUTIONS REPORT TO THE BOARD ANNUALLY OFFERINGS RECEIVED DIRECT FOR THEIR WORK, WHICH REPORTS SHALL BE INCORPORATED IN THE ANNUAL REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST.

All that the Board deems it important to furnish is its CORPORATE NAME, viz.: The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States.

The following form may be used in most of the States :

"I give and devise to The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ dollars, to and for the uses of the said Board of Education and under its direction, to be applied to assist candidates for the Presbyterian ministry." (If real estate or other property be given, let it be particularly described.)

In the case of the above Presbyteries, which have been recently erected, sufficiently reliable information was not obtainable at the time of preparing the Board's Annual Report to include them in the above exhibit. The contributions which have been received since their establishment will be found in the itemized statement of Receipts beginning on page 45. Additional contributions from the churches now in these Presbyteries will be found in the Presbyteries to which the churches originally belonged.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Ninetieth Annual Report of the Board of Education was presented to the General Assembly, in session at Denver, Colo., May, 1909, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Education. The Committee consisted of Ministers.

J. G. WALVOORD,
J. J. DODDS,
W. H. TODD,
A. C. COOPER,
W. G. BEATTIE.

This Committee subsequently presented their report to the General Assembly. It was accepted and the appended resolutions unanimously adopted, as follows:

1. That, in the case of young men ordained to the Cumberland ministry, prior to the Union, without a seminary course, who may be duly recommended by their Presbyteries, they be given all proper encouragement and assistance to take such a course; and that the Board be authorized to accept them for aid, regardless of collegiate preparation, the Board reserving to itself the right to reject such as may not, in its estimation, be able to profit thereby.

2. That, in the case of Rev. George M. Day, the holder of the Secretary's Scholarship, the action of the Board in continuing to Mr. Day the benefits of this Scholarship, as an exceptional case, until the expiration of the term for which he holds it, be approved.

3. That the Board be permitted to extend to the holders of the Mutchmore and the Secretary's Scholarships the right, now accorded to the holder of the Newberry Scholarship, to spend a year of graduate study in foreign universities, at the discretion of the Board.

4. That the change in the Day of Prayer for Colleges and Universities to the Thursday preceding the second Sunday in February be adhered to; and we recommend the observation of this day in 1910.

5. That, in dealing with the problem of supplying the religious needs of the Presbyterian students in State Universities, which has been committed to this Board by the General Assembly, the work already done by the Board be approved, including the holding of the pre-Assembly Conference; and it is recommended that the Board be authorized to continue the same policy; and, at the request of Synodical Committees, to co-operate in the raising of endowment or other funds for Presbyterian work at State educational institutions; and to act as the receiver, forwarder or holder of such funds whenever mutually agreeable.

6. That the suggestion of the Board, that self-supporting Synods shall be requested to make their offerings to the Board commensurate with the Board's grants to their candidates, be approved.

7. That the suggestion of the Board, that the Assembly consider the measures proposed by Overtures 79 and 80 as inexpedient for the present, be approved, but that Presbyteries are hereby reminded of the necessity of examining their candidates thoroughly in the essentials of Bible truth.

8. That the negative answer of the Board to the question of the General Assembly, in regard to the guaranty insurance of cash balances, be approved.

9. That the co-operation of this Board with the Board of Missions for Freedmen, in connection with the educational interests of the Colored Cumberland Church, be approved and continued.

10. That the recommendations of the Board in regard to filling various vacancies be approved, as follows:

Dr. George W. Warren, of Swarthmore, Pa., to fill the unexpired term of the late Mr. T. M. Rogers.

The re-election of the following members of the Board whose terms have expired:

Rev. Charles Wadsworth, Jr., D.D.,	George W. Bailey, M.D.,
Rev. John Calhoun,	Samuel D. Oliphant, Esq.,
Rev. William H. Oxtoby, D.D.,	Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D.

The election of Rev. R. M. Tinnon, D.D., and of Rev. E. A. McCormick to fill vacancies in the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, caused by the death of Hon. M. A. Montgomery and the resignation of Rev. George W. Shelton.

The re-election of the following members of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, whose terms expire at this date:

Rev. Edward L. Warren, D.D., Rev. J. R. Henry, President A. E. Turner.

11. That the Assembly call the attention of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America to the great desirability of organizing an Interdenominational Bureau of Immigration, for the purpose of unifying the work in this country and entering into helpful relations with European centres of immigration.

12. That the resolutions submitted by the Board, in regard to the policy of training "foreign-speaking candidates other than Germans," as embodied in preamble and resolutions on pages 39 and 40 of the special Report of the Board, be adopted, as follows:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of 1904 requested "the Directors of the German Theological School of the Northwest, and of the German Theological School of Newark, to take into consideration the possibility and propriety of so enlarging the scope of their work as to accept additional (foreign) candidates other than Germans"; and,

WHEREAS, In obedience to this request, these seminaries have erected and maintained special departments for the training of Italians, Bohemians and Hungarians in their native tongues; and,

WHEREAS, This work in these institutions has been carefully investigated by the Board, and found to be worthy of endorsement,

It is recommended that the following resolutions be adopted:

1. That the General Assembly recognize the German Theological School of the Northwest and the German Theological School of Newark as especially fitted for the work of training ministerial candidates for people of foreign speech.

2. That the Board of Education be and hereby is directed and authorized, in the name of the General Assembly, to enter into appropriate relations with the above-named institutions, as hereinafter indicated:

(a) In the granting of special scholarships for the above-mentioned foreign-speaking students, in so far as the Board may deem it expedient.

(b) In the training of such students, the said seminaries are directed to confer with the Board of Education concerning courses of study, and all other matters related to this special work; nothing, however, in this recommendation to be construed as affecting the present relations of these seminaries with their judicatories.

(c) In the matter of contributions, the Board is requested to tender its services as the receiver and forwarder of contributions designated for these institutions; contributions received direct by the seminaries to be reported to the Board, and record of the same incorporated in the Board's Annual Report to the Assembly.

(d) In view of the request of the German Presbyterian Theological Seminary of the Northwest and the German Theological School of Newark, for a closer union between them and the Board of Education, it is recommended that the Board act in an advisory capacity, as far as may be mutually advantageous.

13. That the recommendations of the Board as to the training of lay workers be amended and adopted, as follows:

(1) That the establishing of wisely located and well equipped schools for the training of lay workers, which are in organic connection with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., be encouraged and supported, and their needs commended to the liberality of churches and individuals.

(2) That the Board of Education be directed to tender its services to churches and individuals in the receiving and forwarding of designated offerings for such institutions or departments of institutions for the training of lay workers, and that said institutions report to the Board annually offerings received directed for their work, which reports shall be incorporated in the Annual Report of the Board of Education to the General Assembly.

14. That the Minutes of the Board and the Report of the Treasurer, which have been examined, be approved.

15. That in the future an itemized list of the securities in which the Permanent Fund is invested shall be made a part of the Treasurer's Report, giving par value and approximate market value in each case.

16. That the Treasurer in the future shall have his accounts audited by a Public Accountant, whose certificate shall be appended to the Report.

17. In view of the widening outlook of the Board, and the increased demand for means with which to continue and promote its work, churches are urged to increase their interest in and enlarge their gifts to this all-important agency.

Respectfully submitted,

EDGAR P. HILL, Chairman.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

RELATING TO

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

I.—DEPENDENCE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION UPON THE PRESBYTERIES OF THE CHURCH.

1. The Board of Education shall receive and aid candidates for the ministry of the Gospel only upon the recommendation of a Presbytery of the Church ; and the Presbytery is responsible for their examination, subsequent care, and the designation of the annual amount of aid to be granted to them, within the limits set by the General Assembly.

2. The Board will in each case look especially to the Education Committee of the Presbytery for filling out and forwarding the form of recommendation required for the reception of a candidate, and also for the pastoral care of the same until his entrance upon his official duties.

3. As a general rule the Board will receive any young man of whose examination and recommendation, in conformity with its requirements, proper notification has been given, but it shall be at liberty to refuse new candidates beyond its ability to support them ; and it will not give aid to students from the foreign missionary field unless they have been recommended by our foreign missionaries abroad, or have come to study in this country by a special invitation given from this Board upon the request of other duly recognized Church authorities, or of missionaries resident on the fields from which they come.

II.—RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES.

1. The encouragement of a young man to enter the Gospel ministry is a matter of serious concern both to himself and to the Church, and it should be given only by those who have proper knowledge of his mental and moral character, accompanied with much counsel and prayer, and directly by a single desire for the glory of God. Every candidate should join that Presbytery to which he would most naturally belong, and he should be introduced to it either by his pastor or by some member of the Education Committee after such acquaintance as will warrant his taking the responsibility of so doing.

2. The Presbytery, in examining students with a view to their recommendation for aid, must embrace such points as are indicated by the following questions, to which definite answers, by the direction of the Assembly, will invariably be required by the Board : Give name of candidate in full. Age? Residence? Date of his coming under care of Presbytery. Has Presbytery examined him on the following points, and were his answers satisfactory : Piety? Motives for seeking the ministry? Talents? Health? Promise of practical efficiency? Is he free from expensive and injurious habits? How long has he been a communicant in a Presbyterian church? Give the name of the church. If in an academy, give name of academy and class. If in college, or ready to enter, give name of college and class. If in seminary, or ready to enter, give name of seminary and class. If in a Theological Seminary, has he pursued a full collegiate course leading up to the degree of A.B. ? If so, give the name of the college of which he is a graduate. If not a college graduate, has he had the equivalent of a college course? If so, send a detailed statement of his previous studies and career. Has he been recommended to Presbytery by his Church Session? Has he thoroughly committed the Westminster Assembly Shorter Catechism to memory? Has he read a copy of the rules? Does he accept the requirements contained in them? What is the smallest amount required or his needs, in addition to all other resources at his command, for the Board's fiscal year ending April 1 next? Does he expect aid during the year from any other Educational funds? If so, how much? And from what sources?

3. Every candidate seeking aid from the funds of the Board of Education is required to set forth in a paper over his own signature the extent of his inability to provide for himself the necessary funds for his education. The same paper shall contain his pledge that he will refund to the Board of Education all moneys received by him therefrom in any of the contingencies mentioned in Rule III, 8.

4. No candidate shall be received by the Board who has not been a member of the Presbyterian Church, or some closely related body, for at least one year; who has not been recommended to the Presbytery by the Session of the church of which he is a member, and who is not sufficiently advanced in study to enter college, except in extraordinary cases.

III.—SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. The annual scholarships to candidates shall be the same in amount for theological and collegiate students, and not exceed $150; for those in the preparatory course the amount shall not exceed $100.

2. These scholarships shall be paid to a student only on the reception of particular and satisfactory reports from his professors, embracing the following points: Christian Character? Scholarship? Rhetorical Ability? Punctuality? Economy?

3. The Board may increase or diminish, in a general ratio, the scholarships in case of unusual surplus or deficiency in funds.

4. No payment shall be made in advance. Each payment shall be acknowledged by a receipt signed by the candidate or by the person authorized by him to receive it. And this receipt shall contain a pledge to return the amount given, with interest, in case he, of his own accord, turn aside from his ministerial calling.

5. In order to make the times for payments correspond with the date when reports can most readily be secured from the professors, the first payment shall be made on or about the first of November, and the second on or about the first of March.

6. The Board will in no case be responsible for the debts of students, but it is expected of them that the scholarship shall be first applied to the payment of tuition and boarding.

7. The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year, or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired, and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill health, which may unfit them for the work of the ministry, or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance; and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational board or society, further payments shall be forfeited.

8. The sums of money appropriated by the Board shall be refunded to it, with interest, in case a student fails to enter on or continue in the work of the ministry (unless it appears that he is providentially prevented), or if he ceases to adhere to the standards of the Presbyterian Church, or if he changes his place of study contrary to the directions of the Presbytery, or continue to prosecute his studies at an institution not approved by it or by the Board, or if he withdraws his connection from the Church of which this Board is the organ without furnishing a satisfactory reason.

9. A scholarship afforded by the Presbyterian Church, through the Board of Education, is to be regarded by the candidate who receives its benefit as the Church's cheerful contribution to facilitate and expedite his preparation for the holy ministry, and may be accepted as a gift with the understanding that he is thereby simply obliged to a warmer interest in her efforts for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom, and especially to the use of the means necessary to instruct and stimulate her members in the duty of multiplying and sending forth preachers of the Gospel of salvation to all the world. If, however, any candidate should prefer to receive it as a loan, the Board of Education is given authority to lend the amount without interest, and to give the borrower a credit of $150 for each year of service spent, at the conclusion of his education, upon a mission field at home or abroad.

10. While the Church, in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor, nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit, as Christlike, apostolic and timely, and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fields, ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor, privilege and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord.

IV.—CARE OF CANDIDATES.

1. Candidates are required, except in extraordinary cases, and then only with the explicit permission of their Presbyteries, to pursue a thorough course of study, preparatory to that of theology, in institutions that sympathize with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church; and, when prepared, to pursue a three years' course of theological studies in some seminary connected with the same Church, and no work of preaching is allowed to interfere with the diligent and faithful prosecution of their prescribed studies until the close.

2. The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own candidates, which should include the constant exercise of a parental oversight over them in spiritual things, and the bestowment of the counsel they need as to their mode of preparation, their place of study, their trials, and the occupation of their time, while not engaged in study, in employments which will tend to qualify them for effective usefulness as pastors or evangelists.

3. The Board shall assist the Presbytery in its care of candidates by furnishing annually to the Education Committee a summary of information from the professors' reports as to the standing of each student; and the Corresponding Secretary shall exercise a general supervisory care over them, also visit and address them, when practicable, at the institution where they are, in regard to their duties and the claims of the office which they have in view.

4. The recommendation of each candidate must be annually renewed by his Presbytery, if possible at the spring meeting, in connection with one from the Session of the church of which he is a member, and a specification must be made of the amount needed by him; and until the notification of these points has been received a student will not be considered as upon the roll for the year.

5. Recommendations, or renewals of them, made by an Education Committee in the interim of the sessions of a Presbytery, shall be received as sufficient, provided its action is reported to the Presbytery at the next session and not countermanded to the Board.

6. If at any time there be discovered in a student such defect in capacity, diligence, and especially in piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry a doubtful measure, it shall be the sacred duty of the Board to communicate without delay the information received to the Education Committee of his Presbytery, and if, on careful inquiry on the part of the Presbytery, no satisfactory explanation of the defect can be obtained, or if no response be received by the Board from the Presbytery or from its Committee on Education within the current quarter, it shall be the duty of the Board to withdraw its aid altogether.

7. Special care should be exercised by the Presbytery in the examination of students who are about to enter upon the theological course, according to the instructions of the Form of Government (Chap. XIV, Sec. 3); and this examination should be conducted by the Presbytery, and be entirely satisfactory as to the "real piety" of the students "and the motives which have influenced them to desire the sacred office," before they are allowed to take the final step toward assuming its great responsibilities.

8. The annual report, occasional publications of this Board, and a copy of the Confession of Faith shall be sent gratis to all students under its care who request them.

V.—PARTICULAR DUTIES OF CANDIDATES.

1. Inasmuch as the great aim of the Church in the establishment of the Board of Education is the increase of holy and faithful preachers of the Gospel, the young brethren who look to this work are earnestly and affectionately reminded that all intellectual acquisitions are of little value without the cultivation of piety, and that they are expected and required to pay special attention to the practical duties of religion, such as reading the Scriptures, secret prayer and meditation, occasional acts of special consecration of themselves to Christ and to His service, as their Redeemer and as the Lord of all, attendance at regular meetings on the Sabbath and during the week, endeavors to promote the salvation of others, and the exhibition at all times of a pious and consistent example.

2. Inasmuch as the scholarships granted by the Board will necessarily fall short of a full support of the students, it will be expected that they and their friends will make all proper exertions to supply whatever may be wanting.

3. When a student shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time in order to increase his means for support by teaching or otherwise, he shall first obtain the consent of the Education Committee of the Presbytery or of the Board; and if, when given, he shall not be absent from study more than three months, his scholarship will be continued, but if longer, it will be discontinued, or continued in part, according to circumstances.

4. It shall be the duty of each candidate connected with the Board to report himself, soon after the meeting of the General Assembly, to the Education Committee of his Presbytery as to his progress, wants and prospects; and when any of the requisitions of the Board which affect him may not be carried out by teachers or others, it becomes his duty to see that they are attended to, that delays and losses to himself may be prevented.

5. The reception of a scholarship by a student shall be considered as expressing a promise to comply with all the rules and regulations of the Board.

VI.—EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

1. The Board will not ordinarily take under its care as candidates for the ministry any who have not completed a course preparatory to college. If exceptional cases are recommended by Presbyteries the Board should be certified that there has been a season of thorough trial and approval under competent teachers through two or three years.

2. Such students are not to expect the benefit of scholarships for more than two years before entering college.

NOTE.—In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate, name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

Professors' Report to the Presbyterian Board of Education, 511 WITHERSPOON BUILDING, PHILADELPHIA.

As to students at..... (Location)
(Date)..... (Signed)..... In behalf of the Faculty.

This form is for the use of teachers or professors of literary or theological institutions, in reporting to the Board the progress and character of students for the ministry under their care, who have been recommended by the Presbyteries for aid from the funds of the Church. The grade or opinion on the points specified may be given in the terms High; Medium Plus; Medium; Medium Minus; and Low; or in such other terms as will best express the views of the Reporter. Under "Scholarship," the class standing may be inserted.

The report should be made carefully and conscientiously; and returned, without inspection by others, by the authorized teacher or professor directly to the Board. Any additional remarks or statements will be gratefully received, and may be very helpful.

Regular appropriations are made at the meetings of the Board in November and March. All reports should be made at those times. It is respectfully suggested to instructors that it would be well to privately remind students, before the spring meetings of the Presbyteries, of the necessity of the annual renewal of the Presbyterian recommendation to the Board, in order that aid may be continued.

Do not write in this space	NAMES OF STUDENTS.	STAGE OF STUDY.	CHRISTIAN CHARACTER.	SCHOLARSHIP.	RHETORICAL ABILITY.	PUNCTUALITY.	ECONOMY.

“HINTS” to the Chairmen of Education Committees of Presbyteries as to the Recommendation of Candidates to the Presbyterian Board of Education.

1. The Board desire to emphasize particularly the importance of a full and complete answer to every question pertaining to each particular case under consideration. They cannot act upon an incomplete recommendation, whether it be a “renewal” or a “new case,” and omissions, with the consequent necessity for correspondence, cause delay, often greatly to the inconvenience of the candidate.

2. Make sure, before any other action is taken, that the candidate has been recommended to Presbytery by the Session of his Church, as this is the fundamental requirement.

3. Always use the recommendation blanks provided by the Board.

4. Never put renewals on blanks intended for first recommendation; never put first recommendations on renewal blanks. You will thus prevent serious confusion at the office of the Board.

5. Write the recommendations plainly in ink; never use pencil.

6. Do not write anything on the recommendation blanks other than is required by the answers. Additional notes of explanation which may be necessary should be sent in an accompanying letter.

7. In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate, name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

8. Use new recommendation blank for all candidates who have never been accepted and enrolled by the Board, no matter how many times recommended in past years. Use renewal blank for all candidates who have been at any time enrolled by the Board even though subsequently dropped.

9. If a candidate, who has at any time previously been under the care of the Board, comes to you from another Presbytery, send to us your recommendation in the form of a renewal; and give us the name of the Presbytery from which you receive him.

10. Recommendations for new candidates should be sent in as early as may be convenient; but renewals should ordinarily be deferred until Presbyteries have had time to consider each case in the light of all information obtainable as to candidate's conduct and work during the year. Such cases are not in the least imperiled by the delay occasioned by this patient consideration.

11. If the candidate does not propose to pursue his studies, preparatory to theology, in an institution which sympathizes with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church [as our rules require, except in extraordinary cases], send us the assurance that he has the explicit permission of his Presbytery, and the reason for the permission.

12. If the candidate is from a foreign country, the assurance must be sent to us that he intends to exercise his ministry in connection with the Church in the United States.

13. In corresponding about a candidate, always mention the Presbytery to which he belongs. This will help us greatly in looking up his case.

14. Do not mutilate the recommendation blanks, but mail them, properly folded, in a large envelope. This will aid us in filing and indexing.

15. Take no action without careful study of the printed rules prescribed for our mutual guidance by the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

Presented to and approved by the General Assembly at Denver, Colorado, May 26th, 1909.

Your Committee on Publication and Sabbath-school Work has received the Seventy-first Annual Report of the Board and herewith presents the following report:

Of all the various agencies having to do with Christian work, the Sabbath school has a most important place, for it has to do with the implanting in the minds of the youth of our land those Christian principles which go to make men and women of positive qualities and true worth. Its work must ever be kept in the forefront, for if the church of the next generation is to be the moving factor in the uplifting of the human race there must be men and women of noble breed who, having fed upon the word of God, are enabled to stand firm against all opposing systems. It little matters whether that work is studied and taught in a mission chapel in a city slum or in the sod house on the prairie or in the great cathedral in the city; the purpose is the same in each and all, and the bread cast upon the waters in the shape of sacrificing efforts will return in the form of an uplifted community and result in the turning of men's faces to God. Your Sabbath-school worker must be a man or woman whose faith is firmly fixed, and, having a knowledge of the living Word, can make it known to others.

Your Sabbath-school missionary needs to be a man of parts, capable of adapting himself to every situation; he must be a man among men, with a love for souls and possessed of a vision for greater things. You see him with a railroad engineering corps studying the strategic points before a rail is laid, and when towns are platted and the home-seekers' rush begins he is already on the ground. You see him in the mining camp, the friend of the child, the foe of the evil one; you see him on the open reservation; you see him with the logging gang in the forests, with the settler on the prairie, with the toiler in the mining village, and wherever found his influence is felt; and the many churches which dot our Western land to-day bear silent testimony to the energy of the men who blazed the pathway.

Your Board has been given a mighty task to perform—a task which can be done only as the Church remains true to her vision; and as the Board now enters upon a new era in its history the lessons learned from seventy-one years of experience are of more than passing value, and as its contemplated change of name suggests greater things, suggests a larger vision, so greater things will follow. Its new plans are comprehensive; they tell of greater service. In carrying them out the Sabbath-school missionary will be doing the work of a pioneer corps on the one hand, and of an educational Sabbath-school worker on the other. It is evident that this twofold work will call for the service of men who are familiar with Sabbath-school work in all of its details, and will demand their entire time and thought and effort. There are other aspects of church work that are most important and which must be done by the appointed workers, but for the Sabbath-school missionary no work is more important than Sabbath-school work, and to it he must necessarily give himself if he is to do it right.

Your Committee calls attention to the great revival in Bible study, as shown by the teachers' training classes, and the efforts put forth by state and international Sabbath-school associations to place a copy of the Bible in the hands of every member of the Sabbath school; and as the children of the Church are entitled to learn scripture truth from the most accurate English translation, we note with approval that the editors of our Sabbath-school periodicals are basing their notes and comments on the American Standard Version, whose high scholarship and loyalty to the original text are universally recognized.

The fact that Bible teachers' training classes are now organized in all the evangelical churches and the Bible is being studied in a more systematic way than ever before, tells the story we love to hear. Among other Churches the Disciples of Christ claim a membership of one hundred and twenty-five thousand in their organized teachers' training classes, while the Y. M. C. A. has over six hundred thousand in this systematic study; and it remains for our own great Church to be the leader in this movement.

Your Committee notes with pleasure the earnest efforts of the Board during the year past, resulting in advance in all departments of the work of the Board. It commends the fidelity, the business ability, the care and faithful attendance upon their duties shown by the very busy men who compose the Board, and it commends in particular the proposed annuity plan of paying the mortgage on the Witherspoon Building.

The opening of the South and Southwest as a result of the reunion, the branching out in the young people's work and the development of the educational feature in the Board's work, have all added additional responsibilities upon the Board.

Your Committee deems it advisable for the sake of the Southwest that the publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian, or a paper of similar import, be continued without any intermission, regardless of the outcome of the existing litigation; that great stress be laid upon the training of children in fundamental religious truths, rather than an appeal to the emotional side of the religious life, and that our young people be taught the value of systematic Bible study. The Shorter Catechism, which was good enough for our fathers, is good enough for us, and if a stalwart breed of Christians is to be the dominant factor in the coming generation strong food must be fed to our children.

It is expected that the World's International Sunday-School Association, to be held in Washington, D. C., in May, 1910, will be the greatest ever held; and your Committee would urge the various Boards of the Church to circulate general information regarding it, and urge the attendance of workers wherever possible, and the Foreign Board especially to arrange the furlough of its missionaries to suit this date.

The Minutes of the Board and its Committees have been placed in the hands of your Committee, which has found them in order and recommends their approval. Each of the various departments tells the story of industry, of progress, of thrift. In the Department of Sabbath-School Missionary Work an ever-widening field is seen: 161 missionaries and colporteurs have labored within the bounds of 127 Presbyteries, and as a result 781 new Sabbath schools have been organized, while unto 248 more schools new life has been imparted and they raised from the dead. Into these schools have been gathered 38,152 pupils. Other schools to the number of 2,725 have in one way or other felt the helping touch; while 113 churches stand forth to-day in part the direct result of Sabbath-school effort. Into the 78 chapels and churches which have been erected $151,775 have been placed—a worthy asset of a great and growing Church; and when we remember that for the past twenty-two years there has been an average of 81 churches built each year, it is no wonder that this Western land is being taken and held for Christ. Our missionary colporteurs have gone here and there among our foreign population with their books and Bibles and tracts, sowing a seed which is bringing forth a rich fruitage. The four foreign periodicals published by the Board have an ever-increasing circulation, while the Bible picture cards, in six different languages, have an increasing popularity. The Sabbath-school training work has been given especial attention during the past year, and the literature upon this line of work is within the reach of all. It is the opinion of your Committee that this line of work should be pushed in all our Synods, for a trained corps of workers means a more permanent result in all lines of work.

In the Educational Department no less than twenty new publications have been issued from the press, while seventeen former publications have been reprinted. Forty-one tracts and leaflets have been sent forth on their silent mission.

Your Committee wishes to compliment the Board upon the high standard of its Children's Day programme, it being a notable improvement upon those of former years. The Westminster periodicals have found their way throughout the Church, and the school failing to use the same is not true to the very best.

In the Business Department business methods have been used, as the carefully kept books show, and the net profits of this department make a fine showing in spite of the financial depression of the past year.

Your Committee desires to call especial attention to Young People's Work. This department was not fully established until September, 1907, and in this short time has accomplished a vast amount of work. Its aim is to effect more adequate organization of the young people and to educate them in matters of Christian work, missions and church history and church affairs. A vast amount of literature has been prepared and sent forth to meet existing needs, while the columns of our Church papers have been largely used in forwarding this work. Conferences and schools of methods have been conducted, while every effort has been put forth to make the young people's work a crowning feature of our Church.

We make the following recommendations for adoption by the Assembly:

1. That the attention of the pastors and superintendents of the Sabbath schools be called to the new International Graded Sunday-School Lessons, and to the fact that Helps for the same will be ready for distribution by our Board of Publication by October 1st of this year.

2. That the Board of Publication be authorized to cooperate with the Board of Home Missions in uniting the work of the Sabbath-school missionary and the pastoral evangelist whenever requested to do so by a Presbytery or Presbyteries.

3. Recognizing the opportunity afforded the Sabbath-school Committees of Synod and Presbytery for rendering helpful service to Sabbath schools under their care, the General Assembly recommends that an effort be made to place upon these Committees men who are known as efficient Sabbath-school workers, and that these Committees be encouraged to plan and work for the improvement of the Sabbath schools of the Church.

4. In view of the fact that so many of the denominations and publishing houses are now selecting their lesson texts exclusively from the American Standard Edition of the Revised Version, and the further fact that the Board will begin in October to publish the new graded lessons for elementary departments as provided by the International Sunday-School Association, which will be based upon the text of the American Standard Edition of the Revised Version, the Assembly recommends that the Board of Publication carefully considers whether it would not be advisable to adopt the American Standard Edition of the Revised Version as the text of its lesson helps.

5. The Assembly recommends that the Board enlarge and extend the educational features of its work as rapidly as its funds admit, looking to the perfecting of the work done in all the schools, and advises the appointment of educational superintendents who shall be Sabbath-school experts in as large areas as can be successfully covered.

6. We recommend that churches and Sabbath schools make liberal offerings on Children's Day for the work of Sabbath-school Missions, and that on Rally Day an offering be made for work among our foreign citizens.

7. We recommend that all Sabbath schools be urged to use the lesson helps and illustrated papers issued by our Board, not only in view of the high character of the literature, but because it shows loyalty to the Church and because two-thirds of the profits of the Business Department are given to the missionary work of the Board.

8. We recommend that the pastors and leaders of the Church be urged to promote and encourage all efforts toward religious education among their young people's societies.

9. We recommend that the first Sunday in February be named Young People's Day, and that one of the church services be devoted to the interests of young people's work.

10. We recommend that the Summer Conferences, conducted by the Department of Young People's Work, be heartily commended to the young people of our various congregations, and that delegates be sent to them whenever it is expedient so to do. It is also recommended that an annual offering be made by the churches and young people's societies for the support of this work.

11. The Committee recommends that no action be taken on Overture No. 50, from the Presbytery of Los Angeles, as to changes in Sabbath-school lessons; and it recommends that the Board endeavor to work out ways and means to meet the needs suggested in Overture No. 44, from the Presbytery of Flint, as to a new edition of the Chapel Hymnal. In view of the fact that no such advertisements as are named in Overture No. 58 are found appearing in any of the publications of our Board, it is recommended that no action be taken.

12. The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire next month:

Ministers:

REV. WM. BRENTON GREENE, D. D.,
REV. LOYAL YOUNG GRAHAM, D. D.,
REV. MERVIN J. ECKELS, D. D.,
REV. SAMUEL McLANAHAN,
REV. J. D. HUNTER.

Elders:

WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
THOMAS W. SYNNOTT,
GEORGE HALE, M. D.,
JOHN H. CONVERSE, LL. D.,
L. M. RICE.

The members of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church whose terms expire next month are as follows: Rev. T. A. Wigginton, Nashville, Tennessee; J. H. DeWitt, Nashville, Tennessee; J. H. Reynolds, Rome, Georgia.

We recommend that these men be reëlected to serve for three years, and that the General Assembly confirm the election of Rev. J. D. Hunter, Rev. S. D. Logan, Mr. I. H. Goodnight and Mr. W. T. Cartwright, who were elected to fill existing vacancies.

Respectfully submitted,

S. ARTHUR STEWART, Chairman.

WILLIAM H. ROBERTS, Stated Clerk.

THE SEVENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT OF THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK

Approved by the Board, April 27th, 1909

The Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work presents to the General Assembly its Seventy-first Annual Report. The manifold and important interests committed by the Church to this Board call for close attention and careful management; this the Board has endeavored to give them, freely expending time and effort in so doing.

During the past year the development of our work and the appreciation of the Church have been most gratifying, as will be seen from the detailed statements of the report we herewith present.

There are several subjects to which we would particularly call attention.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE BOARD

Special efforts have been made this year to meet the demand of the Church for material concerning Calvin, whose quarter-centenary is being celebrated. To this end, we have arranged with the Sunday-school Board of the Reformed Church and the Presbyterian Committee of the Presbyterian Church U. S., in the joint publication of the "Life of John Calvin," by Philip Vollmer, D. D., and "Life Pictures of Calvin for Young and Old," by James I. Good, D. D., and George W. Richards, D. D.

We have also published the famous short "Life of Calvin," by his friend Beza; and from plates in possession of the Board have issued a "memorial edition" of the Institutes, with a new portrait, greatly enriched also by an Introduction by Dr. B. B. Warfield.

We would call attention to the fact that the Institutes and the Letters of Calvin published by the Board are the only available editions in English.

A new edition of Dr. Smyth's "Calvin Defended" has also been issued.

We are also to publish, June 17, "Calvin as a Theologian and Calvinism To-day," three addresses in commemoration of the four hundredth anniversary of the birth of John Calvin, by Benjamin B. Warfield, D. D., LL. D.

During the past year an effort has been made to maintain and improve the high character of our periodicals. The responses of our Sunday schools have encouraged us greatly. As an illustration, we are now publishing three hundred thousand copies of Forward every week, or a total of more than fifteen and a half million copies a year.

Beginning with October we expect to publish instead of the Sabbath-School Visitor a new paper entitled The Comrade. It will be suited to the tastes and requirements of the boys and girls of the Intermediate Department, and we hope will become as popular with them and as helpful as Forward is with the older pupils.

At the same time we shall begin the issue of a new periodical to be known as The Adult Bible Class Monthly. It will contain comments upon the International Sunday-school lessons and suggestions of plans of work for adult classes. The growth of these classes throughout the Church has created a demand for a help of this nature.

The Board has just published a new teacher-training course entitled "Preparation for Teaching." It is meant to take the place of the first volume of "The Westminster Teacher-Training Course," published by the Board some years ago. The new book will conform to the standard recently adopted by the various denominations and the International Sunday School Association, and will be of great practical service to Sunday schools that are endeavoring to train their teachers.

The series of Westminster Handbooks dealing with different phases of Sunday-school work, has been enlarged during the year. A list of these, together with details regarding our Sunday-school literature, will be found on page 19.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

Increased attention has been paid during the past year to this phase of our work. The work of the Sunday school is constantly growing in importance. Pastors and sessions are giving more consideration to this subject, and are on the outlook for helpful suggestions and plans of work.

The Board is endeavoring to render this help in every possible way. We are preparing literature of various kinds, as has been suggested. Our missionaries, in all parts of the Church, have been instructed to give special attention to Sunday-school improvement. They are expected to make themselves familiar with modern methods of Sunday-school work and to be of help to the schools in their respective fields.

In addition to this, our missionaries have been holding conferences and institutes in various Synods and Presbyteries. The officers of the Board have, on a number of occasions, rendered assistance in these meetings.

The last General Assembly recommended that Synods and Presbyteries, in the appointment of Sunday-school committees, make an effort to secure efficient Sunday-school men. The intent of this recommendation is to place upon the Sunday-school committees men familiar with modern methods of work, and in earnest to have the Sunday schools under their care adopt these methods.

The Board has been striving earnestly to coöperate efficiently with these committees in their efforts to improve our more than ten thousand Presbyterian Sunday schools.

Details of what has been done for Sunday-school improvement will be found under the appropriate headings.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL EXTENSION

While we seek to aid the existing Sunday schools of our Church, it is the Board's duty also to carry the privileges of the Sunday school to the thousands of boys and girls who do not now enjoy these opportunities. For twenty-two years the Board has been definitely engaged in this work with ever-increasing appreciation on the part of the Church.

During the past year our missionaries have been working in all parts of the United States, but more especially in the West and Southwest.

The results of their efforts have been most encouraging. The Board regrets its inability, through lack of funds, to put more missionaries into the field in response to the urgent appeals that have come to us from a number of needy Presbyteries. It is our hope that we may be able to do this during the coming year.

We ask your attention to the full details as they are presented in the appended report.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE

The Board has been actively engaged in working for our young people for a year and a half. During this time considerable progress has been made, and we are beginning to see some of the results of our efforts.

We have gone far enough to learn not only the necessity for this work but some of the ways in which we can be of definite service.

It is the desire of the Board, in carrying on this work, to keep in mind the development of our young people, seeking rather to be of help to them than to appeal to them to be of help to us. We feel that in this way we can be of most service to the local church and to the entire denomination.

It is, furthermore, our aim to do this in the interest of all the Boards and benevolent agencies of the Church.

We look forward to the time when, on the one hand, any Board desirous of presenting some matter to our Presbyterian young people will find in our Young People's Department an open door for this purpose; and, on the other hand, any pastor wishing to learn the best methods of work among his young people will find that we are prepared to give him all the information or help he may need.

Details will be found on pages 23, 24.

THE DEBT ON THE WITHERSPOON BUILDING

When the Witherspoon Building was erected in 1897, some twelve years ago, it cost, together with the land, $1,080,000. The Board was able to pay $480,000 of the total cost, leaving $600,000 to be provided for by a mortgage placed upon the building. During the years that have elapsed since the building was occupied, $300,000 has been paid upon this mortgage, leaving $300,000 yet to be paid.

The Board, acting in conjunction with a special committee appointed by the General Assembly, has agreed upon a plan for meeting this indebtedness. It has issued annuity bonds in sums of $500, $1,000 and $5,000, bearing interest at the rate of five to seven per cent., according to the age of the annuitant. The payment of this interest is secured by the income from the Witherspoon Building and the profits of the business of the Board.

It is agreed that upon the death of the annuitant the principal of the bond shall be used in the payment of the indebtedness of the Witherspoon Building.

As rapidly as this indebtedness is discharged the income of the building—after current expenses have been met and the needs of the building itself provided for—will be used in the promotion of the Sunday-school missionary work of the Board.

THE BOARD AND ITS TRUSTEES

At a meeting of the Board held March 31st, 1909, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the General Assembly be requested to authorize the transfer to the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work of the duties and powers of the Trustees of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work, and to take all necessary steps to this end.

In transmitting this resolution to the General Assembly, the Board requests the Assembly to take the action proposed by the resolution; and also to empower the Board to take any steps that may be necessary in carrying out the action of the Assembly.

GUARANTY INSURANCE

The last General Assembly submitted to the Boards the question whether it would be advisable that the Treasurers "of all trust funds of Boards should carry guaranty insurance on all cash balances held in bank."

The Board, on October 27th, 1908, adopted a resolution declaring that in its judgment "guaranty insurance is unnecessary and inadvisable." We would accordingly so report to the Assembly.

TEMPERANCE LITERATURE

During the year the Board has printed for the Permanent Committee on Temperance literature to the value of one thousand dollars, for free distribution among our churches and Sabbath schools. In view of the importance of this subject, the Board proposes, with the approval of the General Assembly, to publish, in conjunction with the Permanent Committee on Temperance, an equal amount of temperance literature during the coming year for the same purpose.

ELECTION OF NEW MEMBERS

The Rev. John V. Stephens, D. D., Mr. Hamilton Parks, Mr. John H. DeWitt and Mr. W. T. Hardison, members of the Board, having resigned, the Board elected the Rev. J. D. Hunter, Mr. I. H. Goodnight, Rev. S. D. Logan and Mr. W. T. Cartwright to fill the vacancies.

The General Assembly is requested to confirm this election.

EXPIRATION OF TERM OF OFFICE

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire next month :

Ministers:

REV. WILLIAM BRENTON GREENE, D. D.,
 REV. LOYAL YOUNG GRAHAM, D. D.,
 REV. MERVIN J. ECKELS, D. D.,
 REV. SAMUEL McLANAHAN,
 REV. J. D. HUNTER,

Elders:

WILLIAM W. ALLEN,
 THOMAS W. SYNNOTT,
 GEORGE HALE, M. D.,
 JOHN H. CONVERSE, LL. D.,
 L. M. RICE.

The Board respectfully recommends to the Assembly that these ministers and elders be re-elected to serve for three years.

REPRESENTATION AT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Mr. John H. Converse, Rev. W. B. Jennings, D. D., and Mr. William H. Scott were requested and authorized to represent the Board, in connection with the Secretary, at the meeting of the General Assembly.

DEPARTMENT OF SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK

THE FIELD. A notable fact in connection with the work of the past year is the widening of our field of operation. Every State has had at least a part of the labors of a Sabbath-school missionary or of a colporteur.

THE WORKERS. In these States and Territories, the Board has had at work 131 Sabbath-school missionaries and 30 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 34 Synods and 127 Presbyteries. Of these 18 were Synodical and 143 were Presbyterian workers, making a total of 161.

NEW SABBATH SCHOOLS ORGANIZED. They have organized 781 new Sabbath schools and revived 248, a total of 1,029, into which have been gathered 3,454 officers and teachers, and 34,698 scholars, making a total membership of 38,152. (See page 25.)

DEVELOPING MISSION SCHOOLS. Our missionaries have encouraged and otherwise aided 2,725 Sabbath schools which are under their care. The membership of these schools is 119,531.

WORK OTHER THAN ORGANIZATION. These missionaries have made 111,607 visits upon families, and have held 5,529 evangelistic services, in which 3,600 conversions came under their observation. Sabbath-school institutes and conventions to the number of 616 have been held.

An important part of the work of these missionaries is the distribution by sale and gift of evangelical literature. In this work our missionaries have sold and given away 16,486 volumes and 1,731,834 pages of religious tracts and periodicals. They have distributed also, by gift and sale, 16,189 Bibles and

Testaments. (This includes the literature distributed by our missionary colporteurs.)

CHURCHES DEVELOPED. The number of churches developed by our Sabbath-school missionaries from their schools during the past year is 113, of which 92 are Presbyterian and 21 of other denominations. (See page 26.)

PRESBYTERIAN BUILDINGS. During the year 78 Presbyterian chapels and church buildings were erected as the outgrowth of the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries. The value of these buildings is $151,775. It thus becomes apparent that a large percentage of the entire cost of Sabbath-school Missionary work is returned to the Presbyterian Church each year in the money value of the buildings erected.

SABBATH SCHOOLS ORGANIZED UNDER THE BOARD'S OFFER OF EQUIPMENT. 49 Sabbath schools organized by other than Sabbath-school missionaries, have thus been helped.

SABBATH SCHOOLS AIDED. Several hundred mission Sabbath schools have been assisted, during the year, by grants of periodicals, hymnals, libraries and other equipment.

CLOTHING DISTRIBUTED

Various Women's Societies, Mission Bands and Sabbath schools have helped our missionaries during the year by their generous donations of new and second-hand clothing, for distribution among those who were in need of such assistance. The shipment of 61 boxes and barrels valued at $2,947.70 is hereby gratefully acknowledged.

REVIEW OF TWENTY-TWO YEARS' WORK

During the period of twenty-two years since the Board was reorganized, 1,239 Presbyterian churches have grown from our mission Sabbath schools, an average of 56 new Presbyterian churches every year. Other denominations sharing in the fruits of the work have gathered 563 churches, making a total of 1,802, an average of 81 churches each year.

SYNODICAL AND PRESBYTERIAL SABBATH-SCHOOL COMMITTEES

Synodical and Presbyterian Committees have been unusually active during the year, especially in emphasizing the educational features of our Sabbath-school work. The department has endeavored by every possible means to inspire these Committees to prosecute their work in an aggressive manner. The response has been gratifying, and we have enjoyed the coöperation of these brethren in a larger sense than ever before. "A Plan for Presbyterian Sabbath-School Work," "What the Presbyterian Committee May Do," have proven helpful to these Committees. Changes have been made in the Sabbath-school Statistical Report which will furnish full information about every Sabbath school in the Presbytery, thus enabling them to aid each school according to its particular needs.

SUPPORT OF SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES

Fifty-four of our Sabbath-school missionaries are now supported wholly or in part by special contributions from churches, Sabbath schools and individuals. These pledges are for amounts varying from $100 to $1,000 per year. It is expected that during the next year many more will be enlisted in this movement.

GRANTS

The following grants were made:

Periodicals, books and tracts, to Sabbath schools, churches, pastors and missionary workers	$9,675.87
Bibles as rewards for memorizing Shorter Catechism	427.01
Grant of Westminster Teacher to Foreign Mission Stations....	402.62
Total	$10,505.50

Contributions to the amount of $2,310.00 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels, and to other special objects as designated by the contributors.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLY DAY

Nearly half a million Children's Day exercises, and more than a quarter of a million Rally Day exercises, were used by our Sabbath schools last year. The total offerings received from Sabbath schools during the year were $79,714.45, a decrease of $4,966.64 from the previous year. Efforts are in progress to secure larger offerings this year, and with the return of more prosperous conditions, it is believed that a substantial increase will be shown.

OUR FOREIGN COLPORTEUR WORK

Thirty colporteurs have labored for periods of from three to twelve months among Italians, Hungarians (Magyars), Bohemians, Ruthenians, Slovaks, Russians, Poles, Roumanians and many other foreign peoples in eleven different States, as follows: Delaware, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Missouri, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas.

The number of families visited in the course of their labors is 33,074. During these visits, they distributed by sale and gift 7,645 religious books, and 243,291 pages of tracts, besides 11,792 Bibles, Testaments and portions of Scripture in at least twenty different languages. Their total sales amounted to $1,273.46. (See page 27.)

Attention is called to the fact that these colporteurs are not only book sellers, but missionaries. They are laying the foundation for aggressive missionary effort on the part of Home Mission Committees of the Presbyteries in which they labor. Many of the mission churches and Sabbath schools now in existence among the various classes of foreigners had their origin in the visits of our colporteurs. In coöperation with such Committees some of our colporteurs have been temporarily assigned to the special oversight of mission schools and to the holding of regular services with congregations that have developed from their labors in addition to their work of visitation during the week. In this way the general work has been strengthened.

OUR FOREIGN PERIODICALS

Bohemian weekly, Krestanske Listy ("The Christian Journal"). This paper is now entering upon its fourth year. Beginning with a circulation of 1,000 per week, it has increased to 2,800 copies weekly, with the prospect of a still greater growth. The amount received from subscriptions and advertisements is $1,937.00, an increase of $116.83 over the income from this source during the previous year. The net cost of publishing last year is $4,845.45.

Hungarian (Magyar) weekly, Reformatusok Lapja ("The Reformed Sentinel"). This periodical now has a circulation of 1,300 copies per week. We are glad to report that its publication has been carried on at a considerable saving compared with the amount expended for this purpose during the previous year. The total cost last year was $1,872.58, against $3,166.23 the year previous. The paper has not only been managed economically, but it has been improved in typographical appearance and many other ways through the efficient and voluntary labor of the present manager and chief editor, Rev. Julius M. Hanko.

Hungarian (Magyar) monthly Sunday-school magazine, Oromhir ("The Evangel"). We are now printing 1,200 copies of this magazine for the officers, teachers and adult pupils in the Hungarian Sabbath schools connected with the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches. Under the management of the Rev. A. G. Schodle the paper has greatly improved in appearance and in the character of its contents. In this, as well as in the publication of "The Reformed Sentinel," the Sunday-School Board of the Reformed Church in the United States shares one third of the cost. The net cost of "The Evangel" to our Board last year was $360.59, against $375.05 during the previous year.

Our Ruthenian monthly paper, Nash a Zyzn ("Our Life"), has been merged during the year into a weekly publication called Sojus ("Union"), which is rapidly increasing in circulation, and by means of which a great deal is being accomplished in promoting the movement, begun among the Ruthenians themselves, toward Protestantism, and especially toward Presbyterianism. Several of the leaders in the movement have invested various amounts out of their limited means, which, with the sum already appropriated by our Board, have enabled them to establish a printing house for the publication of this paper, and such other religious tracts and books as they may be able to secure. The Home Mission Board is also coöperating by providing the salary of one of the editors, and in other ways. Our Board was the pioneer in this work for Ruthenians. It is a hopeful field, and although the results may be small at the beginning, the outlook for winning large numbers of these people is exceedingly encouraging if we persist along the present lines. The sum of $888.75 was expended upon this work last year.

Bible picture cards. The demand for these cards has been so great that we have been compelled to increase our output to 11,000 sets each week. They are printed in six different languages, Bohemian, Polish, Italian, Hungarian, Spanish and Ruthenian, and are being shipped to all parts of the world, as well as being used extensively among Bohemian, Italian, Hungarian and other Sabbath schools in our country, and by our colporteurs in their work among foreigners in our own land. Appropriate comments upon the picture are printed on the back of each card. Many letters have been received testifying to the good accomplished through these cards as they are passed from one to another, finally, in many cases, finding a place on the walls of the immigrants' homes. The net cost of publishing these cards last year was $697.09. The paid subscriptions amounted to more than $300.

The entire amount expended upon our foreign work last year was $18,527.27. The Rally Day contributions of Sabbath schools for this special work approximate $13,500, a decrease from the previous year of about $1,500.

SHORTER CATECHISM

During the year, 663 Oxford Bibles have been presented as rewards to Sabbath-school pupils who have committed the Shorter Catechism to memory and recited it without help to the pastor of the church. A few years ago there were from two to three thousand applicants for this reward each year. The heavy decrease in recent years doubtless is due to the decline in the study of the Catechism throughout the Church.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The Pennsylvania Bible Society has coöperated with us in our foreign work by assisting in the support of three colporteurs laboring in the State of Pennsylvania. It has generously furnished copies of the Scriptures to all of our Pennsylvania colporteurs as they were required, accepting only the amount returned for the copies sold, and donating those given away. We take this opportunity of recording our gratitude and appreciation for the substantial assistance rendered by this Society in our work among the immigrant population.

The American Bible Society, with its customary promptness, has continued to furnish English Bibles and Testaments for sale and gift by our Sabbath-school missionaries in their visits to destitute communities. The thanks of the Board are extended to the officers and members of this Society for their part in the advancement of our work.

FINANCIAL

The adverse conditions that have prevailed during the past year caused a decrease in offerings, especially from the Sabbath schools. The remarkable record of the previous year, which showed an excess of $24,276.37 over the highest amount ever received in any single year, could not be maintained under the existing conditions. The amount received last year is $155,762.34, a decrease of $5,209.62 from the year 1907-1908, but an increase of $19,066.75 over the total received during 1906-1907, which was the largest amount received up to that time.

In addition to this there was a decrease of $11,614.29 in the proportion of profit received from the Business Department. These decreases made it necessary to incur a deficit of $9,638.58. By exercising strict economy in every direction, coupled with a continuous campaign for contributions, we have been enabled to reduce what threatened to be a deficit of nearly $20,000 to the above figure, which we hope can be disposed of out of the funds of next year. This has been accomplished without the withdrawal of any of our workers from their fields.

The cost of administration last year was reduced to $8,575.26, or 4.5 per cent. This was entirely covered by the proportion of business profits appropriated by the Board to this work ($13,995.94), leaving a substantial balance to be used in the general work.

COMPARISON OF CONTRIBUTIONS

The following table shows a comparison of contributions received during the past eleven years:

1898-1899	$89,879.39
1899-1900	99,929.04
1900-1901	105,017.28
1901-1902	113,154.98
1902-1903	118,772.02
1903-1904	121,608.11
1904-1905	125,150.55
1905-1906	130,119.00
1906-1907	136,695.59
1907-1908	160,971.96
1908-1909	155,762.34

SABBATH-SCHOOL TRAINING

Special attention has been given during the past year to our Sabbath-school training work for the elevation and improvement of existing Sabbath schools, and the results have been most gratifying. Pastors, Sabbath-school superintendents and workers everywhere have responded to our efforts in a way that gives sure indication that our Sabbath schools have felt the need of such inspiration and help as we are now giving them.

PRESBYTERIAL SABBATH-SCHOOL COMMITTEES. Every available avenue through which our efforts for greater efficiency in Sabbath-school work could be brought to the attention of our schools has been used. Our Presbyterial Sabbath-school committees have been provided with ways and means for holding Sabbath-school Institutes; special literature has been prepared for their use; they have been urged by frequent correspondence to cultivate closer relations with the Sabbath schools and workers throughout their Presbyteries, and they have been kept informed concerning everything new and helpful in Sabbath-school work. This has resulted in an awakening in many Presbyteries to a deeper appreciation of the importance of the work assigned to this committee and a noticeable effort is being made to select some of the most aggressive of our ministers and elders for the Sabbath-school Committee.

PRESBYTERIAL INSTITUTES. In a number of Presbyteries a Presbyterial Sabbath-school Association has been formed and a Sabbath-school Institute held in connection with the meeting of the Presbytery. These Institutes have been a means of inspiration and education to the schools represented.

SYNODICAL INSTITUTES. Many of our Synods now hold a Sabbath-school Institute on the day preceding the meeting of the Synod. Encouraging reports come to us concerning these Institutes. Our Board is glad to recall the fact that this movement was begun by our own Synodical Sabbath-school missionaries. Its helpfulness is now recognized and the plan is being generally adopted.

LITERATURE. A most effective method of spreading information and giving helpful suggestions to our Sabbath-school workers is through the printed page. This method supplements the Institute work of our Sabbath-school missionaries and Presbyterian committees. During the year the following manuals have been issued, of which about 6,000 copies have been sold:

"The Adult Bible Class: Its Organization and Work," by W. C. Pearce, Superintendent of Adult Department International Sunday School Association. 25 cents, postpaid.

"What a Superintendent Can Do," by Philip E. Howard. 10 cents, postpaid.

"The Sunday School Graded: Why? What? How?" by A. H. McKinney. 10 cents, postpaid.

"Special Days in the Sunday School," by Allan Sutherland. 10 cents, postpaid.

"The Sunday School in the Country," by John T. Faris. 10 cents, postpaid.

"The Teacher-Training Class," by Franklin McElfresh, D. D. 10 cents, postpaid.

Other manuals uniform in size with the above dealing with various phases of Sabbath-school work are in course of preparation. In addition our Sabbath-School Department has issued the following leaflets, which are freely distributed, and for which there has been a large demand, more than 100,000 being distributed. Others will appear during the next few months.

"Training the Sunday-School Teacher."

"The Organized Adult Bible Class."

"The Home Department."

"The Elementary Grades of the Sunday School."

"Missions in the Sabbath School."

"Plans for Increasing Sunday-School Membership."

In January a special four-page "Bulletin" was published for the use of pastors, containing suggestions of practical value to the pastor concerning the work of the Sabbath school. This effort met with an enthusiastic response. Numerous letters were received urging us to continue to furnish information of this character.

SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONARIES. During the year our Sabbath-school missionaries have held 616 Sabbath-school Institutes, 239 of which were for the benefit of mission Sabbath schools and 377 for church Sabbath schools. At these Institutes a total of 2,092 Sabbath schools were represented. This has become an important part of the work of our Sabbath-school missionaries. Instead of giving their time to the care of struggling churches during the period when it is not possible to organize new work, our Sabbath-school missionaries now devote that time to the visitation of schools, holding conferences of officers and teachers, arranging Sabbath-school Institutes and to such other phases of advanced Sabbath-school work as it may be necessary to emphasize.

Our Synodical and district superintendents have arranged and successfully carried out Sabbath-school Institute tours in New York, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri and elsewhere, during which meetings have been held in scores of towns and cities and various Sabbath-school problems discussed.

It is obvious that the efficient carrying out of our present policy to emphasize intensive work for existing schools, as well as extensive work for the gathering in of those outside the Sabbath school, depends very largely upon our Sabbath-school missionaries. The power of the personal visit, and the encouragement and stimulus that are thus given to the Sabbath-school workers, are incalculable. This is a most hopeful aspect of our work, and it goes hand in hand with our labors for the organization of new schools in needy localities. Its importance becomes increasingly manifest.

TEACHER TRAINING

In 1905, some four years ago, the Presbyterian Churches, North and South, the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Reformed Church in the United States and the United Presbyterian Church united in the preparation of a teacher-training course. This was entitled "The Westminster Teacher Training Course," and consisted of two volumes—the first and second year.

Many of our Sunday schools have used this course and found it of great service in the preparation of their teachers for their responsible and difficult duties.

As the work of teacher training developed and the various denominations began to prepare books for this purpose, it was seen that it would be necessary to have some understanding upon this subject, and that it would be wise to establish a standard to which teacher-training courses should conform.

Accordingly a conference of the representatives of the leading denominations and of the Committee on Education of the International Sunday School Association was held in the Witherspoon Building, Philadelphia.

At this conference it was agreed that a standard teacher-training course should consist of not less than fifty lessons, of which at least twenty should be devoted to the study of the Bible, and at least seven each to the study of the pupil, teacher and the Sunday school.

It was also agreed that this course should be regarded as a two-years' course, and that "in no case should a diploma be granted for its completion in less than one year."

It was at once evident that "The Westminster Teacher Training Course" did not meet the requirements of the standard. It was necessary, therefore, to revise the former course or prepare an entirely new one.

The Board had the matter under consideration for quite a length of time, and finally decided to ask the Rev. Charles A. Oliver, Teacher Training Superintendent of the State Sabbath-school Association, to prepare a new course of study. Mr. Oliver is a Presbyterian minister who has been remarkably successful in his supervision of the teacher-training work of the Pennsylvania State Association. His experience in this work has qualified him to prepare a course which will meet the requirements of those who are desirous of fitting themselves to be Sunday-school teachers.

In offering to our Sunday schools this new course, the Board feels that it is putting within their reach a valuable and helpful book, which will be to those who make use of it, as its name indicates, a "Preparation for Teaching."

DEPARTMENT OF YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK

The following is a brief statement of the many activities carried on by the Department of Young People's Work between April 1st, 1908, and April 1st, 1909:

1. For the purpose of assisting and interesting pastors 19,000 circular letters and 19,000 leaflets were sent out at various times free of charge. One publication, entitled "Organization for Young People" was prepared to serve as a manual of information concerning many kinds of societies and methods suited to the needs of the average parish. In response to a single appeal this spring hundreds of churches held special services on February 7th in behalf of young people's work. Thirteen hundred dollars were contributed by 389 societies to the support of the Department.

2. Presbyterial Committees on Young People's Work were kept in close touch with headquarters by frequent letters and leaflets. Through their coöperation the Department's activities along several lines were strengthened, and in addition upward of 50 conventions were planned and held in various parts of the country.

3. The assistance of the Synodical Committees on Young People's Work was likewise secured.

4. Approximately 15,000,000 copies of our various religious papers had articles in them from the department headquarters. This means that all of the leading papers of the denomination were used. We give them hearty thanks.

5. On our roll of Forward Movement leaders we have nearly 2,000 names. One hundred and forty thousand leaflets and programs of 30 different kinds were printed for the benefit of these young people.

6. Thirty thousand five hundred leaflets, 12,500 programs and 24,000 circular letters were used in an effort to benefit all young people's organizations by direct correspondence.

7. Through the Information Bureau the needs of hundreds of societies were met. Information concerning 13 different organizations was furnished. On Christian Endeavor methods leaflets dealing with 33 different subjects were printed. Approximately 2,400 letters were dictated. A large exhibit of literature gathered from many sources and for use in all kinds of young people's work was prepared and set up for inspection at headquarters.

8. A Summer Conference or School of Methods was held at Winona Lake, Indiana, and two similar conferences were planned for the coming season.

9. Institutes and special services were held by the superintendent in 16 different states. Approximately 17,000 miles were covered in his travels.

10. Several hundred societies adopted our plan of ten minute supplemental drills on Church history, etc.

11. The Individual Study Course was promoted.

12. The Department coöperated with the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions by circulating their mission study announcements. It likewise aided the Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance in bringing its literature to public notice.

13. Through the coöperation of the Sabbath-school missionaries many new organizations were formed and old ones assisted.

14. In all 180,000 leaflets were printed on 39 different subjects. Fifty-two thousand circular letters, 10,000 report blanks, 18,000 cards and 19,500 programs for special meetings were used. The total number of pages of printed matter circulated during the year, exclusive of articles in the religious press, is 1,001,500.

THE LESSON HELPS

The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:

The Westminster Teacher is a monthly magazine especially prepared for teachers and officers of Sunday schools and for use in adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible lessons. Professor George L. Robinson, D. D., LL. D.; the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson; the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D.; J. F. Carson, D. D., and Miss Josephine L. Baldwin, furnish departments of the lesson work. Each monthly number contains from fifty-six to sixty-four pages, with an attractive cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 75 cents; school subscriptions to one address, 60 cents per copy.

The Rev. John A. McKamy, D. D., is associated with the editor, and has immediate supervision of the work on The Westminster Teacher.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, is exclusively for teachers.

It includes the notes for teachers of this department formerly given in The Westminster Teacher, including also the notes given in the pupils' Quarterly. It contains 70 pages. Subscription price, 40 cents a year, or 12 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in Senior and adult classes. The principal work on this Quarterly is done by the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Orders of Service, Maps and other valuable matter, and contains 48 pages. Its wide circulation attests its popularity. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for pupils of the intermediate grade. It is prepared chiefly by the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson. It contains full lesson text, both Common and Revised Versions, with notes, questions and practical teachings. In it are found also Maps, Orders of Service, etc. Each number contains 42 pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department. It is prepared by Miss Josephine L. Baldwin. It is attractive in form and helpful in its instruction. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the Primary grade. It is prepared by Miss Marion Thomas. It gives explanations of the lessons, with hymns and music, and is beautifully illustrated. It contains 38 pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath school, yet desire to study the lesson, week by week. It is prepared with special reference to home students. This Quarterly contains in each number 48 pages. Subscription price, 16 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies separately mailed.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes. The eight quarterly numbers of this course are furnished to those desiring them, and may be used without reference to date. The lessons were prepared by James A. Worden, D. D. The price is 40 cents a year for a single subscription; two or more subscriptions to one address, 24 cents each. The two years' course, bound in cloth, $1.00, postpaid.

The Adult Bible Class Monthly will begin with October of this year as a new monthly magazine. It will be published in the interests of adult Bible classes. It will furnish lesson preparation adapted both to teachers and members. A considerable portion of each number will be devoted to methods of organizing and conducting such classes and to matters that will prove helpful and stimulating. Rev. John T. Faris will be associated with the editor in the conduct of this magazine. Subscription price, single copy, by mail, 60 cents; two or more copies to one address, 50 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared for intermediate and younger scholars, but may be used in any grade. It is issued monthly, but is so prepared that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to pupils weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Notes on the lesson and Questions. School subscriptions, to one address, 6 cents a year; single copies, a year, 10 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to primary classes. School subscriptions, to one address, 10 cents a year, 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible Roll. Lesson pictures, the same as those on the Lesson Cards, but greatly enlarged, prepared as wall roll for the Primary Department. Price, $3.00 a year, 75 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons cover the Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. The lessons are arranged with reference to the seasons. They can be taken up at any time. The Beginners' Lessons, with the cards for teachers and pupils, were prepared by Miss Marion Thomas and issued in eight illustrated numbers. These numbers were first issued as a Quarterly covering two years. They are now furnished to schools at the prices indicated below.

Accompanying the Beginners' Lessons is a series of large picture cards (12 x 15 inches in size), especially prepared for this course. Both the Quarterly and these cards are solely for the teacher's use in teaching the lesson. For the pupils there are smaller Golden Text Picture Cards to be given out each week.

COST OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE BEGINNERS' COURSE

For the Teacher: Westminster Beginners' Lessons, in quarterly form, 50 cents a year, 12½ cents a quarter.

Large Picture Cards, $3.00 a year, 75 cents a quarter.
Song Stories for the Sunday school, 15 cents.

For the Pupil: A Golden Text Illustrated Card for every Sunday, 24 cents a year, 6 cents a quarter.

Running parallel with the Beginners' Lessons is a series of Supplemental Beginners' Lessons, which are to take the place of the formal opening exercises used in the other departments of the school. This Supplemental Course, which covers a period of ten months, only, includes a series of lessons for the teacher, published in pamphlet form, elaborating the Supplemental Lessons, and a series of large pictures for use in teaching the Supplemental Lessons (7 x 9 inches in size). For the pupil there are small cards to be distributed the last Sunday of the month, giving the thought for the month, and a Bible verse, and the words of a song.

COST OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE SUPPLEMENTAL COURSE

For the Teacher: Supplemental Lessons for Beginners, an illustrated book elaborating the supplemental course, 25 cents.

Large Picture Cards, covering a period of ten months, 43 cards, $2.00 for the complete set.

For the Pupil: Small cards, one for each month, for ten months, 5 cents for the complete set.

NEW GRADED LESSONS FOR ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENTS

We shall begin to publish in October new courses of lessons for elementary grades—Beginners', Primary and Junior Departments, as provided for by the International Sunday School Association. These lessons will not displace the regular uniform lessons, but are offered to all schools which desire to use them. For the Beginners, there is a course of two years, for the Primary Department, above the Beginners', a course of three years and for the Junior Grade a course of four years. These new courses will be furnished in Quarterly form. It is believed that many schools will accept the opportunity of at once introducing these new lessons prepared specially for the younger children, and that ultimately they will come into universal use.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS

Forward still continues to grow in interest, as its increasing weekly circulation, now fully reaching three hundred thousand, attests. It is freely conceded that no paper in the country for young people surpasses Forward in interest and popularity. It is filled every week with choicest things for its readers. The best short story, and other, writers for young people are among its contributors. From readers of all ages the most appreciative commendations are received continually. While intended primarily for older classes in Sunday schools, Forward is adapted also for young people in the home, the school and everywhere. It has a Christian Endeavor Department, with brief notes on the weekly topics, and contains articles from time to time on the work of the young people's societies. The low price at which Forward is furnished brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscriptions, a year, 75 cents; subscriptions for two or more copies in the same wrapper, addressed to one person, 50 cents a year.

The Sabbath-School Visitor is one of the oldest of the periodicals of the Board, but is always bright and interesting. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and valuable matter. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 30 cents.

Beginning with October 1 of this year important changes will be made in The Visitor. The size of its pages will be enlarged. In contents it will be brightened and made more attractive in every way. Then the name will be changed to The Comrade. The price of subscription will be the same.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality.

grade and style as The Visitor, but only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents.

The Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. It is attractive not only in its appearance, but also in its contents. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each pupil.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

According to the statement on page 46, there have been published during the year 3,162,105 copies of books and tracts, and 54,092,690 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,000 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 1908, make an aggregate of 57,262,795 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco and Nashville, and six other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES

New York, N. Y., G. W. Brazier, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
 Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 328 Wabash Avenue.
 St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 505 North Seventh Street.
 San Francisco, Cal., W. H. Webster, Manager, 400 Sutter Street.
 Nashville, Tenn., J. W. Axtell, Manager, 150 Fourth Avenue North.

The other houses referred to are:

Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
 Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, Sixth Street and Duquesne Way.
 Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212-214 North Sixth Street.
 Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
 Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
 Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 21 Warwick Lane, London, E. C.

SALES

The sales for the year in books and tracts, including our own publications and those of other houses, were $280,584.53; and of periodicals, $453,600.63. These amounts, as they include credit sales, do not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.*

CAPITAL AND NET PROFITS

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $297,200.73. The net profits of the year were $35,284.94. Of this sum two thirds, or $23,523.30, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly instalments during the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1910. The remaining third, or $11,761.64 has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $308,962.37.

* The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same class of publication to the most favored branch houses in this country;" the missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

F. M. BRASELMANN, Treasurer.

The undersigned Auditing Committee, in conjunction with Mr. Charles Lewer, Certified Public Accountant, have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and find them correct. The balance of cash in the hands of the Treasurer, April 1st, was eighty-four thousand and seventy-six dollars and sixty-two cents ($84,076.62). They have also examined the securities in his hands, amounting to two hundred and fifty-seven thousand and twenty-eight dollars and fifty cents ($257,028.50), and find them in the name of the corporation, with the exception of $4,000 People's Passenger Railway Company, and $4,000 People's Passenger Railway Company's Consolidated Bonds, which are coupon bonds, unregistered, and were received as such from the executor of the Farr Estate.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBY- TERIAN CHURCH

The volume of business of the Publishing House the past year was about normal, notwithstanding the effects of the financial depression of the preceding year on the earlier months. In fact, improvement in conditions became sufficiently pronounced toward the close of the year to bring the total in line with the results of the greatest years in the history of the House. The entire volume of business was $170,464.96, which was $5,134.24 below the greatest year on record, and $850.10 below the second, the year under review ranking third.

Those conversant with the work of publication need not be reminded that the fiscal year ending March 31, 1909, although a period of a distinct measure of recuperation, was as much below the corresponding periods in the years 1904, 1905 and 1906 in its business possibilities as it was above the year ending March 31, 1908. Publishers have realized, too, that the beginning and close of the past business year were entirely different from each other in business character—the difference being so positive as to create bright hopes for the future. This has been the experience of those in charge of the Publishing House in the last twelve months.

It has not been a year of great profit, although the returns show substantial improvement over those of the preceding year.

STATEMENT OF PROFIT.

The aggregate gross profit of the business of the House, accruing from the various sources of income, was $15,786.67, distributed as follows:

Periodicals	$4,032 00
Book Department	190 69
Rents	2,278 84

It has seemed to be necessary in the past year to extend to some of the leading patrons of the House an unusual line of credit. This has been done only on being thoroughly satisfied of the safety and wisdom of the proceeding. As a result of this there is an increase of $6,920.60 in liabilities over those of the preceding year. It will be seen, though, that bills and accounts receivable are $11,310.08 greater than a year ago, with an increase of $1,230.00 in the cash on hand; or $12,540.08 in all, which if applied would bring the liabilities down to $32,231.71, or $5,619.48 less than a year ago. Funds will be applied to this purpose as they become available. Of the debt, $20,500.00 is in five-per-cent bonds, and the remainder is in bills and accounts payable and employees' savings fund.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN.

At the opening of the business year a new postal regulation, to the effect that delinquent subscribers to a weekly paper could not be continued for more than a year, cut a total of 1,888 names off the list. This reduced the circulation to less than for a number of years. A part of this loss has been recovered, and arrangements recently made for field work indicate a further increase in circulation in the next few months. The claim can justly be made for The Cumberland Presbyterian that it is one of the most economically published of all the religious papers of national circulation. Its profit the past year was $1,571.58.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

A slight increase in the volume of business in Sunday school periodicals was reported for the year closing March 31, 1908. There has been a more pronounced growth in the year immediately past. The improvement is most gratifying, and the outlook is still more promising. The profit of the year was $2,460.42.

BOOK DEPARTMENT.

It is doubtful whether there would be an appreciable number of denominational bookstores extant if money-making were the main object of their existence. These stores exist because of the necessary work which devolves upon them, and financial returns are a secondary consideration. The book business of the Publishing House is healthy, wholesome and safe, and fully self-sustaining. The business of the past year shows some growth, with a profit of barely $190.69. If this branch of the work, as well as other branches, were sustained at a loss, the work would be none the less justifiable and essential.

GENERAL PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

It was in this department that the effects of the financial panic of 1907 and the succeeding months were most felt. The House was fortunate in having no losses of consequence because of the financial failure of patrons, but business was quite restricted for a time, both in volume and in profit. There has been an almost total recovery in volume, and profit shows an increase of 29½ per cent over the preceding year, with every indication of further improvement.

The equipment of machinery and fixtures is so complete that very slight investment from time to time will suffice to keep the plant up to date. There are few plants in the South so good for its special lines of work, and none better. Reference has been made before to the high character and efficiency of the employees of the House in every department, and it is only just to repeat with emphasis and encomiums that have heretofore been pronounced.

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Members whose terms expire in 1909.—Rev. T. A. Wigginton, D.D., Nashville, Tenn.; J. H. DeWitt, Nashville, Tenn.; J. H. Reynolds, Rome, Ga.

Members whose terms expire in 1910.—Rev. J. M. Johnston, Petersburg, Ill.; W. T. Hardison, Nashville, Tenn.; L. M. Rice, Louisville, Ky.

Members whose terms expire in 1911.—Rev. W. A. Provine, D.D., Nashville, Tenn.; Hamilton Parks, Nashville, Tenn.; M. G. Wood, Independence, Mo.

Officers of the Board.—Hamilton Parks, President; J. H. DeWitt, Secretary.

Rev. Charles Manton, D.D., of Paris, Texas, for many years a member of the Board, died in November last. His fine Christian spirit and his wise counsel are much missed in our deliberations. Rev. T. A. Wigginton, D.D., of Nashville, was elected to fill the few remaining months of Dr. Manton's term. We respectfully ask that the General Assembly nominate three men to succeed those whose terms are now expiring.

With gratitude to the Great Ruler who has so continually blessed our work, this report is respectfully submitted.

THIRTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Board of the Church Erection Fund.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Grateful for the progress permitted during the year, the Board of the Church Erection Fund respectfully presents its Thirty-ninth* Annual Report as follows:

The opening of the year was saddened by the sudden and tragic death of one of the most active and useful members of the Board, Elder George E. Sterry, who was taken away May 19, 1908. The Board expressed its sorrow and its appreciation of the long service of Mr. Sterry in the following Minute adopted June 15, 1908:

"The Board is again called upon to mourn the loss of one of its most active and efficient members, Mr. George E. Sterry, by whose sudden death May 19, 1908, a vacancy is left in its ranks which it will be hard to fill.

"Mr. Sterry became a member of the Board in 1892, and immediately manifested a wise and intelligent interest in its work, which continued unfailingly until his death, which occurred upon the day following a stated meeting of the Board at which he was present in full health and vigor. As a member of the Loan and Finance Committees he rendered distinguished service by a zealous and unremitting care of the interests of the Board and a prudence in husbanding and safeguarding its funds which commanded the highest respect and confidence of his colleagues in office.

"Occupying also many other influential positions in the organized activities of Christian work and always proving himself alert and faithful in oversight, prompt and clear in counsel, courteous and considerate in discussion, his sudden removal in the prime of life and strength imposes a loss upon the entire Church which can hardly be overestimated.

"The Board in entering upon its Minutes this tribute of its respect and affection directs that an engrossed copy be sent to Mr. Sterry's family, with the assurance of its profound sympathy in their irreparable loss."

Within four months the Board was again suddenly bereaved by the death of Elder Henry T. Bronson on September 2, 1908.

At its meeting upon the 21st of the same month the Board expressed its sense of loss in the following resolution:

"The Board of Church Election is for the third time this year called upon to mourn the loss of one of its members. In the sudden death at Rye, N. Y., upon September 2, of Mr. Henry T. Bronson, it is not only deprived of services unusually valuable, but its members are bereaved of a beloved colleague and friend.

"Mr. Bronson, a native of Connecticut, came in early life to New York and entered upon a successful business career, in which he manifested qualities of ability, wisdom and integrity which secured the respect of all with whom he was associated, while his interest in philanthropic and religious matters gave him a prominent place in the Presbyterian Church, of which he was a lifelong member and for many years an elder. He became a member of this Board in 1902, and from that date took an earnest and active part in its management, being at the time of his death a member of its Finance Committee. Regular and punctual in his attendance upon its meetings, wise in counsel and courteous in his bearing, he so endeared himself to all of his colleagues that his departure leaves a sad vacancy in ranks so sorely depleted since the opening of the year. Realizing keenly its loss, the Board directs that an engrossed copy of this Minute be sent to the family of Mr. Bronson, with the assurance of the respectful sympathy of his fellow-members."

Looking back over the year it may be said that the Board, with an ever-increasing appreciation of the importance of the work committed to it and a growing sense of the responsibility involved, has gone forward, maintaining to the best of its ability the methods and measures which the Assembly in its wisdom has formulated for its guidance.

These are rendered the more necessary as the constant growth of the Church and the extension of its bounds into the more sparsely settled regions of the country require a careful husbanding of the resources of the Board and careful discrimination in their distribution.

The year has been full of encouragement. As it opened at a time of widespread financial embarrassment and business depression, it was feared that these would be reflected in a serious check upon the progress of the Church, as indicated in church erection, and a marked falling off in the ability of the Board to foster the advance; but the result has not justified these apprehensions.

While it is doubtless true that the financial depression to which reference has been made, and which has continued unabated through the year, has to some extent affected the advance in church building, it is gratifying to be able to report that the number of applications nearly equaled the unusual number received in the previous year, and the appropriations, including both grants and loans, were actually more and to a larger amount, the advance, however, being in the department of loans.

This unexpected result clearly indicates the unabated vitality and faith of the Church.

APPLICATIONS.

The total number of churches sending in applications was 285, amounting in the aggregate to a demand of $294,743. It is somewhat significant, and perhaps indicative of an advance in ability for self-support, that the slight falling off indicated above was practically in the request for grants for church buildings, and not in the applications for loans either for church edifices or manses.

These applications were distributed as follows:

RESOURCES.

The following table will give in detail the resources through which the Board has been able to respond to such applications as came within its sphere and within the conditions established by the General Assembly for its administration.

The total amount is larger by $11,016.52 than last year, and it is gratifying to report that the offerings of the churches, which supply so large a part of its income, were $2,071.36 more, and that the number of contributing churches also shows an advance of 326 and a total of 5,146.

APPROPRIATIONS.

Appropriations to a greater or less extent have been made this year from all of our funds. In giving the figures from each, attention is called to the fact that from three of them, viz., the General, the Buell and the Van Meter, grants are made under the same conditions, although from the latter two with restrictions as to territory: the Buell Fund being confined to churches west of the Mississippi and the Van Meter to such as are within the bounds of West Jersey Presbytery.

1. General Fund.—From this fund there have been 126 grants aggregating $80,910.14 and 23 loans without interest amounting to $15,600, a total of 149 appropriations aggregating $96,510.14; but as three churches received both loans and grants, the number of churches aided from this fund was 146.

2. The Buell Fund.—From this fund, derived from a legacy, and treated as supplemental to the General Fund, there were 14 grants to the amount of $10,800 and one loan of $500, a total of $11,300; but as one church received both grant and loan, the churches aided number 14.

3. The Van Meter Fund.—From this small fund, confined in use to the Presbytery of West Jersey, one grant of $400 was made.

As these three above reported represent practically the work of the Board as originally defined, viz., the aiding of "feeble churches in the erection of inexpensive buildings," we may properly unite their figures as indicating the results of the year's work within its original sphere. So doing, we find the number of grants to be 141, aggregating $92,110.14, and of loans 24, aggregating $16,100, making a total of 165 appropriations and $108,210.14, and, deducting repetitions, 161 churches aided.

4. The Loan Fund.—This fund, it will be remembered, is available by the permission of the General Assembly allowing certain trust funds in the hands of the Board to be invested in loans at a low rate of interest to a class of churches which from their size and strength do not come properly within the sphere of the General Fund.

From this fund there have been 30 loans amounting in the aggregate to $88,400, an advance in amount over last year of eight in number and of $27,900 or of 45 per cent. in amount. The investment of this fund, with the annual appropriations and returns for the seventeen years since its inauguration, may be seen in the table upon the following page.

5. The Manse Fund.—From this fund, originally endowed by Mrs. Robert L. Stuart, and from which loans without interest, and occasionally under exceptional circumstances small grants, are made to assist in building manses, there have been fifty loans amounting to $24,310. The loans exceed those of last year by seven in number and $3,610 in amount.

6. The Reynolds Fund.—This fund, derived from a bequest of the late General William F. Reynolds, of Detroit, is by the terms of his will to be loaned at a low rate of interest to churches needing aid in building manses to a larger extent than can be rendered without interest from the General Manse Fund. While interest is charged, a longer period is allowed in which installments may be paid. From it twenty loans were promised to the aggregate amount of $19,250. As the applications to this fund have exceeded its resources it is now all in use, and several appropriations have been voted only to be advanced as funds, accruing from the return of installments on previous loans, will permit. The appropriations exceed those of last year by eight in number and $4,950 in amount.

7. The Hoyt Fund.—From this fund, the proceeds of a bequest from the late Dr. Ezra P. Hoyt, to be used under terms similar to those of the Reynolds Fund, one loan of $1,500 was made.

8. The Stuart Fund.—From this special fund, to be used at the discretion of the Board, one small additional grant of $50 was made to a church in Cuba.

9. The Barber Fund.—This is a fund to be used only for colored churches and for such as are not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen. Such churches are almost entirely in our Northern States; also almost without exception in our large cities; and moreover are, as might be expected, composed of congregations with very scanty pecuniary means. It follows that while the expense of land and building is at a maximum, the ability of the people is at a minimum. Therefore if any effective aid is to be given, it must be on a scale relatively much larger than that afforded to churches applying to the General Fund of the Board. The principal of this fund is held by the Trustees of the General Assembly, and the annual income allotted to this Board is about $3,000.

As thus far the number of churches coming under the terms of the bequest and applying to the Board has not been unduly large, and as the Board in its administration of the Fund has been allowed large liberty, it has been able by liberal grants and loans to give substantial aid to this class of our fellow-Christians. There have been three grants for church buildings aggregating $2,900, and to one of the churches also a loan of $1,000—a total of $3,900. Two churches have been aided in procuring manses, one by a grant of $1,000 and one by a grant of $2,000—an aggregate of $3,000.

In addition a temporary loan of $6,700 was made to the Presbytery of Jersey City to enable it to transfer its La Fayette Street (colored) Church to a more eligible site, the loan to be returned to the fund without interest as soon as the transaction was completed and the original property sold. The entire draft for the year upon this fund was therefore $13,600, of which nearly one-half will come back to the Board probably within a few months.

SUMMARY.

The total of grants and loans, although deducting the temporary loan of $6,700, exceeds the previous year's total by four and by $25,683.14.

As indicating the width and diversity of the work, it may be noticed that these appropriations have been distributed among 39 different States and Territories, in addition to Porto Rico and Cuba, in so doing reaching 140 of our Presbyteries. The Southwest, so rapidly filling up, has by its applications proven that its religious interests are keeping pace with its marvelous growth in material prosperity, Oklahoma, as last year, claiming the largest number of appropriations, viz., 25, amounting in the aggregate to $33,075. Washington, in the far Northwest, is a close second with 21, to the amount of $20,486, Next in order come Minnesota with 20, calling for $13,600; Nebraska, 15, and in amount $13,100; California and South Dakota, the former with 12 and the latter with 11 appropriations and amounts respectively of $12,500 and $7,200; and in the East, Indiana and Pennsylvania, each with 10 and in amounts respectively $11,200 and $8,150.

During the year the payments indicate that 223 church buildings and manses of an aggregate value of $825,416 have been completed and entirely paid for.

The total receipts in all departments have been $220,573.63 and the disbursements $272,429.80. The usual alphabetical and synodical tables, indicating in detail the distribution of the appropriations, will be found in the Appendix, while upon the following page is a tabular view of the work of the Board from its inception in 1844. This table is each year in successive reports brought up to date. The first two columns give the report for the year just closed and indicate the relative demand; the other two the total outcome from the beginning.

The amounts named indicate appropriations and somewhat exceed the actual payments, which are given in the schedule at the foot of the same page. Also, as will be noticed, in no one year are the appropriations the same in number or amount as the payments. Appropriations may not be called for for one or even two years after they are voted, and a certain small percentage are never called for at all, the church either finding it can dispense with the promised assistance or in some instances relinquishing the attempt to build.

THE VALUE OF THE WORK.

A consideration of the facts and figures that each year indicate the progress of the work committed to this Board, illustrates the wisdom of the Assembly in organizing it as one of the Church's distinct administrative agencies with its individual and unique sphere. It goes forward in the advance of the Church side by side with the Board of Home Missions, coöperating with its sister agency in upholding the interests of the Kingdom, but at the same time with a distinct mission all its own, and caring for an entirely different class of interests. The Home Board plants churches as centres of spiritual life, the Board of Church Erection provides the shelter in which as a home the spiritual life is nurtured and trained for aggressive work. To this end it has, during the sixty-five years since its work was inaugurated, taken part in sustaining and in making their work effective the majority of churches now in active life; and the number of applications, which each year show no sign of diminution, sufficiently indicates that a future even more fruitful than the past awaits it. New regions of our country are constantly opening for the entrance of the great army of home-seekers moving steadily onward, and with the march of these tramping columns, if the country is to continue to hold its high place among the nations of the earth, the institutions of the Christian faith must also move onward, and in every newly planted settlement, the seat perhaps of a future city, must be heard the voice of the herald proclaiming as of old, "Let us arise and build the House of God."

* In comparing the number of appropriations with the number of churches still upon the roll which have been aided, it should be noted, as appears in the columns of payments, that about 5 per cent. do not call for their appropriations, that about the same number have received more than one appropriation, and that others from one cause or another are either dissolved or consolidated, the actual average increase in the number of churches upon the roll of the Assembly being about 65 per cent. of the number reported as organized. It is therefore probable that the number of churches now enrolled which have been assisted by the Board is not more than two-thirds of the total number of appropriations paid.

OVERTURES REFERRED BY THE ASSEMBLY.

The General Assembly of 1908 referred to this Board the following Overture from the Presbytery of Santa Fé with directions to consider it and to report to the Assembly of 1909:

"The Presbytery of Santa Fé respectfully overtures the General Assembly to appoint a Committee to consider the advisability and feasibility of creating a Presbyterian Mutual Fire Insurance Company, for the purpose of insuring the churches, manses and other church property from loss by fire."

The Board referred this Overture to a special Committee, and at its regular meeting March 19, upon the report of the Committee, unanimously adopted the following report to be sent up to the Assembly of 1909:

"The Board of Church Erection, having carefully examined the question of the Assembly's creating a mutual fire insurance company for the protection of church property, referred to it by the General Assembly of 1908, as set forth in the Assembly's Minutes of 1908, at pages 114 and 115, respectfully reports, that in view of the variations between the laws of the different States, and also, in many cases, the complexity of such laws, it does not recommend the creation of a mutual fire insurance company by the Assembly at the present time. If the Assembly so desires, it is entirely willing to undertake a further examination of the subject and report thereon at the next Assembly."

The Assembly also referred to the several Boards interested, for a report through the Stated Clerk to the next Assembly, the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the General Assembly and the Treasurers of all Trust Funds of the Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, are hereby instructed to carry guaranty insurance on all cash balances held in bank, and authorized to pay the premium on the same out of any funds usable for administrative expense."

This resolution was referred by the Board to its Finance Committee, which at the regular meeting of the Board, March 15, 1909, made the following report, which was adopted by the Board and ordered to be sent to the Stated Clerk of the General Assembly:

Resolved, That it is the opinion of the Finance Committee of the Board of the Church Erection Fund, that the funds of this Board have heretofore been and now are deposited in Trust Companies in the City of New York of the highest financial standing, and that the interests of this Board are fully and amply protected by such Trust Companies, which are subject to an examination by the Banking Department of the State of New York; and this Committee is further of the opinion that the guaranty of such Trust Companies is sufficient protection for all purposes of this Board, and does not consider it necessary or wise to subject this Board to any additional expense in obtaining a further guaranty by an insurance of the cash bank balances of this Board.

THE FUTURE.

In accordance with its charter it is the duty of this Board to report to each Assembly the prospective needs of the work committed to it.

In complying with this direction the Board would point to the statements of this report as indicating the growing demands that come to it from all parts of our ever expanding Church. During the larger part of the year not only its General Fund, but also its Loan and Raynolds Manse Funds were practically exhausted. To the applications to the first of these for grants, responses could be given only as it was believed that future supplies would enable the Board to close the year without debt. Happily its confidence has been justified, but, although it has escaped indebtedness, it begins the new year with a treasury practically empty.

To applications to the latter funds it could only respond as installments from former loans were received and this meant delay, which in some cases involved serious inconvenience to the churches depending upon such loans. Evidently such work as is committed to this Board can never be finished. As our country grows, not only are new regions being constantly opened and villages, soon to become cities, founded, but in the older States population is constantly increasing and calling for new centres of religious and gospel influence.

The Board is constantly receiving, even from States as old and well settled as Pennsylvania, special appeals to meet the spiritual needs of the vast numbers of immigrants coming in to work in the mines, the coal fields and the manufactories upon which her wealth and property depend.

Add these worthy and eloquent appeals from the older States to the ever increasing volume of applications from such vast regions as confront our Church in the Northwest, the Southwest, and upon the Pacific Coast, and some adequate conception may be formed of the vast problem of evangelization which confronts us. Texas, Oklahoma and Arizona alone present a field which might absorb all the resources of the Boards of Home Missions and Church Erection and yet not be adequately covered.

May not then the Board press upon the churches, if they desire a work which for sixty-five years, with their aid and under the guidance of the General Assembly and the blessing of God, has been quietly but successfully securing the permanence of thousands of our newly planted congregations, the duty and privilege of meeting the situation by a more liberal support of their agent and representative, the Board of Church Erection.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

It only remains to add that the terms of the following members of the Board expire at this time:

MINISTERS.

REV. WILLIAM RUSSELL BENNETT,
 REV. DAVID R. FRAZER, D.D.,
 REV. JOHN A. INGHAM, D.D.,
 REV. DAVID MAGIE, D.D.

ELDERS.

I. REMSEN LANE,
 WILLIAM H. PARSONS.
 [VACANCY.]

It will devolve upon this Assembly to fill these vacancies, and also a vacancy in the same class caused by the death of Elder Henry T. Bronson. The vacancy in the class whose term expires in 1911 caused by the death of Elder George E. Sterry was, in accordance with the permission of the Assembly, filled ad interim by the election of Elder James E. Ware, which the Assembly is respectfully requested to approve.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

DAVID MAGIE,
President.

ERSKINE N. WHITE,
Secretary.

Report of the Standing Committee on Church Erection.

Your Committee on Church Erection begs leave to present the following report.

We have carefully examined the report of the Board and commend the faithfulness with which the trust has been discharged within the limitations imposed by the General Assembly, and we gladly recognize the consecrated services through so many years of the Secretary, Dr. Erskine N. White, and the Treasurer, Adam Campbell.

We believe that the efficiency of the Board would be greatly increased, and that it would render a very much more effective service to the Church, if the limitations imposed upon it years ago when the Church faced very different conditions could be removed, and the important work of assisting churches in erecting buildings and manses be restricted in no way other than by the relative importance of the applications filed and the amount of funds available to meet these claims.

The custodians and administrators of this fund should be in a position to aid in such amount as in their judgment the strategic importance of any field warrants. This work has outgrown in every way the "swaddling bands" imposed upon it in its infancy. Sixty-four years ago it was doubtless the part of wisdom to confine our church erection program to the assistance of "feeble churches erecting inexpensive buildings, mostly in the West." But now where is the West? The rural or distinctively missionary churches still have a large and undeniable claim upon our great national Church; but through the congestion of population in our cities, the young city churches located in new and rapidly developing suburbs have also a valid and substantial claim upon us. The relative values of these fields is no longer a question of choice but of destiny. These new suburban churches, upon whom is laid the burden of erecting adequate and commanding structures, whose charter members are in the majority of cases possessed of moderate incomes, forced into the outlying sections by the prices of home sites centrally located, limited as to their contributions because they are home builders—these are the churches of the future to whom we can confidently look for offerings wherewith to carry on and augment our great missionary enterprises. There is a critical moment in the life of every such church, when adequate and generous help immediately given means a return in membership and money incalculably beyond the assistance received.

In the majority of these cases the new residents capable of rendering the greatest amount of financial assistance will not connect themselves with such churches during their period of struggle, preferring to retain their connection with the older churches, where they enjoy the comforts and privileges of adequate buildings, and where no claim is laid against them for contributions to new buildings. But when the new and neighboring enterprise has secured its church building, even though it be encumbered with a debt, they gladly transfer their memberships, and in a very short time the new church is in a position to repay the grant or loan of our Board and become a generous sharer in the building of other churches.

The report shows that 8,835 churches have received assistance during the life of the Board, and that this year 5,155 churches have contributed towards its support. This would look as though 3,680, or more than one-third of the churches assisted, have either forgotten or neglected or been unable to express their loyalty to the source whence came their help. We very much doubt whether so large a portion would have failed had this administrative agency of the Church been given a freer hand in administering its vital trust.

It is also manifest from a consideration of the amount contributed for this work last year by all our churches and Sunday-schools, $67,961.46, that the claims of this Board do not bulk very big among the vital interests of the Church. May not this be taken as an indication of the fact that the very restricted and antiquated policy under which this trust is administered, is not sufficiently large or venturesome to impress its program upon our great-hearted givers.

But, however we shall assign the reason, the fact confronts us that the Church regards this enterprise as now conducted as of minor moment. Your Committee deplores this fact. Hardly a man in this Assembly to-day but who knows of some church that is weak and inefficient, simply and solely because it cannot secure an adequate building. Our Church cannot make a better investment than in erecting suitable houses of worship in strategic centres. To carry out such an enlarged program as we recommend will cost a far greater sum than we have ever given, but such a cheering, open-handed policy will yield in the years to come an incalculable return on the investment.

This is a mighty and a materialistic age. The wealth and power of the world flaunts its supremacy before God's people as never before. The consecration and faith of the Cathedral builders is more needed to-day than ever it was in the Middle Ages. As our great cities rear the walls of their mammoth steel-ribbed structures to the skies, shall the Church shrink back, hoveled, unspired, outclassed, apologetic?

Your Committee offers the following recommendations:

1. That the records of the Board be approved.
2. That the annual report of the Board be approved and commended to the careful consideration of our ministers and laymen.
3. That the claims of the great work be emphasized in all our churches.
4. That the Presbyteries be urged to instruct the Chairmen of their permanent Committees on Church Erection to require delinquent churches to meet their stipulated obligations, namely:
 - (a) To take at the least an annual collection for this Board.
 - (b) To pay promptly the principal and interest on their loans when due.
 - (c) To keep the churches insured and their insurance policies paid up.
5. That the Board be authorized to extend its utmost aid in the erection of churches and chapels for our foreign populations.
6. That we deeply sympathize with our brethren in Tennessee who have lately been deprived of their church properties, and that we recommend their claims to the Board as of primary importance, rejoicing in the action already taken by this Assembly on their behalf, and commending them for their Christian heroism.
7. That a special committee of ten be appointed by this General Assembly to consider the advisability and feasibility of creating a mutual fire insurance company for the purpose of insuring the churches, manses, and other church properties from loss by fire.

8. That Resolutions 9 and 10 of the report of the Committee on Administrative Agencies, referred to this Committee by action of the General Assembly, be not adopted.

9. That we recommend that the restrictions now imposed upon this Board be removed—

(a) As to the cost of church buildings, in the erection of which the Board may assist.

(b) As to the time when this assistance may be given.

10. That we ask the General Assembly to re-elect the members of the Board whose terms expire this year; that the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Bronson be filled by the election of Charles Glatz, Esq., of New York City, and that the choice made by the Board of Mr. James E. Ware to fill the unexpired term of George E. Sterry, Esq., deceased, be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM HERBERT HUDNUT, Chairman.

SUFFERN & SON

CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

165 BROADWAY

NEW YORK

APRIL 29, 1909.

*To the Finance Committee, Presbyterian Board of Church Election,
New York City.*

GENTLEMEN :

We have finished our examination of the accounts of your Treasurer for the fiscal year ending April 10, 1909, and certify that the assets appearing on the Treasurer's "Statement of the Position of Funds" are correct, as shown by the books.

All disbursements have been verified by cancelled bank checks. We have verified the cash in the office and the bank balances, and have inspected the investment mortgages and the church mortgages securing interest bearing loans belonging to all the Funds, and have found them correct as stated. We have also examined and verified the Railroad and New York City securities named in the statement referred to above.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFERN & SON,
Certified Public Accountants.

DESIGNS.

No. 97.

VIEW OF AUDIENCE ROOM OF THE CENTRAL CHURCH OF DENVER, COL.,
WHERE THE ASSEMBLY MET, 1909.

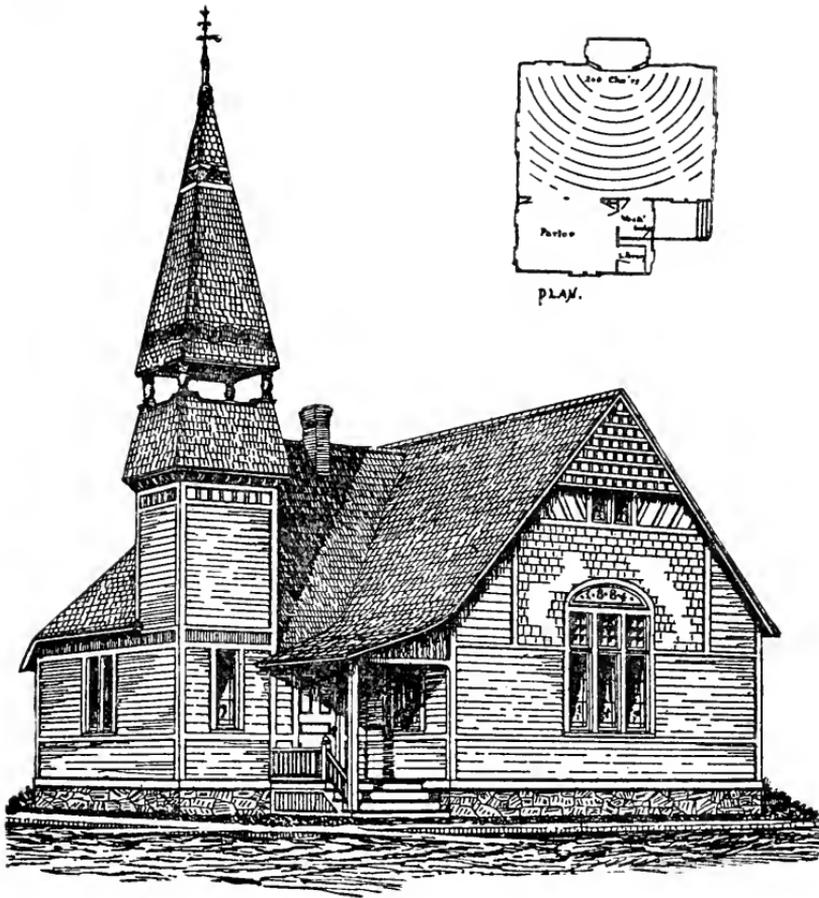

No. 6.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BUILDING.

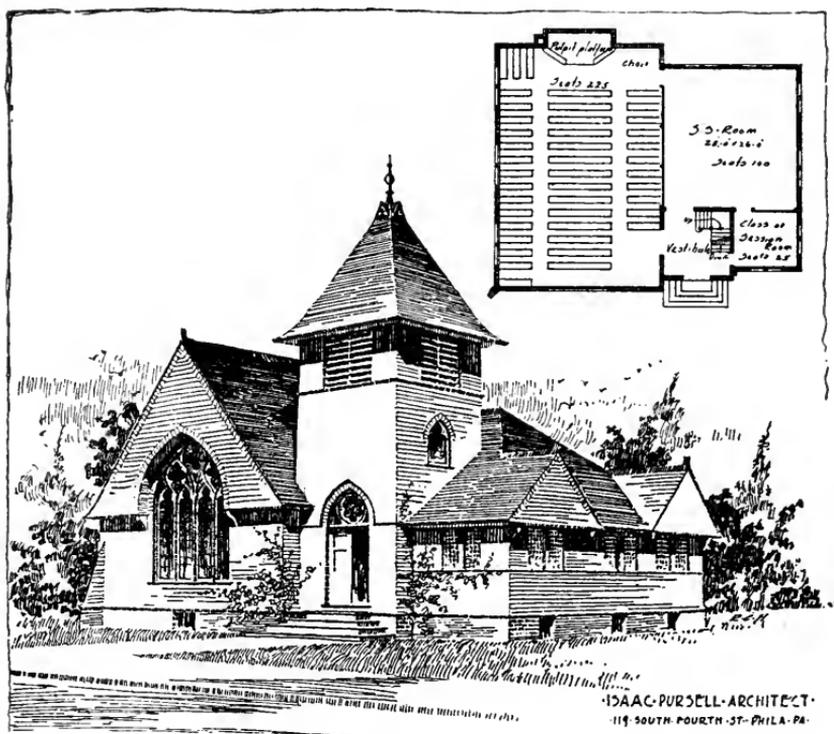

This design is made for a small Sunday-school or chapel, to be built of frame and to cost from $1,000 to $1,500, depending upon the finish. It will seat 120 in the main room, and 40 in the infant room, and is very suitable for a small country school or mission chapel. The sash partition between the two rooms can be raised and the whole building used together; the main room can be used for general Sabbath meetings, and the smaller for weekly prayer meetings. The design can be executed in stone or brick without adding very much to the cost, making a difference probably of $500.

No. 24.

This is a plain and inexpensive building designed by Mr. W. H. Hayes, of Minneapolis, Minn. It is 40 x 43, and will seat 200 in chairs in the main room, and 100 in the small room, which can be thrown open into the larger. The cost will depend upon the location and will vary from $3,000 to $4,000.

No. 41.

A SMALL CHURCH.

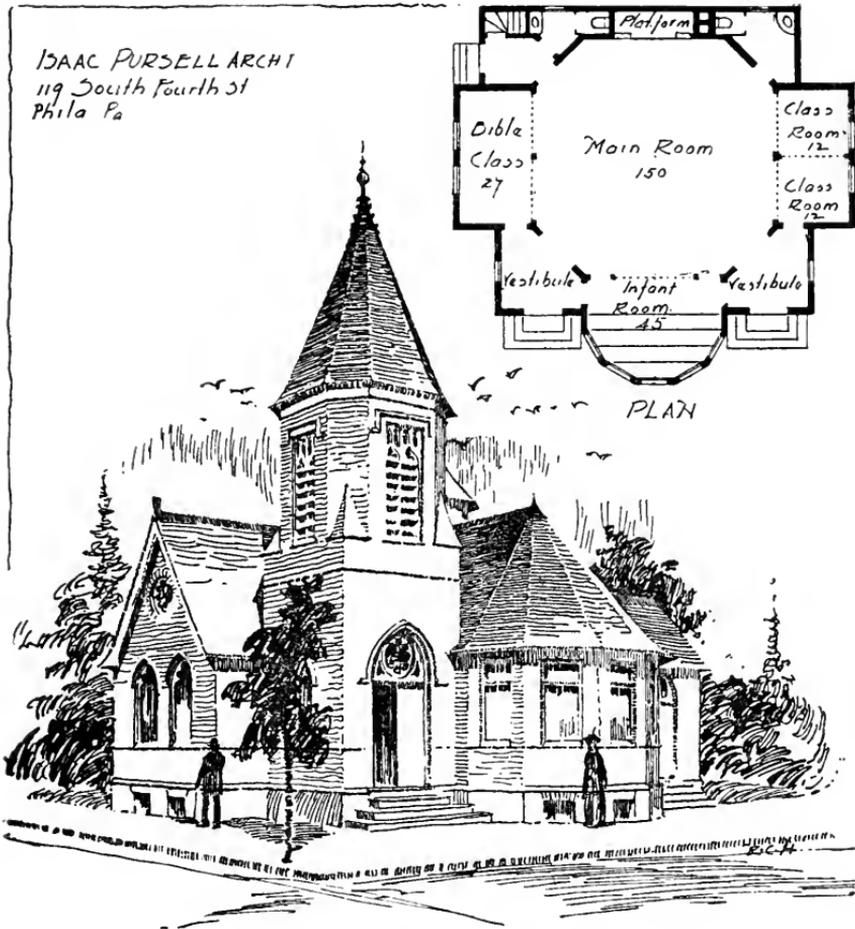

The above illustration shows a small church and Sunday-school building. This plan has been prepared with the idea that the whole building need not be built at one time; either the Sunday-school part or the church can be built first, and the balance added at any time afterward.

If the church should be built first, the tower might be omitted and a small vestibule substituted for it until the balance be added. In this way the church would cost about $2,000. The whole could be built for about $3,500.

The completed plan consists of a main room seating 225, a Sunday-school room seating 100, and a class or infant room seating 40. The ceilings in all the rooms will be arched, and the timber work exposed.

The designs are made for a frame building, but can be adapted to either brick or stone. It will be possible either to enlarge or decrease the size.

No. 60.

SUNDAY-SCHOOL BUILDING.

The above design is for a Sunday-school building that can also be used as a church. It consists of a central room seating 150 persons; this room is entered through three vestibules; it is octagonal in shape, surrounded on three sides by class-rooms, the infant room in front seating 45; a Bible class room at one side seating 27; two class-rooms on the opposite side seating 12 each.

The cost will vary as to location, from $4,000 to $6,000.

No. 65.

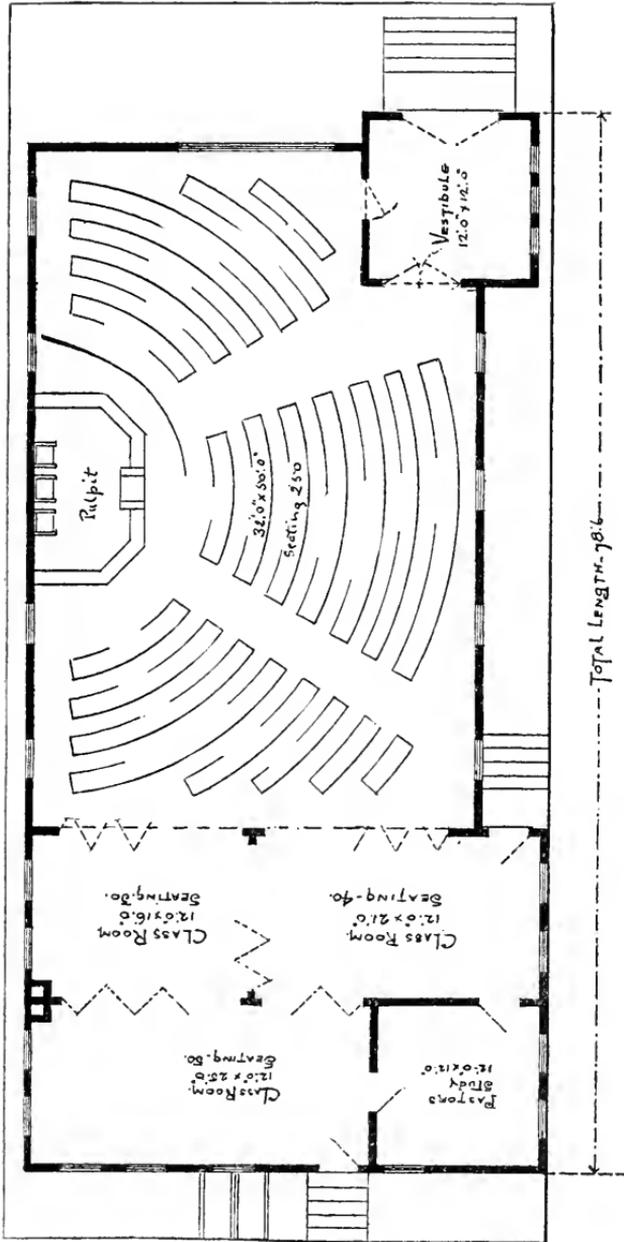

This design is for an inexpensive but commodious and attractive building that can be erected upon a lot 43 feet wide, or, if on a corner, 40 feet. It has a stone foundation. The interior wood-work is of dressed yellow pine. As will be seen by the ground plan upon the next page, the Sunday-school rooms are connected with the auditorium by folding doors. These doors are hung on an over-head track. The building can be erected for from $3,000 to $3,500. The architect is John Bacon Hutchings, Louisville, Ky.

For ground plan see other side.

No. 65.

Ground Plan.

No. 67.

The above design is by Stephenson & Greene, Temple Court, New York.

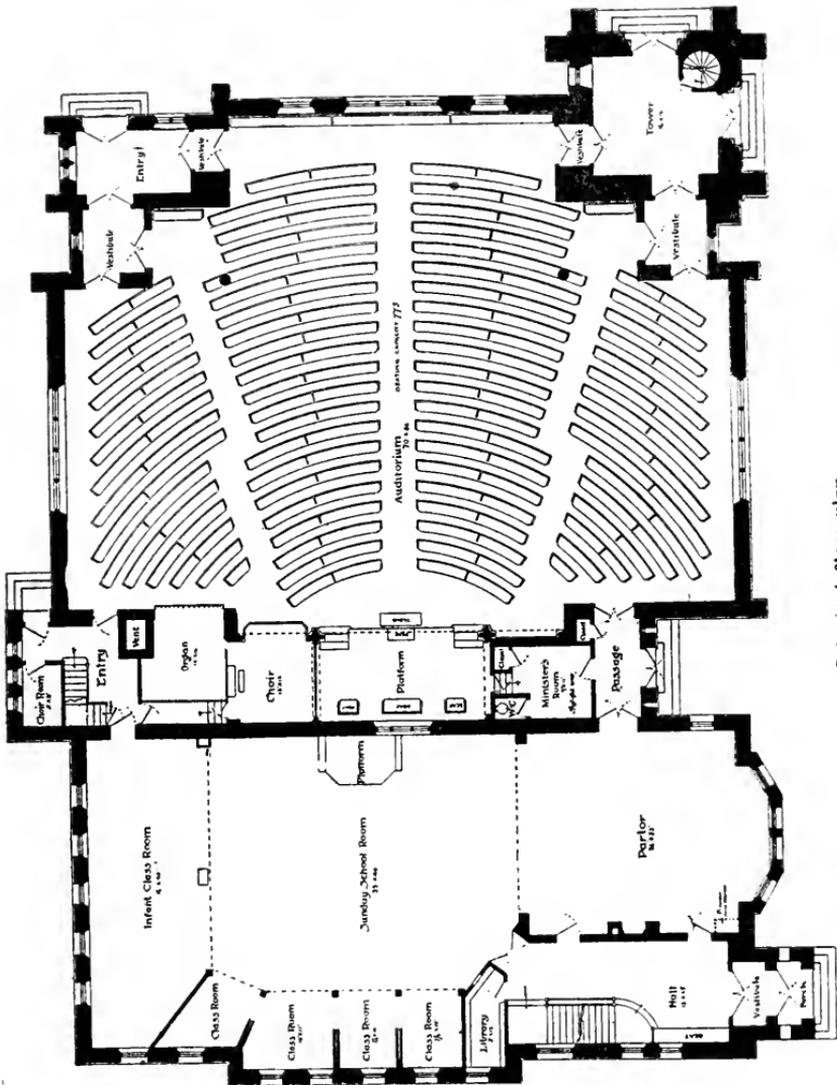

The main auditorium is in the form of a Greek cross, as is shown by the roof lines. The Sunday-school building, two stories high, is on the side street beyond the main auditorium.

The principal entrances to the main auditorium are through the tower, and a porch at the further end of the front. There are, besides these, an entrance to the Sunday-school room, and two small ones on each side near the pulpit platform. The floor of the auditorium slopes towards the pulpit. The pews will accommodate 775 persons without crowding. The arrangement of seating shows aisles against the side walls. This is preferable to running pew ends against walls which are apt to be draughty. The arch over the pulpit platform is of plaster, richly moulded, and rests on clustered columns with carved capitals. Similar arches are over the choir, and rest against the wall on the other side of the platform. The interior finish is of oak.

The Sunday-school room has a number of class-rooms in the gallery, besides those on the principal floor. There is an attractive parlor with a bay and an open fireplace on the first floor, and there is another parlor above it. In the basement are toilet rooms, a kitchen, and a large room which can be used for a dining hall or other purposes.

No. 67.

Ground Plan.

Principal floor plan

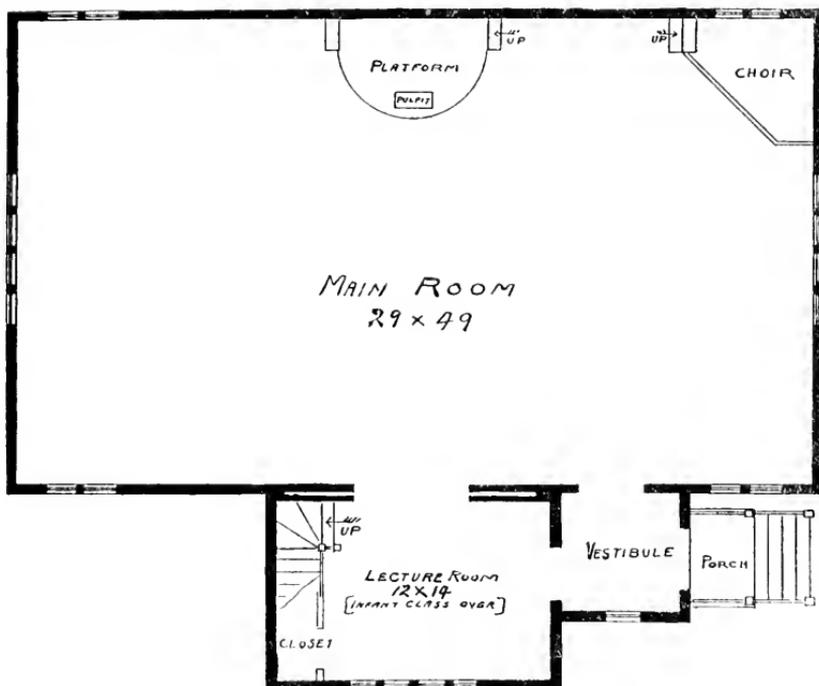

No. 72.

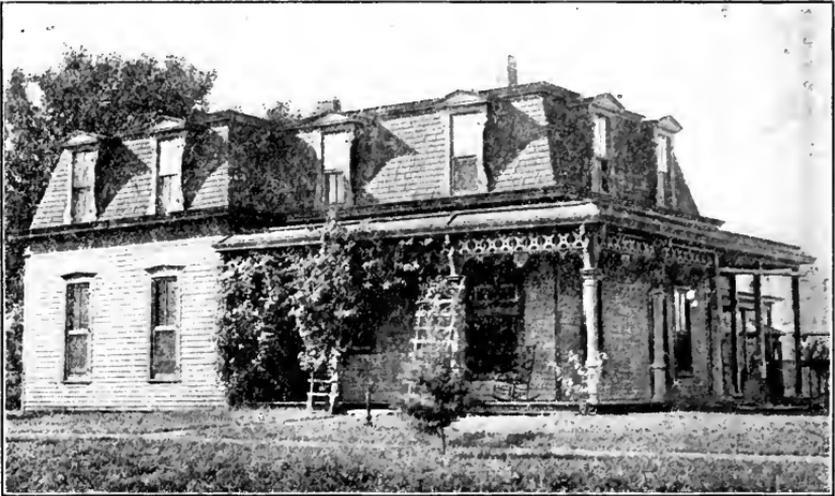

This is a modification of our Design No. 11. The main room is ten feet wider and the lecture room two feet deeper. A tower is added, which increases the attractiveness of the building and provides a place for a larger bell. This makes a most tasteful little edifice, seating about 200. The small room in front affords a convenient place for small evening meetings or for the purpose of church parlor, and at all times serves as a spacious ante-room. Above it is a very convenient infant class room. The building will cost about $2,000, and working drawings and specifications can be furnished at a very small price. We have drawings of the same upon a still larger scale, viz. 35 x 50, but without the tower, and retaining the cupola as in No. 11.

No. 72.

Ground Plan.

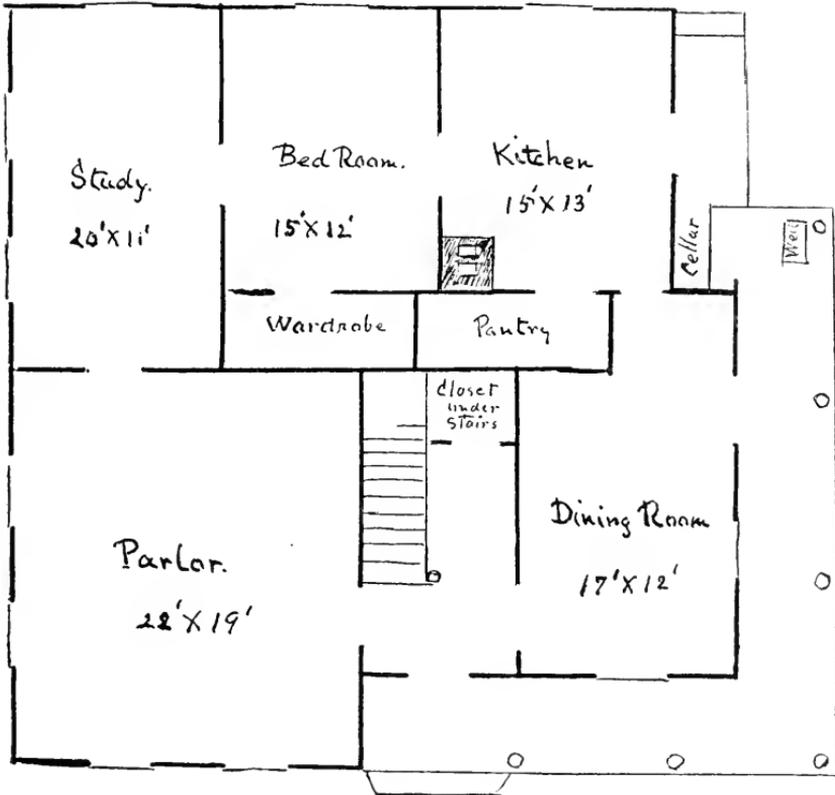

Manse No. 33.

A very attractive house recently purchased for the First Presbyterian Church of Washington, Kan. The ground plan appears upon the opposite page and shows the arrangement of rooms upon the ground floor. There is a second half-story adding two or three more comfortable rooms. The property cost $3,000; but as that includes value of the lot, it is probable that the house could be built for somewhat less. The pastor is the Rev. S. W. Pringle.

THE REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON MINISTERIAL RELIEF.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AT DENVER, COLO.,
MAY, 1909.

To the General Assembly in session at Denver, Colo.,
May 20, 1909:

Your Committee would beg leave to submit the following report for your consideration and adoption. We find the following statements which we copy from the fifty-fourth annual report of the Presbyterian Board of Relief:

"The Board has upon its rolls for the year ending March 31, 1909, 1,118 names; 457 ministers, 584 widows, 35 orphan families, 14 women missionaries, 18 guests in the Merion Home, Newton, New Jersey, and 13 guests at the Thornton Home, under the care of the Board at Evansville, Indiana. This is the largest number the Board has ever had on its rolls. During the year we had 130 new names added to the roll, being the largest number of new cases ever added to the roll in one year since the Board was organized. There have been 224 ministers on the Roll of Honor during the past year, the largest number we have ever had upon this roll. Their average is over 77 years; the average time they have been in the ministry has been 48 years. The amount granted to the men on the Roll of Honor during the year was $64,100, being an average of $286, as all of the honorably retired ministers did not ask for the maximum amount of $300; 67 of those upon the roll passed away during the year, 47 ministers and 20 widows. The average amount granted to widows on the pay roll during the year was $162; the average amount paid to disabled ministers not honorably retired was $228. The average amount paid to ministers on the Roll of Honor was $287." These facts and figures are both interesting and suggestive. They are suggestive of conditions in the Church which excite our sympathies and at the same time arouse our indignation. It is pitiful to think that 1,118 families are absolutely dependent upon the Board for support to finish out their days after our ministers have given long years of honorable service to our beloved Church. We call the attention of the Assembly to the Current Fund receipts for the years 1907 to 1908 and 1908 to 1909. The total receipts for 1907 to 1908 were $226,214.64, for 1908 to 1909, $238,254.84, showing an increase of $12,040.18. We call attention also to the Endowment Fund receipts, which were $4,588.58, making the total receipts for the year $242,843.42. Our Endowment Fund in 1897 was $1,551,783.00, and at present it is $2,000,000.00, with over $300,000.00 more willed to the Board which may soon be placed in its treasury. We are authorized to say with the addition of $4,000,000 to the Endowment Fund our Board could pay every minister entitled to aid $500 per annum. This Fund is rapidly increasing without any special effort by field representatives. In the past twelve years it has been increased by $750,000.00, counting the will of $300,000.00. A special effort would soon bring the needed sum.

The Committee reports with great satisfaction the following statement of the Board's Report:

"Realizing the sacredness of the work which the General Assembly has intrusted to its hands, the Board has used all diligence in administering its trusts so as to have the work well done and as economically as possible, and we are glad to be able to report that the cost of administration has been but 4.7 per cent of its receipts during the year." This statement demands from us the recognition of the ability and great fidelity of the Board in the administration of the affairs intrusted to it by the Assembly.

What word shall we send down to the presbyteries and the churches through the ministers and elders of this Assembly? Shall it not be to the presbyteries that only 74 have contributed to the funds more than they have drawn out, and that 200 have drawn out more than they have contributed to the Board? We say this kindly but earnestly: this is the accepted time for the chairman of the Committee on Ministerial Relief in every presbytery to bestir himself in behalf of this cause. 4,637 churches are asleep, are dead to this cause. By some such power as you can exercise over these churches, 240 were brought to life last year, swelling the number of contributing churches to 5,358. But what shall we say to the church membership through the pastor? Will it be to urge the claims of this Board upon you simply from a sense of duty? Not that alone, but along with that, enjoin it as a high privilege to contribute hundreds or thousands to the support of those veterans. Are they not worthy of more than a passing thought or the prayer that God would keep them and feed them? These men are not themselves making any plea for your support, but their work and influence speak for them. Having food and raiment they were content to work on until health failed, or old age incapacitated them, or by force of circumstances they were set aside. Now they are at our mercy. If there is anything wrong in the support we are giving to them, anything humiliating in the men and women who receive, in the amount given, it is the fault of the Church; they are worthy of the highest honor, of the best support the great and rich Church can give them, for have they not contributed largely to the spread and influence and splendor of this Church? They have been the pioneers. Many of them have crossed the seas and worn out their lives on the foreign field.

Why should not the wives and mothers and daughters of the Church be more actively interested in this cause? We believe it would appeal to them and secure a hearty support throughout the Church if it were carefully and regularly presented to them. We quote from the Board's Report: "We are glad to report that in some churches the ladies are coming more to realize the magnitude and sacredness of the Board and are beginning to organize Relief Guilds and other societies for assisting the Board in its blessed ministries."

We bring this cause to the attention of the Brotherhood. It is so worthy it needs only a word to call forth a response from every strong, true-hearted man. The Brotherhood has within it the power to supply all the funds in a few years necessary to make up the $4,000,000.00 needed for the Relief Fund. This movement for this cause must be inaugurated; some one must come to the front as the leader.

In the matter of the Overture from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh (see Board's last Report, page 11, which was referred to the Board of Relief by the General Assembly of 1908), the Board answers that it cannot so enlarge and modify its power and scope as to include the Ministerial Sustentation Fund. This decision was based on the advice of the ablest counsel at the command of the Board to the effect that such a merging would imperil the vested funds of the Board. We approve this action of the Board.

In the matter of the column in the Minutes of the General Assembly headed Relief Fund, the Board answers that any changing in the heading of the column entitled Relief Fund in the statistical reports of the presbyteries be considered inadvisable. This seems to the committee both wise and reasonable.

Your Committee makes the following recommendations for adoption:

First: That the minutes of the Board of Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and also that the minutes of the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church be approved.

Second: That the Chairman of the Committee on Ministerial Relief throughout the presbyteries be urged to have this cause presented once a year and an offering made in every church.

Third: That the General Assembly reaffirm with the greatest possible emphasis that the money distributed by the Board of Relief to our aged and infirm ministers, their widows and orphans, is not a charity, but a just and honorable recognition of their services to the Church, the debt of which can never be fully liquidated.

Fourth: That the Assembly rejoices in the prosperity of the work of the Board, as evidenced by the report of the year, and heartily commends the faithful and efficient administration of its funds by the officers and directors.

Fifth: That Rev. Samuel T. Lowrie, D.D., Rev. Phillip Mowry, D.D., Henry L. Davis, Esq., Robert H. Smith, Esq., whose term of office as directors expires with this Assembly, be reelected for the term of three years; also that we approve of the election to the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Relief of Mr. Travis Munday to fill the unexpired term of Rev. T. A. Wigginston, and nominate for election to serve for a term of three years Dr. J. C. McClurkin, Mr. August J. Schlaepfer and J. E. Williamson.

Sixth: That in the matter of Overture No. 16 from the Presbytery of Kittanning, requesting that the name of the Board of Ministerial Relief be changed to "The Board of Pensions for Ministers," would recommend that the action of the General Assembly in previous years to similar Overtures be reaffirmed and no change of name be made.

Seventh: That in the form of application No. 2, for Widows, question No. 13, "Has she no children able to support her?" be eliminated, and the other forms, Nos. 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6, be approved.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSIAH McCLAIN,
Chairman.

ANNUAL REPORT
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF 1909.

THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS, respectfully presents to THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY its Annual Report for the year from April 1st, 1908, to April 1st, 1909.

THIS IS THE SIXTIETH YEAR since the organization of Relief Work by the General Assembly of 1849, and this is the first Annual Report having been made to the General Assembly in 1856 by the Trustees of the Assembly.

THE FIFTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WORK,

The Book of Minutes containing the proceedings of the Board for the year 1908-1909 is also herewith presented.

THE ROLL.

The Board had upon its rolls for the year ending March 31st, 1909, 1,118 names: 457 ministers, 584 widows, 35 orphan families, 14 women missionaries, 18 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J., and 13 guests at The Thornton Home, under the care of the Board, at Evansville, Ind. Three of these guests spent part of the year at The Merriam Home and part of the year at The Thornton Home.

This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its rolls.

During the year, we had 130 new names added to the roll, being the largest number of new cases ever added to the roll in any year since the Board was organized. These comprised 63 ministers, 64 widows, 1 orphan, and 2 women missionaries.

There have been 224 ministers on the Roll of Honor during the past year, the largest number we have ever had upon this Roll. Their average age is over 77 years, and the average time they have been in the ministry has been 48 years. 37 of these have been added during the year just closed, and 21 of these venerable men have died.

Since the Rule of 1889 was adopted, 473 ministers have availed themselves of its privileges.

The amount granted to men on the Roll of Honor during the year was $64,100, being an average of $286, as all of the Honorably Retired ministers did not ask for the maximum amount of $300.

There are more ministers in our Church not on the Roll of Honor than there are upon that roll, who have been in active service for more than 30 years, and who are over 70 years of age, who have incomes sufficient to support their families. It is not expected that these brethren will ask for the Honorarium paid to men on the Roll of Honor, and they do not ask for it, generously preferring to have the limited amount of money given to the Board distributed among the families of their brethren who are not as highly favored, financially, as they have been.

DEATHS.

Sixty-seven of those upon the roll passed away during the year: 47 ministers, and 20 widows, one of whom died at The Thornton Home.

AVERAGE PAYMENTS.

The average amount granted to widows on the pay roll during the year was $162.

The average amount paid to disabled ministers not Honorably Retired was $228.

ENDOWMENT FUND.

Receipts from this fund, $4,588.58, making the total receipts for the year $242,843.42. Our Endowment Fund in 1897 was $1,551,783, and at present it is $2,000,000, with over $300,000 more willed to the Board which may soon be placed in its treasury.

COST OF ADMINISTRATION.

Realizing the sacredness of the work which the General Assembly has entrusted to its hands, the Board has used all diligence in administering its trust so as to have the work well done and as economically as possible, and we are glad to be able to report that the cost of administration has been but 4.7 per cent. of its receipts during the year.

STATISTICS.

We present some statistics to show how the work of the Board is steadily growing in magnitude.

1908	1,067	106,396.94	206,234.40
1909	1,118	113,696.72	216,904.72

Your Board of Relief is greatly encouraged in the blessed work committed to it by the General Assembly.

The books of the Board show that the receipts from the church collections, for the first time, exceeded $100,000 in the year ending March 31st, 1908, when they were $106,396. We are glad to be able to report that the receipts for the year ending March 31st, 1909, have been greater still, being $113,696.72.

Whilst the roll of those receiving support has been greatly increased during the past year, and the appropriations have been the largest ever made in any year of the existence of the Board, being $216,904.72, yet all the appropriations were promptly paid.

Whilst it is very encouraging that the receipts of the Board are annually increasing, it is a fact that calls for attention that only six Synods contributed more to the funds of the Board last year than their Presbyteries drew out for those under their care, namely, Baltimore, Montana, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Philippines, and that 200 Presbyteries have drawn out from the treasury of the Board, for those under their care, more than they have contributed to its funds.

Only 74 Presbyteries have contributed to the funds of the Board more than they have drawn out.

In examining the foregoing table of statistics, it will be seen that the churches have contributed only about half as much as the Board has paid to claimants for support.

It is by the large increase in the Endowment Funds of the Board yielding increased interest, by generous individual gifts and by unrestricted legacies, that your Board has been enabled to keep up, and in many cases to exceed, the general average appropriations to the different classes on the rolls, and to pay these appropriations promptly and in full, every month, for several years.

CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

During the past year 5,358 churches sent contributions to the Board of Relief, 240 more than ever gave before; and there were 4,637 churches which sent nothing at all.

If these 4,637 non-contributing churches would but give their people a fair opportunity to make an offering for this precious and priceless beneficence every year, and they should each give but one dollar, it would give the Board $4,637 to distribute, and that amount would give to all our annuitants, except those on the Roll of Honor, $5 each more than they now receive. Even that small sum would be a great blessing to these families. Or if the non-contributing churches would each raise $2 a year and upwards, the Board could give the claimants upon its funds $10 a year more than they are now receiving, and that amount would be a God-send to these worthy families.

PASTORS.

Experience has taught your Board that, where pastors are in the habit of making a special plea every year for a contribution to Ministerial Relief, the churches respond generously to their pleas.

Sometimes pastors feel a delicacy about asking their people for a contribution to this cause, but the pastor cannot beg for himself when presenting the claims of his disabled brethren for a comfortable support, because no pastor can get a dollar from this fund while he is in health and able to preach. Our disabled ministers have a right to expect their brethren in the active work of the pastorate to stand by them in the days of their disability, and see to it that the Church, to which they have given the service of their lives, should not forsake them in the time of their old age.

WOMEN AND RELIEF GUILDS.

The work of the Board of Relief appeals most tenderly to the women of our Church. There are 584 widows on the roll of the Board, and 14 women missionaries, besides 35 orphan families and 457 aged or disabled ministers. Can any work have stronger claims upon the sympathies of the women of our Church? What would their homes be were it not for the loving and faithful ministrations of the conscientious men of God who have filled our pulpits, and of the devoted women who have stood by their husbands through their arduous and self-denying lives and cheered them on in the magnificent work of the world's evangelization?

We are glad to report that in some churches the ladies are coming more and more to realize the magnitude and sacredness of the work of the Board and are beginning to organize Relief Guilds and other societies for the purpose of assisting the Board in its blessed ministrations. These guilds and other societies are engaged in preparing boxes for needy families. Besides preparing boxes, these associations of good women, working in harmony with Church sessions, have power to stir up the different organizations in the churches to do more noble and generous things in the way of contributions of money for the 1,118 families now represented on the roll of the Board of Relief.

Organizations of consecrated women have found that, with very little trouble and a great deal of enjoyment, they can also most wonderfully relieve many families on our roll where the money appropriations made to them are totally insufficient to pay rent, buy fuel, secure needed groceries, tide them over serious sickness and procure other necessities, and also purchase needed clothing.

The pleasant experience of the ladies in these organizations is a great encouragement to the ladies of other churches to form similar organizations and assist the Board in its ever-increasing and sacred ministry.

BUSINESS MEN.

The increasing numbers of the masterful Brotherhood of the Presbyterian Church have influence enough within their own organization to procure an endowment for the Board of Relief sufficiently large to enable it to pay much more generous annuities to our aged and worn-out ministers than are now being paid. And if the men of this splendid Brotherhood take hold of this blessed cause in the fashion of business men, for just a few years of aggressive work, they would establish an immortality of sacred memories and gratitude in the hearts of all our dependent ministers' families and secure the benediction of their prayers upon all their interests, both temporal and spiritual.

WEALTHY MEN AND WOMEN.

We are glad to report to the General Assembly that a goodly number of the members of our Church, to whom a good and gracious God has entrusted wealth, are more and more coming to remember in their wills the Board of Relief as your agency for furnishing support to the hundreds of families now upon our roll, and for the hundreds more that will inevitably come upon the roll as the years go by.

FORMS OF APPLICATION.

Some objections have been made to the use of Forms of Application for aid from the Board of Relief, in which claimants for support are required to give certain facts concerning their circumstances, but these forms have seemed to be an absolute necessity. Before they were adopted it was discovered that some of the least needy were receiving the largest appropriations, because they could write the most appealing letters.

We are glad to report that the changes made in the rules by the last Assembly are working very satisfactorily. Persons over 65 years of age are not now required to fill up the Forms of Application every year, as formerly, but those under 65 (who are comparatively few in number) are required by the General Assembly to do so, because it has been found that there are many changes in the circumstances and needs of these relatively younger persons.

If the Board is to be successful in raising money, it must have the fullest confidence of the Church at large that the money given is wisely used. The people who give their money for the support of needy ministers and their families have a right to know that their gifts are fairly and justly distributed. We are therefore sure that those who have claims for support will not think it a great hardship to fill these forms, as required by the General Assembly, when by so doing they materially help the Board in securing the confidence of the churches and larger contributions to its treasury.

For a preacher to be penniless in his old days is no sin, but it is an unspeakable inconvenience, and there is nothing wrong in saying he needs support. The pastor needs support, and says so without any sense of shame, and many a retired minister needs support, and it is no disgrace to such a minister to tell his brethren in Presbytery that he is in need. It is no humiliation to accept of support from the general treasury of the Church through a Board organized especially, as its charter says, "For the relief and support of disabled ministers and the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers of said Church," but it is a humiliation to the Church that she does not provide better salaries for her ministers in active service and better support for those who are in need in their days of disability, through no fault of their own.

It is more of a credit than a humiliation to an aged minister that he is poor. It shows that he has been faithful to his solemn vows and sacred trust, and that he has given himself wholly to the work to which he was called of God.

Whilst the Church gives so little to Ministerial Relief, the money collected must be distributed fairly and justly, in such a manner as to give a proportionate and an equitable support to all who are in need; and to distribute the money received in this manner, the Forms of Application will remain an imperative necessity, to give to the Standing Committee of each Presbytery, and also to the Board, the facts upon which they must base their judgment as to the amount each claimant should receive.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

There have been 18 guests at The Merriam Home during the past year.

According to the wish of Mr. Merriam, the Presbytery of Newton appoints each year a Standing Committee to take the general oversight of the property willed to the Board of Relief by Mr. Merriam. That Committee consists of the following persons for the present year:

- REV. CLARENCE W. ROUSE, Newton, N. J., Chairman.
- REV. E. A. HAMILTON, Sussex, N. J.
- REV. W. S. C. WEBSTER, D. D., Andover, N. J.
- REV. WM. G. WESTERVELT, Beemerville, N. J.
- PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON, Newton, N. J.
- HON. HENRY C. HUNT, Sussex, N. J.
- MR. J. D. FLOCK, Hackettstown, N. J.

The Executive Committee appointed by the Standing Committee consists of the following persons:

- REV. CLARENCE W. ROUSE, Chairman;
- PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON, Treasurer;
- HON. HENRY C. HUNT, Secretary.

This Committee has very kindly consented to act as the local Board of Managers of the Home, and their services have been most highly appreciated by the Board of Relief and also by the guests in the Home.

The Merriam Home is a beautiful building in the center of four acres of ground handsomely laid out, and it is located in the beautiful hill country in the northern part of the State of New Jersey, in the county seat of Sussex County.

We endeavor to have a good table for the guests. We have an excellent matron and a superior physician to look after their welfare, and everything possible is done to give the Home the air and freedom of a private residence; and we wish very much that more of our ministers would avail themselves of its comforts and privileges.

OVERTURE FROM THE PRESBYTERY OF PITTSBURGH.

Overture No. 83, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, asking the General Assembly so to enlarge and modify the Board of Ministerial Relief that it shall embrace the work of the Sustentation Fund, also to modify the scope of the Sustentation Fund:

WHEREAS, Two schemes of Ministerial Sustentation in operation at the same time tend to paralyze the beneficence of the Church and must result in the final extinction of the one or the other; and,

WHEREAS, The exclusion of ministers over sixty years of age, and of ministers who could not pass medical examination, from the benefits of a fund that appeals to the churches for support is unwise and unjust; and,

WHEREAS, It is possible to include in the Ministerial Relief Board all that is good in the Ministerial Sustentation Fund;

The Presbytery of Pittsburgh respectfully overtures the General Assembly, in session at Kansas City, so to enlarge and modify the power and scope of the Board of Ministerial Relief that it shall take the place of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and so to modify the scope of the Sustentation Fund that it shall make provision for all ministers, without regard to age, and that it shall become operative at the beginning of the ecclesiastical year, April 1, 1909, or at some definite period in the near future.

Answer of the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers to the General Assembly concerning this overture:

The Board of Relief in response to Overture No. 83 from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, referred to it by the General Assembly of 1908, reports that it is of opinion that it is impossible so to enlarge and modify the Board of Ministerial Relief that it should embrace the work of the Sustentation Fund, and bases its opinion upon the following answers of the Board of Relief and of the Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund to the joint conference of those organizations, and upon the following communication of the Board of Relief to the Committee on Administrative Agencies.

I. ANSWER OF THE BOARD OF RELIEF TO JOINT CONFERENCE:

The General Assembly at its meeting held in May, 1908, took the following action:

Overture No. 83, from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh, asking the General Assembly so to enlarge and modify the Board of Ministerial Relief that it shall embrace the work of the Sustentation Fund, also to modify the scope of the Sustentation Fund. It is recommended that this Overture be referred to the Board of Relief and the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, with instructions to confer on the matter and report to the next Assembly. Adopted.

In consequence of the above reference, the Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund and The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers held a joint meeting or conference on December 17th, 1908, and at said joint meeting or conference the following action was taken:

Resolved, That the Board of Ministerial Relief be requested to answer in writing the question as to whether the Board of Relief can so enlarge and modify its power and scope as to include the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, and that the Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund be requested to answer in writing the same question, the answers to be submitted to another meeting of the Joint Committee.

At a subsequent meeting held February 18th, 1909, The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, made the following answer in writing to the question submitted in the above resolution of the joint meeting or conference:

This Board being informed that the purposes of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund are the following, as set forth in its application to the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County for a charter, filed on December 20th, 1908:

The purpose of the corporation is the maintenance of a society for beneficial or protective purposes to its members, from funds collected therein, by providing and paying old age or disability benefits to its members, who must be ministers of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and by providing and paying benefits to the widow of any of them, and, in the event of her death, by paying benefits to the minor children, in accordance with the rules that may be adopted by the corporation and approved by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; and it being further stated in said application for a charter as follows:

The said corporation shall have no capital stock, and shall be maintained by rates, dues, contributions, by gift, bequest or devise, in accordance with rules adopted by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; and the purposes of The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers being as set forth in its charter:

The purpose for which this corporation was formed is to receive, hold and disburse such real and personal estate as may be given to it for the relief and support of disabled ministers and the needy widows and orphans of deceased ministers of the said Church; and being advised by counsel that the purposes of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund and of the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, as set forth in their respective proposed charter, and charter, are such as the laws of Pennsylvania will not permit to be combined in one charter, or the business as therein set forth to be transacted by one corporation, answers that the Board of Relief cannot so enlarge and modify its power and scope as to include the Ministerial Sustentation Fund.

II. ANSWER OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE OF THE MINISTERIAL SUSTENTATION FUND MADE UPON THE 15TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1909.

February 15th, 1909.

The Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund begs to convey the following answer to the question submitted to it at the joint meeting of the Board of Relief and this Committee, held on December 17th, 1908:

(1) That while we fully recognize the importance of combining, as a matter of economy as much as possible, under one administration, it is a question, where interests are diverse and lead almost to diametrically opposite directions in accomplishing the same end, whether it would do to combine Relief and Sustentation under one administration. Aside from this, two members of the legal profession, who are members of the Board of Relief, presented legal difficulties which seem to be conclusive, because they cannot be overcome either by amendment of charter or obtaining of new charter under the existing laws. We venture, however, to suggest that the Board of Relief give formal answer to the legal difficulties involved.

(2) That such modifications in the provisions of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund as are suggested in the overture from the Presbytery of Pittsburgh to the General Assembly, and which was the occasion of the Assembly's action in ordering a conference of this Committee with the Board of Relief, would be destructive to the Fund and the principles upon which it is based, those of equity and justice, and would result in a condition similar to that experienced by all organizations which have attempted to provide benefits in defiance of the established laws of mortality, disability, etc.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES.

The Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, having received from the Committee of the General Assembly on Administrative Agencies a communication dated February 2d, 1909, containing the following preamble and resolution adopted by the said Committee on January 29th, 1909:

WHEREAS, The General Assembly has referred to its Special Committee on Administrative Agencies the consideration of questions concerning the readjustment and reorganization of the Work of the Boards and Agencies of our Church; and

WHEREAS, The Board of Ministerial Relief and the General Assembly's Administrative Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund are now considering kindred subjects in connection with Ministerial aid or pensions; and

WHEREAS, The said Committee on Administrative Agencies desires to solicit the coöperation of the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Administrative Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund in an effort to devise a plan for the creation of a single agency of the Church whose function shall be to acquire adequate funds for the grant of pensions to the ministers of our Church and their widows and orphans:

Therefore, Resolved, That the said Committee on Administrative Agencies hereby respectfully invites the Board of Ministerial Relief and the Administrative Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund to consider, at their joint meeting soon to be held, the question of the creation of such a single agency as is hereinabove suggested, and to advise the Committee on Administrative Agencies by the time of its next meeting on March 3rd, 1909, what they may deem to be wise and practicable in the premises;

respectfully replies:

That it has considered the question of the creation of a single agency of the Church whose function shall be to acquire adequate funds for the grant of pensions to the ministers of our Church and their widows and orphans, and that it has conferred with the Administrative Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund upon the same question, and is of opinion that no plan can be devised "for the creation of a single agency of the Church whose function shall be to acquire adequate funds for the grant of pensions to the ministers of our Church and their widows and orphans";

That this Board, being a corporation acting under powers clearly defined and limited by law, cannot enter into, or take part in, any plan which contemplates the granting of pensions [see below statement concerning "Pensions"];

That, if this should be attempted, it would be contrary to law and would imperil the funds now held by this Board and used in the work for which it was created; and, therefore, it is neither wise nor practicable in the premises for it to consider any such plan.

In support of the opinion above expressed, the Board of Relief attaches hereto the several answers of The Presbyterian Board of Relief and of the Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, to the following resolution adopted at a conference of the said Board and of the said Committee on the 17th day of December, 1908, which said answer set forth in detail the views of the conferees on the question submitted.

To this communication it attached the above Answers, I and II, pages 12 and 13.

By way of explanation, it also attaches the following statement concerning "Pensions."

"PENSIONS."

While the mere name given to a sum of money paid is of no special significance or importance, whether it be called a pension or annuity or an appropriation, yet it is a matter of vital importance whether the sum so paid be an amount which the one who pays be compelled to pay by the one who receives. If the plan of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund, as outlined in its charter, be carried out, the beneficiaries are compelled to pay certain sums into the treasury of the Fund, and upon the fulfillment of the prescribed conditions by the beneficiary, the Fund is under a legal obligation to pay certain definite sums, and if these amounts be not paid, the beneficiaries can bring suit for the amount due.

The Board of Relief does not, and under its charter cannot, make a contract to pay a beneficiary a definite sum. It annually appropriates and distributes its funds among the persons for the relief of whom it was chartered. If the number of beneficiaries increases and the fund for distribution does not, then the share of each beneficiary is lessened. Should this Board agree to pay specified sums to certain beneficiaries for life, and the amount of the funds should decrease in subsequent years and the beneficiaries increase, then there would be some for whose benefit the Board was organized who could receive nothing. Apart from the question of the legal right of a corporation such as the Board of Relief to make a binding contract to pay a definite sum to a beneficiary for life, and apart from the question of imperiling the endowment or permanent funds of this Board, is this very serious situation, which might readily occur, in which funds raised for all the disabled and dependent of the Church could be used for the benefit of only a portion of them with whom the Board had made specific contracts. These questions, of course, would not arise in a corporation created for the specific purpose of making such contracts.

THE COLUMN HEADED "RELIEF FUND."

At the meeting of the General Assembly at Kansas City, Mo., the fourth resolution of the Report of the Administrative Committee of the Ministerial Sustentation Fund read as follows:

Resolved, That the gifts to the Fund be reported in the column headed 'Ministerial Relief,' and the heading be changed to 'Relief and Sustentation.'" (The column is not headed 'Ministerial Relief,' but 'Relief Fund.')

The General Assembly referred this resolution to the Committee on the Sustentation Fund and the Board of Ministerial Relief. On this subject the Board took the following action:

The members of the Board of Relief object very seriously to changing the column headed 'Relief Fund' to 'Relief and Sustentation' for four reasons:

1. They object to the proposed change because it would practically eliminate from the goodly company of the Boards of the Church in the columns of the Minutes of the General Assembly one of the Assembly's long-established and successful agencies.

The reports of church collections to no other Board are mingled and confounded with the work of any committee or authorized agency of the General Assembly, and we think that the distinctive work of the Board of Relief should not be placed in this peculiar and unfortunate relation.

2. To unite these two distinct causes under one head in the Minutes of the Assembly would be to unite two separate and distinct causes in the minds of the people, as if they were one cause, when it is clearly asserted that 'Sustentation stands for one idea, and Relief stands for another.' The causes are essentially different, or Sustentation would not have been inaugurated, and these causes should be separately reported that the churches may know definitely what is done for each cause.

3. Already there is great confusion in the minds of the people in reference to these two causes, and churches are sending their collections to the wrong treasurers, and the reporting of the receipts for these two causes under one head will increase this confusion.

4. If the two causes should be united under one head, it would be impossible to tell from the Minutes of the Assembly how much had been contributed to Relief and how much to Sustentation, and, therefore, the report of two collections in one column would be utterly useless.

At a joint meeting of the Board of Relief and the Committee on the Sustentation Fund, held February 15th, 1909, the views of the Board of Relief were presented and the proposed change was fully considered, and the following resolution was unanimously adopted at a joint conference of the Board of Relief and the Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund:

"Resolved. In relation to No. 4, page 227 of the Minutes of the General Assembly for 1908, referred to this conference by the Assembly, That any change in the heading of the column entitled 'Relief Fund' in the statistical reports of the Presbyteries be considered inadvisable."

ANSWER TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONCERN- ING THE OVERTURE FROM THE CINCINNATI PRESBYTERY.

Overture No. 81, to the last General Assembly from the Presbytery of Cincinnati, with reference to an increase in the endowment of the Board of Ministerial Relief:

In view of the statement made by the Board of Ministerial Relief to several recent General Assemblies, viz.: "That if the Board had its permanent endowment increased to *$4,000,000 and over, it could then raise the honorarium paid ministers from $300 a year to $500 a year, and the amount paid widows from $150 a year to $300 a year"; and in view likewise of the unexampled prosperity and wealth that the Lord has poured out upon the country and the Church,

The Presbytery of Cincinnati would respectfully overture the General Assembly to take such steps as may, in its judgment, seem best to increase as speedily as possible the endowment of the Board of Ministerial Relief to $4,000,000.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures, to which this overture was referred, brought in a recommendation, which was adopted and is as follows:

That the Assembly approves the purpose of the overture, and refers it to the Board of Ministerial Relief, to report to the next Assembly, as to any method of securing the desired end.

In its Annual Report to the General Assembly in 1902, the Board of Relief strongly urged an increase in its Permanent Endowment Fund, in order that it might furnish a better support to the retired ministers of our Church and to the families of our deceased ministers.

The General Assembly then adopted the following resolutions:

Resolved, 1. That the Board of Relief is commended to the churches for an additional endowment to the amount of $1,000,000, and that all pastors, ministers in charge of churches, and church sessions are urged to further the interests of the Board by special appeals for the Permanent Fund, as well as by annual collections for current funds.

Resolved, 2. That the Board of Relief be authorized to take the necessary steps, and if deemed advisable, to appoint special representatives, to secure the proposed increase of the Permanent Fund.

At the same meeting of the Assembly, at which the foregoing action was taken, the Special Committee on [*The Board said if its Permanent Fund were increased by $4,000,000, thus making it $6,000,000, it could pay the amounts specified.]

Ministerial Relief, of which Hon. William P. Potter was Chairman, made a report favoring "a scheme of general sustentation," and said that "The Committee does not feel that any Board of the Church has any present relation to a Plan of Sustentation, either in its charter, in the intention of the Church, or by its history. It, therefore, believes that the best way of procedure in this matter will be by the appointment of a special committee by the Assembly to consider the whole subject of sustentation apart from any existing Church agency."

Whereupon the Assembly adopted the following resolution:

Resolved, 3. That a Special Committee of ten, five ministers and five elders, be appointed by the Moderator, who shall take into consideration the whole subject of Ministerial Sustentation. This Committee is authorized to consider, among other things, the advisability of the adoption of a general plan of sustentation.

This Committee of ten was appointed with Rev. Dr. Howard Duffield, of New York, as Chairman, and great expectations were awakened by the appointment of this Committee.

When the Board of Relief learned that it was the hope of members of this Committee that a general plan of sustentation could be adopted, somewhat resembling the plan of the Church of Scotland, that would provide a better support both for pastors and for ministers after their retirement from active service, it thought, at that time, that it was not "advisable to appoint special representatives to secure the proposed increase of the Permanent Fund," lest our representatives might interfere, or even appear to interfere, with the work of the Special Committee on Sustentation.

The Standing Committee of the General Assembly of 1905, in its report, favored an increase of the Endowment Fund of the Board of Relief by the amount of $4,000,000. but offered no recommendation to that effect, and no action was taken. At the same Assembly, the Special Committee of ten reported a detailed and definite plan for providing annuities for our ministers and their families under the title of "The Presbyterian Ministerial Sustentation Fund."

In 1908, the Presbytery of Cincinnati sent its overture to the General Assembly, "asking the Assembly to take action looking to the raising of the Endowment of the Board to the sum of $4,000,000." and the Assembly referred this overture to the Board of Relief "to report to the next Assembly as to any method of securing the desired end."

The Administrative Committee on the Ministerial Sustentation Fund having adopted a plan, three years ago, for the insurance of the lives of our ministers, the ministers to pay one-fifth of the premiums, or dues, and the churches to pay the four-fifths, and having their agents in the field, visiting ministers and churches, if possible, to put the new scheme into operation; and as $20,000,000 will be required to secure annuities of $500 a year for all our retired ministers, and $300 a year for the widows of ministers, and a yearly amount for dependent orphans, the Board of Relief has not deemed it advisable to appoint special representatives to secure the proposed increase of its Permanent Fund, as it has not thought it wise to have agents for the two causes in the field at the same time. If, however, the General Assembly thinks it advisable for the Board of Relief to send out special representatives at the present time, it will gladly and promptly do so, as it is very anxious to have its Endowment Fund largely increased, so that it can materially increase the annual sums to pay to the needy and deserving families now upon its roll, and to the many more who will inevitably be dependent upon the Board for their support.

The term of the following Directors expires at this meeting of the Assembly:

REV. SAMUEL T. LOWRIE, D. D.

REV. PHILIP H. MOWRY, D. D.

HENRY L. DAVIS, Esq.

ROBERT H. SMITH, Esq.

Four Directors are to be elected at this meeting to fill the class whose term expires at this time.

By order of the Board,

B. L. AGNEW,

Corresponding Secretary.

May 6th, 1909.

RULES OF THE BOARD

Adopted by the General Assembly.

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. Only members of Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly of our Church and the families of those who were at their death in such connection, and lay missionaries and their families, are entitled to aid; and no adults shall be entitled to aid who are not members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in good and regular standing, or who do not acknowledge the jurisdiction of said Church nor submit to its discipline, unless such extraordinary circumstances should exist as to make it, in the judgment of the Board, wise and right to admit their claim.

2. The General Assembly of 1889 says: "This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church." The General Assembly of 1890 directed that no appropriation can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment. (Minutes of General Assembly, 1870, p. 21, and 1889, p. 32.)

3. The General Assembly of 1880 directed "That, in the case of a minister who, voluntarily and in health, leaves the work of the ministry for some secular employment, and follows that for a series of years, and then, by failure of business, has come to want, such a course should ordinarily be regarded as a voluntary relinquishment of all claim upon the funds of the Board." (Minutes of General Assembly, 1880, p. 21.)

4. All appropriations are made for one year, unless otherwise ordered; and the renewals for appropriations must be made from year to year, except in case of ministers honorably retired according to the provisions of Rule 7.

5. All the appropriations are paid in advance, provided the funds of the Board will allow this to be done. If the appropriation is not more than one hundred and fifty dollars it is paid in advance in one payment. When an appropriation is more than one hundred and fifty dollars per annum it is paid in two equal instalments, semi-annually in advance.

6. While the responsibility of recommending applicants rests with the Presbyteries, and these recommendations largely govern the action of the Board, yet there is reserved to the Board the right to appropriate according to the merits of the case and the state of the treasury.

HONORABLY RETIRED MINISTERS,

Who have been in active service in the Presbyterian Church thirty years in the aggregate as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies.

7. Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor, or stated supply, for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300.00 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his indorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field, or fields of labor with the term of service in each, and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1891, p. 33 and p. 44; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 6, p. 29.

DISABLED MINISTERS,

Who have not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies, or, if so, are not seventy years of age.

8. An annuity to a minister who has not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or a pastor or stated supply, or having been thirty years in active service is not yet seventy years of age, is granted on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or of a standing committee of that Presbytery, to which the applicant belongs; and the recommendation in each case must be annually renewed. An application for aid, in case of such minister, should state his age, his circumstances, and the number of years he has been in the ministry; whether his wife is living or not, and the sex and age of the children who are dependent on him for support.

See form of application, No. 1, p. 25.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES.

9. Regularly appointed Lay Missionaries who have gone out from this country under commission from the Foreign Board, and their families, shall after five years of active service also be placed upon the roll of the Board upon the same conditions as ministers. In their application for aid, Medical Missionaries and their families shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers and their families. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32, and Report of Board in Minutes of Assembly of the same year, p. 240.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 28.

MINISTERS COMING FROM OTHER DENOMINATIONS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

10. Ministers from other denominations coming into our Church, or their widows or orphans, shall not be placed upon the roll of this Board as beneficiaries unless said ministers shall have rendered active service in this Church for at least five years. [This rule is not retroactive, but is operative from May 21st, 1904.]

WOMEN.

11. A woman who has given herself to missionary work after five years of actual service under the Home Board, or under the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or who has gone out from this country and labored under commission from the Foreign Board, may receive aid from this Board upon the same conditions as a minister. She may be recommended by the Presbytery in the bounds of which she resides, or by the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church of which such missionary may be a member, and her application should have the endorsement of the Board under which she has held a commission. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48; 1885, p. 592; 1888, p. 33; 1889, p. 32; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 28.

12. If the application for aid be for a widow of a minister, it may be made by the Presbytery within whose bounds the family resides, or by that Presbytery in which the family is best known, or preferably by the Presbytery with which her husband was connected at the time of his death. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48.)

Unless the applicant is well known, the Committee of Ministerial Relief should always secure the endorsement of the session of the church of which the applicant is a member, to the effect that she needs and is deserving of the aid for which application is made.

See form of application, No. 2, p. 26.

13. When a woman contracts marriage with a retired minister who is receiving aid from the Board, she should not be entitled at his death to become a beneficiary of the Board.

14. The widow of a minister who remarries outside of the ministry, thereby relinquishes all claims upon the Board, and should she again become a widow she would not be entitled to aid.

15. Except in extraordinary cases no appropriation will be made to the widow of a minister who has children able to give her support. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1880, p. 20.)

ORPHANS.

16. Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are under the age at which they are able to earn their own living; and in exceptional cases to orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids, or to those who have become chronic invalids in consequence of their care of aged and infirm parents. The same rule applies in case of orphans asking for aid, as in the case of other beneficiaries of the Board in regard to recommendations and annual renewals. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1906, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 3, p. 27.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

17. Applications for admission to "The Merriam Home," at Newton, N. J., are to be made in accordance with the foregoing rules. Guests are admitted to the Home in lieu of an appropriation be a hindrance to its usefulness and to the comfort of the other guests, shall be reported to the Committee in charge, who shall have power, after investigation of all the circumstances, to recommend to the Board an appropriation of money for the support of such guest in lieu of a residence in the Home. Great care should be exercised in recommending only such persons as the Presbytery believes will be agreeable companions to other guests. These guests, except Honorably Retired Ministers, must be annually recommended by the Presbyteries, and are required to fill up the blank application for admission or continuance there the same as if applying for a money appropriation.

See form of application, No. 5, p. 29.

RENEWALS OF PERSONS 65 YEARS OF AGE.

18. If the renewal of an application for aid for the sum previously granted be for a person over 65 years of age, it shall not be necessary to have all the facts repeated by the applicant which were required to be given in the first application, but the Presbyterial Committee on Ministerial Relief should be satisfied that there have been no changes in the circumstances and needs of the applicant, or, if there have been any such changes, it should be informed of the same before asking Presbytery to renew the application for aid.

If the renewal of an application for aid be for a larger sum than previously granted, the reasons for such increase should be distinctly stated by the Presbyterial Committee.

FORMS OF APPLICATION FOR AID.

No. 1.

MINISTERS.

By order of the General Assembly this form must be used by all applicants for aid; but in annual renewals, it is not necessary to have all the facts repeated which were required in the first application, if the applicant is over sixty-five years of age, and the Presbyterial Committee is satisfied that there have been no changes in the circumstances and needs of the applicant. If the applicant is under sixty-five years of age, all the blanks in the application must be filled each year.

Please fill the blanks as required by the Assembly and return to Chairman.

The General Assembly of 1880, page 21, says:

"WHEREAS, This Board has been requested to aid ministers who are merely out of employment, etc., and

"WHEREAS, The fund is not sufficient for such purposes, nor was it originally designed for such uses, therefore,

"Resolved, That no appropriations can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment."

The General Assembly of 1889, page 32, says:

"This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church.

OF
PRESBYTERIAN
BOARD OF RELIEF

THE TWENTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE
BOARD OF RELIEF OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
U. S. A. OF 1909.

As President of the above named corporation, I beg leave to submit as a part of my report the Annual Report of the Secretary and Treasurer of the Board, Mr. S. B. Sansom.

The General Assembly doubtless understands that all of the property held by this Board in its corporate capacity, as well as carrying forward the interests of the Board, without any change of title to any of the property, was deemed best until all matters of difference involving litigation should first be disposed of in the courts. That is to say, the policy of the Church with reference to this particular Board was defined as follows:

That the present corporate existence of the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church with its investments should remain without change, and that whatever aid the General Assembly saw fit to extend to this Board should be entirely voluntary, without incurring any legal or other responsibility for the conduct of the corporate business of the said Board, and to this end, that if, in the final adjustment of all legal controversies, it should be held by the courts, that the union of the two Churches did not carry the title to the property held by this Board, then the present Board would be in condition to surrender the same to whoever might be adjudged as legally entitled to it, without in any wise involving any other interests. Accordingly the present Board is in position to carry out this line of policy, and could any day turn over all property in its possession just as when received, except as hereinafter explained. This Board has on hand every dollar of the endowment hitherto received and has in its possession all of the property belonging to the Board, except the old Home near Evansville, which was destroyed by fire in January, 1908. The Board owns ten acres of ground near the city of Evansville, but after careful consideration it was deemed wise, and as conserving the best interests of the Church, to secure a site of fifty acres which was offered to the Board at conservative figures at Newburgh, Ind., and, instead of rebuilding on the old site, to construct the future Home at Newburgh, which is reached from Evansville by a traction line, as set forth in the report of last year. On these grounds, now called "Thornton Place," a new building has been erected and furnished. The grounds with the improvements thereon originally cost $9,700. We have expended, in addition, approximately $10,000 for buildings, $2,000 for improving the grounds and $1,500 for furnishings, making a total cost of $23,000. To pay this the Board expects to use the insurance money which has been paid into court, amounting to $5,993.30, and to sell the old site, for which an offer has been made of $7,000. We hope however to realize $10,000. This will leave a difference of $, which will be paid from the Endowment Fund in the hands of the Board. Awaiting the collection of this insurance, and this disposition of the old site, we are temporarily provided to meet the outlays by a loan. All of which has been done, and the policy outlined, carried out without in any wise involving any other funds than those belonging to this Board.

The new building was dedicated on the third day of January, 1909, and is now occupied, with Mrs. Anna Wing, a daughter of the late Rev. James Hawthorne, for forty years pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Princeton, Kentucky, as matron. There are at this time fourteen guests at the Home. The building has sixteen rooms, with large halls and verandas and beautiful grounds. It is on an elevation overlooking the Ohio River and the surrounding country, and is greatly admired by all who have visited it. The guests are made very comfortable, which they appreciate to the fullest. They are, one and all, perfectly contented and happy, and the most convincing proof in favor of the maintenance of this institution is a visit to the Home itself; to see these old people thus cared for and happy as they can be, with the mighty past behind them, is sufficient reward for those who contribute to their comfort, either in money or time, revealing to the world the beauty and value of the Christian religion.

Certain gentlemen, acting under authority of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, so-called, held at Dixon, Tenn., on the day of , assuming to constitute the trustees of the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in its corporate name, instituted a suit against the Dubuque Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Dubuque, Iowa, to recover upon the policies issued by that company upon the property destroyed by fire, as above stated. The present members of this Board, who have held offices by virtue of previous elections, and were at that time, and still are, in possession of all the property belonging to the Board, and are carrying out the purposes for which it was organized, petitioned to be made parties to this suit. Thereupon the insurance company filed its petition to remove the case to the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Indiana, filed its interpleader against both claimants, and this Board thereupon filed its cross-complaint against the original plaintiffs. It thus devolves upon the said Circuit Court of the United States to determine which of the two contending parties constitutes the legal Board, and the money having been paid into court will be ordered paid to whichever of the two contending factions the court may adjudge constitutes the lawful Board. In order to do so it will be necessary for the court to determine whether the union of the two Churches has been legally consummated. The case has been argued and is now pending before the court for decision. There is, at the same time, pending before the Appellate Court of Indiana the question of the legality of this union, as presented by an appeal in, the two cases of Ramsey v. Hicks and Ulay v. Bentle. In each of these the lower court held that the Union had been legally consummated. One of these cases, (Ramsey v. Hicks) was reversed on the 23rd of April. Sixty days are allowed for the filing of petition for rehearing. The decisions of the Appellate Court of Indiana are final, with a few exceptions. The statute governing appeals from the Appellate to the Supreme Court of the State, I think, admits of an appeal from this decision. The language of the statute on this subject is as follows:

"If a petition for a rehearing is filed by any losing party, in any case in either of said divisions of the appellate court, and said petition is overruled, the clerk of said court shall not certify the opinion and judgment in said case, to the lower court, until the expiration of thirty days from the date of said ruling.

"Said party may at any time within thirty days after his petition for a rehearing has been overruled, file in the supreme court an application for the transfer of the case to the supreme court, on the ground that the opinion of said division of the appellate court, contravenes a ruling precedent of the supreme court, or that a new question of law is directly involved and was decided erroneously."

Since the opinion was handed down, no consultation has been had by counsel representing the Unionists' side of the controversy in either of these cases. But the question involved is of so much importance that I, as one of the counsel, shall strongly urge the filing of a petition for a rehearing, failing in which, then a transfer of the case to the Supreme Court. I am of the opinion that the decision of the Appellate Court does "contravene a ruling precedent of the Supreme Court." If the Supreme Court has not already settled the law, as I think it has, contrary to the decision of the Appellate Court, then "a new question of law is directly involved." So in either case, it would seem that the right to transfer is quite clear.

The question of the legal constitution of this Board is pending in the Federal Court in the insurance case above, and it makes no difference what the final decision may be in the Supreme Court of this State, the decision of the Federal Court will settle the question of the legality of the Union in so far as it affects the constitution of the Board.

During the past year the Board, through its executive officers, by correspondence and visitations, has sought especially to increase the number and amount of contributions to the general cause of relief. Acting in this respect under the direction and as agent of the Philadelphia Board, contributions, in the main, have been remitted direct by the contributors to the Philadelphia Board. Where the same have come to the Treasurer of this Board he has remitted to the Philadelphia Board: such sums aggregate about $500. We are endeavoring to educate the various churches to make all remittances directly to the Philadelphia Board, and have no doubt that within a short while this purpose will be carried out. This Board expresses the opinion that there is a growing interest in the cause throughout the entire Southwest, and when all disputes shall have been ended and the members of the Church settle down to quiet business, our people will do their full duty in the way of contributions to the cause of Ministerial Relief, and in every other respect support the Board in extending and carrying forward its great work.

MEMBERSHIP.

Rev. T. A. Wigginton removed to Nashville, Tenn., and on this account resigned as a member of the Board, and Mr. Travis D. Mundy, a member of the Olive Street Church, has been elected in his stead, subject to the approval of the General Assembly. The terms of Dr. J. C. McClurkin, August Schlaepfer and J. E. Williamson expire this year, and the General Assembly is requested to nominate their successors to serve for a term of three years. Under the laws of Indiana, by virtue of which the Board was incorporated, the General Assembly has the right of nomination, and it becomes the duty of the then Board to elect such nominees as members.

Most respectfully submitted,

JOEL E. WILLIAMSON,

President.

S. B. SANSOM,

Corresponding Secretary.

FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN
OF THE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
FROM MARCH 31, 1908 TO APRIL 1, 1909

The Board of Missions for Freedmen respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Forty-fourth Annual Report.

We have again closed our fiscal year without any outstanding financial obligations; but we have only succeeded in doing so by steadily discouraging any effort at expansion that would mean additional expense, and by deferring some needed and contemplated enlargements that must yet be carried out just as soon as the condition of our treasury will permit.

The serious falling off in our receipts the year before, compelled us to take account of this shortage in planning for the year that has just closed. Accordingly before the usual requests for additional help that come up to us at the opening of each new year, had reached us, notice was sent out that the Board would with regret be compelled to adopt certain restrictive measures, in order to prevent further serious financial embarrassment, and at the same time not inflict permanent injury on the whole work.

These restrictive measures were as follows:

First.—That in reducing expenses the curtailment was to be made as far as possible, this year, in real estate expenditures, rather than in the closing of schools, or in the reduction of salaries.

Second.—That no new schools were to be opened that would entail additional expense upon the Board.

Third.—That no additional teachers were to be employed in any of our schools, at the Board's expense.

Fourth.—That no extension of any school term was to be granted this year, beyond the time allowed last year.

Fifth.—That no salaries were to be increased over the amount granted last year.

Sixth.—That all congregations and schools occupying buildings belonging to the Board, were to look after their own repairs as part of their running expenses.

These cautionary measures, while not lessening the extent or efficiency of our work, have in the nature of things held back some of the growth and expansion that otherwise would have come about. They also materially reduced the expenses for the year.

Notwithstanding this repressive policy which the Board was compelled reluctantly to adopt, the number of our schools increased during the year from one hundred and fourteen to one hundred and twenty-three; but they added no additional expense. This was accomplished by the Board's request that ministers with small charges, which could not possibly take up all their time, should spend part of their spare time in maintaining church schools in connection with their ministerial labors, as effective helps in building up their work. In some cases ministers without waiting for the suggestion to come from the Board, have themselves seen the advantage of this course and have voluntarily gathered the children of the members of their churches and congregations for daily instruction, not only in the common branches of education, but for daily instruction in the Bible and Catechism, a feature of training not emphasized in the State schools, but essential to the formation of character, and the training up of the young, both for the life that now is, as well as that which is to come.

During the past year the churches through their annual collections gave us $2,026.43 more than the year before. The Sunday Schools gained $524.00. The Young People's Societies fell behind $100.32. The Woman's Societies gained $2,739.79.

The receipts from Miscellaneous Sources fell behind $3,418.71, and those from invested funds advanced $614.86. The increase from legacies was $10,898.50.

The number of churches that helped us in any one way this year was 5,753, an increase of 468, as compared with last year.

The number of churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,775, a gain of 405 churches.

The number of Sunday schools that contributed to the Board direct was 349 and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 472, making a total of 821, a gain of 65.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing to the Board direct was 42 and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 1,019, making a total of 1,061, a loss of 10.

The total receipts from all sources were $185,513.58, being an increase over last year of $13,284.55.

The following is a tabulated comparative statement of receipts for this year and last:

The amount of money given to church work on the field, including church building, repairs, Contingent expenses and Ministerial support, as reported to us by our ministers was $67,670.17.

The amount given by the patrons and friends of our school work, as reported this year from the field was $72,414. The total amount gathered for both Church and School work on the field, and reported to the Board, but in no way going into our treasury, or in any way included in the Treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures was $140,084.17.

In addition to this, the churches under the care of the Board gave through their annual congregational collections $1,039.52 to the Freedmen Board; and to the other Boards of the church they gave $2,342.95.

Taking the amount raised on the field for Church and School purposes, and adding to it the amount given by the churches to the Benevolent Boards of the church, we have a sum total of $143,466.64 passing through the hands of our ministers, elders and teachers on the field and expended by themselves directly and indirectly for their own good in their own communities; and for the good of others in other parts of our own land and the world.

Attention should be called to the fact that in making up the above estimates we have included a number of churches that were for many years under the care of the Board, but are now in the self-supporting list: and also the fact that there are a few of these self-supporting churches whose figures we do not have, since regular reports from them are no longer made to our Board.

Every effort is made on the part of the Board to impress on both ministers and people that what the Board gives toward the ministers' support is not meant to be a living salary, but only as supplementary to whatever salary the minister is receiving from his people, and that this supplementary aid is not meant to be permanent, but is liable to be reduced any year, and even entirely withdrawn, should it seem wise in the mind of the Board to do so—for the good of the work.

It is encouraging to know that there are many hard working, consecrated and self-denying men on the field, who are striving and praying for the time when the churches under their care can stand alone. There are also many churches that will hail with joy the day when they can place their names on the self-supporting list. That many of the churches are not lacking in their efforts toward self help is apparent when it is seen that this last year $67,670 was raised on the field and expended solely for church purposes.

It is gratifying too to note that the list of churches that no longer receive aid from the Board, and are now standing alone, is increasing from year to year.

There are now a goodly number of churches which the Board formerly assisted that are maintaining themselves: some of them with ease, and others with great and self-denying effort.

Some of them have themselves volunteered to undertake self-support, and others on account of the many years they have been helped, have been urged by the Board to make the effort. Some have been caring for themselves for a number of years, while only last year as many as seventeen churches were added to the list. A few singly and alone support the minister who gives to them his whole time, while others in groups of two or three, are combined for the accomplishment of this same purpose.

The names of these churches should go on record, and we herewith submit them, as an incentive to continuance in well-doing, and as an encouragement to others to follow their example.

In Atlantic Presbytery, James Island, Wadmalow Island (Salem) and Rivers Chapel under the ministry of Rev. Adam Fruyer; and Bethel, Hebron and Johns Island (Zion) under the ministry of Rev. A. S. Gray.

In Fairfield Presbytery, Ladson and Ladson Mission, at Columbia, S. C., under the ministry of Rev. M. G. Johnson, D. D.; Shiloh Second, and Ebenezer, under the ministry of the Rev. M. J. Seabrook, D. D.; Goodwill and Melina, under the ministry of Rev. I. D. Davis, D. D.; Carmel at Chester, S. C., under the ministry of Rev. T. H. Ayers; Congruity and Trinity under the ministry of Rev. J. P. Crawford.

In Knox Presbytery, Washington Ave. Church, Macon, Ga., under the ministry of Rev. J. W. Holly, D. D., and Medway, under the ministry of Rev. W. F. Kennedy.

In Cape Fear Presbytery, St. Matthews and Mt. Pisgah, under the ministry of Rev. C. Dillard, Ph. D.

In Catawba Presbytery, Westminster, at Concord, N. C., under the ministry of Rev. W. T. Carr, D. D.; Seventh St. Church, Charlotte, N. C., under the ministry of Rev. R. P. Wyche, D. D.; Bellefonte, under the ministry of Rev. F. T. Logan, D. D.; Miranda and Cedar Grove, under the ministry of Rev. Geo. Carson; Third St. Church at Gastonia, N. C., under the ministry of Rev. J. A. Rollins; McClintock and Emmanuel, under the ministry of Rev. E. W. Carpenter.

In Southern Virginia Presbytery, Fifth Ave. Church, Roanoke, Va., under the ministry of Rev. L. L. Downing, D. D.

In Yadkin Presbytery, St. James Church, Greensboro, N. C., under the ministry of Rev. J. G. Walker.

In McClelland Presbytery, Washington St. Church, Abbeville, S. C., under the ministry of Rev. J. M. Johnson.

In Le Vere Presbytery, Shiloh Church, Knoxville, Tenn., under the ministry of Rev. J. R. Riley, D. D.

In most of these cases the ministers receive their entire support from the churches they serve, and in a few cases the minister's support is supplemented in other ways than from the Treasury of the Board.

An examination of the list will show that thirty-one churches this year are supporting their own gospel ordinances, all of them having formerly been nourished and strengthened with help from the Board. There are also a number of other churches receiving now only nominal support, that, it is hoped, will soon, perhaps this coming year, be added to the roll of self-supporting churches.

The new dormitory for girls, in connection with the Julia B. Kendall Academy, at Sumter, S. C., the building of which had to be postponed, for reasons mentioned in our last year's report, was commenced early last summer and completed in time for occupancy in the fall, at a cost of $5,000, the money having been previously raised for that purpose, mostly by the Woman's Societies of Indiana.

A much larger, and greatly needed dormitory for girls has been built this winter in connection with Albion Academy, at Franklinton, N. C., at a cost of $10,000, including equipment. It will be brought into complete service at the opening of the school in the fall. It will be greatly appreciated by both teachers and scholars, after the great inconvenience they have suffered for two years from overcrowding since the burning of two small buildings they formerly used. The work of the school will be greatly facilitated and enlarged through the use of this new building, which is worth to the work, all the money that has been put into it. The money was raised through the Woman's Department of the Board, and came through the New York and Pennsylvania Societies.

The Biddle Library Endowment Fund, which last year, as reported, amounted to $3,945.75, has not increased very much this year, $1,220.55 has been added, of which addition $766.11 was given by colored ministers and churches, and collected through the efforts of Rev. H. L. McCrorey, D. D., President of Biddle University. This $766.11 given by the colored people themselves, in addition to all they have done in other directions, is greatly to their credit, and speaks eloquently of their desire to see the Library building erected, and of their deep conviction as to the advantage it will be to the University and to their race.

The offer still stands good that a $12,500 Library building will be erected on Biddle University grounds, after an Endowment Fund of $12,500 is secured, with which to meet the expense of maintenance, when once the building is completed. We still hope and pray that the conditions may be fulfilled and the building secured at no distant day.

Rev. D. J. Satterfield, D. D., after twenty-three years in the service of the Board, twenty-two of which were spent as President of Scotia Seminary, Concord, N. C., placed his resignation in the hands of the Board, asking that his successor might be secured before the opening of the school in the fall. The Board found it no easy task to secure a worthy successor to Dr. Satterfield, through whose long and faithful services Scotia Seminary has been brought up to such a high degree of efficiency. The services of Rev. A. W. Verner, D. D., of Pittsburgh, Pa., a brother well known and highly esteemed by every member of the Board, was secured, but not in time to take hold of the work at the beginning of the term. Dr. Satterfield kindly returned to the work for one month in the fall, much to his own inconvenience, and greatly to the accommodation of the Board, and on November 1st, Doctor Verner took charge. We have seldom had a more important place to fill in our work, and we have reason to feel that God has directed us in the choice that has been made.

At the death of Mrs. Boggs, a year ago, Mrs. Storer, then her assistant, was advanced to the position of General Secretary of our Woman's Department, and since then for nearly a year she has been doing the whole work of the Department—a work entirely too large and varied for any one person to carry alone. On the first of February, the Board appointed Miss Roberta Barr of Tyrone, Pa., to the position of Assistant to Mrs. Storer. Miss Barr at the time of her appointment was a teacher in Mary Holmes Seminary, West Point, Miss., and was given up by the management of the school with extreme reluctance. She has been rendering service acceptably and effectively in her new position, since her appointment.

The contributions from the former Cumberland Presbyterian Churches, that have cast in their lot with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., have materially increased this year. The union in some places has been so complete that it has been impossible to keep track of the 'Cumberland' contributions, as distinguished from any other kind of contributions. And yet it is desirable for a time at least that the distinction should be kept up, as all such contributions, according to the present understanding are to accrue to the advantage of the work among the Colored Cumberland Presbyterians, and especially to the Colored Cumberland Presbyterian School at Bowling Green, Ky. The amount that has come to us this year from this source, in the way of church collections, has amounted to $1,065.69. The appeal made to the Woman's Societies of the former Cumberland Churches for the $3,500.00 needed to pay for their dormitory building at Bowling Green, Ky., did not meet with a very hearty response. Only $230.37 is reported as designated for this purpose. The school is an excellent one. The building in question has been secured at a bargain, and is essential to the life and growth of the school, and the Ladies' Societies of this part of our re-united church will do well to let this enterprise have a share in the distribution of their benefactions.

Our Board continues to support a Bible Lecturer and Teacher in that school, out of its general fund, part of whose duty is to give instruction in the Bible, and otherwise aid young men seeking the ministry in the Colored Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The Woman's Department of our Freedman's Board, which is known among the societies as the Freedman's Department of the Woman's Board has again rendered us indispensable service. Mrs. Susan L. Storer, the General Secretary, has by wise, tactful and tireless effort, completed the most successful year of administration this department has ever had. The total amount of funds she has been able to place at the disposal of the Board this year is $75,076.63. A detailed report of this department of our work is given in Mrs. Storer's Annual Report, which is printed as an Appendix to this report, and special request is made that it be carefully read.

One item, however, of Mrs. Storer's report deserves special mention. An appeal was made for a Memorial Fund with which to perpetuate the memory of the life and character of Mrs. Virginia P. Boggs, the late General Secretary of our Woman's Department, who wrought so well in life and whose name is held in such high esteem by a host of loving and loyal friends.

No specific amount was named, but $5,000 was had in mind as an appropriate sum, and $5,000 was cheerfully given.

The Board will take special pleasure in erecting a suitable Memorial Building in connection with the school already known as Boggs Academy, near Keysville, Ga.—that the name of this good woman may long be remembered by the people for whose uplift she cheerfully gave some of the best years of her life

The whole work of the Board has moved along this year in a way that gives us cause for devout thankfulness.

Our school work was never in better condition, and better work has never been done than has been done this year.

The number of schools has increased, as has been mentioned, from one hundred and fourteen to one hundred and twenty-three; and the pupils from thirteen thousand five hundred and seventy-six to fourteen thousand five hundred and eighty, nine more schools and one thousand and four more pupils.

Our church work shows signs of life and vigor in that while the number added on examination was 1879, only a few more than last year, the amount raised on the field for gospel purposes was $67,670.17, an increase of $14,983.76. Besides this, eighteen churches were added this year to the list of those not receiving any aid from the Board.

As to the quality of the work done, mention should be made of the voluntary testimony of a brother minister who spent last winter in the South, within reach of some of our schools and who on his return wrote us that he had recently had the pleasure of visiting three of our co-educational schools and added "I want you to know that I was very greatly impressed with the splendid work being done there."

Another visitor writes us concerning one of our large schools for girls only: "It is a wonderful place and the classroom work there is of the best I have ever seen. I spent Sunday there and enjoyed every minute. It requires a few days to take in the scope of such a great institution. That is a fine suitable chapel they have, and to look into the faces of such an audience and think what it means to have girls being so trained, is very inspiring, and makes one full of hope for the future of the colored race. So systematic, so orderly is their life, that it is perfectly fascinating to be with them."

Concerning our church work, we have the recent testimony of a Southern white minister who visited one of our colored Presbyteries at its spring meeting, and immediately afterwards wrote to our Board his impression: "I have attended such of the Sessions as time has permitted, and it is enough to make us thankful that God is using our Presbyterian family to gather such men into the fold. This week's meeting has shown me more clearly our mighty needs, our great duties, our unmeasured opportunities in this great dark family, our fellow-citizens, and fellow beings. God's purpose is that 'in the dispensation of the fulness of time He might gather together in one, all things in Christ—even in Him.' May He most richly bless you in the share you have accepted of co-working with Him."

In looking back over the year that is just passed, and over the work that has been done and is being done by our branch of the great church of the Living Christ toward the education and evangelization of the colored people of the South, we believe we have made and are yet making a distinct contribution toward the ultimate proper solution of a great and complex problem. This great problem has twice reached up and touched and changed the constitution of the United States. It touches the constitutions of the various states in which these people are massed by the millions. It touches political and social life. It touches commerce and trade, capital and labor; and is closely interwoven with almost everything that affects the life and prosperity, and possibly the perpetuity of our nation.

Happily the province of our Board is not to concern itself specifically with any one of these different phases of this mighty problem; and yet every one of them may be brought nearer to their true solution by the kind of work this Board is called on to perform.

The Board of Missions for Freedmen is single-hearted in its purpose. It desires to obey God. It has to do with the colored man as a brother in distress; as a fellow-human being needing help; as an immortal soul needing to be saved.

It answers affirmatively the question: 'Am I my brother's keeper?' It recognizes the command of our Great Captain: 'Go teach all nations!' It accepts the obligation contained in the Scripture statement: 'Ye that are strong, ought to bear the burdens of the weak.' It hopes and desires that all of the people, for whose good it labors, will be made better and not worse; will be led out of moral darkness into the marvelous light of the gospel of Christ, and in their daily lives will learn to walk humbly, do justly, love mercy, fear God, and keep His commandments.

Surely work of this kind ought to commend itself to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

The term of service of the following members expires with this Assembly, Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D., Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D., Mr. Vincent Miller.

We ask that they be re-elected.

AT

RESOLUTIONS

FIRST. That the Minutes of the Board of Missions for Freedmen be approved.

SECOND. That the concise and yet comprehensive report of the Board be commended to the thoughtful study of pastors and sessions, as a stimulus to larger and more sympathetic co-operation in this department of our Missionary responsibility.

THIRD. That the Assembly congratulates the Woman's Board on their splendid work for the year, and wishes these elect women Godspeed in all their efforts for the Master.

FOURTH. That the following members of the Board whose terms expire with this meeting of the Assembly be re-elected, viz:—Rev. D. S. Kennedy, D. D., Rev. Maitland Alexander, D. D., Rev. Samuel J. Glass, D. D., Rev. J. Kinsey Smith, D. D., and Mr. Vincent Miller.

Respectfully submitted in behalf of the Committee,

W. H. PENHALLEGON, Chairman.

EXTRACTS FROM THE COMMITTEE'S REPORT

“Your Committee on Freedmen with the little time at its command for the preparation of its Report has been materially aided and its work greatly simplified by a study of the complete and yet concise report of the Secretary of the Board, which presents facts and figures of a most suggestive and interesting character, which are in themselves an argument and an appeal to the church for larger sympathy, and more general co-operation in this too much neglected department of Missionary activity.

“It must never be forgotten that the single-hearted purpose of the Board of Missions for Freedmen is not simply to train the Negro to skill in handicraft, but to exalt him in the scale of being, and its main agency to this end is Christian Education.

“That the Negro needs skill and intelligence no one will deny; but his intelligence and skill should be dominated by an abiding sense of right, and truth, and justice, and above all the fear and love of God.

“In no spirit of boastfulness it may be said that it is recognized by competent investigators that the Presbyterian Church, through its Freedmen's Board, is doing work second to none to fit the Negro common citizenship, and to be the educator and guide of his own.”

TWENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE FREEDMEN'S DEPARTMENT
OF THE
WOMAN'S BOARD OF HOME MISSIONS
513 BESSEMER BUILDING, PITTSBURGH, PA.

Our Silver Anniversary year has passed away quickly. Its record is closed and we present it to you as best we can. The influences, the prayers, the patient plodding and perseverance of the many who have shared in the years work and made it what it is cannot be told here, but it is all recorded in the Book of Life.

Your prayers and your alms have gone up to God as a memorial. In these you are growing rich toward God.

We can come together with praise and thanksgiving, for through your efforts we can report an advance over last year in contributions of $1,546.41. The total amount received being $75,076.63. In this year of "hard times" while not a large amount, it is sufficient to make us truly grateful.

The financial pressure and strain has been severe and long, yet our schools have been maintained and the regular work supported, but no new work could be undertaken. We regret this very much, for there are many opportunities unused for lack of funds.

The cost of living and of fuel have advanced much and it is a real struggle with many of our schools to meet expenses. This is where scholarship aid is so helpful. It aids the needy student and also the school expenses.

The sources of support for our department are Women's and Young People's Societies, Sabbath Schools, Bands and individual gifts. Could we but enlist all of these in our Presbyterian church in the interest of the negro—could all these workers have compassion for these millions—hungry for the Bread of Life, what a mighty work could be done in this vineyard of the Master. What a beautiful memorial of prayers and alms would go up to God!

We have received contributions from 3,298 Women's Societies, a gain of 186 over last year; from Young People's Societies, 1,061 contributed, a loss of 10 in the year; 821 Sabbath Schools remembered our work, a gain of 65. Where are the other 9,000?

The individual gifts have not been so large through the year, and several hundred dollars came in, just too late to be counted in the year's receipts.

The whole number of churches contributing to our Board in any way is 5,783, a gain of 468 over last year, and the whole amount of the Board's receipts is $185,513.58. This is a record of the interest shown by the Presbyterian Church in its Board which gives the gospel to the Freedmen, the ten millions of the "backward race" in our Christian land. What has been given is a blessing to the race and accepted of God. The contributions to our Woman's department have been expended in salaries, scholarships and other expenses connected with our school work. A few buildings were damaged by severe windstorms and had to be repaired.

Our schools are in flourishing condition—many of them overcrowded and needing more teachers, they are busy now preparing for their closing exercises. Our advanced schools send out graduates, earnest christians, trained and prepared to fill their places as teachers or laborers in the various lines of work for which they are fitted, many of the young men who graduate have the preaching of the gospel in view, and will enter our Bible Theological department or some other Seminary where they can prepare especially for this work. Others are fitted to take up various lines of industrial service.

We can report 123 schools, an increase of 9 over last year. These new schools are taught by ministers in their churches without additional expense to the Board.

Of these 123 schools all, except 8, are entirely conducted and carried on by colored teachers.

This should be an encouragement and incentive to more earnest work on the part of the church. These teachers are the fruits of the forty years' labors of the Board in educating and training the race since the emancipation. That it is possible to equip and control all these schools with the product of the churches' missionary efforts is abundant evidence that the gospel truths faithfully sown and cultivated will bring forth fruit an hundred fold, a wonderful illustration of the Saviour's parable. We are now in the second generation of christian training and teaching, and the work will increase in still greater ratio if the Board can have the means to meet all the opportunities and use them as they come.

Our schools grow rapidly, and in one, two or three years are filled to overflowing, demanding more teachers and larger accommodations, but this is only a healthy symptom, and our sources of supply must count on this and be able to meet the demands. We must reach out more and more with the leaven of the gospel, until the whole mass is leavened, and this means increased funds each year, to have this the uninterested must be reached and enlisted in the cause. There is wide room for advance in every church and almost unlimited opportunities in the field.

Industrial training is given in our boarding and higher schools as much as is possible with the present equipment, much better is needed and calling for attention.

The spiritual tone is good, and many evidences of the Holy Spirit's control of the lives of our students are plainly seen.

The eight schools under the control of our white teachers are our five seminaries for girls, Brainerd and Oak Hill academies, and Mrs. Neil's parochial school.

The management at Scotia Seminary has had a change, as Dr. and Mrs. Satterfield, who have been there so many years felt the burden growing heavier than they were able to bear, with their increasing years, and their resignation was reluctantly accepted, and their work handed over to Rev. A. W. Verner, D. D., and wife, appointed by the Board, and who seem to fit into their places with great satisfaction to all. The high standard of the school will be maintained and it will still be the "Mecca" for many girls. There is always a full house, 278 students and a waiting list of from 50 to 100.

The dormitories for Albion Academy and Kendall School, for which money was given were delayed somewhat on account of the financial panic, but were completed a few months ago, and are a great comfort and joy. The Albion girls had been especially crowded in their temporary quarters, and are delighted with the new home. These schools will do better work than ever because of their better equipment, and the influence of the "homeiness" of the bright, clean rooms and the home life will be a wonderful education in itself to those who are fortunate enough to be students there.

The work which was given out for the year has not been all completed. Arkadelphia building was a special object two years ago, but a small amount only was realized, so it was necessary to again put it before societies and we are glad to say that the full amount, $5,000, is now available, and the building will be erected as soon as arrangements can be made.

The $5,000 asked for the Savannah school building is far from being completed, so this will have to again be a special fund, as the Board does not erect buildings until the money for such has been secured. The "Building Fund" has not been fully met. The Silver Anniversary offering, which was to be a memorial to Mrs. Boggs amounts to $5,000 and will be used to erect a school building at "Boggs Academy," Keyesville, Georgia. This memorial was expected to be an extra gift over and above all regular contributions, but we find that it cut into our Building Fund, as many societies designate money for the Memorial fund, but leave out the Building Fund entirely. A Freedmen Building Fund will again be given out for this years contributions and it is hoped that every society will realize that this is a very necessary fund and give it a share of their gifts. There are so many buildings and improvements needed and the only way we can supply them is to place our appeals in the hands of our societies. The work is yours. Bowling Green Academy dormitory has only received $230.37. This is the special object of the former Cumberland Societies, and they are urged to make it a part of their work until the building is paid for.

Let us look at what the negroes of our Presbyterian church are themselves doing for gospel privileges and christian education. They have contributed the surprising amount $143,466.64, an advance over last year of $15,000. This means self-denial and sacrifice such as our church at large knows little about. They give out of their poverty, we of our plenty. Their contributions are for their churches and schools, also for the Boards of the church. They have their Synodical, Presbyterial and local societies. They are asking for literature that they may know of the various fields of our church and have a share in its work.

The average contribution per member among them is now over $6.00.

All the Synodical Societies of our church have contributed to our Board excepting two. Several of them have made advance over last year, Pennsylvania in the lead with over $1,000. The letters from officers all over the country have been most cordial and show much interest in our work, and we are glad to keep in touch with them and answer all letters and supply them with literature, but we realize that there are very many of our Presbyterians to whom our Freedmen cause does not appeal. This is due in some measure at least to a lack of knowledge of what the church is doing through their Board, and also what has to be left undone because these indifferent ones fail to meet their share of obligation. God gives us the work to do, and if we are faithful we will do our share.

The Home Mission Monthly, Over Sea and Land, and the literature of our Board will give information on this field, if you will but read. Read and you will know, read and you will pray, read and you will give, and be thankful that God has given such fruitful fields into your care and keeping for Him.

A letter or a postal card addressed to us at 513 Bessemer Building, Pittsburgh, Penna., will bring you the material. Here is where the "wheels go round," which carries on all this work between societies and the field, your work for the spread of the gospel in this dark part of our land.

A few study classes, here and there over the country, are taking up this field. Our maps and our Stereopticon Slides are traveling back and forth, helpful in creating or increasing interest. They are for your use if you will order them.

The box work for our Freedmen still goes on, and is needed and most acceptable. Not so many as usual were offered, but all were very helpful. The New York and Indiana Societies were especially generous in their boxes and furnishings for Albion and Kendall dormitories. Many societies taking memorial rooms to furnish. This was greatly appreciated by us, for it helped very largely in fitting up these two buildings so comfortably. Box work is a strong handmaid in our work.

We have added an Assistant Secretary to our office force, in the person of Miss Roberta Barr of Tyrone, Pa. She comes to us full of sympathy and interest for this lowly people. She has been a teacher in Mary Holmes Seminary for about three years. She has visited many of our own, and also schools of other denominations, and will give a new impetus to our cause. She understands the work on the field, and has seen the power of the gospel transforming the lives of students into earnest faithful christians. We are grateful that she comes to us, and feel that she will be a blessing and a help. She has been now for two months visiting Presbyterial and local societies in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, presenting the cause and transmitting her knowledge and enthusiasm to them and helping them to know the field and its needs. This is a part of the work of our office force.

I have given a hasty review of our years work, it has been a very busy year, but we thank God and take courage, and in His strength alone do we trust. As we sit together in heavenly places here considering the fields, the opportunities, the work, and our responsibilities, shall we not each ask ourselves, am I a helper or a hinderer in this field? and as we return to our societies, our churches, our homes, may we carry with us a more earnest desire to spread the gospel, to share our blessings in Christ Jesus and thus reflect His life and restore His image in the lives of those who look unto us to be their helpers.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN L. STORER,

General Secretary.

The College Board herewith presents to the General Assembly the Twenty-sixth Annual Report of its work. The Board finds it difficult to record the story of the year's work, or to speak of its larger plans and brighter hopes, because these are overshadowed by the sad death of our beloved Secretary, James Stuart Dickson, in the prime of life and the full vigor of his powers.

Dr. Dickson died Thursday, April 1, at his home in East Orange, of heart trouble, after a painful illness of several weeks. He had served the Board as Secretary for four years, having been appointed in December, 1904, and having entered upon the duties of the office March 1, 1905.

He came to the Board at an important crisis. The Board had come to its majority, and its twenty-one years in Chicago had made it evident to the Church that there was an important and distinct field for its work. The Assembly had directed the removal of the Board's office to New York, and had defined for it a broader policy and a larger field of activity. But it remained for the new Executive to discover the methods by which the policy might be carried out and the desires of the Church realized. The demand made upon Dr. Dickson, therefore, was quite different from that made upon a Secretary called to continue a well-defined work and to follow generally accepted principles. The new Secretary was asked not only to do his work, but to determine in large measure what that work should be. Four years had been a short time for a man to learn the field and formulate his policy. The Assembly doubtless recognized in his last report a marked advance over previous reports, in a firm grasp of the questions in hand, a clear vision of the principles involved in the work, and the assurance born of a successful wrestling with knotty problems.

The printed reports of the Board from year to year have told the story of his work, or rather a small part of the story. To estimate properly the contribution made by Dr. Dickson to Christian education in these brief four years, it would be necessary to call together many witnesses. We should have to consider his relations to the more than 3,500 churches which make offerings in support of the Board; to the fifty-two colleges in full co-operation with the Board, to say nothing of the academies; to their presidents and faculties and trustees; to the Synods and the Assembly; to educational associations and conferences; to the givers in many cities; the local constituencies with which each special campaign for endowment brought him into touch, and to the large foundations supervising and contributing to education.

The demands upon him for securing financial aid were without limit, and he gave his help freely, yet he never allowed the insistent demands for temporal equipment to make him forgetful that the ends of Christian education are spiritual.

He did not allow the Board to narrow its interest in its colleges to that of providing a certain amount of financial support. He raised again and again the problem of how the Board could best use the resources at its command to promote the spiritual life of the colleges and the spread of the Kingdom of God. He was insistent on the choice of teachers who should exert on students a positive Christian influence. He magnified the importance of Bible study.

He believed in learning and in culture. He felt that for a college to be a Presbyterian college did not excuse it from scholastic attainments, but rather justified a demand for higher attainments than in others. He believed in participation in education by the churches, denomination by denomination, knowing that the great faith of the American people in education had been sown and fostered by the ministers and the churches, and that it is still the key to our social and civic life.

Were we to seek a single word in which to sum up his work as Secretary we should choose, I think, the word helpfulness, or his own word, Co-operation. As he said in his first report to the Assembly, "The fundamental and controlling idea is that suggested by the Assembly's repeated expression, Co-operation. Co-operation between the Board and the colleges; co-operation between the Board and the givers; co-operation between the givers and the colleges."

Free from thought of self, warm in sympathy, energetic and courageous in action, he worked with his associates, he visited the churches, moved among the colleges, encouraged their officers, doing all in a spirit of true service, giving not himself by measure, undismayed by overwhelming odds secure in faith.

By his death the Church has lost a great leader. Looking back over the four years of his ministry, the Board would record its deep gratitude for this great helper raised up of God for an important work.

Owing to the illness and death of Dr. Dickson, the Board has been able to do little more than mark time the last quarter of the year, and would ask, therefore, that in estimating the fruits of the year's work the Assembly compare the results with the three-fourths of any preceding year, rather than with any complete year, especially as it was the months of March and April in which it was the custom of the Secretary to give his immediate attention to the gathering in of direct contributions to the Board.

CONSTITUTIONAL CHANGES.

After four years' experience under the Constitution of the reorganized Board, the Board last year asked the General Assembly to approve a slight change in the Constitution, to make the distinctive and comprehensive duty of the Board more clear. The General Assembly gave its approval to this change, and the article of the Constitution defining the province and duty of the Board now reads as follows:

"5. The College Board is constituted by the General Assembly as its agency for maintaining effective relations with Presbyterian Colleges and Universities. It shall:

"(a) Co-operate with such institutions in promoting and maintaining high educational standards, spiritual culture and thorough Bible teaching, with the purpose that their students may be under positive Christian influence.

"(b) Awaken interest, diffuse information, and stimulate prayer in behalf of the cause with which it is charged.

"(c) Co-operate with colleges which come into relations with the Board in securing endowment for them.

"(d) Co-operate with local agencies in determining sites for new colleges.

"(e) Decide what colleges shall be given annual help for current expenses; and, for this purpose,

"(f) Secure an annual offering from the churches."

DEED OF GIFT.

The Board is in position to assist in the solicitation of funds for our colleges, and more really than ever before can be a channel of communication with the large giving agencies. It is consulted constantly by givers as to the position and demands of our educational institutions. The Board desires to be of all possible assistance to each college and its president, but it also desires that every dollar secured from Christian givers, and given with a Christian purpose, shall make it more and more impossible for a college ever to turn aside from required Bible instruction and from the requirement of uniformly Christian teachers.

The Board, therefore, has suggested arrangements with Christian givers so that all gifts of over $1,000 shall be made upon a Deed of Gift between the donors and the college, in which the gift is made to the college upon the express conditions:

- "1. That the party of the second part [the college] causes the Bible to be systematically taught to every regularly enrolled student attending such institution, as a part of the regular curriculum required for graduation; one hundred and forty-four (144) hours being the minimum time for required Bible study in the college course, or thirty-six (36) hours at least in each year thereof, the faculty of the party of the second part to be at liberty, however, to arrange the said thirty-six (36) hours according to their best judgment.
- "2. That the party of the second part [the college] shall at all times after the date of the execution of this deed of gift, engage and retain upon its teaching staff only professors for whose positive Christian influence the president of the party of the second part can vouch; and that upon failure thereof," the gift "shall forthwith revert and . . . be paid by the party of the second part to The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America . . . and shall become and be a part of the General Fund of the said The College Board."

The Board believes that the purposes of such a Deed of Gift are exactly those that are now controlling our colleges. It feels, however, that such a method of securing funds would commit our Presbyterian colleges for all future time to the policy under which they are now working. The Board can think of no other plan which will so perfectly secure the funds given for Christian education and at the same time leave the college so perfectly free in its educational policy and in its relation to plans for material upbuilding.

Many of our colleges have already cordially accepted this proposition and will co-operate with the Board in carrying it out.

THE COLLEGES.

The colleges report excellent spiritual work this year. Instruction in the Bible is carried on with increasing efficiency, and in many colleges with large volunteer Bible classes in addition to those required by the curriculum. Most of the colleges report strong meetings during the Week of Prayer, and several had notable religious movements, sweeping students into the Kingdom, during the Winter, and frequently it is remarked that the spiritual revival has greatly raised the tone of student character as exhibited in the discipline matters and in students. Alma, Bellevue, Biddle, Blackburn, Coe, Cumberland, Grove City, Hanover, Illinois, Lafayette, Lenox, Macalester, James Millikin, Missouri Valley, Park, Trinity, Washington and Tusculum, Waynesburg and Wilson all rejoice in fine spiritual results during the Winter.

Albany College, starting out to raise its first endowment of $50,000, has secured $28,000 of it in Oregon, and will try for more there and in the East.

Albert Lea College is completing the Cargill Science Building, costing $30,231, has added new property costing $17,575, and is seeking added endowment of $80,000, toward which it secured $34,000 in the first few weeks.

Alma College, having a larger attendance than ever before in its history, has added $130,000 to its endowment.

Arkansas Cumberland College, with largely increased attendance, has had a deep and thorough work of grace among the students, and has added $3,000 to its endowment.

Bellevue College has a new president, S. W. Stookey, LL.D., and, in connection with the University of Omaha, is laying plans to secure endowment.

Biddle University had a notable gracious work that left only three of the students not professed followers of Christ.

Blackburn College has increased its student roll 20 per centum, and has secured $90,000 of new endowment.

Buena Vista College has lost its president during the year, but has taken $10,000 in subscriptions and had a notable work of grace among the students.

Caldwell College has added adjacent property, needed both for campus purposes and to protect itself, costing $20,000.

Centre College has dedicated the Young Memorial Hall in memory of the two notable presidents, father and son, of that name.

Coe College has lost its president during the year, but has been deeply moved in its spiritual life.

Emporia College is strengthening its position in the Synod, securing several church or individual pledges to support professorships.

Grove City College has three young alumni, ministers, going out to the foreign field this Fall, and two physicians applying for positions there, to add themselves to the total of about fifty graduates who are already in the foreign field. It has also secured $50,000 toward a total of $200,000 sought.

Hastings College has secured subscriptions to cover its deficits for the future, and is raising $50,000 in Nebraska.

Henry Kendall College has a new president, Levi Harrison Beeler, Ph.D.

Highland University succeeded in a strenuous canvass to secure $20,000 for a new building.

Huron College is planning a campaign for endowment.

The College of Idaho is closing a campaign for $125,000, toward which $28,300 are needed at the time of this writing; and $20,000 additional to that will bring the college $30,000 in addition, or $175,000 if it succeeds in the campaign.

James Millikin University has been left, by bequest of the munificent founder whose name it bears, $400,000, on condition that the Presbyterian Church gives it $400,000 by March 2, 1910. It is beginning a campaign for that amount.

Illinois College has entered upon a campaign for $150,000, which it fully expects to secure.

Lenox College raised an endowment of $100,000 during the year.

Macalester College at this writing announces that the end is easily in sight of its campaign for $450,000 endowment.

Maryville College succeeded in its strenuous effort to secure $200,000 of endowment.

The College of Montana has a new president, Henry R. Fancher, D.D.

Occidental College has $50,000 toward $175,000 which it is seeking.

Park College reports new buildings, which are illustrated on the last page of the cover of our Annual Report, and $56,-355.85 paid or pledged toward a total amount of $426,202 sought.

Parsons College will be using its new gymnasium by June, and has $85,000 in sight on its campaign for $250,000.

Washington and Tusculum College is the institution resulting from the long sought union in one of the former Greenville and Tusculum College and Washington College. A satisfactory basis of union was reached and the actual union effected during the year, and the college is now pushing to complete its effort for $100,000 endowment, under its new president, Rev. C. O. Gray.

The Western College for Women has $210,000 pledged on its effort to secure $250,000.

Whitworth College has $64,000 pledged toward an endowment of $100,000.

Wilson College is making good progress toward an endowment of $100,000.

The University of Wooster is seeking a large fund to increase the salaries of its professors, with every hope of success.

ACADEMIES.

When The College Board was reorganized by the General Assembly of 1904, a strong special Committee was appointed to recommend action to the Board regarding academies. After full consideration by the special Committee and the Executive Committee, the Board adopted the following action in May, 1905:

"1. The Board does not see its way clear to approve the establishing of any new academy in the northern section of the country, where the high school development is already marked.

"2. The Board will consider applications regarding academies in the southern section as on a different basis, emphasizing, however, its feeling that such institutions will in most cases be temporary in their character.

"3. The Board does not see its way clear to encourage a general appeal for endowment for academies, but will cooperate in any local movement so far as may be in its power.

"4. Regarding existing academies, the Board will enter into each case separately to determine which of the three following courses may be wise:

"(a) To proceed in a movement for permanence in view of the peculiar need of the locality and the history of the institution, with reference to the previous understanding of the community.

"(b) To co-operate in securing funds for current expenses for a fixed term of years, until local plans can be made for endowment or other methods of permanence.

"(c) To plan for the discontinuance of the institution upon honorable terms.

"5. This statement has reference solely to academies independent of colleges, the Board continuing its hearty approval and its offers of assistance for academic departments of colleges."

The Board has constantly studied the question of academies since that time, latterly by a special Committee appointed for the purpose. This Committee made the widest possible study of the subject, investigating Presbyterian academies for a long period, and with the greatest care and detail of study, and recommended to the Board at its meeting held last November the following action, which was carefully studied by the Executive Committee and then by the Board, and was unanimously adopted:

“The Committee appointed to consider the question of Presbyterian academies and their relation to The College Board beg leave to report as follows:

“It is the view of the Committee that the Board is justified in co-operating with a Presbyterian academy only so long as it can be shown that the academy is doing a clearly defined work in the interest of higher Christian education and the production of leadership for the Presbyterian Church. When it can be shown that an academy is sending an inconsiderable number of students to Christian colleges, or that the cost to the Church for the individual student sent to a Christian college has become unduly large, it becomes the duty of the Board to question the wisdom of further appropriations to the academy, and after sufficient notice to apply the offerings of the Church in some more productive direction.

“A statement is in order as to the causes that have contributed to the comparative failure of many of our Presbyterian academies. The rise and improvement of the free high school in the Middle West has made their work more and more difficult, and has led to the closing of a number of once prosperous academies. It is a fact that the academy has itself stimulated high school growth in its neighborhood; but in turn that growth of the high school and its development into a fairly sufficient preparatory school is now making the competitive work of the academy almost impossible. The academy without fine equipment and large endowment cannot compete with the free high school. Twenty-five years of Board experience proves that academies can secure neither equipment nor endowment. All have tried; none have succeeded. In the twenty-five years of the Board's history fourteen co-operating academies have graduated 449 students who went to colleges, of whom they have sent to State universities, 92; to other colleges not Presbyterian, 186; and to Presbyterian colleges, 171, at a total cost to the Board of $196,488. The average cost to the Board for each student sent to a Presbyterian college has been $1,128. The Presbyterian colleges that are now in association with the Presbyterian Church have received no sufficient support from Presbyterian academies. Most of the students of our colleges have apparently found their preparation in the academic department of the same institutions. In a list of students sent to our various Presbyterian colleges, the numbers of those sent by separate academies are almost too small to consider.

“These facts make it plain that The College Board, whose reorganization contemplated greater and greater concentration upon the support of Presbyterian college work, can use the offerings of the churches with far greater effect by making its entire appropriations to colleges, rather than in making any to independent academies. Several of the academies have closed their doors this year. Others are reporting a much decreased enrollment. All of the academies co-operating with this Board, and that have reported this year, show an enrollment of 652 this Fall, as against 870 a year ago.

“Under all these circumstances, the Committee would recommend the following courses of procedure to the Board: First: That the Board recognize that changed educational conditions render impossible the effective maintenance, with the resources at the command of the Board, of Presbyterian academies not immediately connected with colleges. Second: That the Board adopt the policy of withdrawing from academic work in such a way as promises to cause the least possible injury to the academies.”

THE FINANCES.

The table on page 12 gives a comparative statement of the receipts of the Board and institutions for five years, the period during which Dr. James Stuart Dickson was Secretary of the Board. The effect of his work upon the receipts of the Board and institutions appears plainly in the record of the first four years, and the loss occasioned by his absence from the office during a large part of the last year is manifest in the figures of that column.

It is greatly to be desired that the Church and givers should clearly understand two peculiar methods of The College Board.

* More than one-half the expenses of the Board are for this item.

(a) After years of experiment, the Board adopted, with the approval of the General Assembly, about twenty years ago, the policy of permitting its aided colleges to solicit and receive the College Board offerings of churches in their Synods. The treasurers of colleges were appointed deputy treasurers of The College Board; and their reports of gifts received by their institutions, on blanks prepared by The College Board, were entered upon the books and reported to the General Assembly as receipts of The College Board. The Board might have continued to require that all these College Board offerings should pass through its treasury, as it did in its earlier years; but it preferred, because of manifest great advantages to the colleges, to adopt this peculiar method. The results have fully approved the wisdom of the course. But not all appreciate the fact that the expense of these offerings to The College Board—for printed matter, personal letters, visits and solicitation and in bookkeeping—are exactly the same as if the offerings came through the treasury of the Board. The Board has therefore suffered misjudgment in the matter, and earnestly desires that the Church should understand it thoroughly and judge it aright.

(b) The General Assembly of 1904, which reorganized and reconstituted the Board and removed it to New York, directed that it should give chief attention to assisting colleges in securing endowment, and to this end should increase its office force. The Board has obeyed the Assembly and much more than one-half of the expenses of the Board, including salaries, rental, office expenses, travel and printing and distribution, have been incurred in assisting colleges to secure endowment; and since but a trifle of the endowment which it has assisted to secure passes through its treasury, the expenses of the Board should be reckoned in connection with this part of its work and the results.

It is quite necessary, for any fair judgment of the Board, that these two things should be thoroughly understood by the Church.

MEMBERSHIP.

The term of office of the following members expires at this time, and the Board nominates them to the General Assembly for reelection :

Ministers.

Robert Mackenzie, D.D., LL.D.,
New York.
Cleland B. McAfee, D.D., Brooklyn, New York.
J. E. Clarke, D.D., Nashville, Tenn.

Laymen.

Gates D. Fahnestock, Brooklyn,
New York.
Nathaniel Tooker, East Orange,
N. J.
John H. Finley, Ph.D., LL.D.,
New York.
Prof. Thomas E. Hodges, Morgantown, W. Va.
George A. Plimpton, New York.
John R. Rush, Pittsburgh, Pa.

At the Fall meeting of the Board in 1908, the following action was taken:

“Upon motion, it was voted that each year three college presidents, to be named by the College Conference, be invited to sit with the Board at its November meeting, the representative not to be eligible for reappointment in successive years; and the expenses incurred by the representatives in attending the meeting to be paid by the Board.”

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. C. RAY,

Office Secretary.

NEW YORK CITY, May 4, 1909.

THE POLICY OF THE BOARD.

The Policy of the Board, in accordance with the Constitution framed for it by the Church through the General Assembly of 1904, is summed up in one word—Co-operation. The Board will co-operate (1) with givers, (2) with Presbyterian Colleges, and (3) with both givers and colleges to secure co-operation between them.

1. Co-operation with Givers.

The Board will endeavor to awaken, inform and stimulate the Church in behalf of Presbyterian Colleges. (Constitution, 5 (b).)

It will offer the fullest and most reliable information, both about the college cause and the individual college, and regarding the relation of the Church to education and its colleges. (Constitution, 5 (b), (c).)

It will in no way try to dominate givers and their gifts, but will seek only to ascertain and carry out the desires of givers.

It will seek to safeguard funds committed to it or secured with its co-operation, as givers may desire, or, when no desire is expressed, as the interests of the colleges and the Church require. (Constitution, 8 (a), (b).)

It will, when desired to do so, act as Trustee of funds committed to it, investing them with paramount consideration of safety; holding them permanently if the giver so directs, or, if the giver prefer, temporarily, until conditions prescribed by the giver are fully met (Constitution, 8 (c)), disbursing the income derived from them in accordance with the wish of the giver.

It will "endeavor to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its Treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause." (Constitution, 8 (d).)

2. Co-operation with Colleges. (Constitution, 5 (c), (d), (e), and 6.)

A Presbyterian College is one which either (1) Is organically connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, owned or controlled by an ecclesiastical corporation of the Church ; or (2) By perpetual charter provision has two-thirds of its Board of Control members of this Church ; or (3) Is affiliated with this Church by the predominance of adherents of this Church in its foundations, Board of Control, Faculty and student body. The term "College" is commonly used herein as including universities.

The Board will seek neither to dominate colleges nor to carry them. It will co-operate with them.

Colleges or academies not yet recognized in the Board's report, desiring approval and co-operation, are requested to send to the Board's office for blanks on which report of their ecclesiastical, educational and financial status may be submitted to the Board.

The Annual College Conference (Constitution, 6) will be asked to act in an advisory capacity toward the Board in all matters in which an ecclesiastical corporation, administering trust funds, may properly accept information, opinions and advice from a body of experts in educational matters and college detail. The Board will endeavor to be, so far as possible, the voice of the colleges to the Church and the hand of the Church to the colleges.

The Board will seek primarily to stimulate colleges to self-help, and their home fields to the utmost limit of support and endowment ; since a college, to have a hopeful future, must ordinarily be strongly based in the affection, prayer and giving of its vicinage. This is true in spirit, though not necessarily in the proportion of gifts from the home field, of colleges distinctively missionary in character and work.

To co-operate in securing endowment for the colleges is the chief function of the Board (Minutes of General Assembly, 1904, page 108, 2. and 6.) and to that it will give chief attention. Co-operation with colleges which have little or no endowment, in securing support until their endowments are reasonably adequate, is a necessary but subordinate function.

The Board will consider applications for annual aid toward current expenses of colleges.

Application is to be made by the Trustees, in formal meeting, filling out a blank which the Secretary will furnish on request and will send to aided institutions April 1. Applications made for the first time should be accompanied by the fullest information regarding the history and prospects of the institution.

The Annual Board Meeting for voting on applications is held on the first Tuesday in June. Applications must be in the Secretary's hands by May 1. If the Trustees cannot meet in time for this, the Executive Committee should send an application as nearly as possible like that which the Trustees will probably adopt; and the formal application, adopted by the Trustees, should reach the Secretary as soon as possible. Institutions withholding applications beyond the date of the meeting, and giving no satisfactory explanation of the delay, will be regarded as expecting no aid from the Board for the ensuing year.

Applications of colleges must have the formal approval of their synods endorsed upon the applications; applications of academies, the approval of their presbyteries. Yet as there is often no meeting of the ecclesiastical body held between the making of the application by the Trustees and the June Board meeting, unendorsed applications will be voted on at the June meeting; exact duplicate applications, approved and endorsed, to be sent to the Board before any payment of aid will be made.

With the advice of the Annual College Conference it will adopt a schedule of amounts which the colleges should receive for this purpose; and it will make payments of these amounts, or of such pro rata parts of them as it shall be enabled to make by offerings from churches and church organizations and by funds otherwise secured by the Board for the purpose: always on condition that, before payment is made, a college shall satisfy the Board

- (1) That it requires all regular students to take systematic

Bible study as a part of the curriculum required for graduation; in accordance with the agreement between The College Board and the Annual College Conference held on May 16, 1906, 144 hours to be the minimum for required Bible study in the college course, 36 hours to be given each year;

(2) That it has in its Faculty only such teachers as can be regarded as exerting a definitely Christian influence over the students;

(3) That its financial administration is conservative and safe;

(4) That it has used every reasonable effort to secure funds from its vicinage, within agreed presbyterial or synodical lines ;

(5) That it carries adequate insurance on its buildings and their valuable contents ; and

(6) That no mortgage is placed upon the property without previous consent in writing by the Board.

The Board will co-operate most heartily with Colleges

1. That are evidently needed, conditions of population and location of other educational institutions being considered. (Constitution, 9.)

2. That have local interest, opportunity for growth and promise of permanence;

3. That do educational work of high grade;

4. That seek to form Christian character, influencing students toward Bible study, saving faith, right living and consecration to service; and

5. That are prudently and conservatively financed, in estimating probable income, in preparing budgets of expenses, and in the investment of permanent funds. Colleges may never properly, under any conditions, use endowment or special funds, even temporarily, for current expenses or deficit. Such a course is regarded as a misuse of trust funds. The Board will not recommend to givers any college thus misappropriating trust funds. Colleges will be expected to carry adequate insurance on their buildings and other destructible property.

3. Co-operation with Colleges and Givers to Secure Co-operation Between Them.

The Board will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to make known to givers the nature and needs of Presbyterian educational institutions.

It will endeavor, in co-operation with colleges, to secure gifts:

(1) The Board will expect every church to make an offering for the cause. (Constitution, 5 (f) and 7 (b).)

Colleges approved by the Annual College Conference and the Board, and recommended for aid on current expenses, may solicit and receive the College Board offerings of their home regions as these may be agreed upon.

As the Board must depend mainly on church offerings for funds to pay appropriations voted for unendowed colleges and academies, it is expected that stronger colleges—while seeking individual gifts and, on occasion, additional special offerings from the churches—will not attempt to secure the regular College Board offerings for themselves.

(2) The Board will expect much from individual givers.

Colleges will be asked to restrict their solicitation of funds in outside fields only as the Annual College Conference may advise and the Board approve.

The Board requests that colleges, planning to solicit funds outside of their home fields, will first consult with the Board, that the interests of all co-operating parties may be conserved; otherwise it will be understood that such colleges will not ask or expect any special co-operation from the Board.

(3) The Board will seek for its own Treasury:

(a) Very large gifts and legacies for use in accordance with the expressed wishes of donors, or, if such wishes are not expressed, for use in the discretion of the Board.

(b) Smaller gifts and legacies for emergency aid to colleges.

(4) The Board will seek for colleges approved by the Annual College Conference and the Board:

(a) Large gifts and legacies for permanent endowment.

(b) Smaller gifts and legacies for colleges recommended for aid on current expenses. These should ordinarily take the form of Scholarships, paying the tuition of a student, from $50 to $100 a year; Professor's Chairs, from $200, when home and its necessities are provided by the college, to $2,000 a year; and Sustentation, carrying the actual annual deficit of a college, from $2,500 a year upwards. Any of these may be given for a single year; but it is in every way better that they should be pledged, by an individual, by a church, by the churches of a city, by a presbytery or by a synod, for from two to five or ten years while the college is securing endowment. Thus the interest of the giver may be localized in an individual college or several colleges and, if the college continue to commend itself to him, lead to increasing and permanent co-operation between them.

The Board will always seek first, in co-operation with a college, to develop the interest and gifts of its home field, both for endowment, for temporary aid in Scholarship, Chairs and Sustentation, and in emergencies, and afterward in other fields, as may seem wise and practicable.

The Board will report, in the Annual Report, all gifts passing through its Treasury, in a list of contributing churches and an alphabetical list of givers, indicating the destination of any gift designated by the giver for an individual institution. Such designated gifts will all be reported, in classified totals, in an alphabetical list of colleges, with a statement that they are itemized elsewhere in the Annual Report.

The Treasurer of the Board will send, on the first of March of each year, to all Presbyterian universities, colleges, academies and schools of which the Board may have knowledge, blanks for reports of gifts received by the institution during the year ending April first; and all gifts reported by such institutions to the Board will be reported by the Board.

(a) Gifts reported by approved colleges and academies, on the special blanks prepared for their use by the Board, will be treated as receipts of the Board. Treasurers of such institutions are Deputy Treasurers of the Board, authorized to handle and account for College Board gifts secured in co-operation with the Board and sent by the giver directly to the college. Church offerings so reported will appear on the books of the Board, and in its Annual Report, in the list of contributing churches, in the alphabetical list of individual givers, and in the alphabetical list of colleges, in the latter in classified totals, with a statement that they are itemized elsewhere in the Annual Report.

(b) Gifts, other than those specified in (a) reported by institutions, will be reported in the Annual Report, in the alphabetical list of institutions, in classified totals; except that an individual gift of $1,000, or upward, will be itemized with the name of the donor, if it is so desired.

Academies.

1. The Board does not see its way clear to approve the establishing of any new academy in the northern section of the country, where the High School development is already marked.

2. The Board will consider applications regarding academies in the southern section as on a different basis, emphasizing, however, its feeling that such institutions will in most cases be temporary in their character.

3. The Board does not see its way clear to encourage a general appeal for endowment for academies, but will co-operate in any local movement so far as may be in its power.

4. Regarding existing academies, the Board will enter into each case separately to determine which of the three following courses may be wise :

(a) To proceed in a movement for permanence in view of the peculiar need of the locality and the history of the institution, with reference to the previous understanding of the community.

(b) To co-operate in securing funds for current expenses for a fixed term of years, until local plans can be made for endowment or other methods of permanence.

(c) To plan for the discontinuance of the institution upon honorable terms.

5. This statement has reference solely to academies independent of colleges, the Board continuing its hearty approval and its offers of assistance for academic departments of colleges.

THE COLLEGE BOARD OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN THE U. S. A. INSTITUTIONS CO-OPERATING WITH THE COLLEGE BOARD AND REPORTING TO IT.

NOTE.—The College Board reports these institutions by their legal names, which do not always indicate their actual grade as colleges, collegiate institutes or academies. The Board will be glad to give full information regarding any of them on request from interested persons.

MR. HENRY L. SMITH,

*Chairman of the Auditing Committee,
The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., 156 Fifth Avenue, City.*

SIR :—

We have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of your Board for the year ending April 15th, 1909, and have verified the Balance Sheet published herewith, which in our opinion presents the correct financial condition of the Board.

We have found on file proper vouchers for the expenditures, and the contributions shown on Schedules C and M, detailed on Schedules J, K and L, have been properly accounted for.

The cash and securities on hand have been verified either by actual count or evidences of deposit.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,
Certified Public Accountants.

THE COLLEGE BOARD.

SCHEDULE B.

GIFTS TO CHRISTIAN EDUCATION WITHIN OUR CHURCH.

The College Board is constituted by the General Assembly as its agency for maintaining effective relations with Presbyterian colleges and universities. It is to co-operate with colleges in securing endowment, and to give some colleges annual help for current expenses. It is to endeavor to have all gifts for Christian Education within our Church either passed through its Treasury or reported to it, that its reports may show from year to year what sums and from what sources are given to this cause. The following amount was passed through the Treasury of the Board or reported to it during the year 1908-9:

Gifts for Christian Education $1,143,181.80

1. The following is the sum total of gifts in which the Board's more direct agency is concerned, in accordance with the action of the General Assembly of 1904 reorganizing this Board: "2. Said Board to be enlarged in sphere of operation and executive force so as the more widely to represent the Church, and so as the more directly and efficiently to promote college interests and objects, especially in the matter of endowment 6. The Board shall give immediate and special attention to the endowment of our Presbyterian colleges which come into relations with the Board." Of the total amount, $194,138.63 passed through the Treasury of this Board; while church offerings, taken for the College Board and sent directly to institutions by arrangement with the Board, where the representative of the college was an agent of the Board, amounted to $86,358.76; and individual gifts sent directly to institutions, but in securing each one of which the College Board was instrumental, amounted to $355,143.95.

The administrative expenses of the Board (Schedule M) were $17,965 64, and expenditures for advertising, maintenance of investment, etc. (Schedule M), were $13,445.12. As more than one-half of these expenditures, including rent, salaries, etc., must be charged to the Board's work in co-operating with colleges to secure endowment, the expenditures of the Board should be charged against the following total:

Gifts in Securing which the Board was a Direct Agent . . . $635,641.34

2. The gifts included in the following sum were secured by presidents and financial agents of institutions. The Board co-operates in this work by organizing the work in synods and presbyteries, by sending out literature to all our churches and people of means several times each year, by opening avenues of approach to individual givers, and by general work of many sorts intended to inform and stimulate the Church at large to deeper and more intelligent interest in our institutions.

Gifts Secured by Institutions $507,540.46

REPORT OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S STANDING COMMITTEE

AT DENVER, COLO., MAY, 1909.

The following Report by the Rev. H. G. Mendenhall, D.D., of New York, Chairman of the Assembly's Standing Committee on this Board, was unanimously adopted:

The Standing Committee on The College Board begs leave to submit the following report:

The Twenty-sixth Annual Report of the Board has been received and carefully examined. Officers of the Board have met with us, giving extended explanations upon important subjects connected with their work. From these sources of information we are privileged to place before you for your consideration these topics and recommendations:

I. THE WORKMEN.

We meet with the shadow of a great loss darkening the joy that would otherwise gladden our hearts. Rev. James Stuart Dickson, D.D., the beloved Secretary of this Board, died at his home in New Jersey after a brief illness, April 1. The eloquent tongue that stirred many Assemblies is stilled; the consecrated life that in its four brief years of service made possible the splendid results achieved has fallen in the midst of the battle. In the vigor of a splendid manhood; with a zeal that promised a successful future for a cause that in so brief a period won so many victories; with an enthusiasm for Christian education that was arousing the whole Church, this beloved brother and devoted officer has gone to the Homeland to receive his crown.

Dr. Dickson came to his work from a long and blessed pastorate in the City of Philadelphia. He was the first Secretary to take up the task after the removal of the Board's headquarters from Chicago to New York. It was for him, under new and exacting conditions, to plan the campaign and to carry it forward to success. In this brief period he made his own personality felt in the Assembly, the synods and individual churches; he was trusted by the colleges and academies with which he had official relations; he became known at public conferences, where his consecration made friends for the cause in which he believed. He won the wealth of individuals as well as their hearts, as is evidenced when we learn that in his brief administration the income of the Board and the direct gifts to colleges amounted to $7,200,000.

Not alone in income, but in spiritual results had he achieved marked success. Many of our colleges received a marvelous baptism of the Spirit, and young men and women, the students in these institutions, were brought into personal contact with the Master, and many of them inspired for the ministry and missionary work in foreign lands. It was the devotion of Dr. Dickson to Jesus Christ that made possible in a large degree these results. The cause of Christian education has lost in the death of this Secretary a workman of whom it has never been ashamed, and our Church a leader of whom it was justly proud. We therefore express in this public way our sincere sorrow at his death, and our deep appreciation of his toil and his consecration.

The trowel that fell from Dr. Dickson's hands was taken by that master workman, Rev. E. C. Ray, D.D., who for so many years was the active Secretary. But Dr. Ray is now so ill that he has been unable to be present at this Assembly. His long years of service deserve, as they now receive, our recognition, and to him in his suffering we extend our sympathy.

In this crisis of the Board it has been fortunate in having the wise counsel and strong leadership of its President, Rev. Robert Mackenzie, D.D., and we rejoice that we can assure this Assembly that while Dr. Mackenzie removes his residence to the Pacific Coast, the Board will continue to receive his zeal, guidance and practical sympathy.

II. THE AIMS OF THE BOARD.

The College Board is seeking to keep alive the genius of the founders of this republic who builded the college next to the church. Their aspirations were to make sure of an educated republic that would stem the tide of illiteracy which endangers democracies more than monarchies. That they planned with the genius of true statesmanship is seen in the result of the great universities which are now so influential in our Atlantic States, the foundations of which were laid by Christian ministers.

The aim of the present Board is to put into this work the same lofty ideals which inspired the Puritans and the Scotch and Scotch-Irish in the early days of our national history. To this end the English Bible is at the basis of the classroom instruction, as it has always been in the beginnings of all our higher institutions of learning. This is systematically taught, with reverence and sincere love for the Word. It is not a book of historic literature, but God's Book. The critical examination of the text is the basis for seeking the meaning of the inspired writer who penned the words. These students are therefore learning God's purposes, and will, if true to this instruction, keep the highest tone of true patriotism in the State and in the Church.

Christian men are the teachers of the Bible—men who believe its truths and seek to have these truths wrought into the moral lives of young men and women in their classrooms. The individuality of the teacher is a potent influence upon the life of the student. Where positive religion is emphasized the influence becomes stronger and more lasting. The student will recall the teacher when he forgets the word that has been taught. The university is doing a splendid work in its specialties, but the pupil misses the contact of the master mind which is found in the smaller colleges. This does not mean, however, that the teaching in these colleges is narrow, circumscribed and provincial. On the other hand, the courses of general instruction in both the Arts and Sciences is of the broadest and most generous character; indeed, being Presbyterian it could not be otherwise. There are no colleges under the care of this Board where the curriculum falls below the highest standards of the state universities. The graduates of our schools, who are taking high places in all departments of life, are the best testimonials to the efficacy of these institutions.

The wisdom of the Board in this matter is also seen in the revival of religion that has occurred during the past year, when 618 students, or nearly 4 per cent. of the total number enrolled, were converted. This fact also vitally touches the life of the Church in that we find here the coming ministry, for, as is well known, our church schools are now the sources of supply for the benefit of the missionary field. There are now studying in all the schools affiliated with our Church an army of 20,000 men and women who will soon take their places in the ranks. This work may well awaken our interest as well as command our sympathy.

GENERAL ITEMS.

The changes in the Constitution of the Board approved by the last General Assembly have been made. The Board seeks to safeguard every dollar received from givers for a distinct purpose, and in order that it may not be possible for a college to turn aside from the aims of the founders and donors, has suggested to all givers of amounts of over $1,000 that the gift be made to the college upon these express conditions, which we heartily approve:

- “1. That the party of the second part [the college] causes the Bible to be systematically taught to every regularly enrolled student attending such institution, as a part of the regular curriculum required for graduation; one hundred and forty-four (144) hours being the minimum time for required Bible study in the college course, or thirty-six (36) hours at least in each year thereof, the faculty of the party of the second part to be at liberty, however, to arrange the said thirty-six (36) hours according to their best judgment.

- “2. That the party of the second part [the college] shall at all times after the date of the execution of this deed of gift, engage and retain upon its teaching staff only professors for whose positive Christian influence the president of the party of the second part can vouch; and that upon failure thereof,” the gift “shall forthwith revert and . . . be paid by the party of the second part to The College Board of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America . . . and shall become and be a part of the General Fund of the said The College Board.”

NEW WORK.

It is of interest to know that the Board is deeply conscious of the fidelity of our brethren from the South and Southwest who are now one with us in the common interests of a United Church and that it will broaden its work so as to give to higher education in that part of our country practical sympathy and help. From the Ohio River to the Gulf of Mexico, an impetus will be started for Presbyterian education in colleges already established, and in others that may become affiliated with us. The very knowledge of this fact will, we are sure, quicken the ardor and zeal of our members from the Southland, and in that they are to have all the blessings of our great Church. We cannot speak in detail of the rich results that have come to these many colleges the past year, but we do congratulate the Presbyterians of North Dakota that their college, closed for sixteen years, is to reopen this coming fall with an enrollment of 100 students and a large amount of money, given by residents of that State for an endowment.

ACADEMIES.

The Board has carefully studied the problem of the academy in view of the increased efficiency of the high school, and has come to the conclusion that it can use the gifts of the Church with better effect by making its entire appropriation to colleges rather than to independent academies. Therefore it has adopted the policy of withholding aid from academies not immediately connected with colleges, but in withdrawing from this work it promises to do so with the least possible injury to these schools. This action we also approve.

FINANCES.

When we consider the financial depression of the past year and the loss to the Board of the Secretary, the returns are of the most encouraging character, as is seen from this table of receipts:

RECOMMENDATIONS.

We offer the following for adoption as our recommendations:

1. The Assembly commends the administrative work of the Board, and hereby approves its report and its financial statement made by the certified public accountants.

2. The Assembly rejoices at the good work done in our colleges the past year, and sends its congratulations to the instructors for their devotion and successes they have won in the classrooms, as well as the spiritual results which have brought so many of their students to consecrated Christian living.

3. The Assembly urges the official Boards of our colleges to secure the largest possible contributions from their constituents and synods before seeking gifts from outside sources.

4. The Assembly suggests to the presbyteries that they use all the means at their disposal to bring the cause of Christian education to the people by the circulation of literature, the presence of speakers in churches, and appeals to individuals—members of our denomination in contributing to Christian institutions of learning are urged not to overlook the claims of those that are distinctively Presbyterian; these contributions when given, it is also suggested, should be made through the Board and its Treasurer,—and we trust that pastors will urge their young people to avail themselves of the opportunities for education which these colleges offer.

5. The Assembly advises the Board to continue its work in securing endowments for needy colleges, in order that the efficiency of these institutions be improved and safeguarded.

6. The Assembly urges the Board to take into further consideration the needs of the South and the Southwest, and to use such means as will, as soon as possible, extend its work into that section of our country.

7. The Assembly hereby elects the following persons whose terms of office expire at this time:

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON

SYSTEMATIC BENEFICENCE

OF

IN THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

1909

The Committee on Systematic Beneficence of the General Assembly has been in existence for thirty years and we believe has rendered valuable service to the Presbyterian and other churches by making suggestions as to methods of supporting the missionary and benevolent enterprises; by the distribution of valuable literature; by formulating statistical tables; by urging contributions from all our churches and church members; and by correspondence with Committees, Congregations, Presbyteries and Synods. In these and other ways your Committee has sought to stimulate systematic and proportionate giving as a duty to God and as a high privilege. We feel that the work of your Committee has been blessed by the Head of the Church, and we can testify that in doing the work assigned to us, we have received a blessing.

THE WORK OF THE PAST YEAR

During the past year your Committee has prosecuted its work vigorously by sending out, on request, quantities of literature and thousands of envelopes and subscription blanks. We have also answered inquiries that have come to us from churches, Presbyterial and Synodical Committees.

Ministers—David G. Wylie, William H Hubbard, George P.

Williams, Chalmers Martin, William R. Richards, William P. Finney, John F. Carlson, Charles E. Bronson, John R. Davies. Ruling Elders—John Stewart, J. R. Hogg, Charles E. Kinch, M. D.; H. Edwards Rowland, H. C. Olin.

I.—THE ONENESS OF CHURCH WORK

A great forward movement in giving is the necessity of the hour. At the present time many of our churches are inadequately supported and cared for and all of our Boards are coming from year to year to the meeting of the General Assembly with practically empty treasuries. The work is not double, but one. Since the work of the local church is as truly for the upbuilding of the spiritual life of the community as the work in mission fields, we can recognize no division so far as the character of the work is concerned and any divisions that may be made are those simply of convenience. The scanty support in many cases that is accorded by members of the church, not only to the support of their own church, but to that of the missionary operations of the Church as a whole, is unworthy of those who believe that Jesus Christ is their Savior and that they have been bought with a price. We believe that everything connected with the Church of Christ has a spiritual element and that in the sight of God there is no "secularity" and no "temporality." The division into the material and spiritual is largely for convenience in the effective prosecution of church work. We plead for better support of the missionary causes of the Church and also for a more loyal support of the local church. Pastors should have more adequate salaries and greater pride be manifested in many quarters in the upkeep of the Church. Proper respect for God's house has a great educational value upon the young and in deepening the spiritual life of all. One of the best ways of showing our love to Christ is to take proper care of the house of God. Where a church building is permitted to continue in a dilapidated condition with worn-out carpets, broken-backed hymn books, water-stained ceilings, a squeaky organ, poor light, miserable ventilation and lack of adequate heating apparatus, it discounts the cause of religion in the community where the church is located. On the other hand, where the church property is kept up in proper condition it reveals a deep interest on the part of its members, and a pride in the house where God is worshipped.

This being true, there is no place for a conflict between trustees and sessions, for the work is one. There should be no line drawn between the secular and the spiritual. The trustees should not be labeled as representing the State, the material, and the session as representing the Church, the spiritual. Nor is there any place for any jealousy between the two in efforts for raising money, one for the support of the local church and the other for general benevolence. The fact is that where the people of a church keep their property in proper repair and take a pride in it they are more apt to be generous in their gifts to benevolent causes; and on the other hand, where church members are generous in their benevolences they are also willing to give largely to the support of the local church. And, furthermore, since there is a unity in church work, trustees and sessions mutually assisting the other, there ought to be frequent conference of trustees and church sessions in order to unify the financial operations of the congregation. We further believe that as conferences between trustees and church sessions are beneficial, so also there ought to be conferences between the various Boards of the Church, to which is committed our benevolent work, in the interests of unity and more thorough co-operation. This suggestion is in harmony with the action of some of the Boards in their memorial to General Assembly in 1907, that some plan ought to be devised that would have a tendency to "eliminate competition."

II.—TWENTY-FIVE SUGGESTIVE METHODS

We are able by reference to our correspondence to answer the frequent inquiries which have come to us as to methods in use in our various churches, and from this correspondence we have selected the following methods which have been adopted and which have met with more or less success in churches of various types, in country, village, town and city. We have not felt it necessary to enter into a careful and detailed analysis of the various methods used in different churches but leave the subject to those who are interested to find what may be helpful in any one or in a combination of these methods.

Our church collects a gross amount of money and then apportions it to the different boards of the church.

2

We make a separate offering for Home and Foreign Missions, and a combined offering for the other six boards.

3

We use the envelope system, and the funds are divided between the Boards of the church at the end of the year.

4

We use the Systematic method, and apportionment is made in accordance with the percentage plan as suggested by our Assembly.

5

Every offering we take is for some one of the missionary enterprises. We give the offerings for two months to Home and Foreign work and one month or less to each of the others.

6

We are fully enrolled in the ranks of Systematic Benevolence. The envelope system is quite largely used not only in our Church but the Sabbath School, as well.

7

As to our method, a Committee, known as the "Benevolent Fund Committee," composed of twenty business men, with myself, of course, as member ex-officio, manage the benevolences of the church. At the beginning of the year, we place before the congregation our plans for extension, if we undertake such. We avoid through the year all special appeals, except in very exceptional cases. Promises are secured from people, yearly, as to what they will do and sermons and addresses upon our different schemes of work during the remainder of the year are educative.

8

The custom here is, (1) to have a list of pledged subscribers who make up the amount for our Foreign and for Home Missionary. (2) What the Boards get is taken in envelopes placed in the pews. A month is given to each and any time during the month the envelope may be put on the plate. This is not very successful. Therefore, we are making a change which will fix Foreign and Home Missions' call for two special days when the gifts will be brought.

9

In addition to pew rents we receive Free Will Offering pledges. The Trustees are permitted to draw from the "F. W. O." fund to the extent of $300 per month for current expenses, provided so much is needed in addition to what they receive from the pew rentals. The whole allowance is usually drawn. The balance is distributed to the Boards in accordance with the Assembly's recommendation. By special offerings we also support a Foreign Missionary Pastor, $850 and a Home Missionary, $600.

10

Our method for securing our benevolence money is mostly collections, at the church services, the envelope system, and pledges. By the envelope system we take pledges also for church support and beyond a certain sum, we pay to the Boards dividing the money according to the General Assembly's ratio. Our church is supported by pew rentals, pledges, and plate offerings.

11

The methods in use are: Continuous announcements, on the calendar of the appointed dates of the offerings; preliminary announcement or appeal the Sunday immediately preceding the offering; discussion of the work at the mid-week service—the hour being usually given; urgent word on the Sunday when the money is gathered; occasionally, individual work to enlarge the amount.

12

Our benevolences are administered by a Board of Benevolence, the pastor President, three members of the Session and three from the congregation. They act, of course, under the direction and with the approval of the Session. The funds are collected by weekly envelope system, though each subscriber may suit his convenience as to when he shall pay his subscription. The objects may be designated but they never are. At the end of the fiscal year, the total amount received is disbursed and distributed according to the discretion of the local board among the eight boards of the Church.

This simple plan works well. The only difficulty being in securing subscriptions so that the whole membership of the church shall be represented in the benevolences. Still this method has yielded larger results than any we have ever experimented with.

We secure our benevolences in two ways, namely, first by a system of free will offering pledges, through which we endeavor to secure from each member of our congregation a pledge for a definite sum to be paid weekly in envelope provided for the purpose. This brings us in about $9,000 a year, and is apportioned among our denominational Boards and by the Session. Second, we have a Sunday in each month on which we give the opportunity to the people to contribute to each Board. So if anyone has a preference he can indulge it.

14

We have only one offering a year for each Board. Before the date of each offering a postal card is sent to each family in the congregation stating briefly the needs of that particular cause and the amount we gave last year. Usually we ask for a certain percentage of increase. Before the Sunday for the Home Board and the Foreign, I preach a sermon ad rem. Our system is, in a word, to reach every member of the congregation by a direct appeal for each Board. By frequent reference to the cause of Missions I keep the work all the time before the people. We place in the pews literature sent by the Boards the Sunday before the respective offerings.

15

I divide my parish into eight collection districts and have, under the direction of the session, eight collectors, who make monthly collections for what is called by them "The Benevolent Fund" of the Church. The contributions to this fund vary from 10c to $10 a month. At the end of the year this fund is reported to Session and an appropriation made from it (1) for the poor of the Church, (2) for local Missions, (3) for ecclesiastical and Communion expense, (4) for the home Sunday School, so that every cent of the children's contributions may go to the Boards of the Church, and (5) the remainder is given to the eight boards as the Assembly directs the proportions.

The offerings at our Sunday morning services, excepting the six communions, go into our Missionary and Benevolent Fund, from which appropriations are made by the Session to the various Boards. These ordinary offerings are supplemented by special offerings at Christmas and Easter for Foreign and Home Missions respectively.

We do all we can to encourage systematic giving. About 500 of our members contribute on the weekly pledge system and many others give a regular sum without any written pledge, making up for absent Sundays.

Our method of supporting Church Boards is as follows: From the Sunday morning offerings we deduct 10 per cent. for an emergency fund by which we can support deserving causes and local Church and City Mission work.

The remaining 90 per cent. of the morning offerings is applied as follows:

Foreign Missions	25 per cent.
Home Missions	25 per cent.
Church Erection	7 per cent.
College Board	7 per cent.
Education	7 per cent.
Ministerial Relief	6 per cent.
Sustentation	5 per cent.
Freedmen	4 per cent.
Publication	4 per cent.

I am trying to induce every member of the congregation to pledge a definite sum for the Sabbath morning offering, (to be paid whether the donor is present or absent) and based upon the principle of systematic and proportionate giving. This pledge system is in its first year of operation and although not a quarter of the church membership have adopted it I am hoping that the income of the church boards will be nearly doubled this year by even the partial adoption of the pledge.

On the whole, I do not know any better system than the above.

At the beginning of the church year we make out a schedule and adhere to same strictly.

We give to the Boards on 26 Sundays, through the medium of envelopes, each of which bears the name of particular board, date, etc. The number of collections made to each board depends upon the importance which we attach to the various boards, and if we find towards the end of the year that any Board has suffered, we manage to rob the trustees of a morning offering by running in an extra offering for the sufferer.

All our collections in Sunday Schools go to the Boards and the Church pays its expenses. We also have our own Missionary, assigned to Mountain White Section.

(1) A circular letter gotten up by the Pastor in consultation with the church officials is sent out to every member of the church and congregation a few weeks before the end of the financial year, setting forth claims, demands, reasons for liberal contribution to the "Beneficent Fund." With this circular letter goes a card as enclosed to be filled up and put on plate or mailed to the Treasurer of the Fund at a time before April 1st, if at all possible.

(2) When most cards have been returned, the Treasurer sends out 52 envelopes to each one pledged as enclosed for your information.

(3) These envelopes are placed in plates as the year advances.

(4) Either during the year or at the end of the financial year, the joint officials of the church in a union meeting apportion the funds among the Boards as per Assembly's ratio or near it and among the local necessities of the church.

The plan works well, all are pleased with it. Quite a success.

In case some may not respond a committee of three, one elder and one trustee and one deacon endeavor to encourage a response to the circular letter of March.

Only the Treasurer and auditors know anything of amounts of individual gifts.

Our church for some years has used the pledging system. At the beginning of the fall the congregation makes pledges for the various objects. The week before the day for the offering envelopes appropriately marked are sent to the people both those who have pledged and those who have not. The plan does not bring the best results and we are soon to supplement it by adding the Budget feature, making an annual pledge for Benevolence, designating or not as the donor desires. Then a distribution by percentage, unless the gifts are designated, gifts to be brought weekly, monthly or quarterly, as desired. This is the Assembly's plan with some modification.

As to beneficence, we employ the pledged, weekly, envelope offering plan. Out of the total amount received there is first taken a goodly sum for the Trustees' fund, needed above amounts received from pew subscriptions. Then $250 for the Session fund, and as much for Home

Sunday School maintenance, and the remainder divided not only among the Boards of our Church but also among local charities according to a percentage annually agreed upon by the congregation upon the recommendation of the Session. This remains largely the same from year to year, e. g., Foreign Missions get 38 per cent. and Home Missions 47 per cent., etc., yet it is always subject to variation and improvement. For instance, we feel that we here and the Presbytery, are doing too much relatively to the support of the weak churches of this Presbytery and the amount will, therefore, be lessened.

If any change is made in this single budget plan another year it will be to raise all we need for our own maintenance in one envelope and all we devote for benevolence in another.

Our Foreign Missions' contribution is made on the Systematic giving plan. Pledges are secured once a year and the payments are made in envelopes placed in special Foreign Missions boxes in the church. We have a "Parish Abroad" and information concerning it is given to the people as often as possible by circular letter or pulpit announcement.

The other Boards of the church have each one Sunday in the year on which a collection for their benefit is received. Leaflets concerning the work of each Board are distributed on the Sunday preceding the offering and due announcement is made. The literature of the Home Board is distributed in the pews about once a month regularly, and the week before the annual offering is received a letter enclosing small envelopes is addressed to every member of the congregation urging the needs of the work.

We receive offerings for the sustentation fund of our church only once a month, all the other offerings are divided among the Boards according to the General Assembly's suggested apportionment, except occasional offerings to the American Bible Society, Synodical Home Missions, etc.

A letter is sent by Session to all members of the church and congregation prior to the offering for Home Missions in November and Foreign Missions in January. Besides these letters, the cause is advocated at the mid-week service preceding the offering, a custom which we follow for all the boards of the church. In this way the boards of the church are brought before the people every year. Besides this, the various benevolences of our church are presented to the Sunday School, and all the gifts of the Sunday School throughout the year, with the exception of one Sunday, go to benevolence. Thus, our church, from the primary school up, is educated in the work of the Presbyterian Church in the whole world. We believe that this means of educating the people and raising funds for benevolences is only less efficient than the weekly, or monthly pledges, which we have not yet been able to introduce into our church.

The bulk of our contributions is received through the weekly

Duplex Envelope, one being for church support, and the other for Forward Movement. The funds received through the Forward Movement end are used for the support of our church missionaries in Big Laurel, N. C., Aguadilla, Porto Rico, and Seoul, Korea. This money is forwarded to the Boards of Home and Foreign Missions for the payment of the salaries of these missionaries. In addition to this, we make a special offering on the second Sabbath of each month, which goes to the eight boards of the Church, Committee on Temperance, Synodical Home Missions, American Tract Society and American Bible Society. The offerings of February and October are devoted to the Board of Foreign Missions and the offerings of April and November are devoted to the Board of Home Missions. I enclose you herewith clipping from our weekly bulletin which shows our schedule of special offerings. During the week preceding the second Sabbath our Committee on Benevolences sends a letter to each family in the church explaining the work of the Board for which the offering will be received.

This system has been very successful, and through its use, the offerings of our church to the various Boards have been greatly increased. Since its adoption about six years ago there has been a steady increase, and we are now giving more to the general work of the Boards, and, in addition, are paying the entire salaries of missionaries in the above mentioned stations, and within a few months expect to be able to carry the salary of another missionary on the foreign field.

For most of the Boards we have no special method, simply presenting the cause and urging subscriptions. Frequently we have envelopes distributed previously to be brought in on the Sunday appointed. Indeed for some of the Boards we usually follow this method, having the envelopes placed in the packages of envelopes which are used for the subscriptions for current expenses, so that when one takes his envelope for the week he sees this other envelope of different color marked with the cause for which the special amount is asked.

For the Home and Foreign Boards, however, we have a special plan which I think different from any I know. The second Sunday in January is Foreign Mission Day. On that Sunday I usually present the cause myself, sometimes, however, having a secretary or missionary. At the close of the sermon I present subscription cards saying that we want subscriptions rather than cash. These cards are passed through the congregation by elders, with pencils, seeing that every individual gets one. The cards call for subscriptions on the weekly envelope plan so much a week for 12 weeks. Then the cards are kept handy for a week or two afterwards to gather in the stragglers. To some few individuals personal letters may be written. One year when the Sunday was very stormy the elders divided those not heard from and went after them personally. Last year the Sunday appointed was very bad; we had Dr. ——— to present the cause. The next Sunday I preached on it myself and we got our accustomed amount.

For Home Missions we follow the same plan beginning the second Sunday in April.

We raise the money to support two on foreign field and two on home field as you see by Bulletin. We keep their names constantly before the church and print their photos in Year Book and other literature. I think, however, that our 12-week scheme is more effective with us than the individual missionary.

Ours is a church of people of moderate means, we get no subscription over $50 or $60 towards the $1,400 or $1,500 we raise. I do not know how to bring the matter any closer home than we do but even so though we raise this considerable amount in small subscriptions, there are many who stay out of it altogether and I do not know how to reach them. If we could get even nominal sums from those who give nothing the total would be much larger.

III.—THE SERIOUS PROBLEM OF THE CHURCH.

There is, at the present time, wide dissatisfaction with the present methods of securing the money that is necessary in carrying on the work of Christ's kingdom. This sentiment found an expression in a memorial sent by the Board of the Church to the General Assembly of 1907 in which it is said that: "We are persuaded that our enlarged work demands a surer and larger income. We believe that in our present method of securing such income we have practically reached the limit and that a new financial plan for our benevolent work is imperatively demanded." Measured by the gifts of the Church it is evident that our people do not appreciate the full significance of the sixth chapter of the "Directory for Worship" entitled "The Worship of God by Offerings," which enjoins that such offerings be performed as "a solemn act of worship to Almighty God." This lack of appreciation of giving as "a solemn act of worship" is not limited to our church. Rev. Hugh Miller Thompson, Bishop of Mississippi, voices the same thought in his recent leaflet on "The Offeratory, a Lost Act of Worship," in which he says:

"The idea of an offering, as distinguished from a propitiatory sacrifice, is that of consecrating a man's gains, the fruits of his life and work, by presenting a portion to Him who gives all life and strength. The first fruit is made holy, that the whole lump may be holy. The acknowledgement is made of God the giver, that on Him depends all good, that from Him comes all blessing, and that a man so recognizes Him and His law, and so lives under that law, that he can humbly hope his life is acceptable, and that God will accept some part of the labor of his brain and hands. Is this idea wholly lost in Christianity? Is it not an idea of the very base of any religious life whatever? Is it not as essential to a Christian as to a Jew? Of, if we look at it from the other side, that an offering is an acknowledgement made to God of blessings received, has not the Christian as much to make acknowledgement for as the Jew? The early church clearly answered all these questions in the affirmative. She incorporated into her services the idea of the offering. She was not content only with prayer and praise and confession; she also required a material gift—something more than words, an actual offering to be laid upon the altar—as an essential part of her worship. The idea of the offering as a central act of worship—as a condition of appearing before the Lord in His house—passed over from the Jewish Church to the Christian as naturally as prayer, as naturally as the Psalms, and the reading of the Prophets.”

He further says: “Men are taught that giving to the Lord is an essential part of public worship, quite as essential as singing or praying. They are to be instructed in the plain truth that words must go out in deeds. They must recognize the alms basin as an essential part of church furniture, the putting of money into it as a devotional act. Their special attention must be called to the name by which their contributions given in church, are called in the plain English of the Prayer Book, “The devotions of the people!”

IV. WHAT ABOUT THE TITHE SYSTEM?

During the past year your Committee has received increasing inquiries in reference to the tithe and its practical workings in the churches and among the people, and we have thought possibly it might be a help to many to incorporate in this report some matters of interest on the tithe. Christian stewardship and the tithe are closely associated together, both resting on the general principle that we are not our own but we belong to God and he has a claim upon us.

The church as a whole is trifling with the cause of benevolence. As nine-tenths of the giving is done by one-tenth of the church, there is an indication that there is but very little sense of responsibility on the part of the average church member to the great work of Christ in the world. It becomes, then, a very serious matter for the General Assembly to consider what steps should be taken in order to change the attitude of the average member of the church to the evident work that the Lord expects His church to do in the world. People relieve themselves of the responsibility of the tithe on the ground that they are living under the New Testament dispensation; and then they relieve themselves of giving on the ground that they need so much for themselves; and some even go so far as to consider that the adequate care of themselves is all that the Lord can reasonably expect of them! The result is that between the seeming contrast of the Old Testament plan with the New Testament dispensation, the people relieve themselves altogether of any responsibility.

In several of the recommendations which the General Assembly has passed in previous years, the attention of the Church has been called in a general way to the tithe or the tenth; and in view of the fact that all the present plans and methods devised in obtaining money for the Lord's work are so utterly inadequate to the work to be done, it becomes a serious question whether this very condition of things is not an indication of providence that it would be the wise policy on the part of the General Assembly to take some positive action in commending to the earnest and careful consideration of the entire Church the duty of all members of the church to set apart a definite portion of their income for the Lord's work. If the claim of the tithe has been abrogated and there is no adequate claim under the dispensation of Christ for a substitute for this claim on the conscience of the average member of the church that is equal to the tithe, it leaves the average church member to the mercy of the evils, on the one side, of covetousness, and on the other, unrestrained luxury; which, under the Old Testament dispensation, founds its antidote in the tithe that recognized God as having a claim on a portion of the entire income. It must also be clearly kept in mind that the Lord greatly blessed the Hebrew people in proportion as they observed the tithe; but when they, in their prosperity began to begrudge the Lord his portion and substituted the halt, the lame and the blind, immediately the moral character of the people deteriorated and the sanctuary became deserted! The experience of the past has proved that there is very little growth in grace on the part of the people that is not nourished by increased giving for the sustaining of the Lord's work. A campaign of education in presenting the claims of the Church upon its entire membership that a tenth should be set aside for the Lord's work and being followed by our members would give abundant support to the work of our Church. The average income of every man, woman and child in this country is estimated at $175 a year. If the members of our Church were to set aside a tenth it would mean an income of at least some $25,000,000 yearly.

It must be regarded that money-giving is a fundamental virtue, and in view of the materialistic tendencies of our age it is one of the great virtues. This virtue neglected, everything seems to deteriorate now as it did in the days of the Jews. There is much need for a prayer to be offered by many as was offered by a man solicitous about his lack of generosity: "I am inclined to be stingy with the Lord. O, Lord, increase my desire to give."

The proof of the sincerity of a man's Christian profession is its effect upon his benefactions. Parents little realize the effect upon their children by the manner in which they give for the support of the cause of Christ and His Kingdom; and many parents have themselves to blame for the alienation of their children from the house of God by showing to their children their unbelief in the cause of Christ by their stinginess.

Professor Bosworth speaks of Jesus' plan for the establishment of the civilization of Heaven upon earth. We are what we are today because of what Jesus Christ has done for us individually. Do you believe in the plan that Christ has inaugurated for the establishment of the civilization of Heaven upon earth? Can you believe that there is such a plan without some adequate provision for its carrying out? At present we have no adequate plan to lay before the people, definitely and clearly, that will properly care for our part in the world's redemption. It seems to your Committee that some definite plan ought to be pressed home upon the conscience of the people that will compel those who accept Christ as their Lord and Savior to see clearly that with the acceptance of Christ as their personal Savior there is involved the co-operating with Christ in the establishment of his kingdom in this world, and to do this it is the duty and obligation of everyone to set aside a portion of his income for this work. Someone has said: "A church will not pray better than it pays." Until the Church learns to use the lower money power unselfishly how can God trust it with the higher power of prayer? It will be criminal for him to say to a church that uses its money selfishly: "Ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you." It is well for us to keep in mind the close association that Paul brings of the power of the Christian over death and of the resurrection and the "collection." This world must be conquered for Christ by all the members of the Church giving systematically and proportionately to the work.

Dr. Bashford states that he believes that God is seeking financial partners as well as he is seeking mental and spiritual workers. Men can as truly work for God in their business and for the Lord's work as can be done by preaching the Gospel from the pulpit; and there should be more men enter a Christian business life for the Lord's cause! There is need at the present time of a revival of personal religion and the consecration of wealth; and these are so closely associated that the one will carry the other, and these will sanctify secular life and a great forward movement in the evangelization of the world will be inaugurated. As soon as the members of the Church see clearly that the claim of the Lord upon a definite portion of their income is a duty, there will be an abundance in the Lord's treasury for his work and the Old Testament blessing of the Lord will be poured out!

In this report we do not enter upon a full discussion of the tithe system; why it is obligatory upon Christians; nor why when giving to God is neglected, Christian graces shrivel up. We content ourselves by giving illustrations of the effect of the system and cite these valuable testimonies:

"The movement in favor of 'bringing the whole tithe into the storehouse,' the modern Church, has now reached such dimensions that it is possible to compare the contributions of a tithing with a non-tithing church membership, of paying with so-called 'giving.'"

While it is known that the difference would be striking the most sanguine advocates of tithing are surprised at the net results. A brief summary of the figures furnished by the number of churches is here-with given:

Of a total membership of 568,158, tithers paid seven-eighths of the entire contributions received by the church. The 410 other contributors paid one-eighth. Of the tithers, 12 were children, 105 women and 45 men.

Out of membership of 85, the average per capita of the non-tithers was $5.67; tithers, $18.80.

In the Church, there were 150 members when the plan was commenced. At the end of the first quarter the 19 tithers gave 47 per cent. of all that came into the church treasury.

Out of a congregation of 213, 50 are tithers. Those 50 contribute about three-fourths of the regular church offerings, and about five-sixths of the mission offerings.

In the Church there are 70 tithers, comprising about 30 families, in a membership of some 600. These 70 from January 1st to October 1st, contributed $3,013.97, while the remaining 530 contributed $1,742.26.

The Church has had the system in operation. I understand, for about 25 years. The membership in 1905 showed 45 tithers, 270 non-tithers. The 45 contributed to missions an average of $13.60 each; the non-tithers, 93 cents each.

In the Church of 546 members, non-tithers contributed for missions, $421.50; tithers contributed, $588.50; average for tithers, $10.90; non-tithers, 77 cents.

In the Church, 27 tithers out of a total membership of 695 brought in one-fourth of the total amount contributed for the work of the Church in the City of Buffalo and the world at large.

Let no one suppose that the tithers in these churches are the specially well-to-do. In nearly every instance where the facts are not given, private letters stated that the largest proportion of the tithers are women and children, many of them without regular income.

A common object to tithing is the apparent hardship it entails upon the poor. Facts and experience show that the so-called poor are the first to adopt it and most heartily enjoy it.

After reading and reflecting on these figures, no reasonable man will claim that there is any adequate reason why the Church should continue to occupy its present disgraceful begging position before the world in the matter of financial and especially missionary support. The great question is that of conviction and courage on the part of ministers.

WILLIAM COLGATE'S GIVING.

Many years ago a boy of sixteen years left home to seek his fortune. Carrying all his belongings in a little bundle he made his way down the tow-path toward the great city. As he trudged along he met an old neighbor, the captain of a canal boat, and the following conversation took place:

"Well, William, where are you going?"

"I don't know," he replied. "Father is too poor to keep me at home any longer, and says I must now make a living for myself."

"There's no trouble about that," said the captain. "Be sure you start right, and you'll get along finely."

The lad told his friend that the only trade he knew anything about was soap and candle making, at which he helped his father when at home.

"Well," said the old man, "let me pray with you once more and give you a little advice and then I will let you go." Then they knelt upon the tow-path and the old man prayed fervently for William and then gave him the following advice:

"Some one will soon be the leading soap maker in New York. It can be you as well as any one. I hope it may be. Be a good man; give your heart to Christ; give to the Lord what belongs to Him of every dollar you earn; make an honest soap; give a full pound: and I am certain you will yet be a rich and good man."

Arriving in the great city, homeless and friendless, he remembered these parting words of advice. He was led through this to give himself to Christ and unite with the church. The first dollar he made brought up the question of the old captain. He looked in the Bible and found the Jews were required to give one-tenth. "If the Lord will take one-tenth, I will give that," he said; and so he did. It became his practice through a long life. Ten cents of every dollar was "holy unto the Lord."

After a few years William became a partner in the business, and, after a few more years, the sole owner. He was blessed wonderfully. He then gave two-tenths. He became richer still, and gave three-tenths, and afterwards five-tenths. He then educated his family, settled all his pains for life, and told the Lord he would give him all his income. This is the true story of Mr. Colgate, who gave millions to the Lord's cause and whose name will never die.

GIVING THAT DOES NOT IMPOVERISH.

A Canadian preacher tells of two brothers who went into business on a small scale. As Christian men ought to do, they took God into their firm and promised him a fixed percentage of all profits. The first year they were enabled to give God a good amount of money. The second year saw the Lord's share still larger. It kept on increasing until in the fourth giving too much and cut the Lord's percentage in two. The following year they saw a great decrease in business and before six months of the ensuing year they came to the verge of bankruptcy. One day these brothers locked themselves in their office to talk matters over. They saw that they had never prospered since they began to rob God. They decided that the first claim upon their business would be that they owed him. On their knees they sought and found forgiveness. Prosperity once more smiled upon them. After a few years they forgot the lesson of the past and actually cut the Lord's portion in two again. Similar results followed; again they made another start and God has prospered them ever since. With these men it was pay and prosper.

SOME BLESSINGS TO A CHURCH

Some of the blessings which came to a congregation that made use of the tithe system.

First—Unusual peace, harmony and activity.

Second—The disappearance of all secular methods for gain in order to carry on the work of the Church, and the absence of oft-recurring treasury deficits.

Third—The almost universal thrift of our members, either temporally or spiritually, or both.

Fourth—The very evident good results attending the preaching of the Word by our pastor. Among these, the wide distribution of his able addresses on the tithe by other denominations as well as our own, resulting in a general awakening upon this subject; likewise the certain fruits of his zealous work in the cause of morality and temperance in our city.

Fifth—The appropriations for benevolences and charities, which have increased yearly, and are now more than doubled, besides the payment of $2,000 on the building debt.

Sixth—The missionary spirit, as evidenced by the faithful work of devoted members.

Seventh—The organization of the Men's Bible Class of nearly 100 business men.

Eighth—The reception of scores of persons into the Church upon profession and renewal of their faith in Christ year by year, while others have gone out from us into active fields of Christian usefulness.

Ninth—The favorable standing of our Church among her sister churches, largely due to her faithfulness to the Word and unbiased stand for civic purity.

Tenth—Last, but not least, virtue has prevailed among us, and scandal and shame have not humbled us; our children have in great numbers graduated from the Sunday School into active church membership, while interest in our prayer-meetings and spiritual things has been earnestly maintained.

SCRIPTURAL AND INTELLIGENT GIVING.

The magnificent possibilities which are open to God's people for the extension of His work and in winning this world for Christ—if they would only consecrate to Him a reasonable part of their income—are indicated by the tables below. Study them earnestly and prayerfully, then be inspired to act.

THE INDIVIDUAL.

Find your income in the first column of the table below, then follow to the right for your proportion under various headings. The percentage to be given to the various lines of work included in the 36 per cent. for outside beneficence—Foreign Missions, Home Missions, Bible Cause, etc.—will doubtless be arranged by your church, but every Christian is urged to study for himself the respective claims of the various subjects.

V. BIBLE STUDY ON THE STEWARDSHIP OF MONEY

The spread of the gospel, the highest development of Christian character, and the believer's greatest usefulness, depend so much on the knowledge and practice of the principles of Christian Stewardship that scarcely anything can be more important than a study of them. Christians are stewards or trustees of the gospel for the good of the world. 1 Cor. 4. 1, 2; 9. 17 (R. V.); 1 Pet. 4. 10.

Everything in the believer's life is to be considered as a trust related to this trusteeship or stewardship. In the following eight lines of teaching the aim is to present some phases of the subject as it affects wealth.

1. GOD IS THE ABSOLUTE OWNER OF ALL THINGS.

No man is an absolute owner of anything. God alone is the absolute Proprietor of all things. Psa. 24. 1; 50. 10-12; Hag. 2. 8. God allows men to use His possessions, but He never surrenders His ownership. A full acknowledgement of the divine ownership of property should be made when we bring offerings, and at all times. 1 Chron. 29. 11-14. Since God is the absolute owner we cannot be more than stewards. Our relation to Him is fiduciary. Luke 19. 12-21.

2. WE ARE DEPENDENT UPON GOD FOR WHAT WE OBTAIN.

Deut. 8. 18. Physical strength, mental abilities, wage earning and business opportunities are all God-given. The producing forces in nature, the minerals and treasures of the earth, were all created by God. Eccl. 5. 19; Jas. 1. 17. No one has any right to boast that he has become rich through his own powers. All that we have comes from God. Acts 14. 17; 17. 24, 25; 1 Cor. 4. 7. Men forget this. Dan. 4. 30, 31.

3. THE ACCUMULATION OF MONEY FOR ITS OWN SAKE IS A GREAT EVIL.

1 Tim. 6. 9, 10. When wealth increases men are exposed to the perils of pride, luxuriousness, selfishness, and many other hurtful lusts. The increase of riches hinders men from salvation. Matt. 13. 22; 19. 21, 22; Mark 10. 25. Many a man's money, or method of money making, is standing between his soul and Christ.

Abundance of riches does not satisfy. Eccl. 5. 10; 2. 8-11. The uncertainty of earthly riches should keep men from setting their affections on them. Prov. 23. 4, 5; 1 Tim. 6. 17. If riches are not taken away from men they are taken away from their riches. Psa. 49. 16, 17; 1 Tim. 6. 7. These facts should constrain men while they live to administer their riches faithfully as stewards of God.

4. WEALTH IS TO BE ADMINISTERED FOR GOD'S GLORY.

The faithful steward does not use his trust for himself, but for the owner. To do otherwise is robbery. Mal. 3. 8. Our ideal in all uses of money is clear. Prov. 3. 9. This applies to getting and saving and spending as well as to giving. 1 Cor. 6. 20. Money represents partly the expenditure of physical strength. As we are to glorify God in our bodies so we are to glorify God in that which represents bodily and mental strength. 1 Tim. 6. 17-19.

5. THE WITHHOLDING OF OFFERINGS FROM GOD IS SINFUL AND RUINOUS.

Mal. 3. 8, 9; Lu. 12. 16-21. He who makes no returns to God as a steward robs Him and is sometimes dispossessed therefor. Study Mark 12. 1-9. It does not pay to be stingy. Selfishness is a blighting sin. Hag. 1. 9. Prov. 11. 24; 13. 7. Be careful not to offer God the poorest instead of the best. Mal. 1. 7, 8, 13.

6. SCRIPTURAL GIVING MUST BE SYSTEMATIC AND PROPORTIONATE.

Many Christians have no system in their giving. "As God hath prospered him" points clearly to proportionate giving. 1 Cor. 16. 2. This laying by is the only kind commended and commanded in the New Testament. The tenth is a Scriptural proportion. Lev. 27. 30. Num. 18. 24. Neh. 13. 12. Tithing was commended by Christ. Matt. 23. 23. Many should undoubtedly give more, none should give less. Giving is a spiritual grace, to which Christ's example should give character. 2 Cor. 8. 7, 9. We should give according to the teachings of Deut. 16. 17; 2 Cor. 9. 7. Laying up treasure in heaven is more important than laying up treasures on earth. Matt. 6. 19, 20.

7. RICH BLESSINGS ARE PROMISED TO FAITHFUL STEWARDS.

Mal. 3. 10; Matt. 25. 20, 21; 2 Cor. 9. 6. Spiritual blessings depend on the right use of money. Many make giving depend upon the coming of spiritual blessings, but God puts it the other way about. Prov. 3. 9, 10; 11. 25; Lu. 6. 38. God has fulfilled these promises many times. Only blessing can come from using money scripturally. We prepare a heavenly welcome, Lu. 16. 9; exhibit righteous fidelity, Lu. 16. 10; receive true riches, Lu. 16. 11; not as trustees but as owners, Lu. 16. 12; and demonstrate our loyalty to God, Lu. 16. 13.

—The Christian Steward.

V. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We would recommend in the interests of the forward movement of Christian giving and living that there be organized in all of our churches wherever advisable an association of "Christian Stewards." Anyone can be enrolled as a Christian Steward who is willing to sign the following statement:

"In grateful acknowledgement of the truth that I am not my own, having been redeemed by the precious blood of Christ, and in recognition of the sacred obligations of Christian Stewardship, I desire to be enrolled in the Association of Christian Stewards. I agree to set apart not less than one-tenth of my income, so far as I am able to reckon it, to be paid weekly and used as an enlightened conscience and the providence of God may direct in maintaining and extending Christ's kingdom."

2. We would recommend that wherever it may not seem advisable at present to form the above Association, that all those who are willing to give a definite proportion of their income for the Lord's work should be organized into Associations of Systematic and Proportionate Givers.

3. We recommend that all Committees on Systematic Beneficence in Presbyteries and Synods give careful attention to the two plans above mentioned, and wherever practicable, organize the churches within their bounds on such plans as in their judgment may be best fitted to local conditions.

4. We recommend that in addition to the literature on Systematic Beneficence your Committee is already sending out, the Committee be authorized to furnish literature on the subject of the title for general distribution.

5. We recommend that, in view of the growing importance of this subject, pastors be earnestly urged to preach frequently on this subject, and that the matter be discussed by church sessions and Presbyteries at their meetings.

6. In view of the grave responsibility resting upon the representatives of our various Church Agencies in gathering benevolent funds, we recommend that in their efforts they appeal to those high motives which grip the soul and have a tendency to create streams of beneficence.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

In the behalf of the Committee,

DAVID G. WYLIE, Chairman
W. H. HUBBARD, Secretary.

Report of the Standing Committee on Systematic Beneficence.

The Standing Committee on Benevolence, through its Chairman, Rev. Herbert A. Manchester, presented its report, which was adopted, including the adoption of Recommendations 13a and 15 of the report on Administrative Agencies. The report is as follows:

The subject of Benevolence has already been presented to the Assembly in the appeals of the Boards, in resolutions adopted and is also before the commissioners in the printed Report of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence. Important as the matter is it is unnecessary for us to attempt to add to these presentations. The work of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence has been so valuable and the need of such work in the future is so great that we urge its continuation either by the Executive Commission assuming all the functions and work of the Committee on Systematic Beneficence or by the reappointment of that Committee.

We emphasize the statements in the Report on Systematic Beneficence on the oneness of church work. The support of the individual church is necessary to the further support of the missionary and benevolent work of the whole Church. The local church must be sustained and gifts made to it are as truly benevolent as those given to other causes.

We also emphasize the thought of the offering made in the churches as "a solemn act of worship to Almighty God." Too often this part of a religious service is conducted in a way to show that it is, as a religious writer says, "a lost act of worship." "Men should be taught that giving to the Lord is an essential part of public worship, quite as essential as singing or prayer" and to be performed as sincerely and devoutly. The offerings ought indeed to be, as they are sometimes called, "the devotions of the people."

We believe that a wise and persistent effort should be made to train our people and to instruct the children in the duties of giving. We think this might well have place in the scheme of religious education to be devised. We do not wish to recommend one method of giving, to the exclusion of others; we are also aware of objections urged against tithing, yet other methods not having been shown to be effective or sufficient, and tithing having been richly blessed and approved in trial, we believe that an effort might well be made to bring this to the attention of all the people of our churches. The report on Systematic Beneficence describes twenty-five methods in use to secure the gifts of congregations with wisdom and generosity, and these will be found full of helpful suggestions.

We offer these recommendations:

1. Resolved, That the General Assembly emphatically affirm the principle of systematic and proportionate giving, and that the Executive Commission be instructed to secure, as far as possible, the adoption by individuals in the churches, of this principle of giving to the Lord's work a definite proportion of their income.

2. Resolved, That the Executive Commission be authorized to provide literature in regard to the tithe and to bring this matter to the attention of the churches.

3. Resolved, That the subject of Systematic Beneficence be given a prominent place in public discussion at meetings of Presbyteries and wherever practicable; that Sessions be advised to consider earnestly whether they may not more effectually cultivate this grace in the churches; and that Pastors present it faithfully to their congregations, both inculcating the duty of systematic and proportionate giving and endeavoring to secure at once increased gifts to benevolent work.

CHURCH OF THE LIVING GOD!

In impious mirth their laughing-stock;
Condemn thy strength, thy radiant beauty mock!
In vain their threats and impotent their blows,
Satan's assault, hell's agonizing throes,
For thou art built upon the Eternal Rock,
Nor fearest the thunder-storm, the earthquake shock,
And nothing shall disturb thy calm repose.
All human combinations change and die,
Whate'er their origin, form, design;
But firmer than the pillars of the sky,
Thou standest ever by a power divine!
Thou art gifted with immortality and can'st not perish,
God's own life is thine!*

Twenty-Eighth Annual Report and Year Book
1909.

Presented to the General Assembly at Denver, Colorado.

OUTLINE OF THE YEAR'S WORK.

1. Nearly 800 meetings have been held by our representatives in 29 states and territories. Besides assisting in many no-license campaigns, addresses were delivered before Synods, Presbyteries, Ministerial Associations, Theological Seminaries, Universities, Colleges, High Schools, Temperance Institutes, Sunday-school Conventions, Y. M. C. A.'s, Chautauquas, Presbyterian Churches and Sunday-schools.

2. The equivalent of more than sixteen millions (16,000,000) pages of literature in six languages, was supplied to the institutions mentioned in paragraph one. This literature went into every state and territory in the Union, to South Africa, Central and South America, Canada, Corea, India, Ireland, Scotland, England, Alaska, the Philippines, Cuba, Porto Rico, Ceylon, Mexico, East and West Indies, Russia and Bulgaria. Large quantities were supplied in the temperance campaigns in Miss., Tenn., Ill., Ia., Nebr., Pa., Md., W. Va., N. J., Ohio, Ind., N. Y., Fla., Tex., Ark., Wash., Ore., Calif. and Ky.

3. Besides supplying literature free to about 4,500 Presbyterian organizations we have furnished it at actual cost to applicants in almost every sister Church in the United States, Canada, and some European countries.

4. A column has been supplied each week in some of our Presbyterian papers, a supplemental lesson has been prepared for each quarterly temperance lesson in the Westminster Teacher and Senior Quarterly. Some phase of the question has been presented in each issue of The Assembly Herald. Several new tracts have been issued and nearly all of the standard ones reprinted.

5. More than thirty thousand (30,000) personal communications have been sent out, including a letter to every Sunday-school superintendent in the entire denomination, so far as we had their names and addresses. Many thousands of requests for information have come from pastors, elders, Sunday-school Teachers, Christian Endeavor officers, Missionary Societies and other interested individuals.

6. A temperance programme, including responsive readings and music, with recitations accompanying, prepared by the Committee, was used by thousands of our Sabbath-schools. More than fifty thousand (50,000) pledge-cards were ordered by Sunday-school superintendents and teachers.

7. The Temperance deliverances of the Assembly have been supplied to thousands of our churches. Communication has been had with nearly every denomination in the United States, resulting in the Second Inter-Church Temperance Council in Philadelphia, Pa. December 1-2.

8. Two Associate Secretaries and one lecturer on Scientific Temperance have been employed during the entire year and two other field workers for a part of the year. These, with the stenographer, are the only persons drawing salary, the Corresponding Secretary accepting a small honorarium and the Treasurer nothing, though the former devotes all of his time and the latter a large portion of his time to the work.

9. We began the publication of "The Amethyst" in September as the official organ of the Committee. The circulation is already 20,000 and increasing rapidly.

10. The receipts for the year have been $20,540.86. Thus at small expense and with a limited number of workers the Assembly's Committee has served a denomination numbering more than one million three hundred thousand communicants, with fully twice as many adherents and reaching into almost every part of the world.

WITH humble acknowledgment of the continued favor of the great Head of the Church, the Permanent Committee on Temperance herewith respectfully submits its Twenty-eighth Annual Report to the General Assembly.

So far as such matters can be expressed in concrete terms, the details of the year's work are given in the preceding Outline; but no mathematics can show the thought, the labor and the prayer that constitute the vital force which makes results possible.

Office Work.

The large regular correspondence, the heavy demand for literature, the publication of a paper, the preparation and revision of tracts, furnishing special information to our people and supplying articles to the religious and secular press, have been cared for by the Corresponding Secretary, the Chairman and the Associate Secretaries, with the help of a stenographer and a limited amount of extra clerical assistance. The demand, however, is growing so rapidly that additional help will be required the coming year.

Field Work.

Dr. Fulton, Miss Brehm and Prof. Scanlon have been with us as in former years. Dr. Worrell gave us a part of his time until the 1st of March and Rev. Samuel I. Lindsay all of his time for six months, beginning September 1st.

Our representatives have labored in some of the southern states and in almost all of the northern states but especially in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, W. Virginia, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Missouri and California. Miss Brehm has spent several months in the latter state and from there as elsewhere come the strongest commendations of her and her work.

Finances.

Owing to the general financial depression, the additional expense of starting a paper and the rapidly increasing demands of the work, we are obliged, for the first time in nearly a quarter of a century, to report a deficit, though the interest of the Church is greater and the receipts larger than ever before.

When it was seen that there would be a deficit, unless receipts were larger than we had reason to expect, with much regret we gave up the services, on March 1st of Dr. E. R. Worrell and Rev. Samuel I. Lindsay, the former stationed in Chicago and the latter in St. Louis. In each of these places we need a representative and should have one at the earliest practical date.

The Amethyst.

For some years the desirability was apparent of a paper to instruct and inspire our people on the subject of temperance; to furnish reliable, up-to-date material for pastors, Sunday-school teachers and other workers; to express the mind and uphold the standard of the Church on this subject and to serve as a medium of communication between the Committee and those whom it represents.

To meet this need the Committee began the publication of The Amethyst in September and the fact that already it has attained a circulation of more than 20,000, shows that it meets a demand. It is published monthly at 25c per year and Church contributions are allowed to apply as subscriptions, when the person sending the remittance so requests. The Amethyst promises to be a most important and influential factor in the warfare which our Church is waging against intemperance and the liquor traffic.

The Inter-Church Temperance Council.

In harmony with the action of our General Assembly of 1907 and previous Assemblies, on December 1st and 2nd, your Permanent Committee joined with the official representatives of the Baptist, Congregational, Disciples of Christ, Evangelical Lutheran, Methodist Episcopal and United Presbyterian Churches in holding the second session of The Inter-Church Temperance Council in Philadelphia, Pa. The Basis of Agreement, previously ratified by our Assembly was again adopted by the Temperance Council and, according to the instruction of our General Assembly, presented to the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The Federal Council having adopted a general rule not to establish any departments of moral or social reform, passed the following resolutions:

1. "Resolved, That in the judgment of the Council it is not best to establish departments of work such as are suggested in the paper from the Inter-Church Conference."

2. "Resolved, That the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America rejoices in the fact that so many of the denominations have appointed official temperance agencies, approves of their co-operation one with another, and express the hope that all other bodies represented in this Federal Council may take such action as to them may seem wise in support of temperance reform."

The Temperance Council, anticipating this action, had completed its organization, provisionally, and elected its officers, with the understanding that the organization should be permanent, in case the Federal Council did not establish a corresponding department. No such department being formed by the Federal Council, the organization of the Temperance Council therefore stands.

Legislation.

Your Committee supported the most important National Temperance Legislation enacted during the past year which was the passage by Congress of the Knox Bill. This prohibits express companies and other common carriers from acting as agents for liquor dealers; from delivering liquor to fictitious consignees and from shipping packages containing liquor from one state to another, unless such package is plainly labelled on the outside cover as to its contents and the quantity contained therein.

This is not all that was asked for and is needed. It does not respect the police power of prohibition states and permits liquor shipments, with consequent nullification of prohibitory laws to continue, but it is an advance step and will be helpful.

Another bill supported by your Committee was introduced in Congress providing for the establishment of a Commission to investigate the relation of intemperance and the liquor traffic to the moral, social, industrial and economic welfare, but failed of passage, though supported by all of the leaders of temperance in both Houses of Congress and by practically all the leading temperance organizations.

This measure should receive the support of all temperance people since it would give us authoritative data which no temperance organization has either the means or the authority to secure. Similar investigations have been made both by England and Canada and have proved helpful to the temperance reform.

Your Committee, as in former years, has used its influence with the National Government for the protection of the Indians against the liquor traffic and is gratified to report that the efforts of Mr. William E. Johnson, special Commissioner appointed by the Government for this work, have resulted in the conviction of a large number of the violators of the law. Our Church conducts an extensive mission work among the Indians and it is therefore proper that she should strive to prevent the neutralization of her efforts in behalf of these people.

In response to a request from the Evangelical Association of Hawaii, your Committee memorialized the President and both Houses of Congress for the better protection of the people of those islands against the ravages of the liquor traffic.

The March Of Progress.

This Committee in cooperation with other agencies has achieved the following results:

State-wide prohibition went into effect in Alabama, Mississippi and North Carolina, during the year and will become operative in Tennessee July 1st. Maine, Kansas, North Dakota, Oklahoma and Georgia previously had outlawed the traffic, making nine prohibition states up-to-date.

Operating under the county unit the legalized traffic has been abolished in 62 of the 88 counties in Ohio, in 62 of the 92 counties in Indiana, and in 31 counties in Michigan. Considerable areas in other states have been gained under various provisions. Vigorous campaigns have been waged in Texas, Arkansas, Missouri, Kentucky, West Virginia, Nebraska, Minnesota, Idaho and other states.

It is estimated that more than 300,000 square miles have been added to the no-license territory of the United States in the past twelve months and that more than 10,000 saloons have been abolished. In New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico little progress of a tangible character has been noted.

The details for each state and territory and many other kindred subjects may be found in the Year Book which accompanies this report.

Constructive Policy of the Committee.

The Presbyterian Church is responsible for her own temperance work according to her own principles and methods, and ought not to neglect it. The temperance reform has suffered, been delayed, and lost caste because the Church has not lived up to her duty. Therefore we propose a more vigorous campaign than heretofore conducted.

I. Education.

Education is fundamental in this reform. No matter what the laws of states or communities, the permanence of this movement depends upon personal abstinence and intelligent conviction as to biblical, economic, scientific and sociological principles of temperance reform.

This educational work should be conducted:

(1) By the pastor. He is the natural leader and educator of his people on this reform. Our suggestion is that the pastors in the several presbyteries make special preparation on particular phases of this subject and then arrange a series of pulpit exchanges so as to cover the whole question.

(2) By printers ink. The liquor traffic is flooding the country with misrepresentations and trying to stem the tide against their business; the Church must publish the facts, turn on the light and proclaim the truth. For this purpose we have established The Amethyst as our educational monthly which we wish to have go into every Presbyterian home. Our tract literature will be improved and furnished to churches free as heretofore.

(3) By Sunday-schools and young people's societies. Every effort should be made to stimulate the interest in the quarterly temperance topic and thus properly instruct and secure the cooperation of the rising generation. In this connection we wish to be understood as lending the fullest encouragement to temperance instruction in public schools, and deprecate any effort to repeal or weaken such laws.

(4) By the encouragement of total abstinence movements. Temperance reform needs to be buttressed on personal abstinence. The strategic movement among young people at present is a pledge-signing campaign.

(5) Out of door work. Open air meetings should be frequently held. Billboard posters, temperance streamers and banners are effective. The stereopticon can be used to fine advantage.

II. Legislation.

(1) The final aim of the temperance reform is constitutional prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages. In some states this has been accomplished; in others, partially so; and in still others little has been attained. Therefore the immediate legislative need in the various parts of our country varies with the condition of progress attained.

Local option has become a recognized method of progress, and we encourage this method where it meets the conditions and where State-wide Prohibition is not immediately attainable. Careful study of the practical operation of local option has convinced us that the county unit in such legislation produces the most satisfactory results and secures the most rapid progress.

(2) Synodical co-operation. We desire the completest harmony and co-operation with the various Synods in this work and propose the following plan: By mutual counsel of Presbyterian, Synodical and Assembly's temperance committees, each Synod should take official action as to the legislation needed within its boundaries, make its educational campaign accordingly, and present its official memorial to the Legislature by its duly authorized temperance agency.

(3) Local Civic Federation. Ordinarily it is unwise to advocate from the pulpit the election or defeat of particular candidates for political office; but if the churches have conducted the educational campaign with diligence, public sentiment may be easily crystallized in local civic organizations which will take care of political action and law-enforcement.

(4) Financing the work. Annual contributions from all our churches would provide ample funds for conducting this work. With the pastors caring for the educational work and arousing public sentiment many thousands of dollars will be saved to the Church each year.

(5) Local expense. Where Synods or Presbyteries determine officially to co-operate as above indicated, and instruct their churches to forward their temperance offering to the Assembly's Committee, our Treasurer will hold a portion thereof not to exceed 25%, subject to the call of such contributing agencies for meeting expense of local work.

The Final Goal.

While men and women drink liquor and transmit to their children a predisposition to its use; while some people ignorantly, innocently or willfully acquire an appetite for it; while we continue to regard intemperance simply as a sin or folly and not also as a contagion and a disease; while our treatment of those who are slaves to their appetite for this drug is not more intelligent and humane; while governments, local, state and national encourage and protect the manufacture and sale of liquor; while we suffer men to make our laws who have neither conscience nor courage on this subject; while the Church, which was intended to enshrine and perpetuate the spirit and message of the Master, does not apply herself with mighty earnestness to this problem, — so long the final goal, which is national prohibition of the manufacture, sale, transportation and importation, will never be reached. But the Church will apply herself and is already doing so. For centuries she has been sowing the seeds of fraternity, enlightenment and righteousness and a harvest must come. Then "we will neither eat flesh nor drink wine nor anything whereby our brother stumbleth or is offended or made weak," and through a consecrated ballot, the noblest aspirations of a noble people will be embodied in the noblest laws by noblest men.

The term of the following members of the Committee expires with this Assembly:

Ministers	Ruling Elders
Rev. E. Trumbull Lee, D.D.,	W. W. Shileds,
Rev. John F. Hill, D.D.,	W. R. Ziegler,
Rev. John Royal Harris, D.D.,	O. L. Miller, M.D.

Rev. William Parsons of Beaver Falls, Pa., is nominated to take the place of Rev. A. R. Van Fossen, D.D. resigned.

Herewith is also presented the Annual Report of the Treasurer.

All of which is submitted on behalf of the Permanent Committee.

JOHN F. HILL,
Corresponding Secretary.

Hear Book.

Points for Presbyterians.

This Year Book is bound with the reports of the Board and should not be ordered by ministers who have that volume, unless they need extra copies.

The Temperance Day program, consisting of music, recitations, responsive readings and statistics, will be ready early in September. It is furnished free to Presbyterian Sunday-schools and those who desire it should order at once, so that we may know how many to print.

Our three-colored temperance pledge card is attractive and popular. Write for a sample.

See that your treasurer sends the offering as soon as it is taken to Mr. William C. Lilley, 72 Conestoga Building, Pittsburgh, Pa.

If you desire a high class temperance lecturer, write to the Presbyterian Temperance Committee, Pittsburgh, and ask for Miss Brehm, Dr. Fulton or Mr. Scanlon. No charge to Presbyterian churches.

Have you seen the constitution and topic cards for The Presbyterian Temperance Union? Write for samples.

If you need literature, facts, or information on temperance write the Presbyterian Temperance Committee.

Consumption and Cost of Drink.

The following article is from "The American Prohibition Year Book", a most comprehensive and valuable temperance manual by A.E. Wilson, 92 La Salle St., Chicago, Ill.

The Bureau of Statistics, in estimating (in gallons) the per capita consumption of liquors, seems to have used about 87,207,079 as the population of the United States for the year ending June 30, 1908. The drink bill, therefore, is equivalent to $24.94 for every man, woman and child in the United States. Counting the average of four and a half persons to every family, which has been found approximately correct (varying slightly in different states), we find that the amount of money directly paid by the people to the liquor trade is $112.23 for every one of the families in the United States, there being 19,379,351 families on the above basis.

The National Drink Bill.
(The Money Cost.)

KIND	GALLONS	PRICE	AMOUNT
Domestic spirits	121,621,216	$6.25	$760,132,600
Imported spirits	3,758,088	8.00	30,064,784
Domestic wine	44,421,269	2.00	88,842,538
Imported wine	7,700,377	4.00	30,801,508
Domestic beer	1,821,418,322	.64½	1,174,814,817
Imported beer	7,314,126	1.00	7,314,126
Rectification	13,247,453	6.25	82,786,581

Grand total $2,174,766,954

This is not quite four and a half per cent less than last year.

In the preceding year the population seems to have been computed by the government at about 85,815,715 persons, being about 19,070,159 families. The per capita cost of liquor, therefore, was $26.51, which would be equal to $119.30 for every family last year.

Cost of the Average Saloon.

In the "American Prohibition Year Book for 1908," pages 54 and 55, an estimate was made based upon the number of retail liquor-selling places in the country which pay the special tax to the government, which were placed in round numbers for convenience at 250,000, the real number so paying being 254,714 in 1907. It is still entirely safe to use the same number, 250,000, as the saloons, though slightly reduced, still show 250,946 in 1908.

The national liquor expenditures being in 1908 $2,174,766,954, we find that each one of the 250,000 saloons absorbed $8,700 from the earnings of the people, the drain being $23.84 per day for 365 days in the year for each saloon.

It was shown that it would require forty drinkers of full average "holding capacity" to consume the more than 400 drinks per day sold by each average saloon. This puts ten millions of our people (overwhelmingly men) in the ranks of the regular saloon patrons. On the average each one of these drinkers expended about 60 cents per day for drink or about $4.20 per week or $217.47 per year out of his earnings, during 1908. This is all waste, and worse than waste. For the nation it means a waste of six millions of dollars every day in the year! Fully one-half of the families of the land are the victims of this most disastrous loss.

The reader is asked to bear these facts in mind, as they are referred to in other parts of this book. They have not been attacked. They will not be successfully controverted. When business men at large assert their own individuality, cease being led by the liquor men, but apply business auditing methods to the liquor traffic, they will see this waste, and will see that six millions of dollars per day are worth adding to the legitimate trade of the country.

Alcohol and Crime.

The School Physiology Journal, published at 23 Irull St., Boston, Mass. is one of the most valuable publications in the world on the temperance question. We take the following extract from it. — Ed.

“The Massachusetts Bureau of Statistics showed that “82 per cent (of criminals) were in liquor at the time of the offence”, and that “in 84 per cent the intemperate habits of the offenders led to a condition which induced the crime”, that “excluding minors, 96 per cent were addicted to the use of liquors” [ p. 60]. Chicago grand jury [Report of December, 1900], stated that “at least 90 per cent of all criminal cases coming directly before this body have some saloon connection, direct or indirect.” ( p. 61.)

Regarding the social evil, Dr. Sullivan asserts that “In rather less than 50 per cent of cases either chronic alcoholism or simple drunkenness is the causal condition.” (* p. 120.)

Prof. Hilier of Kiel reported that autopsies on 300 suicide showed that nearly 50 per cent were alcoholists, a minimum estimate since “the use of alcohol among young suicides though adequate to cause severe mental depression, could not have produced sufficient pathological changes in the internal organs to be observable in post-mortem examinations.” (* p. 116—17.)

Dr. W. C. Sullivan, medical officer in His Majesty’s prison service (England), shows that “in 220 consecutive observations of attempted suicide, the proportion due to alcoholism was 78 per cent, the usual condition present in four-fifths of the cases being drunkenness supervening on chronic intoxication.” (* p. 117.)

Investigation by Dr. Sullivan concerning homicides and aggravated assaults showed (*p. 119—20):

(1) “Of 200 male offenders convicted of murder or of grave homicidal attempts, 79 per cent were of alcoholic habits, and in 60 per cent the criminal acts was directly due to alcoholism.”

(2) “Of 500 cases of less serious character, chiefly aggravated assaults, 82 per cent were attributable to alcohol.” In nearly all intoxication had attained a fair degree of chronicity.

Abstinence decreases crime: e. g., San Francisco, Kansas City, Kansas, Maine etc.

Alcohol causes crime by producing physical deterioration of the delicate nerve elements of the brain "so that is finest, latest organized, least stable parts which subservise moral feeling and supreme will are marred." ( p. 191.)

Moral sense blunted or destroyed so that feeling of moral responsibility is lost. ( p. 195.)

Reasoning faculties befogged so that consequences of reckless, self-pleasing actions and inordinate sway of passions are not appreciated and crime inhibited. (* p. 112.)

Altruism decreased and ego unduly prominent, hence the rights of others are not considered as before.

(1) Children of drinkers are apt to be born with defective moral sense, weak or passionate nature, or with actual bent to crime (MacNicholl).

(2) Children may become vicious or criminal though exposure to bad environment due to parental habits.

Murder and Suicide.

The Chicago Tribune of January 1, 1909, summarizes crime of the previous year as follows [condensed]:

Murder Record:—Homicides in 1908 were caused by —

Quarrels.....	4,842	Resisting arrest.....	195
Unknown.....	816	Insanity.....	152
Liquor.....	786	Riots.....	51
By highwaymen.....	712	Self-defense.....	35
Jealousy.....	673	Strikes.....	26
Infanticide.....	451	Criminal outrage.....	15
Highwaymen killed..	198

"A noticeable feature of this record is the steady increase of murder by highwaymen and thugs. being 101 more than in 1907."

"The suicide record shows the same steady increase as it has done for several years past. The number for 1908 was 10,852 as reported in the public press. The following table shows the steady increase of self-murder:

1899.....	5,340	1904.....	9,240
1900.....	6,735	1905.....	9,982
1901.....	7,245	1906.....	10,125
1902.....	8,291	1907.....	10,782
1903.....	8,597	1908.....	10,852

"The causes of these suicides are states as follows, the classification, as in the case of homicides, being a general one:

Despondency.....	5,318	Ill health.....	718
Unknown.....	1,541	Business losses.....	632
Insanity.....	810	Liquor.....	536
Domestic infelicity....	778	Disappointed in love....	519

Alcohol and Insanity.

By Dr. H. S. Williamson in McClures Magazine.

Considering the United States as a whole, it is variously estimated that from 25 to 30 per cent of all the insane patients admitted to the asylums year by year owe their misfortune, directly or indirectly to the abuse of alcohol. The statistics of other countries are closely similar. In England and Wales, according to the estimate of Dr. Robert Jones, alcohol claims 17,000 victims among an asylum population of 116,000.

The testimony of Continental alienists is no less unequivocal, and the statistics upon which their opinions are based are no less suggestive as to the alarming increase in the ravages of alcohol in recent years. Thus the official returns from the asylum of St. Anne, in Paris, for the period 1872—1885 show that of 31,733 insane patients, 28 per cent of the men and less than 6 per cent of the women owed their condition to alcoholism. But of the patients in the same institution in 1900, according to Dr. Legrain, no fewer than 51 per cent of the men and 22 per cent of the women were alcoholics.

Altogether similar are the returns from the asylums of Vienna. According to Tilkowski, 14,391 insane patients were under treatment there during the period 1871—1882; and of these 25 per cent of the men were victims of alcohol. At the International Congress Against Alcohol, held in Vienna in 1901, it was shown that the corresponding percentages for these institutions had grown to over 31 per cent for the period 1885—1896. For the year 1894 and 1895, the figures rose to just over 40 per cent. —

Drs. Baer and Laquer report that in the asylums for the insane in Prussia, in the years 1880—1883, the proportion of alcoholics among the male patients was 30 to 32 per cent. In 1886 the proportion had risen to 35 per cent; in 1887 to 37 per cent; in 1888 to 40 per cent. If cases of congenital idiocy were included in the estimate, the power of alcohol made itself felt, in the last named year, to the extent of 45.5 per cent. The reports of individual asylums of Prussia are altogether confirmatory. Thus Dr. Nasse, at Sieburg, found alcohol a factor in the causation of insanity among 27 per cent of the male patients in the institution; Dr. Jung, in Libus, places the figures at 25 per cent of all admissions; and Dr. Pelham, at Grafenberg, reports 22 per cent of male patients in the same category.

London Council Asylum Record.

Since the opening of the London County Council Asylum at Claybury in 1892, the statistics for the first twelve years show that out of 10,688 persons (4,759 men, 5,949 women) who have been received, no less than 1,057 males and 742 females have been received with drink as an exciting or predisposing cause of their insanity, a proportion of 22 per cent of the men and 12 per cent of the women, or a total of 14 per cent of the whole.

Life Insurance and Total Abstinence.

A New York newspaper sent the following questions to the leading life insurance companies some time ago:

"As a rule, other things being equal, do you consider the habitual user of intoxicating beverages as good an insurance risk as the total abstainer? If not, why not?" Extract from the replies are given below:

- "No. Drink diseases the system."
- "No. Destructive to health."
- "No. Less vitality and recuperative power."
- "No. Use tends to shorten life."
- "No. Drink shortens life."
- "No. Drink cuts short life expectation."
- "No. Drink dangerous to health and longevity."
- "No. Predisposes to disease."
- "No. Reduces expectation of life nearly two-thirds."

J. G. Van Cise, actuary of the Equitable Life Assurance Society of the U. S., says: "A man known to drink to excess can rarely obtain a policy in any company, even under the most disadvantageous conditions."

A prominent company issues a circular to its agents which says: "Bartenders not taken. Saloonkeepers, generally not taken. Brewers, five dollars per thousand extra. Employes in breweries, five dollars per thousand extra. Waiters selling liquor, five dollars per thousand extra."

The Scepter Life Association found abstainers to be 25.12 per cent better risk than moderate drinkers, based on an experience of twenty-three years.

The Scottish Temperance Assurance Company found abstainers to be 25.66 per cent better risk than moderate drinkers.

The Chicago Record-Herald, September 20th, 1907, says: "No wise life insurance company will, if it knows it, accept a drunkard as a patron. *With the English records in mind, Americans who are total abstainers ought to insist on being insured in companies which reject drinkers, or at least give them a separate classification. *Hard drinkers have no claim to any charity at the expense of abstainers."

Wide and careful study by life insurance experts, extending over many years, shows that a man who is physically sound and temperate in his habits at twenty years of age may expect to live 44.2 years. Careful observations made by F. G. F. Nelson of London show that men who are drinkers at twenty will live on an average only 15.5 years; that is, total abstainers twenty years of age have a prospect of living 28.7 years longer than "intemperate men of the same age."

The United Kingdom and General Provident Institution of London, basing its estimate on an experience of 59 years (1847 to 1906), finds that total abstainers live on an average 13.2 years longer than "moderate drinkers".

Sir Thomas Whittaker shows from mortality tables covering a period of sixty years that abstainers are 36 per cent better risk than non-abstainers. And yet it is asserted that strong drink does not shorten life. There it is not a reputable life insurance company in the world but that will testify that strong drink does materially shorten life.

During the same period, a total 43,694 persons have been received into all the lunatic asylums of London, of whom 7,182 persons, viz., 16 per cent were definitely ascertained to owe their insanity to drink or intemperance.

“The Drink Problem”, by Kelynack.

The U. S. Supreme Court vs. the Liquor Traffic.

“No legislature can bargain away the public health or the public morals. The people themselves cannot do it, much less their servants.”—Stone vs. Mississippi, 101 U. S., 816.

“If the public safety or the public morals require the discontinuance of any manufacture or traffic, the hand of the legislature cannot be stayed from providing for its discontinuance by any incidental inconvenience which individuals or corporations may suffer. All rights are held subject to the police power of the state.”—Beer Co. vs. Mass., 97 U. S., 33.

“The statistics of every state show a greater amount of crime and misery attributed to the use of ardent spirits obtained at these retail liquor saloons than to any other source. The sale of such liquors in this way has therefore been at all times, by the courts of every state, considered as the proper subject of legislative regulation. Not only may a license be exacted from the keeper of the saloon before a glass of his liquor can be thus disposed of, but restrictions may be imposed as to the class of persons to whom they may be sold, and the hours of the day, and the days of the week on which the saloons may be opened. Their sale in that form may be absolutely prohibited. It is a question of public expediency and public morality, and not of federal law. The police power of the state is fully competent to regulate the business, to mitigate its evils, or to suppress it entirely. There is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors by retail. It is not a privilege of a citizen of the state or of a citizen of the United States. As it is a business attended with danger to the community, it may, as already said, be entirely prohibited, or be permitted under such conditions as will limit to the utmost its evils.” — Justice Field, U. S. Supreme Court, Crowley vs. Christensen, 137 U. S., 86; 11 Sup. Ct., 13.

Biblical Temperance.

The Presbyterian Temperance Committee publishes a tract under the above caption by Dr. Jas. Wallace, which is a most concise and yet comprehensive presentation of the subject. He takes those passages of scripture which appear to favor the use of strong drink and those which oppose it, reconciles them, discusses the problem historically, gives important general rules of interpretation and principles of conduct and makes the application all in 8 pages and concludes as follows:

“Total abstinence, then, I believe to be the Biblical law of conduct for the Christian of to-day. We must avoid being stumbling blocks, as both Christ and Paul have plainly taught, and total abstinence is the only way of doing this.

It may be added, in conclusion, that any other position involves the Christian in serious embarrassment. It compels him to confess, that, as he understands the Bible, it prescribes a lower standard for him than the State may prescribe for its citizens. The Supreme Court, and various State Courts, have decided that the State has a perfect legal right to prohibit the sale of intoxicants as beverages. The courts find this right in the central purpose for which civil government exist. Expounders of law are agreed that government has for its great end the maintenance of justice among men. If this is true, then a man may justly be enjoined from pursuing a business that increases his neighbor's taxes, multiplies crime, and renders it more difficult to rear children to lives of sobriety and virtue. So the courts have held. How embarrassing, therefore, would be our position if we had to admit, that while the prime purpose of the State justifies it in prohibiting the sale of intoxicants, the Bible, our great authority in religion, freely permits their use. As fundamental justice approves prohibition, so fundamental Biblical principles commend total abstinence.

Copies of this valuable tract may be secured by writing the Committee in Pittsburg, Pa.

Farmers and Drink.

The total value of all farm products for the year 1908 was $7,778,000,000. That was an income from the soil of $21,309,589 per day, of which liquor buys less than seven-tenths of one per cent, as shown under the head of "The Liquor Trade" on another page. Surely this is no basis for the liquor men's alarm cry that to cut off seven mills to the dollar of sales will "ruin" the farmers and bring on a disastrous "panic". Men who do their own thinking and decline to be frightened by bogus scare-crows will not go into convulsions of fear over this showing.

Looking at the Prohibition Side:--Referring to Census Bulletin No. 57, pages 24-25, we shall get some basic information on the subject of the total value of the product of manufactures and the cost of material. These figures are for 1905, as compared with 1900, showing an increase of 30 per cent in value of products in the five years. At the same rate, we add 18 per cent to the 1905 value to bring it to 1908, making it $17,466,533,563. The cost of material was $8,503,949,756 in 1905, to which we add 18 per cent as before, making $10,034,660,712 for 1908.

The total of distilled, malt and vinous liquors manufactured in 1905 and the cost of materials of same must first be increased by 18 per cent to bring it to 1908, and we find on page 85 of Bulletin 57 the figures for each, and adding the 18 per cent for the three years, we have materials, $125,352,427, and factory value of product, $520,057,236. To close the liquor factories means the deduction of that patronage from the manufacturing totals above found, leaving $16,946,476,327 as value of products, and $9,909,308,284 as cost of materials used. Comparing the value of manufactured products sold with the $7,778,000,000 farm products sold, we find that they stand at 68½ per cent for manufacturers and 31½ per cent of farm products.

Human wants are so largely covered by the multiform manufactured goods and the abundant and varied products of the farm that we shall not be making a violent supposition if we assume that when the drinkers "sober up" their savings will be spent directly in those channels or will ultimately reach them. Ten millions of families will each have over $200 extra per year to spend for necessities and comforts. The total thus at liberty will be at least $2,174,766,955, as shown on another page. Putting 68½ per cent of this into manufacturers will buy to the amount of $1,489,715,364, which is an absolutely new and "home-market" permanent and cumulative demand. Putting the balance into farmers' products gives a new, home-market and cumulative demand for these to the amount of $685,051,591. The assistant secretary of agriculture stated last June that the liquor men purchased about $54,000,000 of farm products. That amount the farmers will lose, but in its place will gain $685,051,591, a net gain, so far, of more than $631,000,000, which is more than eleven and a half times what the liquor men now pay them.

Can the farmers, and will the farmers, see the point? Of course they can and will.—American Prohibition Year Book.

Summary of the General Assembly's Temperance Action.

Rev. Luther A. Ostrander, D. D., Chairman of Standing Committee.

RESOLUTION 1. The Assembly heartily commends the zeal, wisdom and unflagging diligence of the officers and members of the Permanent Committee on Temperance, and rejoices in the splendid achievements of the year.

(2) The publication of "The Amethyst" is approved and pastors are requested to endeavor to have it introduced into all Presbyterian homes.

(3) "The constructive policy" outlined in the Permanent Committee's Annual Report is commended to the co-operation of presbyteries and synods.

(4) The action of the Permanent Committee in becoming a part of the Inter-Church Temperance Council is ratified.

(5) Approval is expressed of the grant of $1,000 by the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work for literature for the Temperance Committee.

(6) The Assembly rejoices that so many magazines and newspapers have eliminated liquor advertisements, and urges our people to exert their influence towards a like purging of the advertising columns of all periodicals that regularly enter their homes.

(7) That the last Sunday in October or such other date as may seem most opportune, is recommended as Temperance Day, to be observed in churches, Sunday-schools, Young People's Societies by instruction and the taking of offerings for the Temperance Committee.

(8) Women's Societies are cordially invited to active co-operation with the Permanent Committee in local work, especially in the endeavor to banish drink from the homes and the social sphere.

(9) Former deliverances are reiterated regarding the unalterable hostility of the Presbyterian Church to the liquor traffic; the inculcation and practice of total abstinence are urged and members are enjoined from renting property for liquor purposes, signing license petitions, or in any way making profit of the traffic.

(10) The memorials addressed to the general government as reported by the Permanent Committee are approved and the Committee is instructed to further memorialize the Congress for the establishment of a prohibition zone of twenty-five miles around each Indian reservation; also for such Inter-State Commerce legislation as shall prevent the nullification of prohibitory laws. The Committee is instructed to protest against our nation's iniquitous complicity with the traffic by licensing or deriving revenue from it; as also against the issuance of federal tax receipts to vendors of liquor in prohibition territory, and against the admission to the United States mails of liquor advertisements.

(11) Declaring the temperance reform to be a matter of education, the Assembly urges on every pastor his responsibility for such diligent teaching as may create a public sentiment that shall result in the indignant expulsion of this curse from our land.

(12) In view of the great importance of the temperance reform and the efficient work of the Assembly's Committee, all Presbyterian churches are urged to turn their offerings for temperance to their own Committee; to make large use of the literature and lecturers of the Committee, and it is recommended that an earnest effort be made on the part of our churches to raise an aggregate sum of $36,000 for the prosecution of this work.

(13) Our people are urged to insist upon and assist in the enforcement of laws by those who have been elected for that purpose.

(14) The use of tobacco by ministers and laymen is discouraged.

(15) Members of the Committee whose terms have expired are re-elected, and Rev. William Parsons fills a vacancy caused by resignation.

The work of the W. C. T. U., Anti-Saloon League, National Temperance Society, and other organizations is commended, but our people are urged to remember that the Permanent Committee is especially our own agency and worthy of most loyal support by every Presbyterian.

The General Assembly's Permanent Committee on Temperance of the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A.
